1. GENERAL INTRODUCTION

1. Scope of title.

This title seeks to draw together the main areas of law relating to the provision of financial services. The main objective is to explain those activities which are subject to regulation by the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> under the powers conferred upon it by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup>. Insurance broking and mortgage lending are also subject to regulation within this framework but these are dealt with separately elsewhere in this work<sup>3</sup>.

The title has three main strands of coverage. The first and most extensive strand<sup>4</sup> covers financial services regulation generally under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and subordinate legislation under that statute<sup>5</sup>. Anti-money laundering<sup>6</sup> and financial markets and insolvency<sup>7</sup> are also part of this strand. It does not include banking<sup>8</sup>, guarantee and indemnity<sup>9</sup>, money<sup>10</sup>, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments<sup>11</sup> and bills of sale<sup>12</sup>, which form the second strand of the title. Mutual societies (that is, building societies<sup>13</sup> and friendly societies<sup>14</sup>) and industrial and provident societies and credit unions<sup>15</sup> form the title's third strand.

2. The legislation.

Financial services generally are regulated by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, with much of the detailed provision contained in secondary legislation made under that Act. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 replaced the Financial Services Act 1986, and shares the same fundamental principles. It does, however, introduce some new elements.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 contains a general prohibition, which prohibits a person from carrying on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> unless he is either an authorised person<sup>4</sup> or an exempt person<sup>5</sup>. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 provides for the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> to be the sole regulatory authority for the financial services industry, with powers of authorisation<sup>7</sup>, supervision<sup>8</sup> and enforcement<sup>9</sup>. It creates a tribunal, known as the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal, to hear references from certain decisions of the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup>. The former prohibitions on investment advertisements and unsolicited calls are replaced with a new and broader scheme to control financial promotion<sup>11</sup>. In addition to powers of investigation and enforcement<sup>12</sup>, there are powers to impose penalties for market abuse<sup>13</sup> which supplement the provisions relating to insider dealing<sup>14</sup>. The Act also makes provision for consumer protection<sup>15</sup>, and provides for there to be a single compensation scheme<sup>16</sup> and a single ombudsman<sup>17</sup>.

This title is concerned with the regulation of the financial services industry, in particular by the Authority<sup>18</sup>. However provisions relating to shares and securities<sup>19</sup>, mortgages<sup>20</sup>, consumer credit<sup>21</sup>, insurance<sup>22</sup>, trusts<sup>23</sup>, and criminal offences such as fraud<sup>24</sup>, are dealt with elsewhere in this work.

1 The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 was passed (ie received the Royal Assent) on 14 June 2000. As to the commencement of the Act see s 431. As to the extent of the Act see s 430.

Neither the Isle of Man nor the Channel Islands are within the United Kingdom. See further CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 3.

4 As to authorised persons see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31; and PARA 314. The most usual way for a person to obtain authorisation is to apply for permission to carry on one or more regulated activities: see Pt IV (ss 40-55); and PARA 348 et seq. There are certain threshold conditions that must be met: see s 41 and Sch 6; and PARA 351.

3. The Treasury and the Secretary of State.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> is the government department responsible for managing the national economy, and its functions include the regulation of the financial services industry<sup>2</sup>. It is the Treasury that specifies the kinds of activities that are regulated activities for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>, and the Treasury appoints the chairman and other members of the governing body of the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>5</sup> also has certain powers under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>.

A Tripartite Memorandum originally concluded in 1997/1998<sup>7</sup> deals with the division of certain financial market responsibilities between the Treasury, the Authority and the Bank of England<sup>8</sup>. It does not, of course, override the terms of the applicable legislation.

1 As to the Treasury see further CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 As to the transfer of functions relating to financial services regulation from the Department of Trade and Industry to the Treasury see the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315 (amended by SI 2002/2840). As to the nationalising powers of the Treasury under the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 see PARA 791.

3 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22; and PARA 84. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

4 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the appointment of the chairman and other members of the governing body see PARA 13 et seq.

5 The one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State: see the Interpretation Act 1978 Sch 1. The office of Secretary of State is a unified office, and in law each Secretary of State is generally capable of performing the functions of all or any of them: see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 355.

6 Eg in relation to the institution of proceedings for offences under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 401: see PARA 572.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/1. GENERAL INTRODUCTION/4. The Financial Services Authority.

4. The Financial Services Authority.

In 1997 it was decided that the regulation of banking and investment services should be the responsibility of a single body. The Securities and Investments Board was replaced by the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup>, and in 1998 responsibility for banking supervision was transferred from the Bank of England<sup>2</sup> to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 provides for the abolition of other former regulatory bodies, such as the Building Societies Commission, the Friendly Societies Commission and the Registry of Friendly Societies and the transfer to the Authority of functions conferred by legislation relating to industrial and provident societies and credit unions<sup>4</sup>.

The Financial Services Authority is now the single regulator for the financial services industry<sup>5</sup>, responsible for the regulation of banks<sup>6</sup>, building societies<sup>7</sup>, friendly societies<sup>8</sup>, industrial and provident societies and credit unions<sup>9</sup> and insurance companies<sup>10</sup>, and it is also responsible for the regulation of Lloyd's of London<sup>11</sup>. The Authority is the competent authority for official listing<sup>12</sup>. The Authority has various powers, including powers aimed at combating market abuse<sup>13</sup>, powers to recognise and supervise investment exchanges and clearing houses<sup>14</sup>, powers in relation to competition scrutiny<sup>15</sup>, powers to regulate open-ended investment companies<sup>16</sup>, and powers to oversee the ombudsman scheme<sup>17</sup> and the compensation scheme<sup>18</sup>. It has rule-making powers and powers to give guidance<sup>19</sup>; for the most part the rules and guidance are contained in the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance<sup>20</sup>.

1 See the Financial Services Authority Press Release dated 28 October 1997. As to the Financial Services Authority see further PARA 6 et seq.

2 As to the Bank of England see PARA 74; and PARA 793 et seq.

3 See the Bank of England Act 1998; and PARA 793 et seq. The Bank of England does however retain various important functions: see PARA 793 et seq.

4 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 334-336, 338; and PARA 758 et seq. As to building societies see PARA 1856 et seq; as to friendly societies see PARA 2081 et seq; and as to industrial and provident societies and credit unions see PARA 2394 et seq.

5 Although the Financial Services Authority has sole overall responsibility for the supervision of financial services, certain other bodies have a subsidiary responsibility: eg the Bank of England (see PARAS 74, 793 et seq), the recognised clearing houses and investment exchanges (see PARAS 76, 684 et seq), the London Stock Exchange (see PARA 75), the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers (see PARA 439; and COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1480), Lloyd's (which retains various responsibilities in regard to the insurance market: see PARA 77; and INSURANCE), and the designated professional bodies (which are responsible for the regulation of financial services activities by their members: see PARA 749 et seq). Overseas regulatory authorities may have a role in enforcement: see PARA 79.

Where criminal offences may have been committed a number of different bodies may be involved as well as or instead of the Financial Services Authority, including the Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (eg in relation to insider dealing: see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE), the Serious Fraud Office (in cases of criminal fraud: see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARA 1089 et seq), the Crown Prosecution Service (where other criminal offences are involved) and the National Criminal Intelligence Service (in relation to money laundering: see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE). As to the Serious Fraud Office see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARA 1089 et seq; as to the Crown Prosecution Service see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARA 1079 et seq; and as to the National Criminal Intelligence Service see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 430 et seq.

(1) INTRODUCTION

5. The regulatory bodies.

As already indicated<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> is the main regulator under the legislative framework established by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>3</sup> plays a very important role in the settling of disputes and other matters. Reference should also be made to relevant regulatory bodies such as the Bank of England<sup>4</sup>, the London Stock Exchange<sup>5</sup>, other exchanges and clearing houses<sup>6</sup>, Lloyd's<sup>7</sup>, the Panel of Takeovers and Mergers<sup>8</sup> and EEA and overseas authorities<sup>9</sup>.

A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS

6. The Financial Services Authority and its general functions and duties.

The Financial Services Authority is an independent non-governmental body and has the functions conferred on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>.

The Authority's general functions are:

- 1 (1) its function of making rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (considered as a whole)<sup>2</sup>;
- 2 (2) its function of preparing and issuing codes under the Act (considered as a whole)<sup>3</sup>;
- 3 (3) its functions in relation to the giving of general guidance<sup>4</sup> (considered as a whole)<sup>5</sup>; and
- 4 (4) its function of determining the general policy and principles by reference to which it performs particular functions<sup>6</sup>.

In discharging its general functions the Authority must, so far as is reasonably possible, act in a way which is compatible with the regulatory objectives<sup>7</sup> of market confidence, public awareness, the protection of consumers and the reduction of financial crime<sup>8</sup>, and which the Authority considers most appropriate for the purpose of meeting those objectives<sup>9</sup>. In discharging its general functions the Authority must also have regard to:

- 5 (a) the need to use its resources in the most efficient and economic way<sup>10</sup>;
- 6 (b) the responsibilities of those who manage the affairs of authorised persons<sup>11</sup>;
- 7 (c) the principle that a burden or restriction which is imposed on a person, or on the carrying on of an activity, should be proportionate to the benefits, considered in general terms, which are expected to result from the imposition of that burden or restriction<sup>12</sup>;
- 8 (d) the desirability of facilitating innovation in connection with regulated activities<sup>13</sup>;
- 9 (e) the international character of financial services and markets and the desirability of maintaining the competitive position of the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>;
- 10 (f) the need to minimise the adverse effects on competition that may arise from anything done in the discharge of those functions<sup>15</sup>;
- 11 (g) the desirability of facilitating competition between those who are subject to any form of regulation by the Authority<sup>16</sup>.

The Authority must, in managing its affairs, have regard to such generally accepted principles of good corporate governance as it is reasonable to regard as applicable to it<sup>17</sup>.

Neither the Authority nor any person who is, or is acting as, a member, officer or member of staff of the Authority is liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge, or purported discharge, of the Authority's functions<sup>18</sup>.

For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 anything done by an accredited financial investigator within the meaning of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002<sup>19</sup> who is a member of the staff of the Authority or a person appointed by the Authority under the 2000 Act<sup>20</sup> to conduct an investigation, must be treated as done in the exercise or discharge of a function of the Authority<sup>21</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 1(1). The Authority is a body corporate (see s 1(1)) and exists as a company limited by guarantee. As to the constitution of the Authority see PARA 13 et seq. The Authority continues to be exempt from the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to the use of 'Limited' as part of its name: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 14. As to the requirements of the companies legislation relating to company names see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 200 et seq. If the Secretary of State is satisfied that any action taken by the Authority makes it inappropriate for the exemption given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 14 to continue he may, after consulting the Treasury, give a direction removing it: Sch 1 para 15. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

The Authority also has functions under the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, in particular Pt 2 (reg 6). The Regulations provide a new legislative framework for covered bonds in the United Kingdom. They implement the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 22(4); the Third Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 92/49 (OJ L228, 11.8.92, p 1) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance, and amending EC Directives 73/239 and 88/357) art 22(4); and the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 24(4). The relevant requirements of the above three directives are in the same terms. The Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346 also implement the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) Annex 6 para 68. A 'covered bond' is a class of corporate bond, issued by credit institutions and backed by certain assets, normally mortgages or public sector loans (see the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, reg 1). Interest and repayments of principal are payable out of ring-fenced assets ('an asset pool') backing the bond (see reg 3). Covered bonds that comply with the above directives' requirements benefit from higher prudential investment limits under the UCITS Directive and lower risk weights under the Banking Consolidation Directive. The Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, establish a new regime supervised by the Financial Services Authority and take account of United Kingdom practice in relation to covered bonds. In the United Kingdom, covered bonds are issued by credit institutions. The issuer lends the sums derived from the bonds to a separate legal entity owned by another person (the 'owner') (see reg 4). The owner uses the sums to purchase property which it holds in an asset pool. The owner agrees to guarantee the issuer's obligations to the covered bond holders. The loan is repaid once the bond holders' claims to the principal and accrued interest have been met. Part 1 (regs 1-5) contains definitions. Part 2 (reg 6) sets out the functions of the Authority and provides for it to have regard to certain considerations, including the need to preserve investor confidence in regulated covered bonds in the United Kingdom. Part 3 (regs 7-14) requires the Authority to maintain a register of issuers and a register of regulated covered bonds and sets out the registration process. Part 4 (regs 15-20) imposes requirements on issuers. Part 5 (regs 21-26) imposes requirements on owners (in particular, that the issuer and the owner must make arrangements for the maintenance and administration of the asset pool so that the claims of bond holders and other specified parties may be met). Part 6 (regs 27-29) establishes that regulated covered bond holders and other specified persons must be paid in priority to all other creditors, after the payment of expenses of the receivership or winding up etc; and provides for certain expenses incurred by a receiver or liquidator to rank above the payment of all other expenses. Part 7 (regs 30-38) has the enforcement powers of the Authority and the courts. Part 8 (regs 39-40) confers functions on the Financial Services and Markets Act Tribunal (as to which see PARA 43 et seq). Part 9 (regs 41-46) and the Schedule contain provision for notification of the European Commission, guidance to be issued by the Authority and various modifications of primary and secondary legislation (see also PARAS 16, 447, 448). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 2(4)(a). This does not apply to Part VI rules: see Sch 7 para 2(a); and PARA 385. As to the meaning of 'Part VI rules' see PARA 385. The power to issue statements of principle and codes of practice is to be treated for the purposes of s 2(4)(a) as part of the Authority's rule-making functions: s 64(11)(b). As to statements of principle and codes of practice see PARA 372. See also heads (2) and (4) in the text. As to the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/7. Monitoring and enforcement.

7. Monitoring and enforcement.

The Financial Services Authority must maintain arrangements designed to enable it to determine whether persons on whom requirements are imposed by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, or by any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>1</sup>, are complying with them<sup>2</sup>. Those arrangements may provide for functions to be performed on behalf of the Authority by any body or person who, in its opinion, is competent to perform them<sup>3</sup>. The Authority must also maintain arrangements for enforcing the provisions of, or made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or of any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>4</sup>.

1 le European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/8. The regulatory objectives.

8. The regulatory objectives.

The regulatory objectives are market confidence, public awareness, the protection of consumers and the reduction of financial crime<sup>1</sup>.

The market confidence objective is defined as the objective of maintaining confidence in the financial system<sup>2</sup>.

The public awareness objective is defined as the objective of promoting public understanding of the financial system<sup>3</sup>. In particular this objective includes:

- 12 (1) promoting awareness of the benefits and risks associated with different kinds of investment or other financial dealing<sup>4</sup>; and
- 13 (2) the provision of appropriate information and advice<sup>5</sup>.

The protection of consumers objective is defined as the objective of securing the appropriate degree of protection for consumers<sup>6</sup>. In considering what degree of protection may be appropriate, the Financial Services Authority must have regard to:

- 14 (a) the differing degrees of risk involved in different kinds of investment or other transaction<sup>7</sup>;
- 15 (b) the differing degrees of experience and expertise that different consumers may have in relation to different kinds of regulated activity<sup>8</sup>;
- 16 (c) the needs that consumers may have for advice and accurate information<sup>9</sup>; and
- 17 (d) the general principle that consumers should take responsibility for their decisions<sup>10</sup>.

The reduction of financial crime objective is defined as the objective of reducing the extent to which it is possible for a business carried on by a regulated person<sup>11</sup>, or in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>12</sup>, to be used for a purpose connected with financial crime<sup>13</sup>. In considering that objective the Authority must, in particular, have regard to the desirability of:

- 18 (i) regulated persons being aware of the risk of their businesses being used in connection with the commission of financial crime<sup>14</sup>;
- 19 (ii) regulated persons taking appropriate measures (in relation to their administration and employment practices, the conduct of transactions by them and otherwise) to prevent financial crime, facilitate its detection and monitor its incidence<sup>15</sup>;
- 20 (iii) regulated persons devoting adequate resources to the matters mentioned in head (ii) above<sup>16</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 2(2). These four objectives are the rationale for the Financial Services Authority's actions: see the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Enforcement Manual. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 3(1). For the purposes of ss 3, 4, 'financial system' means the financial system operating in the United Kingdom and includes: (1) financial markets and exchanges; (2) regulated activities; and (3) other activities connected with financial markets and exchanges: ss 3(2), 4(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 4(1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 4(2)(a).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 4(2)(b).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 5(1). For these purposes, 'consumers' means persons: (1) who are consumers for the purposes of s 138 (see PARA 21 note 5); or (2) who, in relation to regulated activities carried on otherwise than by authorised persons, would be consumers for those purposes if the activities were carried on by authorised persons: s 5(3). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to the extension of the definition to include those who before the commencement of the Act used the services provided by regulated persons in carrying on relevant activities see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) (Miscellaneous) Order 2001, SI 2001/1821, art 3. As to the extension of the definition to include those who before 2 July 2002 used the services provided by a credit union and those who are certain related persons see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consequential Amendments and Transitional Provisions) (Credit Unions) Order 2002, SI 2002/1501, art 4. As to credit unions generally see PARA 2402.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 5(2)(d).

11 'Regulated person' means an authorised person, a recognised investment exchange or a recognised clearing house: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 6(5). As to the meanings of 'recognised investment exchange' and 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684.

12 As to the meaning of 'general prohibition' see PARA 80.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 6(1). 'Financial crime' includes any offence involving: (1) fraud or dishonesty; (2) misconduct in, or misuse of information relating to, a financial market; or (3) handling the proceeds of crime: s 6(3). 'Offence' includes an act or omission which would be an offence if it had taken place in the United Kingdom: s 6(4). As to insider dealing see further; CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 331.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/9. Arrangements for consulting practitioners and consumers.

9. Arrangements for consulting practitioners and consumers.

The Financial Services Authority must make and maintain effective arrangements for consulting practitioners and consumers on the extent to which its general policies and practices are consistent with its general duties<sup>1</sup>.

The arrangements must include the establishment and maintenance of a panel of persons (known as the 'Practitioner Panel') to represent the interests of practitioners<sup>2</sup>. The Authority must appoint one of the members of the Practitioner Panel to be its chairman<sup>3</sup>. The Treasury's approval is required for the appointment or dismissal of the chairman<sup>4</sup>. The Authority must appoint to the Practitioner Panel such individuals who are authorised persons<sup>5</sup>, persons representing authorised persons<sup>6</sup>, persons representing recognised investment exchanges<sup>7</sup> and persons representing recognised clearing houses<sup>8</sup>, as it considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>. The Authority must have regard to any representations made to it by the Practitioner Panel<sup>10</sup>.

The arrangements must include the establishment and maintenance of a panel of persons (to be known as the 'Consumer Panel') to represent the interests of consumers<sup>11</sup>. The Authority must appoint one of the members of the Consumer Panel to be its chairman<sup>12</sup>. The Treasury's approval is required for the appointment or dismissal of the chairman<sup>13</sup>. The Authority must appoint to the Consumer Panel such consumers, or persons representing the interests of consumers, as it considers appropriate<sup>14</sup>. The Authority must secure that the membership of the Consumer Panel is such as to give a fair degree of representation to those who are using, or are or may be contemplating using, services otherwise than in connection with businesses carried on by them<sup>15</sup>. The Authority must have regard to any representations made to it by the Consumer Panel<sup>16</sup>.

The Authority must consider any representation made, in accordance with arrangements of the Authority, by the Practitioner Panel or by the Consumer Panel<sup>17</sup>. If the Authority disagrees with a view expressed, or proposal made, in the representation, it must give a statement in writing of its reasons for disagreeing<sup>18</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 8. As to the general duties of the Authority see s 2; and PARA 6. As to the Authority's Handbook generally see PARA 22.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 8 does not apply when the Authority is exercising functions under Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385 et seq) as the competent authority: s 72(2), Sch 7 para 3.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 9(4).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 10(1). For these purposes, 'consumers' means persons, other than authorised persons: (1) who are consumers for the purposes of s 138 (see PARA 21 note 5); or (2) who, in relation to regulated activities carried on otherwise than by authorised persons, would be consumers for those purposes if the activities were carried on by authorised persons: s 10(7). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the extension of the definition to include those who before the commencement of the Act used the services provided by regulated persons in carrying on relevant activities see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) (Miscellaneous) Order 2001, SI 2001/1821, art 3. As to the extension of the definition to include those who before 2 July 2002 used the services provided by a credit union and those who are certain related persons see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consequential Amendments and Transitional Provisions) (Credit Unions) Order 2002, SI 2002/1501, art 4. As to credit unions generally see PARA 2402.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 10(4).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 10(5). The Secretary of State may direct the Authority to appoint as a member of the Consumer Panel a person specified by the Secretary of State who (1) is a non-executive member of the National Consumer Council; and (2) is nominated for these purposes by the National Consumer Council after consultation with the Authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 10(5A) (s 10(5A)-(5C) added by the Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 s 39). Only one person may, at any time, be a member of the Consumer Panel appointed in accordance with a direction under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 10(5A); but that does not prevent the Authority appointing as a member of the Consumer Panel any person who is also a member of the National Consumer Council: s 10(5B) (as so added). A person appointed in accordance with a direction under s 10(5A) ceases to be a member of the Panel on ceasing to be a non-executive member of the National Consumer Council: s 10(5C) (as so added). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/10. Reviews by the Treasury.

10. Reviews by the Treasury.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may appoint an independent<sup>2</sup> person to conduct a review of the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the Financial Services Authority has used its resources in discharging its functions<sup>3</sup>. A review may be limited by the Treasury to such functions of the Authority (however described) as the Treasury may specify in appointing the person to conduct it<sup>4</sup>. A review is not to be concerned with the merits of the Authority's general policy or principles in pursuing regulatory objectives<sup>5</sup> or in exercising functions under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>.

On completion of a review, the person conducting it must make a written report to the Treasury setting out the result of the review, and making such recommendations (if any) as he considers appropriate<sup>7</sup>. A copy of the report must be laid before each House of Parliament, and published in such manner as the Treasury considers appropriate<sup>8</sup>. Any expenses reasonably incurred in the conduct of a review are to be met by the Treasury out of money provided by Parliament<sup>9</sup>.

A person conducting a review has a right of access at any reasonable time to all such documents<sup>10</sup> as he may reasonably require for purposes of the review, and may require any person holding or accountable for any such document to provide such information and explanation as are reasonably necessary for that purpose<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 'Independent' means appearing to the Treasury to be independent of the Financial Services Authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 12(7).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 12(1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 12(2).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 12(6).

10 'Documents' includes information recorded in any form and, in relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, references to its production include references to producing a copy of the information in legible form, or in a form from which it can readily be produced in visible and legible form: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1) (definition amended by the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 s 70, Sch 2 Pt 2 para 16(1), (2)(f)).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 13(1). Section 13(1) applies only to documents in the custody or under the control of the Authority: s 13(2). An obligation imposed on a person as a result of the exercise of powers conferred by s 13(1) is enforceable by injunction: s 13(3). As to injunctions see generally CIVIL PROCEDURE vol 11 (2009) PARA 331 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/11. Inquiries.

11. Inquiries.

The first case is where it appears to the Treasury<sup>3</sup> that:

- 21 (1) events<sup>4</sup> have occurred in relation to a collective investment scheme<sup>5</sup>, or a person who is, or was at the time of the events, carrying on a regulated activity<sup>6</sup> (whether or not as an authorised person<sup>7</sup>), which posed or could have posed a grave risk to the financial system<sup>8</sup> or caused or risked causing significant damage to the interests of consumers<sup>9</sup>; and
- 22 (2) those events might not have occurred, or the risk or damage might have been reduced, but for a serious failure in the system established by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, or by any previous statutory provision, for the regulation of such schemes or of such persons and their activities, or the operation of that system<sup>10</sup>.

The second case is where it appears to the Treasury that:

- 23 (a) events have occurred in relation to listed securities<sup>11</sup> or an issuer of listed securities which caused or could have caused significant damage to holders of listed securities<sup>12</sup>; and
- 24 (b) those events might not have occurred but for a serious failure in the regulatory system established by Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or by any previous statutory provision concerned with the official listing of securities or in the operation of that system<sup>13</sup>.

If the Treasury considers that it is in the public interest that there should be an independent inquiry into the events and the circumstances surrounding them, it may arrange for an inquiry to be held<sup>14</sup>.

If the Treasury decides to arrange for such an inquiry to be held, it may appoint such person as it considers appropriate to hold the inquiry<sup>15</sup>. The Treasury may, by a direction to the appointed person, control:

- 25 (i) the scope of the inquiry<sup>16</sup>;
- 26 (ii) the period during which the inquiry is to be held<sup>17</sup>;
- 27 (iii) the conduct of the inquiry<sup>18</sup>; and
- 28 (iv) the making of reports<sup>19</sup>.

The person appointed to hold an inquiry may obtain such information from such persons and in such manner as he thinks fit, make such inquiries as he thinks fit, and determine the procedure to be followed in connection with the inquiry<sup>20</sup>. The appointed person may require any person who, in his opinion, is able to provide any information, or produce any document<sup>21</sup>, which is relevant to the inquiry to provide any such information or produce any such document<sup>22</sup>. For the purposes of an inquiry, the appointed person has the same powers as the High Court in respect of the attendance and examination of witnesses (including the examination of witnesses abroad) and in respect of the production of documents<sup>23</sup>.

On completion of an inquiry<sup>24</sup>, the person holding the inquiry must make a written report to the Treasury setting out the result of the inquiry, and making such recommendations (if any) as he considers appropriate<sup>25</sup>. The Treasury may publish the whole, or any part, of the report and may do so in such manner as it considers appropriate<sup>26</sup>.

If the Treasury proposes to publish a report but considers that it contains material:

- 29 (A) which relates to the affairs of a particular person whose interests would, in the opinion of the Treasury, be seriously prejudiced by publication of the material<sup>27</sup>;
or
- 30 (B) the disclosure of which would be incompatible with an international obligation of the United Kingdom<sup>28</sup>, the Treasury must ensure that the material is removed before publication<sup>29</sup>.

The Treasury must lay before each House of Parliament a copy of any report or part of a report so published<sup>30</sup>.

If a person ('A') fails to comply with a requirement imposed on him by a person holding an inquiry, or otherwise obstructs such an inquiry, the person holding the inquiry may certify the matter to the High Court<sup>31</sup> which may inquire into the matter<sup>32</sup>. If, after hearing any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of A, and any statement made by or on behalf of A, the court is satisfied that A would have been in contempt of court if the inquiry had been proceedings before the court, it may deal with him as if he were in contempt<sup>33</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/A. GENERAL FUNCTIONS/12. Penalties under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

12. Penalties under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

In determining its policy with respect to the amounts of penalties to be imposed by it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the Financial Services Authority must take no account of the expenses which it incurs, or expects to incur, in discharging its functions<sup>1</sup>.

The Authority must prepare and operate a scheme for ensuring that the amounts paid to the Authority by way of penalties imposed under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 are applied for the benefit of authorised persons<sup>2</sup>. The scheme may, in particular, make different provision with respect to different classes of authorised person<sup>3</sup>. Up to date details of the scheme must be set out in a document (referred to as the 'scheme details')<sup>4</sup>. The scheme details must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public<sup>5</sup>.

Before making the scheme, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed scheme in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>6</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposals may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>7</sup>. If the Authority makes the proposed scheme, it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>8</sup> and its response to them<sup>9</sup>. If the scheme differs from the draft<sup>10</sup> in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant the Authority must<sup>11</sup> publish details of the difference<sup>12</sup>.

The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any scheme details published by it<sup>13</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft<sup>14</sup> or scheme details<sup>15</sup>.

B. CONSTITUTION

13. Constitution of the Financial Services Authority.

The constitution of the Financial Services Authority must provide for the Authority to have a chairman<sup>1</sup> and a governing body<sup>2</sup>. The governing body must include the chairman<sup>3</sup>. The chairman and other members of the governing body must be appointed, and be liable to removal from office, by the Treasury<sup>4</sup>.

The validity of any act of the Authority is not affected by a vacancy in the office of chairman<sup>5</sup> or by a defect in the appointment of a person as a member of the governing body or as chairman<sup>6</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 2(1)(a). The Authority must comply with the requirements as to its constitution set out in Sch 1: s 1(2). Schedule 1 also makes provision about the status of the Authority (see PARA 20) and the exercise of certain of its functions: s 1(3).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 2(1)(b).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 2(4)(a).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/14. Non-executive members of the governing body.

14. Non-executive members of the governing body.

The Financial Services Authority must secure:

- 31 (1) that the majority of the members of its governing body are non-executive members<sup>1</sup>; and
- 32 (2) that a committee of its governing body, consisting solely of the non-executive members, is set up and maintained for the purposes of discharging the functions conferred on the committee<sup>2</sup>.

The members of this non-executive committee<sup>3</sup> are to be appointed by the Authority<sup>4</sup>. The non-executive committee is to have a chairman appointed by the Treasury from among its members<sup>5</sup>.

The non-executive functions listed below are functions<sup>6</sup> of the Authority but must be discharged by the non-executive committee<sup>7</sup>. The non-executive functions are:

- 33 (a) keeping under review the question whether the Authority is, in discharging its functions in accordance with decisions of its governing body, using its resources in the most efficient and economic way<sup>8</sup>;
- 34 (b) keeping under review the question whether the Authority's internal financial controls secure the proper conduct of its financial affairs<sup>9</sup>; and
- 35 (c) determining the remuneration of the chairman of the Authority's governing body, and the executive members of that body<sup>10</sup>.

The committee must prepare a report on the discharge of its functions for inclusion in the Authority's annual report to the Treasury<sup>11</sup>. The committee's report must relate to the same period as that covered by the Authority's report<sup>12</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 3(1)(a).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 3(1)(b). The functions referred to in the text are those conferred on the committee by Sch 1.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 3(3).

6 For the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1, 'functions', in relation to the Authority, means functions conferred on the Authority by or under any provision of the Act: s 1, Sch 1 para 1(1).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 4(3)(a).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 4(3)(b). The function mentioned in Sch 1 para 4(3)(b) (see head (b) in the text) and those mentioned in Sch 1 para 4(3)(c) (see head (c) in the text) may be discharged on behalf of the committee by a sub-committee: Sch 1 para 4(4).

Any sub-committee of the committee must have as its chairman the chairman of the committee but may include persons other than members of the committee: Sch 1 para 4(5).

As to arrangements for discharging functions of the Authority see PARA 15.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 4(3)(c). See note 9.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 4(6). As to the Authority's annual report under Sch 1 para 10 see PARA 18.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/15. Arrangements made by the Financial Services Authority for discharging its functions.

15. Arrangements made by the Financial Services Authority for discharging its functions.

The Financial Services Authority may make arrangements for any of its functions<sup>1</sup> to be discharged by a committee, sub-committee, officer or member of staff of the Authority<sup>2</sup>.

However, in exercising its legislative functions<sup>3</sup>, the Authority must act through its governing body<sup>4</sup>. The Authority's legislative functions are:

- 36 (1) making rules<sup>5</sup>;
- 37 (2) issuing codes<sup>6</sup>;
- 38 (3) issuing statements<sup>7</sup>;
- 39 (4) giving directions<sup>8</sup>;
- 40 (5) issuing general guidance<sup>9</sup> or guidance on outsourcing by investment firms and credit institutions<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'functions' in relation to the Authority see PARA 14 note 6.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 5(1). Schedule 1 para 5(1) does not apply to the non-executive functions: Sch 1 para 5(3). As to the non-executive functions see PARA 14. As to the distribution of functions as seen by the Treasury, the Authority and the Bank of England see the Memorandum of Understanding between them; and see PARA 807.

3 See under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(a)-(d): see the text to notes 4-8.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 5(2)(a) (Sch 1 para 5(2) substituted by SI 2007/1973). The legislative function mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(e) (see the text to note 9) may not be discharged by an officer or member of staff of the Authority: Sch 1 para 5(2)(b) (as so substituted).

For modifications to Sch 1 paras 1(2), 5 when the Authority is exercising functions under Pt VI as the competent authority see s 72(2), Sch 7 para 5. See further PARA 385.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(a).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(b). As to the power to issue codes see s 64 (see PARA 372) and s 119 (see PARA 439).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(c). As to the power to issue statements see s 64 (see PARA 372), s 69 (see PARA 375), s 124 (see PARA 441) and s 210 (see PARA 467).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 1(2)(d). As to the power to issue directions see s 316 (see PARA 743), s 318 (see PARA 745) and s 328 (see PARA 752).

9 As to the meaning of 'general guidance' see PARA 35 note 1.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/16. Fees.

16. Fees.

The Financial Services Authority may make rules providing for the payment to it of such fees, in connection with the discharge of any of its functions<sup>1</sup> under or as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as it considers will (taking account of its expected income from fees and charges provided for by any other provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) enable it<sup>2</sup> to:

- 41 (1) meet expenses incurred in carrying out its functions or for any incidental purpose<sup>3</sup>;
- 42 (2) repay the principal of, and pay any interest on, any money which it has borrowed and which has been used for the purpose of meeting expenses incurred in relation to its assumption of functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the Bank of England Act 1998<sup>4</sup>; and
- 43 (3) maintain adequate reserves<sup>5</sup>.

In fixing the amount of any fee which is to be payable to the Authority, no account is to be taken of any sums which the Authority receives, or expects to receive, by way of penalties imposed by it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>. Any fee which is owed to the Authority under any provision made by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 may be recovered as a debt due to the Authority<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'functions' in relation to the Financial Services Authority see PARA 14 note 6.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(1). See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, which has schedules of fees and other payments in each sourcebook or manual. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(1)(a).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(1)(b). Schedule 1 para 17(1)(b) applies whether expenses were incurred before or after the coming into force of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the Bank of England Act 1998: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(3). As to the Authority's functions under the Bank of England Act 1998 see PARA 792 et seq.

Schedule 1 para 17 is to apply for the purposes of the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, as it applies for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, but with the following modifications: (1) Sch 1 para 17(1)(b), (c) is omitted; (2) for the reference in Sch 1 para 17(2) to 'penalties imposed by it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000' there is substituted a reference to 'penalties imposed by it under the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346'; and (3) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(3) is omitted: see the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, Schedule para 5. As to the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, generally see PARA 6 note 1.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(2). See note 4.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 17(4). The power conferred by Sch 1 para 17 may not be used to require: (1) a fee to be paid in respect of the discharge of any of the Authority's functions under Sch 3 para 13, 14, 19 or 20 (see PARAS 315, 323-324); or (2) a fee to be paid by any person whose application for approval under s 59 (see PARA 367) has been granted: Sch 1 para 18.

For modifications to Sch 1 para 17 when the Authority is exercising functions under Pt VI (ss 72-103) as the competent authority see s 72(2), Sch 7 para 7. See further PARA 385.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/17. Records.

17. Records.

The Financial Services Authority must maintain satisfactory arrangements for recording decisions made in the exercise of its functions<sup>1</sup> and for the safe-keeping of those records which it considers ought to be preserved<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 1 para 9(a). As to the meaning of 'functions' in relation to the Authority see PARA 14 note 6. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/18. Annual report.

18. Annual report.

At least once a year the Financial Services Authority must make a report to the Treasury<sup>1</sup> on:

- 44 (1) the discharge of its functions<sup>2</sup>;
- 45 (2) the extent to which, in its opinion, the regulatory objectives<sup>3</sup> have been met<sup>4</sup>;
- 46 (3) its consideration of matters relating to the discharge of its general functions<sup>5</sup>;
- and
- 47 (4) such other matters as the Treasury may from time to time direct<sup>6</sup>.

This report must be accompanied by the report prepared by the non-executive committee<sup>7</sup> and such other reports or information, prepared by such persons, as the Treasury may from time to time direct<sup>8</sup>.

The Treasury must lay before Parliament a copy of each such report received by it<sup>9</sup>.

The Treasury may require the Authority to comply with any provisions of the Companies Act 2006 about accounts and its audit which would not otherwise apply to it<sup>10</sup>, or direct that any such provision of the Companies Act 2006 is to apply to the Authority with such modifications as are specified in the direction<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(i) The Financial Services Authority/B. CONSTITUTION/19. Annual public meeting.

19. Annual public meeting.

Not later than three months after making its annual report<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority must hold a public meeting for the purposes of enabling that report to be considered<sup>2</sup>.

The Authority must organise the annual meeting so as to allow:

- 48 (1) a general discussion of the contents of the report which is being considered<sup>3</sup>; and
- 49 (2) a reasonable opportunity for those attending the meeting to put questions to the Authority about the way in which it discharged, or failed to discharge, its functions<sup>4</sup> during the period to which the report relates<sup>5</sup>.

Otherwise the annual meeting is to be organised and conducted in such a way as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority must give reasonable notice of its annual meeting<sup>7</sup>. That notice must:

- 50 (a) give details of the time and place at which the meeting is to be held<sup>8</sup>;
- 51 (b) set out the proposed agenda for the meeting<sup>9</sup>;
- 52 (c) indicate the proposed duration of the meeting<sup>10</sup>;
- 53 (d) give details of the Authority's arrangements for enabling persons to attend<sup>11</sup>; and
- 54 (e) be published by the Authority in the way appearing to it to be most suitable for bringing the notice to the attention of the public<sup>12</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to alter any of the arrangements which have been included in the notice it must give reasonable notice of the alteration<sup>13</sup> and publish that notice in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>14</sup>.

Not later than one month after its annual meeting, the Authority must publish a report of the proceedings of the meeting<sup>15</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/A. IN GENERAL/21. General rule-making power.

(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority

A. IN GENERAL

21. General rule-making power.

- 55 (1) with respect to the carrying on by them of regulated activities<sup>3</sup>; or
- 56 (2) with respect to the carrying on by them of activities which are not regulated activities<sup>4</sup>, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of protecting the interests of consumers<sup>5</sup>. The Authority may also make such rules applying to authorised persons who are investments firms or credit institutions, with respect to the provision by them of a relevant ancillary service, as appear to the Authority to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of protecting the interests of consumers<sup>6</sup>. Such rules<sup>7</sup> are referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the Authority's 'general rules'<sup>8</sup>. The Authority's power to make general rules is not limited by any other power which it has to make regulating provisions<sup>9</sup>.

The Authority's general rules may make provision applying to authorised persons even though there is no relationship between the authorised persons to whom the rules will apply and the persons whose interests will be protected by the rules<sup>10</sup>.

General rules may contain requirements which take into account, in the case of an authorised person who is a member of a group<sup>11</sup>, any activity of another member of the group<sup>12</sup>.

General rules may not:

- 57 (a) make provision prohibiting an EEA firm<sup>13</sup> from carrying on, or holding itself out as carrying on, any activity which it has permission<sup>14</sup> to carry on in the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>;
- 58 (b) make provision, as respects an EEA firm, about any matter responsibility for which is, under any of the Single Market Directives<sup>16</sup>, reserved to the firm's home state regulator<sup>17</sup>.

General rules<sup>18</sup> may require a relevant authorised person<sup>19</sup> to pay interest in specified<sup>20</sup> circumstances in respect of claims made for compensation<sup>21</sup>.

- 1 As to the constitution and general functions of the Financial Services Authority see PARA 6 et seq. As to the Authority's Handbook generally see PARA 22.
- 2 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.
- 3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(1)(a).
- 4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(1)(b).
- 5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(1). 'Consumers' means persons:
  - 1 (1) who use, have used, or are or may be contemplating using, any of the services provided by: (a) authorised persons in carrying on regulated activities (s 138(7)(a)(i)); (b) authorised persons who are investment firms or credit institutions in providing a relevant ancillary service (s 138(7)(a)(ia) (added by SI 2006/2975)); or (c) persons acting as appointed representatives (see PARA 346) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(7)(a)(ii));
  - 2 (2) who have rights or interests which are derived from, or are otherwise attributable to, the use of any such services by other persons (s 138(7)(b)); or
  - 3 (3) who have rights or interests which may be adversely affected by the use of any such services by persons acting on their behalf or in a fiduciary capacity in relation to them (s 138(7)(c)).

In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 'investment firm' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(1) (s 424A added by SI 2006/2975). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(1) is subject to s 424A(3)-(5): s 424A(2) (as so added). References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to an 'investment firm' include references to a person who would be an investment firm (within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.1) if, in the case of a body corporate, his registered office or, if he has no registered office, his head office; and, in the case of a person other than a body corporate, his head office, were in an EEA state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(3) (s 424A as so added; s 424A(3) substituted by SI 2007/126). However the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(3) does not apply if the person in question is one to whom the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) would not apply by virtue of art 2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(4) (as so added). References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to an 'investment firm' do not include references to (i) a person to whom the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) does not apply by virtue of art 2; or (ii) a person whose home member state (within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.20) is an EEA state and to whom, by reason of the fact that the state has given effect to art 3, that directive does not apply by virtue of that article: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A(5) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

'Credit institution' means: (A) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of credit institutions); or (B) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) if it had its registered office (or if it does not have a registered office, its head office) in an EEA state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(1B) (s 138(1A)-(1C) added by SI 2006/2975). 'Relevant ancillary service' means any service of a kind mentioned in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) Annex 1 Section B the provision of which does not involve the carrying on of a regulated activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138(1C) (as so added).

If an authorised person is carrying on a regulated activity in his capacity as a trustee, the persons who are, have been or may be beneficiaries of the trust are to be treated as persons who use, have used or are or may be contemplating using services provided by the authorised person in his carrying on of that activity: s 138(8).

For the purposes of s 138(7), a person who deals with an authorised person in the course of the authorised person's carrying on of a regulated activity is to be treated as using services provided by the authorised person in carrying on those activities: s 138(9). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, see PARA 6.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/A. IN GENERAL/22. Handbook of Rules and Guidance.

22. Handbook of Rules and Guidance.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> gives to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> a number of rule-making powers and powers to give guidance. The Act requires the Authority to exercise its rule-making powers in writing. It describes the document by which the rules are made as a 'rule-making instrument' and imposes a number of requirements, including a requirement to publish it<sup>3</sup>. For the most part the rules are contained in the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance<sup>4</sup>. The Handbook is available on the Internet, on CD-ROM and on paper. In the latter two forms it is intended to provide a continuously updated consolidation of the contents of the instruments by which the provisions in the Handbook are made, and all instruments by which provisions in the Handbook are made or amended are published in full on the Authority's website.

The Handbook consists of sourcebooks (providing sources of the Authority's requirements and guidance) and manuals (containing processes to be followed), each divided into chapters<sup>5</sup>. Each chapter is divided into sections and each section into paragraphs of provisions with an icon indicating the paragraph's regulatory status. The different types of provisions and icons include the following:

- 59 (1) rules ('R'), including general rules<sup>6</sup>, specialised rules<sup>7</sup>, listing rules<sup>8</sup> and rules made under other powers and the Principles for Business;
- 60 (2) directions and requirements ('D') under various powers conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup>;
- 61 (3) Statements of Principle ('P') for approved persons<sup>10</sup>;
- 62 (4) descriptions of behaviour<sup>11</sup> ('C') which, in the Authority's opinion, do not amount to market abuse;
- 63 (5) evidential provisions<sup>12</sup> ('E');
- 64 (6) guidance<sup>13</sup> ('G') relating to the operation of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the rules in the Handbook and other matters; and
- 65 (7) non-Authority legislative material relating to the UK ('UK') and the EU ('EU').

5   The sourcebooks and manuals are arranged into groups according to their subject matter. Each sourcebook or manual has an appropriate reference code. They may have one or more appendices and, similarly, the chapters may have annexes to them with material supplementing the contents of the chapter. 13   Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 157: see PARA 34. 'G' is also used for the Authority's statement of the procedure for giving statutory notices under s 395 (see PARA 777), the Authority's statements of policies on penalties as required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the conduct of interviews to which a direction under s 169(7) (see PARA 450) has been given or the Authority is considering giving. 'G' is also used to indicate the arrangements made by the Authority under Sch 1 para 7 (see PARAS 16, 36) for the investigation of complaints arising in connection with its exercise or non-exercise of its non-legislative functions and to indicate background information which is not guidance under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/A. IN GENERAL/23. Modification or waiver of certain rules.

23. Modification or waiver of certain rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, on the application or with the consent of a person who is subject to rules<sup>2</sup> made by the Authority, direct that all or any of the rules<sup>3</sup> are not to apply to that person<sup>4</sup> or are to apply to him with such modifications as may be specified in the direction<sup>5</sup>.

An application must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority may not give a direction unless it is satisfied that:

- 66 (1) compliance by the person with the rules, or with the rules as unmodified, would be unduly burdensome or would not achieve the purpose for which the rules were made<sup>7</sup>; and
- 67 (2) the direction would not result in undue risk to persons whose interests the rules are intended to protect<sup>8</sup>.

A direction may be given subject to conditions<sup>9</sup>.

Unless it is satisfied that it is inappropriate or unnecessary to do so, a direction must be published by the Authority in such a way as it thinks most suitable for bringing the direction to the attention of those likely to be affected by it<sup>10</sup> and others who may be likely to make an application for a similar direction<sup>11</sup>. In deciding whether it is so satisfied, the Authority must:

- 68 (a) take into account whether the direction relates to a rule contravention of which is actionable<sup>12</sup>;
- 69 (b) consider whether its publication would prejudice, to an unreasonable degree, the commercial interests of the person concerned or any other member of his immediate group<sup>13</sup>; and
- 70 (c) consider whether its publication would be contrary to an international obligation of the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>.

For the purposes of heads (b) and (c) above, the Authority must consider whether it would be possible to publish the direction without either of the consequences mentioned in those heads by publishing it without disclosing the identity of the person concerned<sup>15</sup>.

The Authority may revoke a direction<sup>16</sup> or vary it on the application, or with the consent, of the authorised person to whom it relates<sup>17</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/A. IN GENERAL/24. Rule-making instruments.

24. Rule-making instruments.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> makes any rules, it must give a copy to the Treasury<sup>2</sup> without delay<sup>3</sup>. If the Authority alters or revokes any rules, it must give written notice to the Treasury without delay<sup>4</sup> and such notice must include details of the alteration<sup>5</sup>.

Any power conferred on the Authority to make rules is exercisable in writing<sup>6</sup>. A rule-making instrument must specify the provision under which the rules are made<sup>7</sup>. A rule-making instrument must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>8</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a rule-making instrument<sup>9</sup>. A person is not to be taken to have contravened any rule made by the Authority if he shows that at the time of the alleged contravention the rule-making instrument concerned had not been made available as described above<sup>10</sup>.

The production of a printed copy of a rule-making instrument purporting to be made by the Authority on which is indorsed a certificate signed by a member of the Authority's staff authorised by it for that purpose<sup>11</sup>, and which contains the required statements<sup>12</sup>, is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate<sup>13</sup>. A certificate purporting to be signed is to be taken to have been properly signed unless the contrary is shown<sup>14</sup>. A person who wishes in any legal proceedings to rely on a rule-making instrument may require the Authority to indorse a copy of the instrument with a certificate<sup>15</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to make any rules, it must publish a draft of the proposed rules in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public<sup>16</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by:

- 71 (1) a cost benefit analysis<sup>17</sup>;
- 72 (2) an explanation of the purpose of the proposed rules<sup>18</sup>;
- 73 (3) an explanation of the Authority's reasons for believing that making the proposed rules is compatible with its general duties<sup>19</sup>; and
- 74 (4) notice that representations about the proposals may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>20</sup>.

In the case of a proposal to make rules under certain provisions<sup>21</sup>, the draft must also be accompanied by details of the expected expenditure by reference to which the proposal is made<sup>22</sup>. Before making the proposed rules, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with head (4) above<sup>23</sup>.

If the Authority makes the proposed rules, it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>24</sup> and its response to them<sup>25</sup>.

If the rules differ from the draft<sup>26</sup> in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant, the Authority must<sup>27</sup> publish details of the difference<sup>28</sup> and those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>29</sup>.

Rules made by the Authority may make different provision for different cases and may, in particular, make different provision in respect of different descriptions of authorised person<sup>30</sup>, activity or investment<sup>31</sup>. Rules may contain such incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>32</sup>.

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 155(1). The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published under s 155(1): s 155(12). Section 155(1)-(6) does not apply if the Authority considers that the delay involved in complying with it would be prejudicial to the interests of consumers: s 155(7).

For modifications to s 155 when the Authority is exercising functions under Pt VI as the competent authority see s 72(2), Sch 7 para 4(2). See further PARA 385.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 155(2)(a). See note 16. 'Cost benefit analysis' means an estimate of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise (1) if the proposed rules are made; or (2) if s 155(6) (see the text and notes 28-29) applies, from the rules that have been made: s 155(10).

Section 155(2)(a) does not require a cost benefit analysis to be carried out in relation to rules made under s 136(2) (see PARA 68), s 213(1) (see PARA 584), s 234 (see PARA 575) or Sch 1 para 17 (see PARA 16): s 155(9).

Section 155(2)(a) does not apply if the Authority considers: (a) that, making the appropriate comparison, there will be no increase in costs; or (b) that, making that comparison, there will be an increase in costs but the increase will be of minimal significance: s 155(8). 'Appropriate comparison' means: (i) in relation to head (1) in the text, a comparison between the overall position if the rules are made and the overall position if they are not made; (ii) in relation to head (ii) in the text, a comparison between the overall position after the making of the rules and the overall position before they were made: s 155(11).

Rules relating to clients' money etc.

B. RULES FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSES

25. Rules relating to clients' money etc.

General rules<sup>1</sup> relating to the handling of clients' money (that is, money held by an authorised person<sup>2</sup> in specified<sup>3</sup> circumstances) may:

- 75 (1) make provision which results in clients' money being held on trust in accordance with the rules<sup>4</sup>;
- 76 (2) treat two or more accounts as a single account for specified purposes (which may include the distribution of money held in the accounts)<sup>5</sup>;
- 77 (3) authorise the retention by the authorised person of interest accruing on clients' money<sup>6</sup>; and
- 78 (4) make provision as to the distribution of such interest which is not to be retained by him<sup>7</sup>.

An institution with which an account is kept in pursuance of rules relating to the handling of clients' money does not incur any liability as constructive trustee<sup>8</sup> if money is wrongfully paid from the account, unless the institution permits the payment:

- 79 (a) with knowledge that it is wrongful<sup>9</sup>; or
- 80 (b) having deliberately failed to make inquiries in circumstances in which a reasonable and honest person would have done so<sup>10</sup>.

General rules may confer rights on persons to rescind agreements with, or withdraw offers to, authorised persons within a specified period<sup>11</sup> and may make provision, in respect of authorised persons and persons exercising those rights, for the restitution of property and the making or recovery of payments where those rights are exercised<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/B. RULES FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSES/27. Insurance business rules and regulations.

27. Insurance business rules and regulations.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules prohibiting an authorised person<sup>2</sup> who has permission to effect or carry out contracts of insurance<sup>3</sup> from carrying on a specified activity<sup>4</sup>. Such rules may specify an activity which is not a regulated activity<sup>5</sup>.

The Authority may make rules in relation to contracts entered into by an authorised person in the course of carrying on business which consists of the effecting or carrying out of contracts of long-term insurance<sup>6</sup>. Such rules may, in particular:

- 81 (1) restrict the descriptions of property or indices of the value of property by reference to which the benefits under such contracts may be determined<sup>7</sup>;
- 82 (2) make provision, in the interests of the protection of policyholders<sup>8</sup>, for the substitution of one description of property, or index of value, by reference to which the benefits under a contract are to be determined for another such description of property or index<sup>9</sup>.

Rules made as described above<sup>10</sup> are referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as insurance business rules<sup>11</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>12</sup> may make regulations for the purpose of preventing a person who is not an authorised person but who is a parent undertaking<sup>13</sup> of an authorised person who has permission to effect or carry out contracts of insurance<sup>14</sup>, and falls within a prescribed class<sup>15</sup>, from doing anything to lessen the effectiveness of asset identification rules<sup>16</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular, include provision:

- 83 (a) prohibiting the payment of dividends<sup>17</sup>;
- 84 (b) prohibiting the creation of charges<sup>18</sup>;
- 85 (c) making charges created in contravention of the regulations void<sup>19</sup>.

The Treasury may by regulations provide that, in prescribed circumstances, charges created in contravention of asset identification rules are void<sup>20</sup>.

A person who contravenes the regulations is guilty of an offence<sup>21</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/B. RULES FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSES/28. Price stabilising rules.

28. Price stabilising rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make price stabilising rules, that is rules as to the circumstances and manner in which<sup>2</sup>, the conditions subject to which<sup>3</sup>, and the time when or the period during which<sup>4</sup>, action may be taken for the purpose of stabilising the price of investments of specified kinds<sup>5</sup>.

Price stabilising rules are to be made so as to apply only to authorised persons<sup>6</sup> and they may make different provision in relation to different kinds of investment<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority may make rules which<sup>8</sup> treat a person who acts or engages in conduct:

86 (1) for the purpose of stabilising the price of investments<sup>9</sup>; and

87 (2) in conformity with such provisions corresponding to price stabilising rules and made by a body or authority outside the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup> as may be specified in the rules under this provision<sup>11</sup>, as acting, or engaging in that conduct, for that purpose and in conformity with price stabilising rules<sup>12</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>13</sup> may by order impose limitations on the power to make price stabilising rules<sup>14</sup>.

- 12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 144(3). If provisions specified in rules made under s 144(3) are altered, the rules continue to apply to those provisions as altered, but only if before the alteration the Authority has notified the body or authority concerned (and has not withdrawn its notification) that it is satisfied with its consultation procedures: s 144(6). 'Consultation procedures' means procedures designed to provide an opportunity for persons likely to be affected by alterations to those provisions to make representations about proposed alterations to any of those provisions: s 144(7) (substituted by the Companies Act 2006 s 964(1), (3)).

- 4 (1) specify the kinds of investment in relation to which price stabilising rules may make provision (s 144(5)(a));
  - 5 (2) specify the kinds of investment in relation to which rules made under s 144(3) may make provision (s 144(5)(b));
  - 6 (3) provide for price stabilising rules to make provision for action to be taken for the purpose of stabilising the price of investments only in such circumstances as the order may specify (s 144(5)(c));
  - 7 (4) provide for price stabilising rules to make provision for action to be taken for that purpose only at such times or during such periods as the order may specify (s 144(5)(d)).
- No order is to be made under s 144(4) unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(1)(a).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/B. RULES FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSES/29. Financial promotion rules.

29. Financial promotion rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules applying to authorised persons<sup>2</sup> about the communication by them, or their approval of the communication by others, of invitations or inducements to engage in investment activity<sup>3</sup> or to participate in a collective investment scheme<sup>4</sup>. Such rules<sup>5</sup> may, in particular, make provision about the form and content of communications<sup>6</sup>. The Treasury<sup>7</sup> may by order impose limitations on the power to make such financial promotion rules<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to the constitution and general functions of the Financial Services Authority see PARA 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Business Standards, Conduct of Business Sourcebook (COBS). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 145(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'engage in investment activity' see PARA 225; definition applied by s 145(4).

Section 145(1) applies only to communications which:

8 (1) if made by a person other than an authorised person, without the approval of an authorised person, would contravene s 21(1) (the restriction on financial promotion) (see PARA 225) (s 145(3)(a));

9 (2) may be made by an authorised person without contravening s 238(1) (restriction on promotion of a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 605) (s 145(3)(b)).

However s 145(3) does not prevent the Authority from making rules under s 145(1) in relation to a communication that would not contravene s 21(1) if made by a person other than an authorised person, without the approval of an authorised person, if the conditions set out in s 145(3B) are satisfied: s 145(3A) (s 145(3A), (3B) added by SI 2006/2975). Those conditions are:

10 (a) that the communication would not contravene the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) because it is a communication to which that provision does not apply as a result of an order under s 21(5) (see PARA 225) (s 145(3B)(a) (as so added));

11 (b) that the Authority considers that any of the requirements of (i) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 19(1)-(8); or (ii) any implementing measure made under art 19(10), apply to the communication (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 145(3B)(b) (as so added)); and 12 (c) that the Authority considers that the rules are necessary to secure that the communication satisfies such of the requirements mentioned in head (b) as the Authority considers apply to the communication (s 145(3B)(c) (as so added)).

30. Money laundering rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules in relation to the prevention and detection of money laundering<sup>2</sup> in connection with the carrying on of regulated activities<sup>3</sup> by authorised persons<sup>4</sup>.

At the time of writing, the Authority only imposes high level requirements for institutions to put in place appropriate risk-based procedures to counteract money laundering<sup>5</sup>. However, institutions are of course required to comply with other, statutory requirements relating to money laundering<sup>6</sup>.

31. Control of information rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules about the disclosure and use of information held by an authorised person ('A')<sup>2</sup>. These are known as 'control of information rules' and they may:

- 88 (1) require the withholding of information which A would otherwise have to disclose to a person ('B') for or with whom A does business in the course of carrying on any regulated or other activity<sup>3</sup>;
- 89 (2) specify circumstances in which A may withhold information which he would otherwise have to disclose to B<sup>4</sup>;
- 90 (3) require A not to use for the benefit of B information A holds which A would otherwise have to use in that way<sup>5</sup>;
- 91 (4) specify circumstances in which A may decide not to use for the benefit of B information A holds which A would otherwise have to use in that way<sup>6</sup>.

C. CONTRAVENTION OF RULES

32. Evidential rules.

If a particular rule<sup>1</sup> so provides, contravention of the rule does not give rise to any of the consequences provided for by other provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup>. A rule which so provides must also provide:

- 92 (1) that contravention may be relied on as tending to establish contravention of such other rule as may be specified<sup>3</sup>; or
- 93 (2) that compliance may be relied on as tending to establish compliance with such other rule as may be specified<sup>4</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 149(1). A rule may include such provision only if the Financial Services Authority considers that it is appropriate for it also to include the provision required by s 149(2) (see the text and notes 3-4): s 149(3). As to the constitution and general functions of the Financial Services Authority see PARA 6 et seq.

When the Authority is exercising functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385) as the competent authority, s 149 does not apply: s 72(2), Sch 7 para 4(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(ii) Rules and Guidance by the Financial Services Authority/C. CONTRAVENTION OF RULES/33. Actions for damages, and limits on effect of contravention.

33. Actions for damages, and limits on effect of contravention.

A contravention by an authorised person<sup>1</sup> of a rule<sup>2</sup> is generally actionable at the suit of a private person<sup>3</sup> who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to claims for breach of statutory duty<sup>4</sup>.

In prescribed cases, a contravention of a rule which would be actionable at the suit of a private person is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to claims for breach of statutory duty<sup>5</sup>.

A person is not guilty of an offence by reason of a contravention of a rule made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>. No such contravention makes any transaction void or unenforceable<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 150(1), (3), 'rule' does not include Part VI rules or a rule requiring an authorised person to have or maintain financial resources: s 150(4) (amended by SI 2005/381). If rules so provide, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 150(1) does not apply to contravention of a specified provision of those rules: s 150(2). As to the meaning of 'Part VI rules' see PARA 385.

3 'Private person' has such meaning as may be prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 150(5).

'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

The Treasury has prescribed that 'private person' means:

- 13 (1) any individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on: (a) any regulated activity; or (b) any activity which would be a regulated activity apart from any exclusion made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72 (overseas persons) or art 72A (information society services) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(1)(a) (amended by SI 2002/1775); and
- 14 (2) any person who is not an individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on business of any kind (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(1)(b)), but it does not include a government, a local authority (in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) or an international organisation (regs 3(1), 6(1)).

For the purposes of head (1), an individual who suffers loss in the course of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10 (see PARA 100)) written at Lloyd's is not to be taken to suffer loss in the course of carrying on a regulated activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(2).

For these purposes, 'government' means: (i) the government of the United Kingdom; (ii) the Scottish Administration; (iii) the Executive Committee of the Northern Ireland Assembly; (iv) the National Assembly for Wales; or (v) the government of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom: reg 2. 'Local authority', in relation to the United Kingdom, means: (A) in England and Wales, a local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1972, the Greater London Authority, the Common Council of the City of London or the Council of the Isles of Scilly; (B) in Scotland, a local authority within the meaning of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973; and (C) in Northern Ireland, a district council within the meaning of the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 2. 'International organisation' means any international organisation the members of which include the United Kingdom or any other state: reg 2. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 150(1). Claims in respect of contravention of certain provisions may be excepted from s 150(1): see s 150(2); and note 2.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 150(3). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, prescribed that contravention of a rule is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person in a case where any of the following conditions is satisfied (reg 6(2)). The conditions are that:

- 15 (1) the rule that has been contravened prohibits an authorised person from seeking to make provision excluding or restricting any duty or liability (reg 6(3)(a));
- 16 (2) the rule that has been contravened is directed at ensuring that transactions in any security or contractually based investment (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: see PARA 112 note 4) are not effected with the benefit of unpublished information that, if made public, would be likely to affect the price of that security or investment (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 6(3)(b));

- 17 (3) the claim would be brought at the suit of a person (who is not a private person) acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of a private person and any remedy would be exclusively for the benefit of that private person and could not be effected through a claim brought otherwise than at the suit of the fiduciary or representative (reg 6(3)(c));
- 18 (4) the rule that has been contravened requires a relevant authorised person to respond to a claim for compensation within a specified time limit, or to pay interest in specified circumstances in respect of any such claim (reg 6(3)(d) (added by SI 2002/2706)).

'Relevant authorised person' means an authorised person with a Part IV permission to effect or to carry out relevant contracts of insurance (reg 6(4)(a)(i) (reg 6(4) substituted by SI 2002/2706)) or to manage the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate as a managing agent, the members of which effect or carry out relevant contracts of insurance underwritten at Lloyd's (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 6(4)(a)(ii) (as so substituted)), where 'relevant contract of insurance' means a contract of insurance against damage arising out of or in connection with the use of motor vehicles on land (other than carrier's liability) (reg 6(4)(a) (as so substituted)). As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. 'Specified' means specified in rules: reg 6(4)(c) (as so substituted). As to the meaning of 'rule' see note 2; definition applied by reg 6(4)(b) (as so substituted).

D. GUIDANCE

34. Guidance by the Financial Services Authority.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may give guidance consisting of such information and advice as it considers appropriate:

- 94 (1) with respect to the operation of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and of any rules<sup>2</sup> made under it<sup>3</sup>;
- 95 (2) with respect to any matters relating to functions of the Authority<sup>4</sup>;
- 96 (3) for the purpose of meeting the regulatory objectives<sup>5</sup>;
- 97 (4) with respect to any other matters about which it appears to the Authority to be desirable to give information or advice<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority may give financial or other assistance to persons giving information or advice of a kind which the Authority could give under these provisions<sup>7</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give guidance to regulated persons generally, or to a class of regulated person, in relation to rules to which those persons are subject, the statutory provisions relating to consultation<sup>8</sup> apply to the proposed guidance as they apply to proposed rules, unless the Authority considers that the delay in complying with them would be prejudicial to the interests of consumers<sup>9</sup>.

The Authority may publish its guidance<sup>10</sup> and offer copies of its published guidance for sale at a reasonable price<sup>11</sup>. If it gives guidance in response to a request made by any person, it may make a reasonable charge for that guidance<sup>12</sup>.

35. Notification to the Treasury of guidance.

On giving any general guidance<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must give the Treasury<sup>3</sup> a copy of the guidance without delay<sup>4</sup>. If the Authority alters any of its general guidance, it must similarly give written notice (including details of the alteration<sup>5</sup>) to the Treasury without delay<sup>6</sup>. The Authority must give written notice to the Treasury without delay if it revokes any of its general guidance<sup>7</sup>.

Without prejudice to the generality of the provision on guidance<sup>8</sup>, the Authority must also give guidance in the terms required by the provision on the publication of a statement of policy on outsourcing of investment services by investment firms and credit institutions<sup>9</sup>. Certain consultation provisions about proposed rules<sup>10</sup> apply to such guidance<sup>11</sup> as they apply to proposed rules<sup>12</sup>. The Authority must publish such guidance<sup>13</sup> and may offer copies of the published guidance for sale at a reasonable price<sup>14</sup>. The above provisions applying to general guidance<sup>15</sup> apply to this guidance as they do to general guidance<sup>16</sup>.

1 'General guidance' means guidance given by the Financial Services Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 157 (see PARA 34) which is: (1) given to persons generally, to regulated persons generally, or to a class of regulated person; (2) intended to have continuing effect; and (3) given in writing or other legible form: s 158(5). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iii) Scrutiny of the Financial Services Authority/A. INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS/36. Arrangements for the investigation of complaints.

(iii) Scrutiny of the Financial Services Authority

A. INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS

36. Arrangements for the investigation of complaints.

The Financial Services Authority must make arrangements for the investigation of complaints arising in connection with the exercise of, or failure to exercise, any of its functions<sup>1</sup> (other than its legislative functions)<sup>2</sup>. These arrangements are referred to as the 'complaints scheme'. The complaints scheme must be designed so that, as far as reasonably practicable, complaints are investigated quickly<sup>3</sup>.

The Authority must also appoint an independent person (referred to as the 'investigator') to be responsible for the conduct of investigations in accordance with the complaints scheme<sup>4</sup>. The terms and conditions on which the investigator is appointed must be such as, in the opinion of the Authority, are reasonably designed to secure that he will be free at all times to act independently of the Authority<sup>5</sup>, and that complaints will be investigated under the complaints scheme without favouring the Authority<sup>6</sup>. The Treasury's<sup>7</sup> approval is required for the appointment or dismissal of the investigator<sup>8</sup>.

Before making the complaints scheme, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed scheme in the way appearing to the Authority best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>9</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about it may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>10</sup>. Before making the proposed complaints scheme, the Authority must have regard to any representations so made to it<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority makes the proposed complaints scheme, it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>12</sup> and its response to them<sup>13</sup>. If the complaints scheme differs from the draft<sup>14</sup> in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant the Authority must<sup>15</sup> publish details of the difference<sup>16</sup>.

The Authority must publish up-to-date details of the complaints scheme<sup>17</sup>. Those details must be published in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public<sup>18</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any details published by it under these provisions<sup>19</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iii) Scrutiny of the Financial Services Authority/A. INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS/37. Investigation of complaints.

37. Investigation of complaints.

The Financial Services Authority is not obliged to investigate a complaint in accordance with the complaints scheme<sup>1</sup> which it reasonably considers would be more appropriately dealt with in another way (for example by referring the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> or by the institution of other legal proceedings)<sup>3</sup>.

The complaints scheme must provide for reference to the investigator of any complaint which the Authority is investigating<sup>4</sup> and for him to:

- 98 (1) have the means to conduct a full investigation of the complaint<sup>5</sup>;
- 99 (2) report on the result of his investigation to the Authority and the complainant<sup>6</sup>;
and
- 100 (3) be able to publish his report (or any part of it) if he considers that it (or the part) ought to be brought to the attention of the public<sup>7</sup>.

The investigator may appoint a person to conduct the investigation on his behalf but subject to his direction<sup>8</sup>.

If the Authority has decided not to investigate a complaint, it must notify the investigator<sup>9</sup>. If the investigator considers that a complaint of which he has been notified ought to be investigated, he may proceed as if the complaint had been referred to him under the complaints scheme<sup>10</sup>.

The complaints scheme must confer on the investigator the power to recommend, if he thinks it appropriate, that the Authority: (a) makes a compensatory payment to the complainant<sup>11</sup>; (b) remedies the matter complained of<sup>12</sup>; or (c) takes both of those steps<sup>13</sup>.

The complaints scheme must require the Authority, in a case where the investigator has reported that a complaint is well founded<sup>14</sup>, or has criticised the Authority in his report<sup>15</sup>, to inform the investigator and the complainant of the steps which it proposes to take in response to the report<sup>16</sup>. The investigator may require the Authority to publish the whole or a specified part of the response<sup>17</sup>.

Neither the investigator<sup>18</sup> nor a person appointed to conduct an investigation on his behalf<sup>19</sup> is liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge, or purported discharge, of his functions in relation to the investigation of a complaint<sup>20</sup>.

B. COMPETITION SCRUTINY

38. Reports.

The Office of Fair Trading<sup>1</sup> must keep the regulating provisions<sup>2</sup> and the Financial Services Authority's practices<sup>3</sup> under review<sup>4</sup>.

If at any time the Office of Fair Trading considers that a regulating provision or practice has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>5</sup>, or two or more regulating provisions or practices taken together, or a particular combination of regulating provisions and practices, have such an effect, it must make a report to that effect<sup>6</sup>. Such a report must include details of the adverse effect on competition<sup>7</sup>. If the Office of Fair Trading makes such a report it must:

- 101 (1) send a copy of the report to the Treasury<sup>8</sup>, the Competition Commission<sup>9</sup> and the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup>; and
- 102 (2) publish the report in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring the report to the attention of the public<sup>11</sup>.

If at any time the Office of Fair Trading considers that a regulating provision or practice does not have a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>12</sup>, or two or more regulating provisions or practices taken together, or a particular combination of regulating provisions and practices, do not have any such effect<sup>13</sup>, it may make a report to that effect<sup>14</sup>. If the Office of Fair Trading makes such a report: (a) it must send a copy of the report to the Treasury, the Competition Commission and the Financial Services Authority<sup>15</sup>; and (b) it may publish the report<sup>16</sup>.

Before publishing a report the Office of Fair Trading must, so far as practicable, exclude any matter which relates to the private affairs of a particular individual the publication of which, in its opinion, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect that individual's interests<sup>17</sup>. It must also, so far as practicable, exclude any matter which relates to the affairs of a particular body the publication of which, in its opinion, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect its interests<sup>18</sup>.

For the purposes of the law of defamation, absolute privilege attaches to any such report of the Office of Fair Trading<sup>19</sup>.

1 As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

2 'Regulating provisions' means: any (1) any rules; (2) any general guidance as defined by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 158(5) (see PARA 35 note 1) or guidance under s 158A (see PARA 35); (3) any statement issued by the Financial Services Authority under s 64 (see PARA 372); (4) any code issued by the Authority under s 64 (see PARA 372) or s 119 (see PARA 439): ss 159(1), 417(1) (definition in s 159(1) amended by SI 2006/2975). As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2.

3 For these purposes, 'practices', in relation to the Financial Services Authority, means practices adopted by the Authority in the exercise of functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 159(1). 4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 160(1) (s 160(1)-(3), (5)-(10) amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(3)).

5 For these purposes, regulating provisions or practices have a significantly adverse effect on competition if: (1) they have, or are intended or likely to have, that effect; or (2) the effect that they have, or are intended or likely to have, is to require or encourage behaviour which has, or is intended or likely to have, a significantly adverse effect on competition: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 159(2). If regulating provisions or practices have, or are intended or likely to have, the effect of requiring or encouraging exploitation of the strength of a market position, they are to be taken, for the purposes of Pt X Ch III (ss 159-164), to have an adverse effect on competition: s 159(3). In determining under Pt X Ch III whether any of the regulating provisions have, or are likely to have, a particular effect, it may be assumed that the persons to whom the provisions concerned are addressed will act in accordance with them: s 159(4).

39. Power to request information.

For the purpose of investigating any matter with a view to its consideration<sup>1</sup>, the Office of Fair Trading<sup>2</sup> may exercise the following powers<sup>3</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading may by notice in writing require any person to produce to it or to a person appointed by it for the purpose, at a time and place specified in the notice, any document<sup>4</sup> which is specified or described in the notice<sup>5</sup> and which is a document in that person's custody or under his control<sup>6</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading may by notice in writing require any person carrying on any business to provide it with such information as may be specified or described in the notice<sup>7</sup>, and specify the time within which, and the manner and form in which, any such information is to be provided<sup>8</sup>.

If a person (the 'defaulter') refuses, or otherwise fails, to comply with such a notice, the Office of Fair Trading may certify that fact in writing to the High Court<sup>9</sup> and the court may inquire into the case<sup>10</sup>. If, after hearing any witness who may be produced against or on behalf of the defaulter and any statement which may be offered in defence, the court is satisfied that the defaulter did not have a reasonable excuse for refusing or otherwise failing to comply with the notice, the court may deal with the defaulter as if he were in contempt<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iii) Scrutiny of the Financial Services Authority/B. COMPETITION SCRUTINY/40. Consideration by Competition Commission.

40. Consideration by Competition Commission.

If the Office of Fair Trading<sup>1</sup> makes a report<sup>2</sup>, or asks the Competition Commission<sup>3</sup> to consider a report that it has made<sup>4</sup>, the Commission must investigate the matter<sup>5</sup>. The Commission must then make its own report on the matter unless it considers that, as a result of a change of circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by a report<sup>6</sup>. If the Commission decides<sup>7</sup> not to make a report, it must make a statement setting out the change of circumstances which resulted in that decision<sup>8</sup>.

The Commission's report must state the Commission's conclusion as to whether:

- 103 (1) the regulating provision or practice which is the subject of the report has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>9</sup>; or
- 104 (2) the regulating provisions or practices, or combination of regulating provisions and practices, which are the subject of the report have such an effect<sup>10</sup>.

A report stating the Commission's conclusion that there is a significantly adverse effect on competition must also:

- 105 (a) state whether the Commission considers that that effect is justified<sup>11</sup>; and
- 106 (b) if it states that the Commission considers that it is not justified, state its conclusion as to what action, if any, ought to be taken by the Financial Services Authority<sup>12</sup>.

Whenever the Commission is considering, for these purposes<sup>13</sup>, whether a particular adverse effect on competition is justified<sup>14</sup>, the Commission must ensure, so far as that is reasonably possible, that the conclusion it reaches is compatible with the functions conferred, and obligations imposed, on the Authority by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>15</sup>.

A report must contain such an account of the Commission's reasons for its conclusions as is expedient, in the opinion of the Commission, for facilitating proper understanding of them<sup>16</sup>. If the Commission makes a report it must send a copy to the Treasury, the Authority and the Office of Fair Trading<sup>17</sup>.

For the purpose of assisting the Commission in carrying out an investigation only<sup>18</sup>, the Treasury<sup>19</sup> may give to the Commission any information in its possession which relates to matters falling within the scope of the investigation<sup>20</sup> and may give other assistance in relation to any such matters<sup>21</sup>. In carrying out such an investigation, the Commission must have regard to any such information given to it<sup>22</sup>.

In considering any matter arising from a report made by the Office of Fair Trading<sup>23</sup>, the Commission must have regard to any representations made to it in connection with the matter by any person appearing to the Commission to have a substantial interest in the matter<sup>24</sup> and any cost benefit analysis prepared by the Authority (at any time) in connection with the regulatory provision or practice, or any of the regulatory provisions or practices, which are the subject of the report<sup>25</sup>.

A number of statutory provisions apply for the purposes of any investigation by the Commission under the provisions described above<sup>26</sup> as they apply for references under Part 3 of the Enterprise Act 2002<sup>27</sup>. There is also an appropriate modification to the Competition Act 1998 and further provision about reports by the Commission<sup>28</sup>.

If the Commission makes a report as described above<sup>29</sup>, it must publish it in such a way as appears to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>30</sup>. Before publishing the report the Commission must, so far as practicable, exclude any matter which relates to the private affairs of a particular individual the publication of which, in the opinion of the Commission, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect his interests<sup>31</sup>. Before publishing the report the Commission must, so far as practicable, also exclude any matter which relates to the affairs of a particular body the publication of which, in the opinion of the Commission, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect its interests<sup>32</sup>.

The provisions are as follows (with the modifications set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(2), (3)):
  - 19 (1) the Enterprise Act 2002 s 109 (attendance of witnesses and production of documents etc) (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 259) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(1)(a) (as so added));

  - 26 (8) the Enterprise Act 2002 s 116 (statement of policy) (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 265) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(1)(h) (as so added)).

The Enterprise Act 2002 s 110 (see head (2)), in its application by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(1), has effect as if the Enterprise Act 2002 s 110(2) were omitted; and in s 110(9) the words from 'or section' to 's 65(3))' were omitted: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(2) (as so added). The Enterprise Act 2002 s 111(5)(b) (see head (3)), in its application by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(1), has effect as if for the Enterprise Act 2002 s 111(5)(b)(ii) there were substituted '(ii) if earlier, the day on which the report of the Commission on the investigation concerned is made or, if the Commission decides not to make a report, the day on which the Commission makes the statement required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 162(3).': Sch 14 para 2A(3) (as so added).

The Enterprise Act 2002 s 117 (false or misleading information) (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARAS 266, 317) applies in relation to functions of the Commission in connection with an investigation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 162 as it applies in relation to its functions under the Enterprise Act 2002 Pt 3 but as if, in s 117(1)(a), (2), the words 'the OFT, OFCOM,' and 'or the Secretary of State' were omitted: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(4) (as so added; amended by the Communications Act 2003 s 389(1), Sch 16 para 5). Provisions of the Enterprise Act 2002 Pt 3 which have effect for the purposes of ss 109-117 (including, in particular, provisions relating to offences and the making of orders), for the purposes of the application of those provisions by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2A(1) or (4), have effect in relation to those provisions as applied by virtue of Sch 14 para 2A(1) or (4): Sch 14 para 2A(5) (as so added). Accordingly, corresponding provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 do not have effect in relation to those provisions as applied by virtue of Sch 14 para 2A(1) or (4): Sch 14 para 2A(6) (as so added).

28 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 paras 2B, 2C (as added: see note 27).

For the purposes of its application in relation to the function of the Commission of deciding in accordance with s 162(2) not to make a report (see the text to note 6), the Competition Act 1998 Sch 7 para 15(7) (power of the Chairman to act on his own while a group is being constituted) (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 11) has effect as if, after Sch 7 para 15(7)(a), there were inserted: '; or (aa) in the case of an investigation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 162, decide not to make a report in accordance with s 162(2) (decision not to make a report where no useful purpose would be served).': Sch 14 para 2B (as so added).

For the purposes of s 163 (see PARA 41), a conclusion contained in a report of the Commission is to be disregarded if the conclusion is not that of at least two-thirds of the members of the group constituted in connection with the investigation concerned in pursuance of the Competition Act 1998 Sch 7 para 15 (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 11): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 14 para 2C(1) (as so added). If a member of a group so constituted disagrees with any conclusions contained in a report made under s 162 as the conclusions of the Commission, the report must, if the member so wishes, include a statement of his disagreement and of his reasons for disagreeing: Sch 14 para 2C(2) (as so added). For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, absolute privilege attaches to any report made by the Commission under s 162: Sch 14 para 2C(3) (as so added).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iii) Scrutiny of the Financial Services Authority/B. COMPETITION SCRUTINY/41. Role of the Treasury.

41. Role of the Treasury.

If the Competition Commission<sup>1</sup> makes a report<sup>2</sup> which states its conclusion that there is a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>3</sup> then the following provisions apply<sup>4</sup>.

If the Commission's conclusion, as stated in the report, is that the adverse effect on competition is not justified, the Treasury<sup>5</sup> must give a direction to the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> requiring it to take such action as may be specified in the direction<sup>7</sup>. In considering the action to be specified in a direction<sup>8</sup>, the Treasury must have regard to any conclusion of the Commission included<sup>9</sup> in the report<sup>10</sup>.

If:

- 107 (1) the Commission's conclusion, as stated in its report, is that the adverse effect on competition is justified<sup>11</sup>; but
- 108 (2) the Treasury considers that the exceptional circumstances of the case require it to act<sup>12</sup>, the Treasury may give a direction to the Authority requiring it to take such action as the Treasury considers to be necessary in the light of the exceptional circumstances of the case<sup>13</sup> and as may be specified in the direction<sup>14</sup>.

However, the Authority may not be required as a result of these provisions<sup>15</sup> to take any action that it would not have power to take in the absence of such a direction<sup>16</sup>, or that would otherwise be incompatible with any of the functions conferred, or obligations imposed, on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>17</sup>.

The Treasury must do what it considers appropriate to allow the Authority, and any other person appearing to the Treasury to be affected, an opportunity to make representations<sup>18</sup>, and the Treasury must have regard to any such representations<sup>19</sup>.

If the Treasury gives such a direction it must make a statement giving details of the direction, and (in certain cases<sup>20</sup>) its reasons for giving it<sup>21</sup>. The Treasury must publish any such statement in the way appearing to it best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>22</sup>, and must lay a copy of it before Parliament<sup>23</sup>.

The prohibition on the restriction of competition affecting trade in the United Kingdom imposed by the Competition Act 1998 (referred to as the 'Chapter I prohibition'<sup>1</sup>) does not apply to an agreement the parties to which consist of or include:

109 (1) an authorised person<sup>2</sup>; or

110 (2) a person who is otherwise subject to the Financial Services Authority's<sup>3</sup> regulating provisions<sup>4</sup>, to the extent to which the agreement consists of provisions the inclusion of which in the agreement is encouraged by any of the Authority's regulating provisions<sup>5</sup>, nor does it apply to the practices of an authorised person or a person who is otherwise subject to the regulating provisions to the extent to which the practices are encouraged by any of the Authority's regulating provisions<sup>6</sup>.

The prohibition on the abuse of a dominant position affecting trade in the United Kingdom imposed by the Competition Act 1998 (referred to as the 'Chapter II prohibition'<sup>7</sup>) does not apply to conduct of:

111 (a) an authorised person<sup>8</sup>; or

112 (b) a person who is otherwise subject to the Authority's regulating provisions<sup>9</sup>, to the extent to which the conduct is encouraged by any of the Authority's regulating provisions<sup>10</sup>.

1 'Chapter I prohibition' means the prohibition imposed by the Competition Act 1998 s 2(1) (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 116 et seq): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 164(4). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal

A. CONSTITUTION

43. Constitution of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal was established under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> and has the functions conferred on it by or under that Act<sup>2</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor<sup>3</sup> must appoint a panel of persons for the purposes of serving as chairmen of the Tribunal<sup>4</sup>. A person is qualified for membership of the panel of chairmen if he satisfies certain conditions<sup>5</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor must appoint one of the members of the panel of chairmen<sup>6</sup> to be the President of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal and to preside over the discharge of the Tribunal's functions<sup>7</sup>. The Lord Chancellor may appoint one of the members of the panel of chairmen to be Deputy President<sup>8</sup>. The Deputy President has such functions in relation to the Tribunal as the President may assign to him<sup>9</sup>. The Lord Chancellor may not appoint a person to be the President or Deputy President unless that person satisfies certain conditions<sup>10</sup>.

If the President (or Deputy President) ceases to be a member of the panel of chairmen, he also ceases to be the President (or Deputy President)<sup>11</sup>. The functions of the President may, if he is absent or is otherwise unable to act, be discharged by the Deputy President<sup>12</sup>, or, if there is no Deputy President or he too is absent or otherwise unable to act, by a person appointed for that purpose from the panel of chairmen by the Lord Chancellor<sup>13</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor must also appoint a lay panel, that is a panel of persons who appear to him to be qualified by experience or otherwise to deal with matters of the kind that may be referred to the Tribunal<sup>14</sup>.

Each member of the panel of chairmen and the lay panel is to hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>15</sup>. The Lord Chancellor may remove a member of either panel (including the President) on the ground of incapacity or misbehaviour<sup>16</sup>. A member of either panel may at any time resign office by notice in writing to the Lord Chancellor<sup>17</sup> and is eligible for re-appointment if he ceases to hold office<sup>18</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor may pay to any person, in respect of his service as a member of the Tribunal (including service as the President or Deputy President)<sup>19</sup>, or as a person appointed as an expert<sup>20</sup>, such remuneration and allowances as he may determine<sup>21</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor may appoint such staff for the Tribunal as he may determine<sup>22</sup>. One such member is to be appointed Secretary to the Tribunal<sup>23</sup>. Any functions of the Secretary may be performed by an Assistant Secretary or by some other member of the Tribunal staff authorised by the Secretary<sup>24</sup>. The remuneration of the Tribunal's staff is to be defrayed by the Lord Chancellor<sup>25</sup>.

Such expenses of the Tribunal as the Lord Chancellor may determine are to be defrayed by the Lord Chancellor<sup>26</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 132(1).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 132(2).

3 As to the Lord Chancellor see CONSTITUTIONAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 477 et seq.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 132, Sch 13 para 3(1). The Chairman is the person from time to time acting as chairman of the Tribunal in respect of a reference: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 2(1).

Any matter (other than the determination of a reference or the setting aside of a decision on a reference) required or authorised by the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, to be done by the Tribunal may be done by the Chairman: r 29.

Any document purporting to be a document duly executed or issued by the Chairman on behalf of the Tribunal is, unless proved to the contrary, deemed to be a document so executed or issued: r 30(1).

5 The conditions are that:

27 (1) he has a seven year general qualification within the meaning of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 s 71) (see LEGAL PROFESSIONS vol 65 (2008) PARA 742) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 13 para 3(2)(a));

28 (2) he is an advocate or solicitor in Scotland of at least seven years' standing (Sch 13 para 3(2)(b)); or

29 (3) he is a member of the Bar of Northern Ireland of at least seven years' standing or a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Northern Ireland of at least seven years' standing (Sch 13 para 3(2)(c)).

As from a day or days to be appointed, head (1) above is replaced by a new provision referring to satisfying the judicial-appointment eligibility condition on a five-year basis, the figure in head (2) above is replaced by 'five', the figure in head (3) above is replaced by 'five' and the reference is changed to a solicitor of the Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland: Sch 13 para 3(2) (prospectively amended by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 Sch 10 Pt 1 para 34(1), (3)(b) and the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 Sch 11 Pt 3 para 5). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day or days had been appointed.

The panel of chairmen must include at least one member who is a person of the kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 13 para 3(2)(b): Sch 13 para 3(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/A. CONSTITUTION/44. Standing arrangements.

44. Standing arrangements.

On a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup>, the persons to act as members of the Tribunal for the purposes of the reference are to be selected from the panel of chairmen<sup>2</sup> or the lay panel<sup>3</sup> in accordance with arrangements made by the President (referred to as 'standing arrangements')<sup>4</sup>. The standing arrangements must provide for at least one member to be selected from the panel of chairmen<sup>5</sup>.

If, while a reference is being dealt with, a person serving as member of the Tribunal in respect of the reference becomes unable to act, the reference may be dealt with by:

- 113 (1) the other members selected in respect of that reference<sup>6</sup>; or
- 114 (2) if it is being dealt with by a single member, such other member of the panel of chairmen as may be selected in accordance with the standing arrangements for the purposes of the reference<sup>7</sup>.

If it appears to the Tribunal that a matter before it involves a question of fact of special difficulty, it may appoint one or more experts to provide assistance<sup>8</sup>.

B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS

45. Rules for the conduct of proceedings.

The Lord Chancellor may by rules make such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient in respect of the conduct of proceedings before the Tribunal<sup>1</sup>. Provision is also made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup> as respects the conduct of proceedings before the Tribunal but this does not limit the Lord Chancellor's powers to make such rules<sup>3</sup>.

Rules made by the Lord Chancellor<sup>4</sup> may, in particular, include provision:

- 115 (1) as to the manner in which references are to be instituted<sup>5</sup>;
- 116 (2) for the holding of hearings in private in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules<sup>6</sup>;
- 117 (3) as to the persons who may appear on behalf of the parties<sup>7</sup>;
- 118 (4) for a member of the panel of chairmen<sup>8</sup> to hear and determine interlocutory matters arising on a reference<sup>9</sup>;
- 119 (5) for the suspension of decisions of the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup> which have taken effect<sup>11</sup>;
- 120 (6) as to the withdrawal of references<sup>12</sup>;
- 121 (7) as to the registration, publication and proof of decisions and orders<sup>13</sup>.

Subject to the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the rules made by the Lord Chancellor<sup>14</sup>, the Tribunal may regulate its own procedure<sup>15</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 132(3). The Lord Chancellor's power to make rules under s 132 is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 428(2). In exercise of this power the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, have been made: see PARA 47 et seq. As to the Lord Chancellor see CONSTITUTIONAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 477 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/46. Timing and determination of references.

46. Timing and determination of references.

A reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 must be made before the end of:

- 122 (1) the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the decision notice or supervisory notice<sup>2</sup> in question is given<sup>3</sup>; or
- 123 (2) such other period as may be specified in rules<sup>4</sup>.

Subject to the rules, the Tribunal may allow a reference to be made after the end of that period<sup>5</sup>.

For the purpose of dealing with references, or any matter preliminary or incidental to a reference, the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal must sit at such times and in such place or places as the Lord Chancellor may, after consulting the President of the Tribunal, direct<sup>6</sup>.

On a reference the Tribunal may consider any evidence relating to the subject-matter of the reference, whether or not it was available to the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> at the material time<sup>8</sup>. On a reference the Tribunal must determine what (if any) is the appropriate action for the Authority to take in relation to the matter referred to it<sup>9</sup>. On determining a reference, the Tribunal must remit the matter to the Authority with such directions<sup>10</sup> (if any) as the Tribunal considers appropriate for giving effect to its determination<sup>11</sup>.

In determining a reference made as a result of a decision notice, the Tribunal may not direct the Authority to take action which the Authority would not<sup>12</sup> have had power to take when giving the decision notice<sup>13</sup>. In determining a reference made as a result of a supervisory notice, the Tribunal may not direct the Authority to take action which would have otherwise required the giving of a decision notice<sup>14</sup>.

The Authority must not take the action specified in a decision notice:

- 124 (a) during the period within which the matter to which the decision notice relates may be referred to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>15</sup>; and
- 125 (b) if the matter is so referred, until the reference, and any appeal<sup>16</sup> against the Tribunal's determination, has been finally disposed of<sup>17</sup>.

The Authority must act in accordance with the determination of, and any direction given by, the Tribunal<sup>18</sup>.

The Tribunal may, on determining a reference, make recommendations as to the Authority's regulating provisions<sup>19</sup> or its procedures<sup>20</sup>.

The President of the Tribunal may give directions as to the practice and procedure to be followed by the Tribunal in relation to references to it<sup>21</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/47. Making a reference.

47. Making a reference.

A reference<sup>1</sup> must be made by way of a written notice (the 'reference notice') signed by or on behalf of the applicant and filed by the applicant<sup>2</sup>. Usually a reference must be made before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which a decision notice<sup>3</sup> or supervisory notice<sup>4</sup> is given<sup>5</sup>.

The reference notice must state:

- 126 (1) the name and address<sup>6</sup> of the applicant<sup>7</sup>;
- 127 (2) the name and address of the applicant's representative (if any)<sup>8</sup>;
- 128 (3) if no representative is named under head (2) above, the applicant's address for service in the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup> (if different from the address notified under head (1) above)<sup>10</sup>;
- 129 (4) that the notice is a reference notice<sup>11</sup>; and
- 130 (5) the issues concerning the Authority notice<sup>12</sup> that the applicant wishes the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal to consider<sup>13</sup>.

The applicant must file with the reference notice a copy of any Authority notice to which the reference relates<sup>14</sup>. The applicant may include with the reference notice an application for directions, such as a direction extending any time limit for making a reference, a direction<sup>15</sup> in regard to suspension of the action by the Financial Services Authority or a direction<sup>16</sup> that the register must include no particulars about the reference<sup>17</sup>.

At the same time as he files the reference notice, the applicant must send a copy of that notice (and of any such application for directions) to the Authority<sup>18</sup>.

Wherever an application for directions is made the Secretary to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup> must refer the application for directions to the Tribunal for determination and he must take no further action in relation to the reference notice until the application for directions has been determined<sup>20</sup>. Subject to this<sup>21</sup> and to any directions given by the Tribunal, upon receiving a reference notice the Secretary must:

- 131 (a) enter particulars of the reference in the register<sup>22</sup>; and
- 132 (b) inform the parties in writing of:
  - 1. (i) the fact that the reference has been received<sup>23</sup>;
  - 2. (ii) the date when the Tribunal received the notice<sup>24</sup>; and
  - 3. (iii) the Tribunal's decision on any application made for directions (and include a copy of any direction given)<sup>25</sup>.

When sending the parties this information the Secretary must specify the date on which he is sending it<sup>26</sup>.

Where, after the filing of a reference notice, the Authority gives the applicant any notice<sup>27</sup> in relation to the referred action, the Authority must without delay file a copy of that notice<sup>28</sup>.

1 'Reference' means a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal under or by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other enactment (including an enactment comprised in subordinate legislation within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978): Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 2(1). As to the establishment and constitution of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARAS 43-44.

2 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(1). 'Applicant' means a person who refers a case to the Tribunal and, if there is more than one such person, each such person: r 2(1). 'File' means send to the Tribunal: r 2(1).

3 As to decision notices see PARA 770.

4 As to supervisory notices see PARA 773.

- 5 See the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(2). Rule 4(2) further provides that in any case not covered by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 133(1)(a) (see PARA 46 head (1)), the period specified for the purposes of s 133(1)(b) (period specified for making a reference) (see PARA 46) is the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the Authority notice is given.
- 6 For these purposes, 'address', where the applicant is a corporation, means the address of the applicant's registered or principal office: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(4).
- 7 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(3)(a).
- 8 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(3)(b).

- 11 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(3)(d).
- 12 'Authority notice' means the decision notice, supervisory notice or other notice relating to the referred action that was given to the applicant by the Financial Services Authority: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 2(1). 'Referred action' means the act (or proposed act) on the part of the Authority that gave rise to the reference: r 2(1). As to the constitution and general functions of the Financial Services Authority see PARA 6 et seq.
- 13 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(3)(e).
- 14 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(5). If the reference was made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(11) (reference to the Tribunal by a third party who alleges that he was not given a copy of a decision notice) (see PARA 775), the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 4(5) does not apply: r 15(3). For these purposes, 'Authority notice' means the decision notice which the applicant alleges was not copied to him; and 'referred action' means the action set out in the Authority notice: r 15(2).

'Register' means the register of references and decisions kept in connection with the Tribunal's functions and which is open to the inspection of any person without charge at all reasonable hours: r 2(1). A document purporting to be certified by the Secretary to be a true copy of any entry of a decision in the register is, unless proved to the contrary, sufficient evidence of the entry and of the matters referred to in it: r 30(2).

Statement of case by the Financial Services Authority.

48. Statement of case by the Financial Services Authority.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must file a written statement (a 'statement of case') in support of the referred action<sup>2</sup> so that it is received by the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>3</sup> no later than 28 days after the day on which the Authority received the information sent<sup>4</sup> by the Secretary to the Tribunal<sup>5</sup>.

The statement of case must:

- 133 (1) specify the statutory provisions providing for the referred action<sup>6</sup>;
- 134 (2) specify the reasons for the referred action<sup>7</sup>;
- 135 (3) set out all the matters and facts upon which the Authority relies to support the referred action<sup>8</sup>; and
- 136 (4) specify the date on which the statement of case is filed<sup>9</sup>.

The statement of case must be accompanied by a list of:

- 137 (a) the documents<sup>10</sup> on which the Authority relies in support of the referred action<sup>11</sup>; and
- 138 (b) the further material<sup>12</sup> which in the opinion of the Authority might undermine the decision to take that action<sup>13</sup>.

At the same time as it files the statement of case, the Authority must send to the applicant<sup>14</sup> a copy of the statement of case and of the list under heads (a) and (b) above<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the constitution and general functions of the Financial Services Authority see PARA 6 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(1). As to the Secretary to the Tribunal see PARA 43.

6 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(2)(a). The duties of the Authority to set out information under r 5(2) or to list material under r 5(3) apply only to information, material or documents which relate to the matters referred to the Tribunal in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(9) (reference to the Tribunal by a third party to whom a decision notice was copied) or (as the case may be) s 393(11) (reference to the Tribunal by a third party who alleges that he was not given a copy of a decision notice) (see PARA 775): Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 15(4). If the reference was made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(9), 'Authority notice' means the decision notice which was copied to the applicant by the Authority; if the reference was made under s 393(11), 'Authority notice' means the decision notice which the applicant alleges was not copied to him; and in both cases 'referred action' means the action set out in the Authority notice: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 15(2).

7 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(2)(b). See note 6.

9 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(2)(d). As to the meaning of 'file' see PARA 47 note 2. See note 6.

10 'Documents' includes information recorded in any form and, in relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, references to its production include references to producing a copy of the information in legible form: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 2(1).

11 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(3)(a). For the exception to r 5(3) see r 8; and PARA 51. See note 6.

12 'Further material' means documents which:

33 (1) were considered by the Authority in reaching or maintaining the decision to give an Authority notice; or

34 (2) were obtained by the Authority in connection with the matter to which that notice relates (whether they were obtained before or after giving the notice) but which were not considered by it in reaching or maintaining that decision, but does not include documents on which the Authority relies in support of the referred action: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 2(1). As to the meaning of 'Authority notice' see PARA 47 note 12.

13 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 5(3)(b). For the exception to r 5(3) see r 8; and PARA 51. See note 6.

49. Applicant's reply.

The applicant<sup>1</sup> must file a written reply so that it is received by the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> no later than 28 days after:

139 (1) the date on which the applicant received a copy of the statement of case<sup>3</sup>; or 140 (2) if the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> amends its statement of case, the date on which the applicant received a copy of the amended statement of case<sup>5</sup>.

The reply must:

141 (a) state the grounds on which the applicant relies in the reference<sup>6</sup>;

142 (b) identify all matters contained in the statement of case which are disputed by the applicant<sup>7</sup>;

143 (c) state the applicant's reasons for disputing them<sup>8</sup>; and 144 (d) specify the date on which it is filed<sup>9</sup>.

The reply must be accompanied by a list of all the documents<sup>10</sup> on which the applicant relies in support of his case<sup>11</sup>. At the same time as he files the reply, the applicant must send to the Authority a copy of the reply and of the list of documents<sup>12</sup>.

Secondary disclosure by the Financial Services Authority.

50. Secondary disclosure by the Financial Services Authority.

Following the filing of the applicant's reply<sup>1</sup>, if there is any further material which might be reasonably expected to assist the applicant's case as disclosed by the applicant's reply and which is not mentioned in the list<sup>2</sup> accompanying the statement of case provided, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> must file a list of such further material<sup>4</sup>.

Any such list required to be filed must be filed so that it is received no later than 14 days after the day on which the Authority received the applicant's reply<sup>5</sup>. At the same time as it files such list the Authority must send a copy to the applicant<sup>6</sup>.

- 4 Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 7(1). As to the meaning of 'further material' see PARA 48 note 12. For the exception to disclosure see r 8; and PARA 51. The duty of the Authority under r 7(1) applies only to material which relates to the matters referred to the Tribunal in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(9) (reference to the Tribunal by a third party to whom a decision notice was given) or (as the case may be) s 393(11) (reference to the Tribunal by a third party who alleges that he was not given a copy of a decision notice) (see PARA 775): Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 15(4). If the reference was made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(9), 'Authority notice' means the decision notice which was copied to the applicant by the Authority; if the reference was made under s 393(11), 'Authority notice' means the decision notice which the applicant alleges was not copied to him; and in both cases 'referred action' means the action set out in the Authority notice: Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 15(2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/51. Exceptions to disclosure.

51. Exceptions to disclosure.

Any list of documents or further material required to be filed with a statement of case by the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> or required as secondary disclosure<sup>2</sup> need not include any document<sup>3</sup> that relates to a case involving a person other than the applicant<sup>4</sup> which was taken into account by the Authority in the applicant's case only for the purposes of comparison with other cases<sup>5</sup>.

Any such list or a list accompanying the applicant's reply<sup>6</sup> need not include any document that is material the disclosure of which for the purposes of or in connection with any legal proceedings is prohibited by the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000<sup>7</sup>.

A party<sup>8</sup> may apply to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>9</sup> (without giving notice to the other party) for a direction<sup>10</sup> authorising that party not to include in the relevant list<sup>11</sup> a document on the ground that disclosure of the document:

145 (1) would not be in the public interest<sup>12</sup>; or 146 (2) would not be fair, having regard to:

4. (a) the likely significance of the document to the applicant in relation to the matter referred to the Tribunal<sup>13</sup>; and

5. (b) the potential prejudice to the commercial interests of a person other than the applicant which would be caused by disclosure of the document<sup>14</sup>.

Any of the lists mentioned above<sup>15</sup> need not include any document in respect of which such an application has been or is being made<sup>16</sup>. For the purpose of deciding an application by a party<sup>17</sup>, the Tribunal may require that the document be produced to the Tribunal together with a statement of the reasons why its inclusion in the list would:

147 (i) in the case of an application under head (1) above, not be in the public interest<sup>18</sup>; or

and may invite the other party to make representations<sup>20</sup>.

If the Tribunal refuses an application<sup>21</sup> for a direction authorising a party not to include a document in a list, it must direct that party to revise the list so as to include the document<sup>22</sup>, and to file<sup>23</sup> a copy of that list as revised and send a copy to the other party<sup>24</sup>.

A party who has filed such a list<sup>25</sup> must, upon the request of the other party, provide that other party with a copy of any document specified in the list or make any such document available to that party for inspection or copying<sup>26</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/52. Power to give directions.

52. Power to give directions.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may at any time give directions<sup>2</sup> to enable the parties<sup>3</sup> to prepare for the hearing of the reference<sup>4</sup>, to assist the Tribunal to determine the issues and generally to ensure the just, expeditious and economical determination of the reference<sup>5</sup>.

The President of the Tribunal<sup>6</sup> may give directions as to the practice and procedure to be followed by the Tribunal in relation to references to it<sup>7</sup>.

The Tribunal may give directions on the application of any party or of all the parties or of its own initiative and, where it gives a direction of its own initiative, it may (but need not) give prior notice to the parties of its intention to do so<sup>8</sup>. Any application for directions must include the reasons for making that application<sup>9</sup>.

Except where it is made during the pre-hearing review<sup>10</sup> or during the hearing of the reference, an application for directions must be filed<sup>11</sup> and, unless the application is accompanied by the written consent of all the parties or an application without notice is permitted<sup>12</sup>, the party making the application must at the same time send a copy to the other party<sup>13</sup>.

If any party objects to the directions applied for, the Tribunal must consider the objection and, if it considers it necessary for the determination of the application, must give the parties an opportunity to make representations<sup>14</sup>.

Directions may be given orally or in writing and, unless the Tribunal decides otherwise in any particular case, notice of any written direction (or refusal to give a direction) must be given to the parties<sup>15</sup>. Directions containing a requirement may specify a time limit for complying with the requirement and must include a statement of the possible consequences of a party's failure to comply with the requirement<sup>16</sup>.

A person to whom a direction is given<sup>17</sup> may apply to the Tribunal showing good cause why it should be varied or set aside, but the Tribunal must not grant such an application without first notifying any person who applied for the direction and giving that party an opportunity to make representations<sup>18</sup>.

If the Chairman of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup> directs that it is appropriate to hold a pre-hearing review<sup>20</sup>, the Secretary to the Tribunal<sup>21</sup> must give the parties not less than 14 days' notice of the time and place of the pre-hearing review<sup>22</sup>. At the pre-hearing review, which must be held before the Chairman, he must give all directions appearing necessary or desirable for securing the just, expeditious and economical conduct of the reference<sup>23</sup>. The Chairman must also endeavour to secure that the parties make all admissions and agreements as they ought reasonably to have made in relation to the proceedings<sup>24</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/53. Particular types of direction.

53. Particular types of direction.

Directions<sup>1</sup> given by the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> may:

- 149 (1) fix the time and place of the hearing of the reference<sup>3</sup> and alter any time and place so fixed<sup>4</sup>;

- 150 (2) provide for an oral hearing, upon such notice as the Tribunal may determine, in connection with any matter arising under the reference<sup>5</sup>;
- 151 (3) adjourn any oral hearing<sup>6</sup>;
- 152 (4) extend any time limit for making a reference<sup>7</sup>, or vary (whether by extending or shortening) any other time limit for anything to be done<sup>8</sup>;
- 153 (5) suspend the effect of an Authority notice<sup>9</sup> (or prevent it taking effect) until the reference has been finally disposed of, or until any appeal against the Tribunal's determination of the reference has been finally disposed of, or both<sup>10</sup>;
- 154 (6) permit or require any party to provide further information or supplementary statements<sup>11</sup> or to amend a response document<sup>12</sup> or a supplementary statement<sup>13</sup>;
- 155 (7) require any party to file any document:
6. (a) that is in the custody or under the control of that party<sup>14</sup>;
7. (b) that the Tribunal considers is or may be relevant to the determination of the reference<sup>15</sup>; and
8. (c) that has neither been exempted from disclosure<sup>16</sup> nor been made available<sup>17</sup>,
- 156 and may also require that any such document so directed for filing must be copied to the other party or else be made available to that other party for inspection and copying<sup>18</sup>;
- 157 (8) require any party to provide a statement of relevant issues and facts, identifying those which are, and those which are not, agreed by the other party<sup>19</sup>;
- 158 (9) require any party to file<sup>20</sup> documents for any hearing<sup>21</sup> or to agree with the other party the documents to be filed<sup>22</sup>;
- 159 (10) require any party to file:
9. (a) a list of the witnesses whom the party wishes to call to give evidence at the hearing of the reference<sup>23</sup>; and
10. (b) statements of the evidence which those witnesses intend to give, if called<sup>24</sup>;
- 160 (11) make provision as to any expert witnesses to be called including the number of such witnesses and the evidence to be given by them<sup>25</sup>;
- 161 (12) provide for the appointment of any expert<sup>26</sup> and for that expert to send the parties copies of any report that he produces<sup>27</sup>;
- 162 (13) provide for the manner in which any evidence may be given<sup>28</sup>;
- 163 (14) provide for the use of languages in addition to English, including provision:
- 9
11. (a) as to the venue of any hearing<sup>29</sup> so as to ensure the availability of simultaneous translation facilities<sup>30</sup>; and
12. (b) for the translation of any document<sup>31</sup>;
- 10
- 164 (15) require that the register include no particulars about the reference<sup>32</sup>; and
- 165 (16) where two or more reference notices<sup>33</sup> have been filed:
- 11
13. (a) in respect of the same matter<sup>34</sup>;
14. (b) in respect of separate interests in the same subject in dispute<sup>35</sup>; or 15. (c) which involve the same issues<sup>36</sup>,
- 12
- 166 provide that the references or any particular issue or matter raised in the references be consolidated or heard together<sup>37</sup>.

In the case of an application for a direction under head (4) above<sup>38</sup> extending any time limit, the Tribunal may direct that the time limit be extended (whether or not it has already expired) if it is satisfied that to do so would be in the interests of justice but, in the case of an application for a direction extending any time limit for making a reference, the Tribunal must not determine the application without:

- 167 (i) considering whether the Authority notice was such as to notify the applicant properly and effectively of the referred action<sup>39</sup>; and
- 168 (ii) considering whether the existence of the right to make the reference and the time limit had been notified to the applicant, whether in the Authority notice or otherwise<sup>40</sup>.

A time limit so extended<sup>41</sup> may from time to time be further extended by directions of the Tribunal (whether or not that or any subsequent such time limit has already expired) made upon an application under head (4) above<sup>42</sup>, but no such direction may be given unless the Tribunal is satisfied that the further extension would be in the interests of justice<sup>43</sup>. Where a party files a response document or list later than any time limit imposed or extended<sup>44</sup> but without applying for a direction under head (4) above<sup>45</sup> extending the time limit, that party must be treated as applying for such a direction; but no such direction may be given unless the Tribunal is satisfied that such an extension would be in the interests of justice<sup>46</sup>. If a response document or list is not filed in accordance with the time limit imposed (or extended) in this way<sup>47</sup>, the Tribunal may of its own initiative direct that the document or list be filed by a specified date<sup>48</sup>.

Where an application for a direction is made under head (5) above<sup>49</sup> suspending the effect of an Authority notice, the Tribunal may give the direction only if it is satisfied that to do so would not prejudice the interests of any persons (whether consumers, investors or otherwise) intended to be protected by the Authority notice<sup>50</sup> or the smooth operation or integrity of any market intended to be protected by that notice<sup>51</sup>.

If the Tribunal gives a direction under head (6) above<sup>52</sup> permitting or requiring a party to provide a supplementary statement or to amend a response document or supplementary statement, the direction may require that party to file any such statement or amendment and send a copy to the other party<sup>53</sup>.

The Tribunal must not give a direction under head (7) or head (9) above<sup>54</sup> in relation to the disclosure of any document to the extent that the Tribunal is satisfied that:

- 169 (A) it is a protected item or would be included in an exemption<sup>55</sup>; or
- 170 (B) it should not be disclosed on one of the grounds specified<sup>56</sup>; and, for the purpose of determining whether such a direction should be given in respect of any such document, the Tribunal may require that the document be produced to the Tribunal<sup>57</sup>, hear the application in the absence of any party<sup>58</sup>, and invite any party to make representations<sup>59</sup>.

In the case of an application for a direction under head (15) above<sup>60</sup> that the register<sup>61</sup> should include no particulars about the reference, the Tribunal may give the direction if it is satisfied that this is necessary, having regard to the interests of morals, public order, national security or the protection of the private lives of the parties<sup>62</sup> or to any unfairness to the applicant or prejudice to the interests of consumers that might result from the register including particulars about the reference<sup>63</sup>.

54. Miscellaneous powers of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

Without limiting any other powers conferred on it by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> may, if it thinks fit:

- 171 (1) order any response document<sup>3</sup>, supplementary statement<sup>4</sup> or written representation to be struck out at any stage of the proceedings on the ground that it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious<sup>5</sup>; or
- 172 (2) order any reference<sup>6</sup> to be struck out for want of prosecution<sup>7</sup>.

Before making any order under heads (1) and (2) above, the Tribunal must give notice to the party<sup>8</sup> against whom it is proposed that the order should be made, giving it an opportunity to make representations<sup>9</sup> against the making of the order<sup>10</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/55. Failure to comply with direction etc.

55. Failure to comply with direction etc.

Where a party<sup>1</sup> has, without reasonable excuse, failed to comply:

- 173 (1) with a direction<sup>2</sup> given under the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001<sup>3</sup>; or
- 174 (2) with a provision of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001<sup>4</sup>, the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>5</sup> may take any one or more of the following steps in respect of that party:

- 175 (a) make a costs order<sup>6</sup> against that party<sup>7</sup>;
- 176 (b) where that party is the applicant<sup>8</sup>, dismiss the whole or part of the reference<sup>9</sup> (or, if there is more than one applicant, that applicant's reference)<sup>10</sup>;
- 177 (c) where that party is the Financial Services Authority<sup>11</sup>, strike out the whole or part of the statement of case<sup>12</sup> and, where appropriate, direct that the Authority be debarred from contesting the reference altogether<sup>13</sup>.

The Tribunal must not take any of these steps in respect of a party unless it has given that party notice, giving it an opportunity to make representations<sup>14</sup> against the taking of any such steps<sup>15</sup>.

Any irregularity resulting from failure to comply with any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001 or of any direction of the Tribunal before the Tribunal has reached its decision does not of itself render the proceedings void<sup>16</sup>. Where any such irregularity comes to the attention of the Tribunal, the Tribunal may, and must if it considers that any person may have been prejudiced by the irregularity, give such directions as it thinks just to cure or waive the irregularity<sup>17</sup>.

Clerical mistakes in any document<sup>18</sup> recording a direction or decision of the Chairman<sup>19</sup> or the Tribunal, or errors arising in such a document from an accidental slip or omission, may be corrected by a certificate signed by the Chairman<sup>20</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/56. Evidence and summoning of witnesses.

56. Evidence and summoning of witnesses.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may by summons require any person to attend, at such time and place as is specified in the summons, to give evidence or to produce any document<sup>2</sup> in his custody or under his control which the Tribunal considers it necessary to examine<sup>3</sup>.

The Tribunal may take evidence on oath and for that purpose administer oaths<sup>4</sup>, or it may, instead of administering an oath, require the person examined to make and subscribe a declaration of the truth of the matters in respect of which he is examined<sup>5</sup>.

The Tribunal may by summons require any person to:

- 178 (1) attend, at such time and place as is specified in the summons, to give evidence as a witness<sup>6</sup>;
- 179 (2) file<sup>7</sup>, within the time specified in the summons, any document<sup>8</sup> in his custody or under his control which the Tribunal considers it necessary to examine<sup>9</sup>; or
- 180 (3) both attend and file in accordance with heads (1) and (2) above<sup>10</sup>.

No person may be required to file a document to the extent that the Tribunal is satisfied that:

- 181 (a) it is a protected item<sup>11</sup> or would be included in an exemption<sup>12</sup>; or
- 182 (b) it should not be disclosed on the ground that disclosure would not be in the public interest, or would not be fair, having regard to the likely significance of the document to the applicant in relation to the matter referred to the Tribunal and the potential prejudice to the commercial interests of a person other than the applicant which would be caused by disclosure<sup>13</sup>.

For the purpose of satisfying itself in respect of any such document, the Tribunal may require that the document be produced to the Tribunal<sup>14</sup>, conduct any hearing in the absence of any party<sup>15</sup>, and invite any party to make representations<sup>16</sup>.

A witness summons must be sent so as to be received by the person to whom it is addressed not less than seven days before the time specified in the summons<sup>17</sup>. Every summons under heads (1), (2) and (3) above<sup>18</sup> must contain a statement warning of the penalty for refusal or failure to attend or give evidence<sup>19</sup>.

No person is required, in obedience under heads (1), (2) and (3) above<sup>20</sup>, to travel more than 16 kilometres from his place of residence unless the necessary expenses of his attendance are paid or tendered to him in advance; and when the summons is issued at the request of a party<sup>21</sup>, those expenses must be paid by that party<sup>22</sup>.

The Tribunal may, upon the application of the person to whom the witness summons is addressed, direct that the witness summons be set aside or varied<sup>23</sup>.

A person who without reasonable excuse refuses or fails to attend following the issue of a summons by the Tribunal<sup>24</sup>, or to give evidence is guilty of an offence<sup>25</sup>. A person who without a reasonable excuse alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys, or refuses to produce a document which he may be required to produce for the purposes of proceedings before the Tribunal, is also guilty of an offence<sup>26</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/57. Preliminary hearing.

57. Preliminary hearing.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may direct that any question of fact or law which appears to be in issue in relation to the reference<sup>2</sup> be determined at a preliminary hearing<sup>3</sup>. If, in the opinion of the Tribunal, the determination of that question substantially disposes of the reference, the Tribunal may treat the preliminary hearing as the hearing of the reference and may make such order by way of disposing of the reference as it thinks fit<sup>4</sup>.

If the parties<sup>5</sup> so agree in writing, the Tribunal may determine the question without an oral hearing, but, in any such case, the Tribunal may not at the same time dispose of the reference unless the parties have agreed in writing that it may do so<sup>6</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/58. Withdrawal of reference and unopposed references.

58. Withdrawal of reference and unopposed references.

The applicant<sup>1</sup> may withdraw the reference<sup>2</sup>:

183 (1) at any time before the hearing of the reference, without permission, by filing a notice to that effect<sup>3</sup>; or 184 (2) at the hearing of the reference, with the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal's<sup>4</sup> permission<sup>5</sup>, and the Tribunal may determine any reference that is so withdrawn<sup>6</sup>.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> may state that it does not oppose the reference or that it is withdrawing its opposition to it:

- 185 (a) at any time before the hearing of the reference, without permission, by filing a notice to that effect<sup>8</sup>; or
- 186 (b) at the hearing of the reference, with the Tribunal's permission<sup>9</sup>.

In any case where:

- 187 (i) the Authority makes a statement within head (a) above<sup>10</sup>;
- 188 (ii) the Authority does not file a statement of case within the time limit imposed<sup>11</sup> (or any extended time limit)<sup>12</sup>; or
- 189 (iii) the applicant does not file a reply within any time limit imposed<sup>13</sup> (or any extended time limit)<sup>14</sup>, the Tribunal may (subject to its power to give a direction<sup>15</sup>) determine the reference without an oral hearing<sup>16</sup>, but it must not dismiss a reference without notifying the applicant that it is minded to do so and giving him an opportunity to make representations<sup>17</sup>.

When determining proceedings as described above<sup>18</sup>, the Tribunal may make a costs order<sup>19</sup>.

60. Determination without oral hearing.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may determine a reference<sup>2</sup>, or any particular issue, without an oral hearing in certain situations<sup>3</sup>. Where a reference or an issue is determined without an oral hearing, the Tribunal must consider whether there are circumstances making it undesirable to make a public pronouncement of the whole or part of its decision and may in consequence take any steps, including any one or more of the steps specified in heads (1) to (3) below, but any such step must be taken with a view to ensuring the minimum restriction on public pronouncement that is consistent with the need for the restriction<sup>4</sup>. The steps which the Tribunal may take are: (1) anonymising the decision<sup>5</sup>; (2) editing the text of the decision<sup>6</sup>; (3) declining to publish the whole or part of the decision<sup>7</sup>.

Before reaching such a decision<sup>8</sup>, the Tribunal must invite the parties<sup>9</sup> to make representations<sup>10</sup> on the matter<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the establishment and constitution of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARAS 43-44.

2 As to the meaning of 'reference' see PARA 47 note 1.

3 The Tribunal may determine a reference, or any particular issue, without an oral hearing if:

- 35 (1) the parties agree in writing (Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, r 16(1)(a));
- 36 (2) the issue concerns an application for directions (r 16(1)(b)); or
- 37 (3) the provisions of r 14(3) apply (see PARA 58) (r 16(1)(c)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/61. Hearings in public.

61. Hearings in public.

All hearings<sup>1</sup> must generally be in public<sup>2</sup>. However, the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>3</sup> may direct that all or part of a hearing must be in private:

- 190 (1) upon the application of all the parties<sup>4</sup>; or
- 191 (2) upon the application of any party, if the Tribunal is satisfied that a hearing in private is necessary, having regard to:
- 13
- 16. (a) the interests of morals, public order, national security or the protection of the private lives of the parties<sup>5</sup>; or
- 17. (b) any unfairness to the applicant or prejudice to the interests of consumers that might result from a hearing in public<sup>6</sup>, if, in either case, the Tribunal is satisfied that a hearing in private would not prejudice the interests of justice<sup>7</sup>. Before determining an application under head (2) above<sup>8</sup>, the Tribunal must give the other party an opportunity to make representations<sup>9</sup>. Before giving a direction under heads (1) and (2) above<sup>10</sup> that the entire hearing should be in private, the Tribunal must consider whether only part of the hearing should be heard in private<sup>11</sup>.
- 14

The following persons are entitled to attend any hearing of the Tribunal whether or not it is in private:

- 192 (i) the parties and their representatives<sup>12</sup>;

- 193 (ii) the President of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal or any member of the panel of chairmen or of the lay panel notwithstanding that they are not members of the Tribunal for the purpose of the reference to which the hearing relates<sup>13</sup>;
- 194 (iii) the Secretary to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>14</sup> and any member of the Tribunal's staff<sup>15</sup>; and
- 195 (iv) a member of the Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council<sup>16</sup>.

The Tribunal may permit any other person to attend a hearing which is held in private<sup>17</sup>. The Tribunal may exclude from the whole or part of a hearing any person whose conduct, in the opinion of the Tribunal, has disrupted or is likely to disrupt the hearing<sup>18</sup>.

Where all or part of a hearing is held or is to be held in private, the Tribunal may direct that information about the whole or part of the proceedings before the Tribunal (including information that might help to identify any person) must not be made public, and such a direction may provide for the information (if any) that is to be entered in the register<sup>19</sup> or removed from it<sup>20</sup>. Subject to any such direction<sup>21</sup>, the Secretary must provide for the public inspection at the Tribunal's offices of a daily list of all hearings which are to be held together with information about the time and place fixed for the hearings<sup>22</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'hearing' means any hearing under the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476, but does not include any determination under r 16(1) or the hearing of any application made to the Tribunal without notice to the other party: r 17(1).

The parties<sup>1</sup> may appear at the hearing<sup>2</sup> (with assistance from any person if desired), and may be represented by any person, whether or not that person is legally qualified<sup>3</sup>. However, if in any particular case the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>4</sup> is satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for doing so, it may refuse to permit a person to assist or represent a party at the hearing<sup>5</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/63. Conduct of hearings.

63. Conduct of hearings.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> must conduct all hearings<sup>2</sup> in such manner as it considers most suitable to the clarification of the issues before it and generally to the just, expeditious and economical determination of the proceedings<sup>3</sup>.

Subject to any directions by the Tribunal, the parties are entitled:

- 196 (1) to give evidence (and, with the consent of the Tribunal, to bring expert evidence)<sup>4</sup>;
- 197 (2) to call witnesses<sup>5</sup>;
- 198 (3) to question any witnesses<sup>6</sup>; and
- 199 (4) to address the Tribunal on the evidence, and generally on the subject matter of the reference<sup>7</sup>.

Evidence may be admitted by the Tribunal whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law and whether or not it was available to the Financial Services Authority<sup>8</sup> when taking the referred action<sup>9</sup>.

If a party<sup>10</sup> fails to attend or be represented at any hearing of which it has been duly notified, the Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that there is no good and sufficient reason for the absence:

- 200 (a) in the case of the hearing of the reference, hear and determine the reference in the party's absence<sup>11</sup>; or
- 201 (b) in the case of any other hearing, give any direction, determine any issue or adjourn the hearing<sup>12</sup>.

Decisions of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

64. Decisions of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

A decision of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may be taken by a majority<sup>2</sup>. The decision must state whether it was unanimous or taken by a majority<sup>3</sup> and must be recorded in a document which contains a statement of the reasons for the decision<sup>4</sup> and is signed and dated by the member of the panel of chairmen<sup>5</sup> dealing with the reference<sup>6</sup>.

The Tribunal must inform each party of its decision<sup>7</sup>, and as soon as reasonably practicable send to each party and, if different, to any authorised person<sup>8</sup> concerned a copy of the document mentioned above<sup>9</sup>. The Tribunal must send the Treasury a copy of its decision<sup>10</sup>.

The Tribunal must make arrangements for the public pronouncement of its decisions, whether by giving its decisions orally in open court or by publishing its decisions in writing<sup>11</sup>. However, where the whole or any part of any hearing<sup>12</sup> was in private, the Tribunal must consider whether, having regard to the reason for the hearing or any part of it being in private<sup>13</sup> and to the outcome of the hearing<sup>14</sup>, it would be undesirable to make a public pronouncement of the whole or part of its decision and may in consequence take any steps, including one or more of the steps listed in heads (1) to (3) below, but any such step must be taken with a view to ensuring the minimum restriction on public pronouncement that is consistent with the need for the restriction<sup>15</sup>. The steps which the Tribunal may take are: (1) anonymising the decision<sup>16</sup>; (2) editing the text of the decision<sup>17</sup>; (3) declining to publish the whole or part of the decision<sup>18</sup>.

The Secretary to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup> must as soon as may be practicable enter every decision (and the reasons for the decision) in the register<sup>20</sup>.

Every notification of a decision determining a reference<sup>21</sup> which is sent to the parties<sup>22</sup> must be accompanied by a notification of any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to appeals from the Tribunal and of the time within which and the place at which such appeal or application for permission to appeal may be made<sup>23</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/B. TRIBUNAL PROCEDURE AND PROCEEDINGS/65. Costs.

65. Costs.

If the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> considers that a party to any proceedings on a reference has acted vexatiously, frivolously or unreasonably, it may order that party to pay to another party to the proceedings the whole or part of the costs or expenses incurred by the other party in connection with the proceedings<sup>2</sup>.

If, in any proceedings on a reference, the Tribunal considers that a decision of the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> which is the subject of the reference was unreasonable, it may order the Authority to pay to another party to the proceedings the whole or part of the costs or expenses incurred by the other party in connection with the proceedings<sup>4</sup>.

The Tribunal must not make a costs order<sup>5</sup> without first giving the paying party<sup>6</sup> an opportunity to make representations<sup>7</sup> against the making of the order<sup>8</sup>.

Where the Tribunal makes a cost order, it may order:

- 202 (1) that an amount fixed by the Tribunal must be paid to the receiving party<sup>9</sup> by way of costs or (as the case may be) expenses<sup>10</sup>; or
- 203 (2) that the costs must be assessed or (as the case may be) expenses must be taxed, on such basis as it may specify, by a costs official<sup>11</sup>.

An order of the Tribunal may be enforced as if it were an order of a county court<sup>12</sup>.

66. Sending notices.

Any notice<sup>1</sup> required to be sent<sup>2</sup> under the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001<sup>3</sup> may be sent:

- 204 (1) by a postal service which seeks to deliver documents or other things by post no later than the next working day in all or in the majority of cases<sup>4</sup>;
- 205 (2) by fax or other means of electronic communication<sup>5</sup>; or
- 206 (3) by personal delivery<sup>6</sup>.

A notice must be sent:

- 207 (a) in the case of a notice directed to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>, to the Tribunal's office<sup>8</sup>;
- 208 (b) in the case of a notice directed to the applicant<sup>9</sup>, to his representative<sup>10</sup> or (in any case where there is no representative) to the applicant<sup>11</sup>, at the appropriate address notified to the Tribunal<sup>12</sup>;
- 209 (c) in the case of a notice directed to the Financial Services Authority<sup>13</sup>, to the Authority's head office<sup>14</sup>; or
- 210 (d) otherwise, to the recipient's<sup>15</sup> registered office or last known address<sup>16</sup>.

A notice that is sent is deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to have been received, where it was sent by post, on the second day after it was sent<sup>17</sup> and, in any other case, on the day it was sent<sup>18</sup>. However, where a notice is sent by post to the Tribunal, it is deemed to have been received on the day it was actually received by the Tribunal<sup>19</sup>. No notice is deemed to have been received if it is not received in legible form (or, in the case of a document received in electronic form, if the recipient is not readily able to elicit the information in legible form)<sup>20</sup>.

Where:

- 211 (i) a recipient cannot be found<sup>21</sup>;

- 212 (ii) a recipient has died and has no known personal representative<sup>22</sup>;
- 213 (iii) a recipient has no address for service in the United Kingdom<sup>23</sup>; or
- 214 (iv) for any other reason service on a recipient cannot be readily effected<sup>24</sup>, the Chairman of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>25</sup> may dispense with service on the recipient or may make an order for alternative service on such other person or in such other form (whether by advertisement in a newspaper or otherwise) as the Chairman may think fit<sup>26</sup>.

Where the time prescribed<sup>27</sup> for doing any act expires on a Saturday, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or bank holiday<sup>28</sup>, the act is in time if done on the next following working day<sup>29</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/C. LEGAL ASSISTANCE BEFORE THE TRIBUNAL/67. Legal assistance scheme.

C. LEGAL ASSISTANCE BEFORE THE TRIBUNAL

67. Legal assistance scheme.

The Lord Chancellor may by regulations establish a scheme governing the provision of legal assistance in connection with proceedings before the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup>. If the Lord Chancellor establishes a scheme, it must provide that a person is eligible for assistance only if he is an individual who has referred a matter to the Tribunal<sup>2</sup> and he fulfils such other criteria (if any) as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>.

The legal assistance scheme may, in particular, make provision as to:

- 215 (1) the kinds of legal assistance that may be provided<sup>4</sup>;
- 216 (2) the persons by whom legal assistance may be provided<sup>5</sup>;
- 217 (3) the manner in which applications for legal assistance are to be made<sup>6</sup>;
- 218 (4) the criteria on which eligibility for legal assistance is to be determined<sup>7</sup>;
- 219 (5) the persons or bodies by whom applications are to be determined<sup>8</sup>;
- 220 (6) appeals against refusals of applications<sup>9</sup>;
- 221 (7) the revocation or variation of decisions<sup>10</sup>;
- 222 (8) its administration and the enforcement of its provisions<sup>11</sup>.

Legal assistance under the legal assistance scheme may be provided subject to conditions or restrictions, including conditions as to the making of contributions by the person to whom it is provided<sup>12</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 134(1). For the purposes of Pt IX (ss 132-137), 'legal assistance scheme' means any scheme in force under s 134(1): s 134(4). As to the Lord Chancellor see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 477 et seq. As to the establishment and constitution of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARAS 43-44.

Any power to make an order which is conferred on a Minister of the Crown by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and any power to make regulations which is conferred by the Act is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 428(1). Any statutory instrument made under the Act may: (1) contain such incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision as the person making it considers appropriate; and (2) make different provisions for different cases: s 428(3). Provision is made with respect to the Parliamentary control of statutory instruments: see s 429. Generally, any statutory instrument made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 429(8). 'Minister of the Crown' has the same meaning as in the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975

(see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 363): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1).

In exercise of the power under s 134(1), the Lord Chancellor has made the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3632; and the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance Scheme - Costs) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3633.

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3632, govern the provision of legal assistance in respect of matters which are referred to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal by individuals against whom the Financial Services Authority has decided to take action in respect of alleged market abuse. The Lord Chancellor must fund such legal assistance as the Tribunal directs regarding a relevant reference: reg 3(1). A relevant reference is a reference which the Tribunal is to determine in relation to an individual who: (a) has received a decision notice from the Authority; (b) has referred the matter to the Tribunal under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 127(4) (see PARA 442); and (c) fulfils the criteria set out in the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3632, reg 8: reg 3(2). In addition to provisions on citation, commencement and interpretation (regs 1, 2), the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3632, provide for the manner in which applications for legal assistance are to be made (reg 4); the supply of relevant information to the Tribunal, the issue of a legal assistance order where the application is granted, and what happens where such an application is refused (regs 5-7); the circumstances in which an individual may receive legal assistance, including his financial eligibility, and the interests of justice test (regs 8-10); the assessment of the individual's financial resources, including the calculation of his disposable income and disposable capital (regs 11-34); the determination of any contribution payable (regs 35, 36); the assignment and change of representatives (regs 37-40); the withdrawal of legal assistance and duty to report abuse (regs 41, 42); and the constitution of the Tribunal (reg 43).

The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal (Legal Assistance Scheme - Costs) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3633, make provision for the remuneration of work done under a legal assistance order in respect of cases which are before the Tribunal. In addition to provisions on citation, commencement and extent, interpretation and determination of costs by the appropriate officer (regs 1-3) there are specific provisions dealing with: disbursements (regs 4-7); interim payments and staged payments in long cases (regs 8, 9); hardship payments (reg 10); how claims are to be made, determined and paid (regs 11-18); the re-determination of costs by an appropriate officer, appeals from the appropriate officer to a Costs Judge and appeals from the Costs Judge to the High Court (or Auditor of the Court of Session and Court of Session in Scotland) (regs 19-22); time limits (reg 23); and details of the rates in respect of solicitors' and advocates' fees which are to be paid (Schs 1, 2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/C. LEGAL ASSISTANCE BEFORE THE TRIBUNAL/68. Funding of legal assistance scheme.

68. Funding of legal assistance scheme.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must pay to the Lord Chancellor such sums at such times as he may from time to time determine in respect of the anticipated or actual cost of legal assistance provided in connection with proceedings before the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> under the legal assistance scheme<sup>3</sup>. In order to enable it to pay any such sum which it is obliged to pay<sup>4</sup>, the Authority must make rules requiring the payment to it by authorised persons<sup>5</sup> or any class of authorised person of specified<sup>6</sup> amounts or amounts calculated in a specified way<sup>7</sup>. Sums received by the Lord Chancellor<sup>8</sup> must be paid into the Consolidated Fund<sup>9</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor must, out of money provided by Parliament, fund the cost of legal assistance provided in connection with proceedings before the Tribunal under the legal assistance scheme<sup>10</sup>.

If, as respects a period determined by the Lord Chancellor, the amount paid to him<sup>11</sup> as respects that period exceeds the amount he has expended in that period<sup>12</sup> the Lord Chancellor must:

- 223 (1) repay, out of money provided by Parliament, the excess to the Authority<sup>13</sup>; or
- 224 (2) take the excess into account on the next occasion on which he makes a determination<sup>14</sup>.

The Authority must make provision for any sum repaid to it under head (1) above:

- 225 (a) to be distributed among the authorised persons on whom a levy was imposed in the period in question<sup>15</sup> or among such of those persons as it may determine<sup>16</sup>;
- 226 (b) to be applied in order to reduce any amounts which those persons, or such of them as it may determine, are or will be liable to pay to the Authority<sup>17</sup>; or
- 227 (c) to be partly so distributed and partly so applied<sup>18</sup>.

D. APPEALS

69. Appeals generally.

A party to a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> may with permission<sup>2</sup> appeal to the Court of Appeal on a point of law arising from a decision of the Tribunal disposing of the reference<sup>3</sup>.

If, on an appeal<sup>4</sup>, the court considers that the decision of the Tribunal was wrong in law, it may remit the matter to the Tribunal for rehearing and determination by it<sup>5</sup>, or the court may itself make a determination<sup>6</sup>.

An appeal may not be brought from a decision of the Court of Appeal<sup>7</sup> except with the leave of the Court of Appeal<sup>8</sup>; or the House of Lords<sup>9</sup>.

Rules<sup>10</sup> may make provision for regulating or prescribing any matters incidental to or consequential on an appeal under the provisions described above<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the establishment and constitution of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARAS 43-44.

2 'Permission' means permission given by the Tribunal or by the Court of Appeal: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 137(2). As to decisions relating to permission to appeal see PARA 70.

71. Decision as to permission to appeal.

An application to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>1</sup> for permission to appeal<sup>2</sup> may be decided by the Chairman<sup>3</sup>, on consideration of the application<sup>4</sup>. Unless the decision is made immediately following an oral application or the Chairman considers that special circumstances render a hearing desirable, the application for permission to appeal must be decided without an oral hearing<sup>5</sup>.

The decision of the Tribunal on an application for permission to appeal, together with the reasons for its decision, must be recorded in writing<sup>6</sup>. Unless the decision is given immediately following an oral application, the Secretary to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup> must notify the appellant<sup>8</sup> and each of the other parties<sup>9</sup> of the decision and the reasons for the decision<sup>10</sup>.

Where the Tribunal refuses the application, it must issue a direction<sup>11</sup> that the appellant, if he wishes to seek permission from the Court of Appeal to appeal, must do so within 14 days of the Tribunal's refusal<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(2) THE REGULATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL/(iv) The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal/D. APPEALS/73. Review of the Tribunal's decision.

73. Review of the Tribunal's decision.

If, on the application of a party<sup>1</sup> or of its own initiative, the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>2</sup> is satisfied that:

228 (1) its decision determining a reference<sup>3</sup> was wrongly made as a result of an error on the part of the Tribunal staff<sup>4</sup>; or

229 (2) new evidence has become available since the conclusion of the hearing to which that decision relates, the existence of which could not have been reasonably known of or foreseen<sup>5</sup>, the Tribunal may review and, by certificate signed by the Chairman<sup>6</sup>, set aside the relevant decision<sup>7</sup>. An application may either be made immediately following the decision at the hearing of the reference or must be filed<sup>8</sup> (stating the grounds in full) not later than 14 days after the date on which notification of the decision was sent to the parties<sup>9</sup>. Where the Tribunal proposes to review its decision of its own initiative, it must notify the parties of that proposal not later than 14 days after the date on which the decision was sent to the parties<sup>10</sup>.

The parties must have an opportunity to make representations<sup>11</sup> on any application or proposal for review and the review must be determined either by the same members of the Tribunal who decided the case or by a differently constituted Tribunal appointed by the President<sup>12</sup>.

If, after the decision has been reviewed, the decision is set aside, the Tribunal must substitute such decision as it thinks fit or order a rehearing before either the same or a differently constituted Tribunal<sup>13</sup>.

The certificate of the Chairman as to the setting aside of the Tribunal's decision must be sent to the Secretary to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>14</sup> who must immediately make such correction as may be necessary in the register<sup>15</sup> and must send a copy of the entry so corrected to each party<sup>16</sup>.

(3) OTHER REGULATORY BODIES

74. The Bank of England.

Since the transfer of banking regulation<sup>1</sup> from the Bank of England<sup>2</sup> to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>, the Bank's functions in relation to the regulation of financial services have been reduced but it continues to play a significant role in the management of the economy.

The Bank's functions include maintaining the stability of the financial system and ensuring its effectiveness, and maintaining the integrity and value of the currency<sup>4</sup>. The Bank sets interest rates for sterling, issues bank notes and acts as banker to the commercial banks and to the government. The Bank of England also acts as 'lender of last resort' to banks which are solvent but encounter liquidity problems<sup>5</sup>.

1 See the Bank of England Act 1998; and PARA 793 et seq.

2 As to the Bank of England see PARA 793 et seq.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 See in particular PARA 807.

5 See PARA 807. This role achieved public prominence as a result of the Northern Rock plc crisis in 2007/2008. As to the nationalising powers of the Treasury under the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 (under which Northern Rock plc was ultimately nationalised in 2008) see PARA 791.

75. The London Stock Exchange.

The London Stock Exchange can trace its history back to the eighteenth century and became a regulated exchange in 1801. It is now incorporated under the name London Stock Exchange plc, having previously been an unincorporated company; and the functions formerly carried out by the Council of the Stock Exchange are now vested in the Board of the Stock Exchange<sup>1</sup>. The London Stock Exchange is a recognised investment exchange and thus comes within the statutory provisions on recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses<sup>2</sup>. The Exchange is no longer responsible for listing securities, since this function has been transferred to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>; and the settlement service is now provided by CRESTCo<sup>4</sup> rather than the Exchange. The Exchange retains functions such as managing the Exchange's affairs and property, and its own rules still cover matters that relate to membership of the Exchange for those who use its facilities and markets<sup>5</sup>. The Exchange has a number of markets<sup>6</sup>. Trading facilities are open to all those who have been accepted for listing by the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> and those companies which had obtained listing before the Authority took over that role.

1 As to the objects, powers and duties of the Stock Exchange see the Rules of the London Stock Exchange. See also note 5.

2 See PARA 684 et seq. As a recognised investment exchange the London Stock Exchange is an exempt person, and thus complies with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19: see PARA 80.

As to the transfer of shares in companies in England and Wales see the Companies Act 1985 s 182(1) (prospectively repealed); and COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1042, 1055 (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 ss 541, 544). As to securities as negotiable instruments see s 779 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 188); and COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 382. As to paperless trading and the transfer of securities without a written instrument see the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3755; and COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 421 et seq.

3 See the Official Listing of Securities (Change of Competent Authority) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/968 (spent on the repeal of the Financial Services Act 1986). See also the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 72(1); and PARA 385. As to official listing see PARA 385 et seq. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 See PARA 76.

5 See the Rules of the London Stock Exchange. At the date at which this volume states the law, the most recent version of the rules is that revised and effective from 22 October 2007 in preparation for the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) from 1 November 2007. At that date there is also a General Rulebook Review in operation.

6 Eg the Alternative Investment Market (AIM), which is the main market for unlisted securities in the United Kingdom; TechMark, an international market for innovative technology companies; and the Professional Securities Market (PSM), which enables companies to raise capital through the use of specialist securities (such as debt, convertibles and depositary receipts) to professional or institutional investors. Other markets include the Specialist Fund Market and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs). There is also EDX London which handles derivatives.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(3) OTHER REGULATORY BODIES/76. Other exchanges and clearing houses.

76. Other exchanges and clearing houses.

In addition to the London Stock Exchange<sup>1</sup>, there are several other recognised investment exchanges<sup>2</sup>, which are organised markets for the trading of investments such as equities and derivatives. These exchanges include: the London International Financial Futures and Options Exchange ('LIFFE') (acquired by Euronext in 2002 and also known as Euronext.liffe); the London Metal Exchange; the International Petroleum Exchange of London (known since 2005 as ICE Futures); the OM London Exchange; and the Virt-x Exchange.

Recognised clearing houses include the London Clearing House which provides clearing services for the derivatives exchanges and for over the counter transactions, and CRESTCo which operates a real time settlement system for securities<sup>3</sup>.

77. Lloyd's.

Lloyd's is a society, incorporated by statute, which provides the facilities for the Lloyd's insurance underwriting market to carry on business<sup>1</sup>. The members of Lloyd's, whether individual 'Names' or corporate members, generally form syndicates managed by managing agents. The members of the syndicates are fully liable for their respective shares of the accepted risk: any loss they suffer as a result of contracts of insurance written at Lloyd's does not give rise to a right of action against any person<sup>2</sup>. Members of Lloyd's do not deal directly with the public as business is usually transacted through a broker.

Lloyd's is regulated by the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>. For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate and syndicate membership are specified investments<sup>4</sup>; advising a person to become or cease to be a member of a Lloyd's syndicate, managing the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate as a managing agent, and arranging deals in contracts of insurance written at Lloyd's are specified activities<sup>5</sup>; and Lloyd's is an authorised person<sup>6</sup>, with authority to carry out its market activities<sup>7</sup>. However, although supervised by the Financial Services Authority, the Council of Lloyd's retains the capacity to make byelaws regulating the market and has responsibility for its functioning<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to Lloyd's generally see INSURANCE.

2 As to the circumstances in which a contravention of certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 is actionable by any private person or by certain other persons who suffered loss as a result see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256; and PARAS 33, 83, 376. For the purposes of the definition of 'private person', an individual suffering loss in the course of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance written at Lloyd's is not to be taken to suffer loss in the course of carrying on a regulated activity: see reg 3; and PARA 33. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the regulation of Lloyd's see PARA 741 et seq. In particular, the Authority may make a direction applying certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to members of Lloyd's (see ss 316, 317; and PARA 743), and may give directions to the Council of Lloyd's, to the Society, or to both (see s 318; and PARA 745).

4 As to specified investments see PARA 224.

5 As to specified activities see PARA 88 et seq. As to advising about investments see PARA 174. As to managing investments see PARA 152. As to arranging deals see PARA 139.

6 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 315(1); and PARA 744.

7 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 315(2); and PARA 744.

8 See the Lloyd's Act 1982; and INSURANCE vol 25 (2003 Reissue) PARA 24. The Authority must keep itself informed about the way in which the Council of Lloyd's supervises and regulates the Lloyd's market and the way in which regulated activities are being carried out: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 314; and PARA 742.

The Panel on Takeovers and Mergers is the body responsible for the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers, which is a code issued for the purpose of ensuring good business practice in the conduct of takeovers and mergers<sup>1</sup>. This code may be endorsed by the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup>.

79. EEA and overseas authorities.

Overseas regulatory authorities may have a role in enforcement, particularly where the matter relates to an EEA firm<sup>1</sup> which is exercising its passport rights in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup>, or where a Treaty firm<sup>3</sup> is exercising Treaty rights<sup>4</sup>. They also have a role in the recognition of collective investment schemes constituted in other EEA states<sup>5</sup>.

Overseas authorities will, of course, be involved where the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> is exercising its powers in support of an overseas regulator<sup>7</sup>.

(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES

(i) The General Prohibition and the Requirement for Permission

80. The general prohibition.

No person may carry on a regulated activity<sup>1</sup> in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup>, or purport to do so, unless he is an authorised person<sup>3</sup> or an exempt person<sup>4</sup>. This prohibition is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the 'general prohibition'<sup>5</sup>.

A person who contravenes the general prohibition is guilty of an authorisation offence<sup>6</sup>.

In proceedings for an authorisation offence it is a defence for the accused to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>7</sup>.

A person who is neither an authorised person nor, in relation to the regulated activity in question, an exempt person is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup> if he:

- 230 (1) describes himself (in whatever terms) as an authorised person<sup>9</sup>;
- 231 (2) describes himself (in whatever terms) as an exempt person in relation to the regulated activity<sup>10</sup>; or
- 232 (3) behaves, or otherwise holds himself out, in a manner which indicates (or which is reasonably likely to be understood as indicating) that he is an authorised person or an exempt person in relation to the regulated activity<sup>11</sup>.

In proceedings for such an offence it is a defence for the accused to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>12</sup>.

- 1 As to regulated activities, including the 'by way of business' test, see PARA 84.
- 2 As to the meaning of 'carrying on a regulated activity in the United Kingdom' see PARA 86.
- 3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19(1)(a). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.
- 4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19(1)(b). 'Exempt person', in relation to a regulated activity, means a person who is exempt from the general prohibition in relation to that activity as a result of an exemption order made under s 38(1) (see PARA 330) or as a result of s 39(1) (see PARA 346) or s 285(2) or s 285(3) (see PARA 684): s 417(1).
- 5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 19(2), 417(1).
- 6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 23(1), (2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable: (1) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both (s 23(1)(a)); (2) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine, or both (s 23(1)(b)). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.
- 7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 23(3).
- 8 A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 24(3). However, where the conduct constituting the offence involved or included the public display of any material, the maximum fine for the offence is level 5 on the standard scale multiplied by the number of days for which the display continued: s 24(4). As to the standard scale see PARA 27 note 21.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) The General Prohibition and the Requirement for Permission/81. Enforceability of agreements made by and through unauthorised persons.

81. Enforceability of agreements made by and through unauthorised persons.

An agreement<sup>1</sup> made by a person in the course of carrying on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>3</sup> is unenforceable against the other party<sup>4</sup>.

The other party is entitled to recover:

- 233 (1) any money or other property<sup>5</sup> paid or transferred by him under the agreement<sup>6</sup>; and
- 234 (2) compensation for any loss sustained by him as a result of having parted with it<sup>7</sup>.

An agreement<sup>8</sup> made by an authorised person<sup>9</sup> (the 'provider'):

- 235 (a) in the course of carrying on a regulated activity, not in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>10</sup>; but
- 236 (b) in consequence of something said or done by another person (the 'third party') in the course of a regulated activity carried on by the third party in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>11</sup>, is unenforceable against the other party<sup>12</sup>.

The other party is entitled to recover:

- 237 (i) any money or other property<sup>13</sup> paid or transferred by him under the agreement<sup>14</sup>; and
- 238 (ii) compensation for any loss sustained by him as a result of having parted with it<sup>15</sup>.

The commission of an authorisation offence<sup>16</sup> does not make the agreement concerned illegal or invalid to any greater extent than is provided by the provisions above<sup>17</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) The General Prohibition and the Requirement for Permission/82. Unenforceable agreements and accepting deposits in breach of the general prohibition.

82. Unenforceable agreements and accepting deposits in breach of the general prohibition.

Where an agreement is enforceable<sup>1</sup>, the amount of compensation recoverable is the amount agreed by the parties<sup>2</sup> or, on the application of either party, the amount determined by the court<sup>3</sup>.

If the court is satisfied that it is just and equitable in the circumstances of the case, it may allow the agreement to be enforced<sup>4</sup> or money and property<sup>5</sup> paid or transferred under the agreement to be retained<sup>6</sup>.

In considering whether to allow the agreement to be enforced or (as the case may be) the money or property<sup>7</sup> paid or transferred under the agreement to be retained the court must have regard to certain issues<sup>8</sup>. If the case arises as a result of an agreement made by an unauthorised person<sup>9</sup>, the court must have regard to the issue of whether the person carrying on the regulated activity<sup>10</sup> concerned reasonably believed that he was not contravening the general prohibition<sup>11</sup> by making the agreement<sup>12</sup>. If the case arises as a result of an agreement made through an unauthorised person<sup>13</sup>, the court must have regard to the issue of whether the provider knew that the third party was (in carrying on the regulated activity) contravening the general prohibition<sup>14</sup>.

If the person against whom the agreement is unenforceable elects not to perform the agreement<sup>15</sup> or, as a result of these provisions<sup>16</sup>, recovers money paid or other property<sup>17</sup> transferred by him under the agreement<sup>18</sup>, he must repay any money and return any other property received by him under the agreement<sup>19</sup>.

Where an agreement<sup>20</sup> is made between a person (the 'depositor') and another person (the 'deposit-taker') in the course of the carrying on by the deposit-taker of accepting deposits in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>21</sup> then, if the depositor is not entitled under the agreement to recover without delay any money deposited by him, he may apply to the court for an order directing the deposit-taker to return the money to him<sup>22</sup>. The court need not make such an order if it is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable for the money deposited to be returned, having regard to the issue of whether the deposit-taker reasonably believed that he was not contravening the general prohibition by making the agreement<sup>23</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) The General Prohibition and the Requirement for Permission/83. Requirement for permission.

83. Requirement for permission.

If an authorised person<sup>1</sup> carries on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>, or purports to do so, otherwise than in accordance with permission given to him by the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup>, or permission resulting from any other provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>, he is to be taken to have contravened a requirement imposed on him by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>7</sup>.

The contravention does not make a person guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>, nor does it make any transaction void or unenforceable<sup>9</sup>. Contravention does not give rise to any right of action for breach of statutory duty<sup>10</sup> although in prescribed<sup>11</sup> cases the contravention is actionable at the suit of a person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty<sup>12</sup>. The prescribed cases are those where the following conditions are satisfied<sup>13</sup>:

- 239 (1) the action would be brought at the suit of:
- 15
18. (a) a private person<sup>14</sup>; or
19. (b) a person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of a private person and any remedy would be exclusively for the benefit of that private person and could not be effected through an action brought otherwise than at the suit of the fiduciary or representative<sup>15</sup>;
- 16
- 240 (2) the contravention is not of a financial resources requirement under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>16</sup>.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 4(2)(a)(i). For these purposes, 'private person' means

44 (1) any individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on: (a) any regulated activity (reg 3(1)(a)(i)); or (b) any activity which would be a regulated activity apart from any exclusion made in regard to overseas persons or information society services (reg 3(1)(a)(ii) (amended by SI 2002/1775)); and

45 (2) any person who is not an individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on business of any kind (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(1)(b)), but does not include a government, a local authority (in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) or an international organisation (reg 3(1)). As to the meanings of 'government', 'local authority' and 'international organisation' see PARA 33 note 3. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

In regard to head (1) above, an individual who suffers loss in the course of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10 (see PARA 100)) written at Lloyd's is not to be taken to suffer loss in the course of carrying on a regulated activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/A. IN GENERAL/84. Classes of activity and categories of investment.

(ii) Regulated Activities

A. IN GENERAL

84. Classes of activity and categories of investment.

An activity is a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 if it is an activity of a specified<sup>1</sup> kind which is carried on by way of business and:

- 241 (1) relates to an investment<sup>2</sup> of a specified kind<sup>3</sup>; or
- 242 (2) in the case of an activity of a kind which is also specified for these purposes, is carried on in relation to property of any kind<sup>4</sup>.

An order<sup>5</sup> may:

- 243 (a) provide for exemptions<sup>6</sup>;
- 244 (b) confer powers on the Treasury or the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup>;
- 245 (c) authorise the making of regulations or other instruments by the Treasury for purposes of, or connected with, any relevant provision<sup>8</sup>;
- 246 (d) authorise the making of rules or other instruments by the Authority for purposes of, or connected with, any relevant provision<sup>9</sup>;
- 247 (e) make provision in respect of any information or document which, in the opinion of the Treasury or the Authority, is relevant for purposes of, or connected with, any relevant provision<sup>10</sup>;
- 248 (f) make such consequential, transitional or supplemental provision as the Treasury considers appropriate for purposes of, or connected with, any relevant provision<sup>11</sup>.

1 'Specified' means specified in an order made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22(5). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the specified kinds of investments see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544; and PARA 88 et seq. As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets

Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Investment' includes any asset, right or interest: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22(4). See also PARA 85.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22(1)(a).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22(1)(b).

Supplementary provision is made by Sch 2, but nothing in Sch 2 limits the powers conferred by s 22(1): s 22(3).

The following provisions apply to the first order made under s 22(1): s 22(2), Sch 2 para 26(1). They also apply to any subsequent order made under s 22(1) which contains a statement by the Treasury that, in its opinion, the effect (or one of the effects) of the proposed order would be that an activity which is not a regulated activity would become a regulated activity: Sch 2 para 26(2). An order to which Sch 2 para 26 applies must be laid before Parliament after being made; and ceases to have effect at the end of the relevant period unless before the end of that period the order is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament (but without that affecting anything done under the order or the power to make a new order): Sch 2 para 26(3). 'Relevant period' means a period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the order is made: Sch 2 para 26(4). In calculating the relevant period no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days: Sch 2 para 26(5). Statutory instruments made under Sch 2 para 26 are excepted from the general provision that statutory instruments are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament (see PARA 67 note 1): see s 429(8).

The matters with respect to which provision may be made under s 22(1) in respect of activities include, in particular, those described in general terms in Sch 2 Pt I: Sch 2 para 1 (but see PARA 88 et seq). The general range of activities is as follows:

- 46 (1) buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting investments or offering or agreeing to do so, either as a principal or as an agent (Sch 2 para 2(1)) (in the case of an investment which is a contract of insurance, that includes carrying out the contract: Sch 2 para 2(2));
- 47 (2) making, or offering or agreeing to make:
  - 1. (a) arrangements with a view to another person buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting a particular investment (Sch 2 para 3(a));
  - 2. (b) arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting investments (Sch 2 para 3(b));
- 48 (3) accepting deposits (Sch 2 para 4);
- 49 (4) safeguarding and administering assets belonging to another which consist of or include investments or offering or agreeing to do so (Sch 2 para 5(1)), and arranging for the safeguarding and administration of assets belonging to another, or offering or agreeing to do so (Sch 2 para 5(2));
- 50 (5) managing, or offering or agreeing to manage, assets belonging to another person where:
  - 3. (a) the assets consist of or include investments (Sch 2 para 6(a)); or
  - 4. (b) the arrangements for their management are such that the assets may consist of or include investments at the discretion of the person managing or offering or agreeing to manage them (Sch 2 para 6(b));
- 51 (6) giving or offering or agreeing to give advice to persons:
  - 5. (a) on buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting an investment (Sch 2 para 7(a)); or
  - 6. (b) exercising any right conferred by an investment to acquire, dispose of, underwrite or convert an investment (Sch 2 para 7(b));
- 52 (7) establishing, operating or winding up a collective investment scheme, including acting as:
  - 7. (a) trustee of a unit trust scheme (Sch 2 para 8(a));

- 7
8. (b) depositary of a collective investment scheme other than a unit trust scheme (Sch 2 para 8(b)); or
9. (c) sole director of a body incorporated by virtue of regulations under s 262 (see PARA 621) (Sch 2 para 8(c));
- 53 (8) sending on behalf of another person instructions relating to an investment by means of a computer-based system which enables investments to be transferred without a written instrument (Sch 2 para 9(1)), offering or agreeing to send such instructions by such means on behalf of another person (Sch 2 para 9(2)), causing such instructions to be sent by such means on behalf of another person (Sch 2 para 9(3)), offering or agreeing to cause such instructions to be sent by such means on behalf of another person (Sch 2 para 9(4)).

In head (1) above 'buying' includes acquiring for valuable consideration: Sch 2 para 27(1). In head (1) above 'selling' includes disposing for valuable consideration: Sch 2 para 27(1). In Sch 2 para 27(1) 'disposing' includes (i) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under a contract, surrendering, assigning or converting those rights (Sch 2 para 27(2)(a)(i)) or assuming the corresponding liabilities under the contract (Sch 2 para 27(2)(a)(ii)); (ii) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under other arrangements, assuming the corresponding liabilities under the contract or arrangements (Sch 2 para 27(2)(b)); (iii) in the case of any other investment, issuing or creating the investment or granting the rights or interests of which it consists (Sch 2 para 27(2)(c)).

In head (2) above 'offering' includes inviting to treat: Sch 2 para 27(1). As to the meanings of 'collective investment scheme' and 'unit trust scheme' (see head (7) above) see PARA 603. In head (8) above references to an instrument include references to any record (whether or not in the form of a document): Sch 2 para 27(3). As to the meaning of 'documents' see PARA 10 note 10.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/B. CARRYING ON REGULATED ACTIVITIES/86. Carrying on regulated activities in the United Kingdom.

B. CARRYING ON REGULATED ACTIVITIES

86. Carrying on regulated activities in the United Kingdom.

In the five cases described below<sup>1</sup>, a person who is carrying on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup>, but would not otherwise be regarded as carrying it on in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>, is, for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, to be regarded as carrying it on in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>.

The first case is where:

- 264 (1) his registered office (or if he does not have a registered office his head office) is in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>;
- 265 (2) he is entitled to exercise rights under a Single Market Directive<sup>6</sup> as a UK firm<sup>7</sup>; and
- 266 (3) he is carrying on in another EEA state<sup>8</sup> a regulated activity to which that Directive applies<sup>9</sup>.

The second case is where:

- 267 (a) his registered office (or if he does not have a registered office his head office) is in the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
- 268 (b) he is the manager<sup>11</sup> of a scheme which is entitled to enjoy the rights conferred by an instrument which is a relevant Community instrument<sup>12</sup>; and
- 269 (c) persons in another EEA state are invited to become participants in the scheme<sup>13</sup>.

The third case is where:

- 270 (i) his registered office (or if he does not have a registered office his head office) is in the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>;
- 271 (ii) the day-to-day management of the carrying on of the regulated activity is the responsibility of his registered office (or head office)<sup>15</sup>, or another establishment maintained by him in the United Kingdom<sup>16</sup>.

The fourth case is where:

- 272 (A) his head office is not in the United Kingdom<sup>17</sup>; but
- 273 (B) the activity is carried on from an establishment maintained by him in the United Kingdom<sup>18</sup>.

The fifth case is any other case where the activity consists of the provision of an information society service to a person or persons in one or more EEA states<sup>19</sup> and is carried on from an establishment in the United Kingdom<sup>20</sup>.

For the purposes of all five cases<sup>21</sup> it is irrelevant where the person with whom the activity is carried on is situated<sup>22</sup>.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 418(3)(a).

11 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, except in relation to a unit trust scheme or a registered friendly society, 'manager' means an employee who: (1) under the immediate authority of his employer is responsible, either alone or jointly with one or more other persons, for the conduct of his employer's business; or (2) under the immediate authority of his employer or of a person who is a manager by virtue of head (1) above exercises managerial functions or is responsible for maintaining accounts or other records of his employer: s 423(1). As to the meaning of 'unit trust scheme' see PARA 603. As to the meaning of 'registered friendly society' see PARA 351 note 17. If the employer is not an individual, references in s 423(1) to the authority of the employer are references to the authority: (a) in the case of a body corporate, of the directors; (b) in the case of a partnership, of the partners; and (c) in the case of an unincorporated association, of its officers or the members of its governing body: s 423(2). 'Body corporate' includes a body corporate constituted under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom: s 417(1). 'Director', in relation to a body corporate, includes a person occupying in relation to it the position of a director (by whatever name called); and a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions (not being advice given in a professional capacity) the directors of that body are accustomed to act: s 417(1). 'Partnership' includes a partnership constituted under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom: s 417(1). 'Manager', in relation to a body corporate, means a person (other than an employee of the body) who is appointed by the body to manage any part of its business and includes an employee of the body corporate (other than the chief executive) who, under the immediate authority of a director or chief executive of the body corporate, exercises managerial functions or is responsible for maintaining accounts or other records of the body corporate: s 423(3). 'Chief executive': (i) in relation to a body corporate whose principal place of business is within the United Kingdom, means an employee of that body who, alone or jointly with one or more others, is responsible under the immediate authority of the directors, for the conduct of the whole of the business of that body; and (ii) in relation to a body corporate whose principal place of business is outside the United Kingdom, means the person who, alone or jointly with one or more others, is responsible for the conduct of its business within the United Kingdom: s 417(1).

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by order make provision:

- 274 (1) as to the circumstances in which a person who would otherwise not be regarded as carrying on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> by way of business is to be regarded as doing so<sup>3</sup>;
- 275 (2) as to the circumstances in which a person who would otherwise be regarded as carrying on a regulated activity by way of business is to be regarded as not doing so<sup>4</sup>.

An order<sup>5</sup> may be made so as to apply:

- 276 (a) generally in relation to all regulated activities<sup>6</sup>;
- 277 (b) in relation to a specified category of regulated activity<sup>7</sup>; or
- 278 (c) in relation to a particular regulated activity<sup>8</sup>.

Such an order may be made so as to apply for the purposes of all provisions of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup>, for a specified group of such provisions<sup>10</sup>, or for a specified provision<sup>11</sup>.

No such order is to be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House<sup>12</sup>.

Nothing above is to be read as affecting the scope for an order to make different provisions for different cases or contain certain appropriate incidental and other matters<sup>13</sup>.

C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS

(A) INTRODUCTION

88. Activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001.

Any activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001<sup>1</sup>, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order<sup>2</sup> and applicable to that activity, is a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>. Each provision specifying a kind of activity is subject to the exclusions applicable to that provision (and accordingly any reference in the Order to an activity of the kind specified by a particular provision is to be read subject to any such exclusions)<sup>4</sup>. However, where an investment firm<sup>5</sup> or credit institution<sup>6</sup> provides or performs investment services and activities<sup>7</sup> on a professional basis<sup>8</sup>, and in doing so would be treated as carrying on an activity of a kind specified by the Order but for one of certain exclusions<sup>9</sup>, that exclusion is to be disregarded (and accordingly the investment firm or credit institution is to be treated as carrying on an activity of the kind specified by the provision in question)<sup>10</sup>. In addition where a person<sup>11</sup>, for remuneration, takes up or pursues insurance mediation<sup>12</sup> or reinsurance mediation<sup>13</sup> in relation to a risk or commitment located in an EEA state<sup>14</sup>; and in doing so would be treated as carrying on an activity of a kind specified by a provision of the Order but for one of certain exclusions<sup>15</sup>, that exclusion is to be disregarded (and accordingly that person is to be treated as carrying on an activity of the kind specified by the provision in question)<sup>16</sup>. The exemptions which would otherwise be available in these cases are overridden in order to ensure that the scope of the United Kingdom<sup>17</sup> rules is consistent with the provisions of the corresponding Single Market Directives<sup>18</sup>.

1 The specified activities are set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F): see PARAS 89 et seq.

2 The specified investments are set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt III (arts 73-89): see PARA 224.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(1). As to regulated activities under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see s 22; and PARA 84. The kinds of activity specified by art 51 (see PARA 171) and art 52 (see PARA 187) are also specified for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22(1)(b) (see PARA 84) (and accordingly any activity of one of those kinds, when carried on by way of business, is a regulated activity when carried on in relation to property of any kind): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(2). 'Property' includes currency of the United Kingdom or any other country or territory: art 3(1). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(3).

5 For these purposes, 'investment firm' means a person whose regular occupation or business is the provision of investment services and activities on a professional basis but does not include (1) a person to whom the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) on markets in financial instruments) does not apply by virtue of art 2 (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 3 (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see heads (i)-(xiv) below); (2) a person whose home member state is an EEA state other than the United Kingdom and to whom, by reason of the fact that the state has given effect to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 3, that directive does not apply by virtue of that article; (3) a person who does not have a home member state and to whom (if he had his registered office in an EEA state, or, being a person other than a body corporate or a body corporate not having a registered office, if he had his head office in an EEA state) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) would not apply by virtue of art 2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3 (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

'Investment services and activities' means (a) any service provided to third parties listed in the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section A (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt III (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see heads (A)-(G) below) read with European Commission Directive 2006/73 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 26) art 52 (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt IV (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see further below); or (b) any activity listed in the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section A, relating to any financial instrument: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3 (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

'Home member state', in relation to an investment firm, has the meaning given by the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 4.1.20, and in relation to a credit institution, has the meaning given by the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 4.7: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3 (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

'Financial instrument' means any instrument listed in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex 1 Section C (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt I (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see below) read with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch VI (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt II (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see below): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3 (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

The Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) does not apply to the following undertakings (see art 2.1 set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 3 (substituted by SI 2006/3384)):

- 54 (i) insurance undertakings as defined in the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) art 1 or EC Council Directive 79/267 (OJ L63, 13.3.79, p 1) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct life assurance art 1 or undertakings carrying on the reinsurance and retrocession activities referred to in EC Council Directive 64/225 (OJ P56, 4.4.64, p 878) on the abolition of restrictions on freedom of establishment and freedom to provide services in respect of reinsurance and retrocession;
- 55 (ii) persons who provide investment services exclusively for their parent undertakings, for their subsidiaries or for other subsidiaries of their parent undertakings;
- 56 (iii) persons providing an investment service where that service is provided in an incidental manner in the course of a professional activity and that activity is regulated by legal or regulatory provisions or a code of ethics governing the profession which does not exclude the provision of that service;
- 57 (iv) persons who do not provide any investment services or activities other than dealing on own account unless they are market makers or deal on own account outside a regulated market or an MTF (Multilateral Trading Facility) on an organised, frequent and systematic basis by providing a system accessible to third parties in order to engage in dealings with them;
- 58 (v) persons who provide investment services consisting exclusively in the administration of employee-participation schemes;
- 59 (vi) persons who provide investment services which only involve both administration of employee-participation schemes and the provision of investment services exclusively for their parent undertakings, for their subsidiaries or for other subsidiaries of their parent undertakings;
- 60 (vii) the members of the European System of Central Banks and other national bodies performing similar functions and other public bodies charged with or intervening in the management of the public debt;
- 61 (viii) collective investment undertakings and pension funds whether coordinated at Community level or not and the depositaries and managers of such undertakings;
- 62 (ix) persons dealing on own account in financial instruments, or providing investment services in commodity derivatives or derivative contracts included in the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I, Section C10 to the clients of their main business, provided this is an ancillary activity to their main business, when considered on a group basis, and that main business is not the provision of investment services within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Services Directive or banking services under European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2000/12 (OJ L126, 26.5.2000, p 1) on the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions;
- 63 (x) persons providing investment advice in the course of providing another professional activity not covered by this directive (ie the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) provided that the provision of such advice is not specifically remunerated;

- 64 (xi) persons whose main business consists of dealing on own account in commodities and/or commodity derivatives. This exception does not apply where the persons that deal on own account in commodities and/or commodity derivatives are part of a group the main business of which is the provision of other investment services within the meaning of this directive or banking services under European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2000/12 (OJ L126, 26.5.2000, p 1);
- 65 (xii) firms which provide investment services and/or perform investment activities consisting exclusively in dealing on own account on markets in financial futures or options or other derivatives and on cash markets for the sole purpose of hedging positions on derivatives markets or which deal for the accounts of other members of those markets or make prices for them and which are guaranteed by clearing members of the same markets, where responsibility for ensuring the performance of contracts entered into by such firms is assumed by clearing members of the same markets;
- 66 (xiii) associations set up by Danish and Finnish pensions funds with the sole aim of managing the assets of pension funds that are members of those associations;
- 67 (xiv) 'agenti di cambio' whose activities and functions are governed by Article 201 of Italian Legislative Decree No 58 of 24 February 1998.

The rights conferred by the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) do not extend to the provision of services as counterparty in transactions carried out by public bodies dealing with public debt or by members of the European System of Central Banks performing their tasks as provided for by the Treaty and the Statute of the European System of Central Banks and of the European Central Bank or performing equivalent functions under national provisions: art 2.2. In order to take account of developments on financial markets, and to ensure the uniform application of this directive, the Commission, acting in accordance with the procedure referred to in art 64(2), may, in respect of exemptions (c), (i) and (k) (see heads (iii), (ix), (xi) above) define the criteria for determining when an activity is to be considered as ancillary to the main business on a group level as well as for determining when an activity is provided in an incidental manner: art 2.3.

The services provided to third parties listed in the Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section A (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt III (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see above) are as follows: (A) reception and transmission of orders in relation to one or more financial instruments; (B) execution of orders on behalf of clients; (C) dealing on own account; (D) portfolio management; (E) investment advice; (F) underwriting of financial instruments and/or placing of financial instruments on a firm commitment basis; (G) placing of financial instruments without a firm commitment basis; (H) operation of Multilateral Trading Facilities.

European Commission Directive 2006/73 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 26) art 52 (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt IV (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see above) is as follows: 'For the purposes of the definition of 'investment advice' in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive [ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)] art 4(1)(4), a personal recommendation is a recommendation that is made to a person in his capacity as an investor or potential investor, or in his capacity as an agent for an investor or potential investor. That recommendation must be presented as suitable for that person, or must be based on a consideration of the circumstances of that person, and must constitute a recommendation to take one of the following sets of steps: (aa) to buy, sell, subscribe for, exchange, redeem, hold or underwrite a particular financial instrument; (bb) to exercise or not to exercise any right conferred by a particular financial instrument to buy, sell, subscribe for, exchange, or redeem a financial instrument. A recommendation is not a personal recommendation if it is issued exclusively through distribution channels or to the public.'

The Markets in Financial Services Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex 1 Section C (as reproduced in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt I (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (relevant to the definition of 'financial instrument': see above) is as follows:

- 1. Transferable securities;
- 2. Money-market instruments;
- 3. Units in collective investment undertakings;
- 4. Options, futures, swaps, forward rate agreements and any other derivative contracts relating to securities, currencies, interest rates or yields, or other derivatives instruments, financial indices or financial measures which may be settled physically or in cash;

5. Options, futures, swaps, forward rate agreements and any other derivative contracts relating to commodities that must be settled in cash or may be settled in cash at the option of one of the parties (otherwise than by reason of a default or other termination event);

6. Options, futures, swaps, and any other derivative contracts relating to commodities that can be physically settled provided that they are traded on a regulated market and/or an MTF;

7. Options, futures, swaps, forwards and any other derivative contracts relating to commodities, that can be physically settled not otherwise mentioned in C6 and not being for commercial purposes, which have the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments, having regard to whether, inter alia, they are cleared and settled through recognised clearing houses or are subject to regular margin calls;

8. Derivative instruments for the transfer of credit risk;

9. Financial contracts for differences;

10. Options, futures, swaps, forward rate agreements and any other derivative contracts relating to climatic variables, freight rates, emission allowances or inflation rates or other official economic statistics that must be settled in cash or may be settled in cash at the option of one of the parties (otherwise than by reason of a default or other termination event), as well as any other derivative contracts relating to assets, rights, obligations, indices and measures not otherwise mentioned in this Section, which have the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments, having regard to whether, inter alia, they are traded on a regulated market or an MTF, are cleared and settled through recognised clearing houses or are subject to regular margin calls.'

EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch VI (as reproduced in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 2 Pt II (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (relevant to the definition of 'financial instrument': see above) is as follows:

'Derivative Financial Instruments: Article 38: Characteristics of other derivative financial instruments

1. For the purposes of Section C(7) of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC, a contract which is not a spot contract within the meaning of paragraph 2 of this Article and which is not covered by paragraph 4 shall be considered as having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments and not being for commercial purposes if it satisfies the following conditions:

68 (a) it meets one of the following sets of criteria:

10. (i) it is traded on a third country trading facility that performs a similar function to a regulated market or an MTF;

10

11. (ii) it is expressly stated to be traded on, or is subject to the rules of, a regulated market, an MTF or such a third country trading facility;

11

12. (iii) it is expressly stated to be equivalent to a contract traded on a regulated market, MTF or such a third country trading facility;

12

69 (b) it is cleared by a clearing house or other entity carrying out the same functions as a central counterparty, or there are arrangements for the payment or provision of margin in relation to the contract;

70 (c) it is standardised so that, in particular, the price, the lot, the delivery date or other terms are determined principally by reference to regularly published prices, standard lots or standard delivery dates.

2. A spot contract for the purposes of paragraph 1 means a contract for the sale of a commodity, asset or right, under the terms of which delivery is scheduled to be made within the longer of the following periods:

71 (a) two trading days;

72 (b) the period generally accepted in the market for that commodity, asset or right as the standard delivery period.

However, a contract is not a spot contract if, irrespective of its explicit terms, there is an understanding between the parties to the contract that delivery of the underlying is to be postponed and not to be performed within the period mentioned in the first subparagraph.

3. For the purposes of Section C(10) of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC, a derivative contract relating to an underlying referred to in that Section or in Article 39 shall be considered to have the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments if one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- 73 (a) that contract is settled in cash or may be settled in cash at the option of one or more of the parties, otherwise than by reason of a default or other termination event;
- 74 (b) that contract is traded on a regulated market or an MTF;
- 75 (c) the conditions laid down in paragraph 1 are satisfied in relation to that contract.

4. A contract shall be considered to be for commercial purposes for the purposes of Section C(7) of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC, and as not having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments for the purposes of Sections C(7) and (10) of that Annex, if it is entered into with or by an operator or administrator of an energy transmission grid, energy balancing mechanism or pipeline network, and it is necessary to keep in balance the supplies and uses of energy at a given time.

Article 39: Derivatives Within Section C(10) of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC

In addition to derivative contracts of a kind referred to in Section C(10) of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC, a derivative contract relating to any of the following shall fall within that Section if it meets the criteria set out in that Section and in Article 38(3):

- 76 (a) telecommunications bandwidth;
- 77 (b) commodity storage capacity;
- 78 (c) transmission or transportation capacity relating to commodities, whether cable, pipeline or other means;
- 79 (d) an allowance, credit, permit, right or similar asset which is directly linked to the supply, distribution or consumption of energy derived from renewable resources;
- 80 (e) a geological, environmental or other physical variable;
- 81 (f) any other asset or right of a fungible nature, other than a right to receive a service, that is capable of being transferred;
- 82 (g) an index or measure related to the price or value of, or volume of transactions in any asset, right, service or obligation.'

6 'Credit institution' means (1) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) other than an institution to which art 2.1 (the text of which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 3 (substituted by SI 2006/3384)) (see note 5) applies; or (2) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under the Banking Consolidation Directive (other than an institution to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) art 2.1 would apply) if it had its registered office (or if it does not have a registered office, its head office) in an EEA state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3 (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

7 As to the meaning of 'investment services and activities' see note 5.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4)(a) (art 4(4) substituted by SI 2006/ 3384).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4)(b) (as substituted: see note 8). The exclusions are in any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15 (see PARA 113), art 16 (see PARA 114), art 19 (see PARA 118), art 22 (see PARA 127), art 23 (see PARA 128), art 29 (see PARA 139), art 38 (see PARA 153), art 67 (see PARAS 129, 141, 164, 178), art 68 (see PARAS 120, 130, 142, 155, 165, 179), art 69 (see PARAS 121, 131, 143, 156, 166, 196, 180), art 70 (see PARAS 122, 132, 144, 181) and art 72E (see PARAS 138, 151, 159, 170, 173, 186).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4) (as substituted: see note 8).

11 Ie other than a person specified by the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation) art 1.2 which is set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 4 Pt I (added by SI 2003/1476) which refers to the Directive not applying to persons providing mediation services for insurance contracts if all the following conditions are met:

- 83 (1) the insurance contract only requires knowledge of the insurance cover that is provided;
- 84 (2) the insurance contract is not a life assurance contract;
- 85 (3) the insurance contract does not cover any liability risks;
- 86 (4) the principal professional activity of the person is other than insurance mediation;
- 87 (5) the insurance is complementary to the product or service supplied by any provider, where such insurance covers: (a) the risk of breakdown, loss of or damage to goods supplied by that provider; or (b) damage to or loss of baggage and other risks linked to the travel booked with that provider, even if the insurance covers life assurance or liability risks, provided that the cover is ancillary to the main cover for the risks linked to that travel;
- 88 (6) the amount of the annual premium does not exceed 500 euros and the total duration of the insurance contract, including any renewals, does not exceed five years.

12 'Insurance mediation' has the meaning given by the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3)) art 2.3 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(5) (definition added by SI 2003/1476)), the text of which is set out in Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 4 Pt II (added by SI 2003/1476) as follows: 'Insurance mediation' means the activities of introducing, proposing or carrying out other work preparatory to the conclusion of contracts of insurance, or of concluding such contracts, or of assisting in the administration and performance of such contracts, in particular in the event of a claim. These activities when undertaken by an insurance undertaking or an employee of an insurance undertaking who is acting under the responsibility of the insurance undertaking shall not be considered as insurance mediation. The provision of information on an incidental basis in the context of another professional activity provided that the purpose of that activity is not to assist the customer in concluding or performing an insurance contract, the management of claims of an insurance undertaking on a professional basis, and loss adjusting and expert appraisal of claims shall also not be considered as insurance mediation.'

13 'Reinsurance mediation' has the meaning given by the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3)) art 2.4 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(5) (definition added by SI 2003/1476)), the text of which is set out in Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 4 Pt III (added by SI 2003/1476) as follows: 'Reinsurance mediation' means the activities of introducing, proposing or carrying out other work preparatory to the conclusion of contracts of reinsurance, or of concluding such contracts, or of assisting in the administration and performance of such contracts, in particular in the event of a claim. These activities when undertaken by a reinsurance undertaking or an employee of a reinsurance undertaking who is acting under the responsibility of the reinsurance undertaking are not considered as reinsurance mediation. The provision of information on an incidental basis in the context of another professional activity provided that the purpose of that activity is not to assist the customer in concluding or performing a reinsurance contract, the management of claims of a reinsurance undertaking on a professional basis, and loss adjusting and expert appraisal of claims shall also not be considered as reinsurance mediation.'

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4A)(a) (art 4(4A) added by SI 2003/1476).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4A)(b) (as added: see note 14). The exclusions are in any of art 30 (see PARA 139), art 66 (see PARAS 119, 140, 154, 106, 163, 195, 177, 206, 212, 218) and art 67 (see PARAS 129, 141, 107, 164, 178-179).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 4(4A) (as added: see note 14).

88 Activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001

NOTE 3--The kinds of activity specified by SI 2001/544 art 63N (PARA 220B) are also specified for the purposes of 2000 Act s 22(1)(b): SI 2001/544 art 4(2) (amended by SI 2009/1389).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(B) Accepting Deposits/89. Accepting deposits.

(B) ACCEPTING DEPOSITS

89. Accepting deposits.

Accepting deposits<sup>1</sup> is a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup> if: (1) money received by way of deposit is lent to others<sup>3</sup>; or (2) any other activity of the person accepting the deposit is financed wholly, or to a material extent, out of the capital of or interest on money received by way of deposit<sup>4</sup>.

A person who carries on the activity of accepting deposits is not to be regarded as doing so by way of business<sup>5</sup> if: (a) he does not hold himself out as accepting deposits on a day to day basis<sup>6</sup>; and (b) any deposits which he accepts are accepted only on particular occasions, whether or not involving the issue of any securities<sup>7</sup>.

Certain deposits are specifically excluded<sup>8</sup>. There are exclusions for sums paid by certain persons<sup>9</sup>, sums paid by solicitors<sup>10</sup>, sums paid by certain authorised persons<sup>11</sup>, sums received in consideration for the issue of debt securities<sup>12</sup> and sums received in exchange for electronic money<sup>13</sup>. There is also an exclusion for any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'deposit' means a sum of money, other than one excluded by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 6-9A (see PARA 90 et seq), paid on terms:

- 89 (1) under which it will be repaid, with or without interest or premium, and either on demand or at a time or in circumstances agreed by or on behalf of the person making the payment and the person receiving it (art 5(2)(a) (art 5(2) amended by SI 2002/682)); and
- 90 (2) which are not referable to the provision of property (other than currency) or services or the giving of security (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5(2)(b) (as so amended)).

As to the meaning of 'property' see PARA 88 note 3. 'Security' means (except where the context otherwise requires) any investment of the kind specified by any of arts 76-82 (see PARA 224) or, so far as relevant to any such investment, art 89 (see PARA 224): art 3(1). For the purposes of art 5(2), money is paid on terms which are referable to the provision of property or services or the giving of security if, and only if:

- 91 (a) it is paid by way of advance or part payment under a contract for the sale, hire or other provision of property or services, and is repayable only in the event that the property or services is or are not in fact sold, hired or otherwise provided (art 5(3)(a));
- 92 (b) it is paid by way of security for the performance of a contract or by way of security in respect of loss which may result from the non-performance of a contract (art 5(3)(b)); or
- 93 (c) without prejudice to head (b) above, it is paid by way of security for the delivery up or return of any property, whether in a particular state of repair or otherwise (art 5(3)(c)).

2 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5(1)(a).

'Pension fund management contract' means a contract to manage the investments of pension funds (other than funds solely for the benefit of the officers or employees of the person effecting or carrying out the contract and their dependants or, in the case of a company, partly for the benefit of officers and employees and their dependants of its subsidiary or holding company or a subsidiary of its holding company); and for the purposes of this definition, 'subsidiary' and 'holding company' are to be construed in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 s 736 (prospectively repealed) (COMPANIES) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 s 1159) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 4: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1). 'Annuities on human life' does not include superannuation allowances and annuities payable out of any fund applicable solely to the relief and maintenance of persons engaged, or who have been engaged, in any particular profession, trade or employment, or of the dependants of such persons: art 3(1). As to the meaning of 'funeral plan contract' see art 59; and PARA 200 note 1.

For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, a contract of insurance is to be treated as falling within Sch 1 Pt II (see heads (i)-(ix) above), notwithstanding the fact that it contains related and subsidiary provisions such that it might also be regarded as falling within Sch 1 Pt I (see heads (A)-(R) above), if its principal object is that of a contract falling within Sch 1 Pt II (see heads (i)-(ix) above) and it is effected or carried out by an authorised person who has permission to effect or carry out contracts falling within head (i) above: see art 3(3).

As to insurance generally see INSURANCE.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 6(1)(a)(iii). A qualifying EEA firm is one which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(b), (c) or (d) (see PARA 315 note 1) (other than one falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 6(1)(a)(ii)): art 6(1)(a)(iii).

Exclusion for sums received by persons authorised to deal, etc.

92. Exclusion for sums received by persons authorised to deal, etc.

A sum is not a deposit<sup>1</sup> if it is received by a person who is an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified in heads (1) to (6) below<sup>2</sup>, or an exempt person in relation to any such activity<sup>3</sup>, in the course of, or for the purpose of, carrying on that activity (or any activity which would be such an activity but for any exclusion made) with or on behalf of the person by or on behalf of whom the sum is paid<sup>4</sup>. The specified activities referred to above are:

- 283 (1) dealing in investments as principal<sup>5</sup>;
- 284 (2) dealing in investments as agent<sup>6</sup>;
- 285 (3) arranging deals in investments<sup>7</sup>;
- 286 (4) managing investments<sup>8</sup>;

- 287 (5) establishing, operating or winding up a collective investment scheme, etc<sup>9</sup>;
 288 (6) establishing, operating or winding up a stakeholder pension scheme<sup>10</sup>.

1. See for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5: see PARA 89. As to the meaning of 'deposit' see PARA 89 note 1.

2. Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 8(a). See notes 5-10.

Exclusion for sums received in consideration for the issue of debt securities.

93. Exclusion for sums received in consideration for the issue of debt securities.

A sum is not a deposit<sup>1</sup> if it is received by a person as consideration for the issue by him of debt securities<sup>2</sup>. However, this exclusion does not apply to the receipt by a person of a sum as consideration for the issue by him of commercial paper<sup>3</sup> unless:

- 289 (1) the commercial paper is issued to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses<sup>4</sup>, or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses<sup>5</sup>; and 290 (2) the redemption value of the commercial paper is not less than £100,000 (or an amount of equivalent value denominated wholly or partly in a currency other than sterling), and no part of the commercial paper may be transferred unless the redemption value of that part is not less than £100,000 (or such an equivalent amount)<sup>6</sup>.

1. See for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5: see PARA 89. As to the meaning of 'deposit' see PARA 89 note 1.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9(1). Debt securities are any investment of the kind specified by art 77 or art 78 (see PARA 224): see art 9(1). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

3 For these purposes, 'commercial paper' means an investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 77 (see PARA 224) or art 78 (see PARA 224) having a maturity of less than one year from the date of issue: art 9(3) (substituted by SI 2002/682).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9(2)(a)(i).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9(2)(a)(ii).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9(2)(b).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(B) Accepting Deposits/94. Exclusion for sums received in exchange for electronic money.

94. Exclusion for sums received in exchange for electronic money.

1 Ie for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5: see PARA 89. As to the meaning of 'deposit' see PARA 89 note 1.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9A (added by SI 2002/682). 'Electronic money' means monetary value, as represented by a claim on the issuer, which is: (1) stored on an electronic device; (2) issued on receipt of funds; and (3) accepted as a means of payment by persons other than the issuer: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2002/682).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(B) Accepting Deposits/95. Exclusion for information society services.

95. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). The exclusion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) does not apply to the activity of effecting or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal, where:

- 133 (1) the activity is carried on by an undertaking which has received official authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(a) (art 72A as so added; art 72A(2)(a) amended by SI 2005/2114)); and

- 134 (2) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives (art 72A(2)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9AA (added by SI 2002/1776). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

(C) ISSUING ELECTRONIC MONEY

96. Issuing electronic money.

1 As to the meaning of 'electronic money' see PARA 94 note 2.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9B (added by SI 2002/682). The reference to a specified kind of activity is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/ (C) Issuing Electronic Money/97. Exclusion for persons certified as small issuers etc.

97. Exclusion for persons certified as small issuers etc.

An application for a certificate may be made by a body corporate, or a partnership (other than a credit institution) which has its head office in the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority must, on the application of 'A', give A a certificate if it appears to the Authority that one of the three situations described below applies<sup>7</sup>.

The first situation is if:

- 291 (1) A does not issue electronic money except on terms that the electronic device on which the monetary value is stored is subject to a maximum storage amount of not more than 150 euros<sup>8</sup>; and
- 292 (2) A's total liabilities with respect to the issuing of electronic money do not (or will not) usually exceed 5 million euros and do not (or will not) ever exceed 6 million euros<sup>9</sup>.

The second situation is if:

- 293 (a) the condition in head (1) above is met<sup>10</sup>;
- 294 (b) A's total liabilities with respect to the issuing of electronic money do not (or will not) exceed 10 million euros<sup>11</sup>; and
- 295 (c) electronic money issued by A is accepted as a means of payment only by: (i) subsidiaries of A which perform operational or other ancillary functions related to electronic money issued or distributed by A<sup>12</sup>; or (ii) other members of the same group as A (other than subsidiaries of A)<sup>13</sup>.

The third situation is if:

- 296 (A) the conditions in heads (1) and (b) above are met<sup>14</sup>; and
- 297 (B) electronic money issued by A is accepted as a means of payment, in the course of business, by not more than one hundred persons where those persons accept such electronic money only at locations<sup>15</sup> within the same premises or limited local area<sup>16</sup>, or those persons have a close financial or business relationship with A<sup>17</sup> such as a common marketing or distribution scheme<sup>18</sup>.

A number of provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>19</sup> apply to applications to the Authority for such certificates (and the determination of such applications) as they apply to other applications<sup>20</sup> (and their determination)<sup>21</sup>. An application for such a certificate must include the address of a place in the United Kingdom for the service of notices or other documents<sup>22</sup>. It must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct and contain or be accompanied by such information as the Authority may reasonably require as well as such further information it may require at any time between the receipt and the determination of the application that it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>23</sup>. There may be different directions given and different requirements imposed in relation to different applications or categories of application<sup>24</sup> and the information may be required to be provided in such form or verified in such a way as the Authority may direct<sup>25</sup>. An application must be determined by the Authority before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it received the completed application<sup>26</sup>. The Authority may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so; and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it received the application<sup>27</sup>. The applicant may withdraw his application, by giving the Authority written notice, at any time before the Authority determines it<sup>28</sup>. If the Authority grants an application for, or for variation of, a certificate, it must give the applicant written notice<sup>29</sup>. Such notice must state the date from which the certificate, or the variation, has effect<sup>30</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse an application, it must give the applicant a warning notice and if it decides to refuse an application it must give the applicant a written notice<sup>31</sup>. An applicant aggrieved by the determination of an application may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>32</sup>.

The Authority may make rules<sup>33</sup> applying to authorised persons with permission to carry on the issue of electronic money<sup>34</sup>, prohibiting the issue of electronic money having a monetary value greater than the funds received<sup>35</sup>.

A person who is not a certified person<sup>36</sup> is to be treated as guilty of an offence<sup>37</sup> if he describes himself (in whatever terms) as a certified person<sup>38</sup> or if he behaves, or otherwise holds himself out, in a manner which indicates (or which is reasonably likely to be understood as indicating) that he is a certified person<sup>39</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'electronic money' see PARA 94 note 2.

2 I.e. an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

15 For these purposes, locations are to be treated as situated within the same premises or limited local area if they are situated within:

135 (1) a shopping centre, airport, railway station, bus station, or campus of a university, polytechnic, college, school or similar educational establishment (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9C(7)(a) (as added: see note 4)); or

136 (2) an area which does not exceed four square kilometres (art 9C(7)(b) (as so added));

but heads (1) and (2) above are illustrative only and are not to be treated as limiting the scope of art 9C(6)(b)(i) (art 9C(7) (as so added)).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9C(6)(b)(i) (as added: see note 4).

17 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9C(6)(b)(ii), persons are not to be treated as having a close financial or business relationship with A merely because they participate in arrangements for the acceptance of electronic money issued by A: art 9C(8) (as added: see note 4).

UPDATE

97 Exclusion for persons certified as small issuers etc

TEXT AND NOTES--Funds received for payment services are not to be treated as electronic money for the purposes of SI 2001/544: see SI 2001/544 art 9L (added by SI 2009/209). As to payment services see PARA 1399.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/ (C) Issuing Electronic Money/98. Revocation of certificates.

98. Revocation of certificates.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may revoke<sup>2</sup> a certificate given to a person ('A')<sup>3</sup> if:

298 (1) it appears to the Authority that A does not meet the relevant conditions<sup>4</sup> or has failed to meet the relevant conditions at any time since the certificate was given<sup>5</sup>; or

299 (2) the person to whom the certificate was given has contravened any rule or requirement (by the Authority to provide information about activities relating to the issue of electronic money) to which he is subject<sup>6</sup>.

A certified person ('B') may apply to the Authority<sup>7</sup> for his certificate to be revoked, and the Authority must then revoke the certificate and give B written notice that it has done so<sup>8</sup>.

If:

- 300 (a) B has made an application<sup>9</sup> for permission to carry on the regulated activity of issuing electronic money (or for variation of an existing permission so as to add a regulated activity of that kind)<sup>10</sup>; and
- 301 (b) on making an application for revocation of his certificate<sup>11</sup>, he requests that the revocation be conditional on the granting of his application for permission<sup>12</sup>, the revocation of B's certificate is to be conditional on the granting of such application for permission<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 54 (see PARA 357) and s 55(2) (see PARA 361) apply to the revocation of a certificate under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9E(1) as they apply to the cancellation of a Part IV permission on the Authority's own initiative, as if references in those sections to an authorised person were references to a certified person: art 9E(3) (art 9E added by SI 2002/682). As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the Authority's own-initiative power and its cancellation see PARAS 355, 357.

3 Ie a certificate under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9C: see PARA 97.

4 A meets the relevant conditions at any time if, at that time, any of the situations for the giving of a certificate set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9C(4), (5) or (6) (see PARA 97) applies: art 9E(2) (as added: see note 2).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9E(1)(a) (as added: see note 2).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9E(1)(b) (as added: see note 2). As to these rules or requirements see art 9G; and PARA 99. As to the meaning of 'electronic money' see PARA 94 note 2.

7 Such an application must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9F(2) (art 9F added by SI 2002/682).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9F(1) (as added: see note 7).

9 Ie an application under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IV (ss 40-55) for permission to carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9B: see PARA 96.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9F(3)(a) (as added: see note 7).

11 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9F(1).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 9F(3)(b) (as added: see note 7). Such an application is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IV.

99. Rules for obtaining information from certified persons etc.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules requiring certified persons<sup>2</sup> to provide information to the Authority about their activities so far as relating to the issuing of electronic money<sup>3</sup>, including the amount of their liabilities with respect to the issuing of electronic money<sup>4</sup>.

The Authority may, by notice in writing given to a certified person, require him to provide specified<sup>5</sup> information or information of a specified description<sup>6</sup> or require him to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description<sup>7</sup>. This only applies to information or documents reasonably required for the purposes of determining whether the certified person meets, or has met, the relevant conditions<sup>8</sup>.

Such information or documents must be provided or produced before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified and at such place as may be specified<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may require any information provided to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may require any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner, or any document produced to be authenticated in such manner, as it may reasonably require<sup>11</sup>.

The Authority may, by notice in writing given to one of the following persons, require him to provide the Authority with a report on any matter about which the Authority has required or could require the provision of information or production of documents<sup>12</sup>. Such persons are: (1) a certified person ('A')<sup>13</sup>; (2) any other member of A's group<sup>14</sup>; (3) a partnership<sup>15</sup> of which A is a member<sup>16</sup>; or (4) a person who has at any relevant time been a person falling within head (1), head (2) or head (3) above, who is, or was at the relevant time, carrying on a business<sup>17</sup>.

The Authority may require the report to be in such form as may be specified in the notice<sup>18</sup>. The person appointed to make such a report must be a person: (a) nominated or approved by the Authority; and (b) appearing to the Authority to have the skills necessary to make a report on the matter concerned<sup>19</sup>. It is the duty of any person who is providing (or who at any time has provided) services to a person falling within heads (1) to (4) above in relation to a matter on which a report is required to give a person appointed to provide such a report all such assistance as the appointed person may reasonably require<sup>20</sup>.

The Authority may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf if it appears to the Authority that there are circumstances suggesting that a certified person may not meet, or may not have met, the relevant conditions<sup>21</sup>.

If the Authority or an investigator<sup>22</sup> has power<sup>23</sup> to require a person to produce a document but it appears that the document is in the possession of a third person, that power may be exercised in relation to the third person<sup>24</sup>. If a document is produced in response to a requirement<sup>25</sup>, the person to whom it is produced may take copies or extracts from the document, or require the person producing the document, or any relevant person<sup>26</sup>, to provide an explanation of the document<sup>27</sup>. If a person who is required to produce a document fails to do so, the Authority or an investigator may require him to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is<sup>28</sup>. A lawyer may be required to furnish the name and address of his client<sup>29</sup>. No person may be required to disclose information or produce a document in respect of which he owes an obligation of confidence by virtue of carrying on the business of banking unless<sup>30</sup>:

- 302 (i) he is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group<sup>31</sup>;
- 303 (ii) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group<sup>32</sup>;
- 304 (iii) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed consents to the disclosure or production<sup>33</sup>; or
- 305 (iv) the imposing on him of a requirement with respect to such information or document has been specifically authorised by the investigating authority<sup>34</sup>.

If a person claims a lien on a document, its production does not affect the lien<sup>35</sup>.

A justice of the peace<sup>36</sup> may issue a warrant if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State<sup>37</sup>, the Authority or an investigator<sup>38</sup> that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the first, second or third set of conditions set out below is satisfied<sup>39</sup>.

The first set of conditions is that a person on whom an information requirement<sup>40</sup> has been imposed has failed (wholly or in part) to comply with it<sup>41</sup> and that on the premises specified in the warrant there are documents which have been required; or there is information which has been required<sup>42</sup>.

The second set of conditions is that the premises specified in the warrant are premises of a certified person or an appointed representative<sup>43</sup>, that there are on the premises documents or information in relation to which an information requirement could be imposed<sup>44</sup>, and that if such a requirement were to be imposed it would not be complied with, or the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed<sup>45</sup>.

The third set of conditions is that an offence<sup>46</sup> for which the maximum sentence on conviction on indictment is two years or more has been (or is being) committed by any person<sup>47</sup>, that there are on the premises specified in the warrant documents or information relevant to whether that offence has been (or is being) committed<sup>48</sup>, that an information requirement could be imposed in relation to those documents or information<sup>49</sup>, and that if such a requirement were to be imposed it would not be complied with, or the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed<sup>50</sup>.

A warrant authorises a constable<sup>51</sup>:

- 306 (A) to enter the premises specified in the warrant<sup>52</sup>;
- 307 (B) to search the premises and take possession of any documents or information appearing to be documents or information of a kind in respect of which a warrant was issued (the 'relevant kind') or to take, in relation to any such documents or information, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them<sup>53</sup>;
- 308 (C) to take copies of, or extracts from, any documents or information appearing to be of the relevant kind<sup>54</sup>;
- 309 (D) to require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any document or information appearing to be of the relevant kind or to state where it may be found<sup>55</sup>; and
- 310 (E) to use such force as may be reasonably necessary<sup>56</sup>.

Any document of which possession is taken may be retained for a period of three months, or if within that period proceedings to which the document is relevant are commenced against any person for any criminal offence, until the conclusion of those proceedings<sup>57</sup>.

Any person who intentionally obstructs the exercise of any rights conferred by a warrant is guilty of an offence<sup>58</sup>. If a person other than the investigator (the 'defaulter') fails to comply with a requirement imposed on him under Part XI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>59</sup>, the person imposing the requirement may certify that fact in writing to the High Court<sup>60</sup>. If the court is satisfied that the defaulter failed without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement, it may deal with the defaulter (and in the case of a body corporate<sup>61</sup>, any director or officer<sup>62</sup>) as if he were in contempt<sup>63</sup>.

A person who knows or suspects that an investigation is being or is likely to be conducted under Part XI is guilty of an offence if he falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of a document which he knows or suspects is or would be relevant to such an investigation or he causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of such a document, unless he shows that he had no intention of concealing facts disclosed by the documents from the investigator<sup>64</sup>.

A person who, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed on him under Part XI, provides information which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or recklessly provides information which is false or misleading in a material particular, is guilty of an offence<sup>65</sup>.

(D) EFFECTING AND CARRYING OUT CONTRACTS OF INSURANCE

100. Effecting and carrying out contracts of insurance.

Effecting a contract of insurance<sup>1</sup> and carrying out a contract of insurance as principal are each a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup>. There are specific exclusions for Community co-insurers<sup>3</sup>, for breakdown insurance<sup>4</sup> and for the provision of an information society service from another EEA state<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 10(1), (2). The reference to a specified kind of activity is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 11; and PARA 101.

4 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 12; and PARA 102.

5 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 12A; and PARA 124.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(D) Effecting and Carrying out Contracts of Insurance/101. Exclusion for Community co-insurers.

101. Exclusion for Community co-insurers.

Not every instance of effecting a contract of insurance or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal is a specified activity<sup>1</sup>. The effecting or carrying out of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> by an EEA firm<sup>3</sup> other than through a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>, and pursuant to a Community co-insurance operation<sup>5</sup> in which the firm is participating otherwise than as the leading insurer<sup>6</sup> is specifically excluded<sup>7</sup>.

1 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

3 Is a firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d) (see PARA 315 note 1): see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 11(1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 11(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 For these purposes, 'Community co-insurance operation' and 'leading insurer' have the same meaning as in EC Council Directive 78/473 (OJ L151, 7.6.78, p 25) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to Community co-insurance: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 11(2).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 11(1)(b). See note 5.

7 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10(1), (2) (see PARA 100): see art 11(1).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(D) Effecting and Carrying out Contracts of Insurance/102. Exclusion for breakdown insurance.

102. Exclusion for breakdown insurance.

Not every instance of effecting a contract of insurance or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal is a specified activity<sup>1</sup>. Specifically excluded<sup>2</sup> is the effecting or carrying out, by a person who does not otherwise carry on such an activity, of a contract of insurance which is a contract under which the benefits provided by that person (the 'provider') are exclusively or primarily benefits in kind in the event of accident to or breakdown<sup>3</sup> of a vehicle<sup>4</sup>, and which contains the following terms<sup>5</sup>:

- 311 (1) the assistance takes either or both of the forms mentioned in heads (a) and (b) below<sup>6</sup>;
- 312 (2) the assistance is not available outside the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland except where it is provided without the payment of additional premium by a person in the country concerned with whom the provider has entered into a reciprocal agreement<sup>7</sup>; and
- 313 (3) assistance provided in the case of an accident or breakdown occurring in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland is, in most circumstances, provided by the provider's servants<sup>8</sup>.

The forms of assistance are:

- 314 (a) repairs to the relevant vehicle at the place where the accident or breakdown has occurred; this assistance may also include the delivery of parts, fuel, oil, water or keys to the relevant vehicle<sup>9</sup>;
  - 315 (b) removal of the relevant vehicle to the nearest or most appropriate place at which repairs may be carried out, or to:
- 31
- 56. (i) the home, point of departure or original destination within the United Kingdom of the driver and passengers, provided the accident or breakdown occurred within the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
  - 57. (ii) the home, point of departure or original destination within the Republic of Ireland of the driver and passengers, provided the accident or breakdown occurred within the Republic of Ireland or within Northern Ireland<sup>11</sup>;
  - 58. (iii) the home, point of departure or original destination within Northern Ireland of the driver and passengers, provided the accident or breakdown occurred within the Republic of Ireland<sup>12</sup>;
- 32
- 316 and this form of assistance may include the conveyance of the driver or passengers of the relevant vehicle, with the vehicle, or (where the vehicle is to be conveyed only to the nearest or most appropriate place at which repairs may be carried out) separately, to the nearest location from which they may continue their journey by other means<sup>13</sup>.

1    le an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2    le excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10(1), (2) (see PARA 100): see art 12(1). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

3    For these purposes, 'breakdown' means an event: (1) which causes the driver of the relevant vehicle to be unable to start a journey in the vehicle or involuntarily to bring the vehicle to a halt on a journey because of some malfunction of the vehicle or failure of it to function; and (2) after which the journey cannot reasonably be commenced or continued in the relevant vehicle: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 12(5). 'Relevant vehicle' means the vehicle (including a trailer or caravan) in respect of which the assistance is required: art 12(5). 'Assistance' means the benefits to be provided under a contract of the kind mentioned in art 12(1): art 12(5).

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). The exclusion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) does not apply to the activity of effecting or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal, where:

- 137 (1) the activity is carried on by an undertaking which has received official authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(a) (art 72A as so added; art 72A(2)(a) amended by SI 2004/3379)); and
- 138 (2) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives (art 72A(2)(b) (as so added)).

104. Assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance.

Assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>1</sup> is a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

This is subject to exclusions for claims management on behalf of an insurer<sup>3</sup>, trustees, nominees and personal representatives<sup>4</sup>, activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business<sup>5</sup>, information society services<sup>6</sup>, activities carried on by a provider of relevant goods or services<sup>7</sup>, provisions of information about contracts of insurance on an incidental basis<sup>8</sup> and large risks contracts where the risk is situated outside the EEA<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (added by SI 2003/1476). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(E) Assisting in the Administration and Performance of a Contract of Insurance/105. Exclusion for claims management on behalf of an insurer, etc.

105. Exclusion for claims management on behalf of an insurer, etc.

A person does not carry on the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> if he acts in the course of carrying on the activity of (1) expert appraisal; (2) loss adjusting on behalf of a relevant insurer<sup>3</sup>; or (3) managing claims on behalf of a relevant insurer, and that activity is carried on in the course of carrying on any profession or business<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 39B(1) (as added: see note 3).

3 For these purposes, 'relevant insurer' means: (1) a person who has Part IV permission (see PARA 348) to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10 (see PARA 100); (2) a person to whom the general prohibition does not apply by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316(1)(a) (members of the Society of Lloyd's) (see PARA 743); (3) an EEA firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(d) (insurance undertaking) (see PARA 315 note 1 head (4)); or (4) a relevant reinsurer: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39B(2)(a) (art 39B added by SI 2003/1476). 'Relevant reinsurer' means a person whose main business consists of accepting risks ceded by: (a) a person falling within heads (1), (2) or (3) above of the definition of 'relevant insurer'; (b) an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(da) (reinsurance undertaking) (see PARA 315 note 1); or (c) a person who is established outside the United Kingdom who carries on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10 (see PARA 100) by way of business: art 39B(2)(b) (as so added; amended by SI 2007/3254). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(E) Assisting in the Administration and Performance of a Contract of Insurance/106. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

106. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a person acting as trustee or personal representative unless he holds himself out as providing a service comprising such an activity<sup>3</sup>. These provisions<sup>4</sup> do not apply if the person carrying on the activity is remunerated for what he does in addition to any remuneration he receives as trustee or personal representative, and for these purposes a person is not to be regarded as receiving additional remuneration merely because his remuneration is calculated by reference to time spent<sup>5</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 le from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104): see art 66(3A) (as added: see note 3).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 66(3A) (art 66 added by SI 2003/1476). The activity is of the kind specified by Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A: see PARA 104. Article 39A is subject to art 4(4A) (see PARA 88): art 39A(8) (added by SI 2006/3384).

107. Exclusion for activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> any activity which:

317 (1) is carried on in the course of carrying on any profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>; and

318 (2) may reasonably be regarded as a necessary part of other services provided in the course of that profession or business<sup>4</sup>.

However, this exclusion does not apply if the activity in question is remunerated separately from the other services<sup>5</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 le excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104): see art 67(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476).

109. Exclusion for activities carried on by a provider of relevant goods or services.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a provider<sup>3</sup> where the contract of insurance in question is a connected contract of insurance<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 le excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104): see art 72B(4) (as added: see note 4). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

3 As to the meaning of 'provider' see note 4.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(4) (art 72B added by SI 2003/1476).

'Connected contract of insurance' means a contract of insurance which:

- 141 (1) is not a contract of long-term insurance;
- 142 (2) has a total duration (or would have a total duration were any right to renew conferred by the contract exercised) of five years or less;
- 143 (3) has an annual premium (or, where the premium is paid otherwise than by way of annual premium, the equivalent of an annual premium) of 500 euros or less, or the equivalent amount in sterling or other currency;
- 144 (4) covers the risk of (a) breakdown, loss of, or damage to, non-motor goods supplied by the provider; or (b) damage to, or loss of, baggage and other risks linked to the travel booked with the provider ('travel risks');
- 145 (5) does not cover any liability risks (except, in the case of a contract which covers travel risks, where that cover is ancillary to the main cover provided by the contract);
- 146 (6) is complementary to the non-motor goods being supplied or service being provided by the provider; and
- 147 (7) is of such a nature that the only information that a person requires in order to carry on an activity of the kind specified by art 21, art 25 (see PARA 139), art 39A (see PARA 104) or art 53 (see PARA 174) in relation to it is the cover provided by the contract: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(1) (art 72B added by SI 2003/1476).

As to the meaning of 'contract of long-term insurance' see PARA 90 note 3. 'Non-motor goods' means goods which are not mechanically propelled road vehicles: art 72B(1) (as so added). 'Provider' means a person who supplies non-motor goods or provides services related to travel in the course of carrying on a profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(1) (as so added).

As from 30 June 2008 and 1 January 2009 (see further below) head (4)(b) above is replaced by the following: 'damage to, or loss of, baggage and other risks linked to the travel booked with the provider ('travel risks') in circumstances where (i) the travel booked with the provider relates to attendance at an event organised or managed by that provider and the party seeking insurance is not an individual (acting in his private capacity) or a small business; or (ii) the travel booked with the provider is only the hire of an aircraft, vehicle or vessel which does not provide sleeping accommodation': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(1) (as so added; amended by SI 2007/3510). As from the same dates, there is added to the definition of 'provider' the following words: 'For these purposes, the transfer of possession of an aircraft, vehicle or vessel under an agreement for hire which is not a hire-purchase agreement within the meaning of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 189(1) (see CONSUMER CREDIT vol 9(1) (Reissue) PARA 95), or any other agreement which contemplates that the property in those goods will also pass at some time in the future, is the provision of a service related to travel, not a supply of goods.': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(1) (as so added; definition amended by SI 2007/3510). Also from the same dates, the following definitions of 'small business' and 'turnover' are added: "'small business' means (A) subject to head (B) below a sole trader, body corporate, partnership or an unincorporated association which had a turnover in the last financial year of less than £1,000,000; (B) where the business concerned is a member of a group within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 s 474(1) (see COMPANIES), reference to its turnover means the combined turnover of the group; and 'turnover' means the amounts derived from the provision of goods and services falling within the business's ordinary activities, after deduction of trade discounts, value added tax and any other taxes based on the amounts so derived': see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B(1) (as so added; definitions added by SI 2007/3510).

The above amendments come into force (aa) for the purposes of enabling applications to be made, pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B (as so amended), for a Part IV permission (see PARA 348), or a variation of a Part IV permission, in relation to activities of the kind specified by art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25(1), (2) (see PARA 139), art 39A (see PARA 104), art 53 (see PARA 174) or, so far as relevant to any such activity, art 64 (see PARA 221), or the Authority's approval under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59 (see PARA 367) in relation to any of those activities, on 30 June 2008; (bb) for all other purposes, on 1 January 2009: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) (Amendment) (No 2) Order 2007, SI 2007/3510, art 1(2). As to transitional provisions see arts 3-9.

For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72B, a contract of insurance which covers travel risks is not to be treated as a contract of long-term insurance, notwithstanding the fact that it contains related and subsidiary provisions such that it might be regarded as a contract of long-term insurance, if the cover to which those provisions relate is ancillary to the main cover provided by the contract: art 72B(6) (as so added).

110. Provision of information on an incidental basis.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> any activity which meets the following conditions<sup>3</sup>:

- 319 (1) that the activity consists of the provision of information to the policyholder or potential policyholder<sup>4</sup>;
- 320 (2) that the activity is carried on by a person in the course of carrying on a profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities<sup>5</sup> and
- 321 (3) that the activity may reasonably be regarded as being incidental to that profession or business<sup>6</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104): see art 72C(3) (as added: see note 3).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72C(3) (art 72C added by SI 2003/1476).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72C(4)(a) (as added: see note 3).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72C(4)(b) (as added: see note 3). As to regulated activities generally see PARA 84 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(E) Assisting in the Administration and Performance of a Contract of Insurance/111. Exclusion for large risks contracts where risk situated outside the EEA.

111. Exclusion for large risks contracts where risk situated outside the EEA.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> any activity which is carried on in relation to a large risks contract of insurance<sup>3</sup>, to the extent that the risk of commitment covered by the contract is not situated in an EEA state<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104): see art 72D(1) (as added: see note 4).

3 'Large risks contract of insurance' is a contract of insurance the principal object of which is to cover (1) risks falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 1 Pt I para 4 (railway rolling stock) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (d)), Sch 1 Pt I para 5 (aircraft) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (e)), Sch 1 Pt I para 6 (ships) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (f)), Sch 1 Pt I para 7 (goods in transit) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (g)), Sch 1 Pt I para 11 (aircraft liability) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (k)) or Sch 1 Pt I para 12 (liability of ships) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (l)); (2) risks falling within Sch 1 Pt I para 14 (credit) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (j)) or Sch 1 Pt I 15 (suretyship) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (o)) provided that the risks relate to a business carried on by the policyholder; or (3) risks falling within Sch 1 Pt I para 3 (land vehicles) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (c)), Sch 1 Pt I para 8 (fire and natural forces) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (h)), Sch 1 Pt I para 9 (damage to property) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (i)), Sch 1 Pt I para 10 (motor vehicle liability) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (j)), Sch 1 Pt I para 13 (general liability) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (m)) or Sch 1 Pt I para 16 (miscellaneous financial loss) (see PARA 90 note 3 head (p)) provided that the risks relate to a business carried on by the policyholder and that the condition specified in art 72D(3) (see below) is met in relation to that business: art 72D(2) (art 72D added by SI 2003/1476).

The condition referred to above is that at least two of the three following criteria were met in the most recent financial year for which information is available: (a) the balance sheet total of the business (within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 ss 382(5), 465(5) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 247(5)) (see COMPANIES) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 255(5)) exceeded 6.2 million euros; (b) the net turnover (within the meaning given to 'turnover' by the Companies Act 2006 s 474 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 262(1)) (see COMPANIES) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 270(1)) exceeded 12.8 million euros; (c) the number of employees (within the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 ss 382(6), 465(6) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 247(6)) (see COMPANIES) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 255(6)) exceeded 250, and for a financial year which is a company's financial year but not in fact a year, the net turnover of the policyholder is proportionately adjusted: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72D(3) (as so added). For the purposes of art 72D(3), where the policyholder is a member of a group for which consolidated accounts (within the meaning of the Seventh Company Law Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 83/39 (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) based on Article 54(3)(g) of the Treaty on consolidated accounts)) are drawn up, the question whether the condition specified by that paragraph is met is to be determined by reference to those accounts: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72D(4) (as so added).

(F) DEALING IN INVESTMENTS

Buying<sup>1</sup>, selling<sup>2</sup>, subscribing for or underwriting securities<sup>3</sup> or contractually based investments<sup>4</sup> as principal is a specified kind of activity<sup>5</sup>. There are specified exclusions for absence of holding out etc<sup>6</sup>, dealing in contractually based investments<sup>7</sup>, acceptance of instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness<sup>8</sup>, issue by a company of its own shares<sup>9</sup>, dealing by a company in its own shares<sup>10</sup>, risk management<sup>11</sup>, trustees etc<sup>12</sup>, sale of goods and supply of services<sup>13</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>14</sup>, sale of a body corporate<sup>15</sup>, employee share schemes<sup>16</sup>, overseas persons<sup>17</sup> and information society services<sup>18</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>19</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including dealing in investments as principal)<sup>20</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>21</sup>.

1 'Buying' includes acquiring for valuable consideration: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1).

2 'Selling', in relation to any investment, includes disposing of the investment for valuable consideration, and for these purposes 'disposing' includes: (1) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under a contract, surrendering, assigning or converting those rights, or assuming the corresponding liabilities under the contract; (2) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under other arrangements, assuming the corresponding liabilities under the arrangements; and (3) in the case of any other investment, issuing or creating the investment or granting the rights or interests of which it consists: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1).

3 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

4 I.e. other than investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 87 or art 89 (see PARA 224), so far as relevant to art 87: see art 14(1) (as renumbered: see note 5). 'Contractually based investment' means: (1) rights under a qualifying contract of insurance; (2) any investment of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83, art 84, art 85 and art 87 (see PARA 224); or (3) any investment of the kind specified by art 89 so far as relevant to an investment falling within head (1) or (2) above: art 3(1). 'Qualifying contract of insurance' means a contract of long-term insurance which is not: (a) a reinsurance contract; nor (b) a contract in respect of which the following conditions are met:

- 148 (i) the benefits under the contract are payable only on death or in respect of incapacity due to injury, sickness or infirmity;
- 149 (ii) the contract has no surrender value, or the consideration consists of a single premium and the surrender value does not exceed that premium; and
- 150 (iii) the contract makes no provision for its conversion or extension in a manner which would result in it ceasing to comply with any of the conditions in heads (i), (ii) above: art 3(1) (definition amended by SI 2007/1339).

As to the meaning of 'contract of long-term insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14(1) (renumbered as such by SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14(1) does not apply to a kind of activity to which art 25D (see PARA 139) applies: art 14(2) (added by SI 2006/3384). The reference to a specified kind of activity is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

6 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15; and PARA 113.

- 7 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 16; and PARA 114.
- 8 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 17; and PARA 115.
- 9 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18; and PARA 116.
- 10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18A; and PARA 117.
- 11 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19; and PARA 118.
- 12 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 66; and PARA 119.
- 13 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 68; and PARA 120.
- 14 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 69; and PARA 121.
- 15 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 70; and PARA 122.
- 16 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 71; and PARA 123.
- 17 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 72; and PARA 124.
- 18 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 20, 72A; and PARA 125.
- 19 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).
- 20 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). For these purposes, 'insurance mediation activity' means any activity of the kind specified by Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25(1) or (2) (see PARA 139), art 39A (see PARA 104) or art 53 (see PARA 174), or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (see PARA 221), which is carried on in relation to a contract of insurance: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(5) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by art 1(2)(b) (amended by SI 2003/1476). A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 19.

UPDATE

112 Dealing in investments as principal

NOTE 20--A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by SI 2001/544 art 25E (arranging regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 139), art 53D (advising on regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) as far as relevant to either of the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see SI 2001/1177 art 3D; and PARA 139.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/113. Exclusion for absence of holding out etc.

113. Exclusion for absence of holding out etc.

A person ('A') does not deal in investments as principal<sup>1</sup> by entering into a transaction<sup>2</sup> which relates to a security<sup>3</sup> or is the assignment of a qualifying contract<sup>4</sup> of insurance (or an investment of a specified kind<sup>5</sup>, so far as relevant to such a contract), unless:

- 322 (1) A holds himself out as willing, as principal, to buy<sup>6</sup>, sell<sup>7</sup> or subscribe for investments of the kind to which the transaction relates at prices determined by him generally and continuously rather than in respect of each particular transaction<sup>8</sup>;
- 323 (2) A holds himself out as engaging in the business of buying investments of the kind to which the transaction relates, with a view to selling them<sup>9</sup>;
- 324 (3) A holds himself out as engaging in the business of underwriting investments of the kind to which the transaction relates<sup>10</sup>; or
- 325 (4) A regularly solicits members of the public with the purpose of inducing them, as principals or agents, to enter into transactions constituting dealing in investments as principal<sup>11</sup>, and the transaction is entered into as a result of his having solicited members of the public<sup>12</sup> in that manner<sup>13</sup>.

This exclusion from dealing in investments as principal does not apply where A enters into the transaction as bare trustee for another person and is acting on that other person's instructions<sup>14</sup>.

1 He does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 15(1).

- 2 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, a transaction is entered into through a person if he enters into it as agent or arranges, in a manner constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by arts 25(1), 25A(1), 25B(1), 25C(1) (see PARA 139), for it to be entered into by another person as agent or principal: art 3(2) (amended by SI 2006/2383).
- 3 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.
- 4 As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4.
- 5 Is an investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 89 (see PARA 224): see art 15(1).
- 6 As to the meaning of 'buying' see PARA 112 note 1.
- 7 As to the meaning of 'selling' see PARA 112 note 2.
- 8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15(1)(a). Article 15 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 15(4) (added by SI 2006/3384).
- 9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15(1)(b).
- 10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15(1)(c).
- 11 Is constituting activities of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14: see PARA 112.
- 12 For these purposes, 'members of the public' means any persons other than:
- 151 (1) authorised persons or persons who are exempt persons in relation to activities of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112) (art 15(2)(a));
  - 152 (2) members of the same group as A (art 15(2)(b));
  - 153 (3) persons who are or who propose to become participators with A in a joint enterprise (art 15(2)(c));
  - 154 (4) any person who is solicited by A with a view to the acquisition by A of 20% or more of the voting shares in a body corporate (art 15(2)(d));
  - 155 (5) if A (either alone or with members of the same group as himself) holds more than 20% of the voting shares in a body corporate, any person who is solicited by A with a view (a) to the acquisition by A of further shares in the body corporate (art 15(2)(e)(i)); or (b) the disposal by A of shares in the body corporate to the person solicited or to a member of the same group as the person solicited (art 15(2)(e)(ii));
  - 156 (6) any person who is solicited by A with a view to the disposal by A of shares in a body corporate to the person solicited or to a member of the same group as that person (art 15(2)(f)(i)), and either alone or with members of the same group holds 20% or more of the voting shares in the body corporate (art 15(2)(f)(ii));
  - 157 (7) any person whose head office is outside the United Kingdom, who is solicited by an approach made or directed to him at a place outside the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business involves him in carrying on activities of the kind specified by any of art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152), art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160), art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a stakeholder pension scheme) (see PARA 187) and art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174) or (so far as relevant to any of those articles) art 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activity) (see PARA 221), or would do so apart from any exclusion from any of those articles made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (art 15(2)(g)).

'Joint enterprise' means an enterprise into which two or more persons (the 'participators') enter for commercial purposes related to a business or businesses (other than the business of engaging in a regulated activity) carried on by them; and, where a participator is a member of a group, each other member of the group is also to be regarded as a participator in the enterprise: art 3(1).

'Voting shares', in relation to a body corporate, means shares carrying voting rights attributable to share capital which are exercisable in all circumstances at any general meeting of that body corporate: art 3(1).

As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15(1)(d).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 15(3). However, the exclusion in art 66(1) (see PARA 119) applies if the conditions set out there are met: see art 15(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/114. Exclusion for dealing in contractually based investments.

114. Exclusion for dealing in contractually based investments.

A person who is not an authorised person does not deal in investments as principal<sup>1</sup> by entering into a transaction<sup>2</sup> relating to a contractually based investment<sup>3</sup>:

326 (1) with or through an authorised person, or an exempt person acting in the course of a business comprising a regulated activity in relation to which he is exempt<sup>4</sup>; or

327 (2) through an office outside the United Kingdom maintained by a party to the transaction, and with or through a person whose head office is situated outside the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business involves him in carrying on certain specified activities<sup>5</sup>.

1 He does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 16.

2 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

3 As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 16(1)(a) (renumbered as such by SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 16 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 16(2) (added by SI 2006/3384).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 16(1)(b) (as renumbered: see note 4). The activities are activities of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152), art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160), art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a stakeholder pension scheme) (see PARA 187) and art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174) or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activity) (see PARA 221) (or would do so apart from any exclusion from any of those articles made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/115. Exclusion for acceptance of instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness.

115. Exclusion for acceptance of instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness.

A person does not deal in investments as principal<sup>1</sup> by accepting an instrument<sup>2</sup> creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of any loan, credit, guarantee or other similar financial accommodation or assurance which he has made, granted or provided<sup>3</sup>.

1 He does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 17(1).

2 The reference to a person accepting an instrument includes a reference to a person becoming a party to an instrument otherwise than as a debtor or a surety: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 17(2). 'Instrument' includes any record whether or not in the form of a document: art 3(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 17(1).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/116. Exclusion for issue by a company of its own shares etc.

116. Exclusion for issue by a company of its own shares etc.

1 He is excluded from an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 18(1).

2 For these purposes, 'company' means any body corporate other than an open-ended investment company: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18(2)(a).

3 'Shares' and 'debentures' include any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76 or art 77 (see PARA 224): art 18(2)(b).

4 'Share warrants' and 'debenture warrants' mean any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 79 (see PARA 224) which relates to shares in the company concerned or, as the case may be, debentures issued by the person concerned: art 18(2)(c) (amended by SI 2001/3544).

5 See note 3.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/117. Exclusion for dealing by a company in its own shares etc.

117. Exclusion for dealing by a company in its own shares etc.

A company does not deal in investments as principal<sup>1</sup> by purchasing its own shares where the Companies Act 1985<sup>2</sup> applies to the shares purchased<sup>3</sup>. A company also does not deal in investments as principal by dealing in its own shares held as treasury shares<sup>4</sup>, in accordance with the Companies Act 1985<sup>5</sup>.

1 It does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 18A(1).

2 It is the Companies Act 1985 s 162A (prospectively repealed) (see COMPANIES) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 s 724).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18A(1) (art 18A added by SI 2003/2822).

4 'Shares held as treasury shares' has the same meaning as in the Companies Act 1985 (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1251) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18A(3) (as added: see note 3).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 18A(2) (as added: see note 3). The reference is to the Companies Act 1985 s 162D (prospectively repealed) (see COMPANIES) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 ss 727, 729).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/118. Exclusion for risk management.

118. Exclusion for risk management.

A person ('B') does not deal in investments as principal<sup>1</sup> by entering as principal into a transaction<sup>2</sup> with another person ('C') if:

- 328 (1) the transaction relates to certain specified investments<sup>3</sup>;
- 329 (2) neither B nor C is an individual<sup>4</sup>;

- 330 (3) the sole or main purpose for which B enters into the transaction (either by itself or in combination with other such transactions) is that of limiting the extent to which a relevant business<sup>5</sup> will be affected by any identifiable risk arising otherwise than as a result of the carrying on of a regulated activity<sup>6</sup>; and
- 331 (4) the relevant business consists mainly of activities other than: (a) regulated activities<sup>7</sup>, or (b) activities which would be regulated activities but for a statutory exclusion<sup>8</sup>.

1     Ie he does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 19(1).

2     As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

3     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(1)(a). The investments in question are of the kind specified by any of art 83 (options), art 84 (futures) and art 85 (contracts for differences etc) (or art 89 so far as relevant to any of those articles) (see PARA 224). Article 19 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 19(3) (added by SI 2006/3384).

4     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(1)(b).

5     For these purposes, 'relevant business' means a business carried on by B, a member of the same group as B, or where B and another person are, or propose to become, participators in a joint enterprise, that other person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(2). As to the meaning of 'joint enterprise' see PARA 113 note 12.

6     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(1)(c).

7     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(1)(d)(i).

8     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 19(1)(d)(ii). The statutory exclusions referred to in the text are those contained in Pt II (arts 4-72F).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/119. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

119. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

A person ('X') does not carry on the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of dealing in investments as principal<sup>2</sup> where he enters into a transaction<sup>3</sup> as bare trustee or, in Scotland, as nominee for another person ('Y'), and X is acting on Y's instructions<sup>4</sup> and X does not hold himself out as providing a service of buying<sup>5</sup> and selling<sup>6</sup> securities<sup>7</sup> or contractually based investments<sup>8</sup>.

1     A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2     Ie an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 66(1).

3     As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

4     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 66(1)(a). Article 66 is subject to art 4(4A) (see PARA 88): art 66(8) (added by SI 2006/3384).

5 As to the meaning of 'buying' see PARA 112 note 1.

6 As to the meaning of 'selling' see PARA 112 note 2.

7 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 66(1)(b). As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/120. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with the sale of goods or supply of services by a supplier to a customer.

120. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with the sale of goods or supply of services by a supplier to a customer.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of dealing in investments as principal<sup>2</sup> any transaction entered into<sup>3</sup> by a supplier<sup>4</sup> with a customer<sup>5</sup>, if the transaction is entered into for the purposes of, or in connection with, the sale of goods or supply of services, or a related sale or supply<sup>6</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 68(2).

3 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

4 'Supplier' means a person whose main business is to sell goods or supply services and not to carry on any activities of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112), art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25 (see PARA 139), art 37 (see PARA 152), art 39A (see PARA 104), art 40 (see PARA 160), art 45 (see PARA 190), art 51 (see PARA 171), art 52 (see PARA 187) and art 53 (see PARA 174) and, where the supplier is a member of a group, also means any other member of that group: art 68(1) (definition amended by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'selling' see PARA 112 note 2. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 68 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 68(12) (added by SI 2006/3384).

5 'Customer' means a person, other than an individual, to whom a supplier sells goods or supplies services, or agrees to do so, and, where the customer is a member of a group, also means any other member of that group: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 68(1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 68(2). 'Related sale or supply' means a sale of goods or supply of services to the customer otherwise than by the supplier, but for or in connection with the same purpose as the sale or supply mentioned in art 68(1): art 68(1). Article 68(2) does not apply in the case of a transaction for the sale or purchase of a contract of insurance, an investment of the kind specified by art 81 (see PARA 224), or an investment of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to such a contract or such an investment: art 68(9) (amended by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

122. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with the sale of a body corporate.

A person does not carry on the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of dealing in investments as principal<sup>2</sup> by entering as principal into a transaction<sup>3</sup> if:

- 332 (1) the transaction is one to acquire or dispose of shares in a body corporate other than an open-ended investment company<sup>4</sup>, or is entered into for the purposes of such an acquisition or disposal<sup>5</sup>; and
- 333 (2) either the conditions set out in heads (a) to (c) below are met<sup>6</sup>, or those conditions are not met, but the object of the transaction may nevertheless reasonably be regarded as being the acquisition of day to day control of the affairs of the body corporate<sup>7</sup>.

The conditions mentioned above are that:

- 334 (a) the shares consist of or include 50 per cent or more of the voting shares<sup>8</sup> in the body corporate<sup>9</sup>; or
- 335 (b) the shares, together with any already held by the person acquiring them, consist of or include at least that percentage of such shares<sup>10</sup>; and
- 336 (c) in either case, the acquisition or disposal is between parties each of whom is a body corporate, a partnership, a single individual or a group of connected individuals<sup>11</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 le of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 70(1).

Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with employee share schemes.

123. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with employee share schemes.

A person ('C'), a member of the same group as C or a relevant trustee<sup>1</sup> does not carry on an activity<sup>2</sup> of dealing in investments as principal<sup>3</sup> by entering as principal into a transaction<sup>4</sup> the purpose of which is to enable or facilitate:

- 337 (1) transactions in shares in, or debentures issued by C between, or for the benefit of<sup>5</sup>:
- 33
  - 59. (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of C or of another member of the same group as C<sup>6</sup>; and
  - 60. (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers, civil partners, surviving civil partners, or children or step-children under the age of 18 of such employees or former employees<sup>7</sup>; or
- 34
  - 338 (2) the holding of such shares or debentures by, or for the benefit of, such persons<sup>8</sup>.

1 'Relevant trustee' means a person who, in pursuance of the arrangements made for the purpose of entering as principal into a transaction the purpose of which is to enable or facilitate the matters mentioned in heads (1) and (2) in the text, holds, as trustee, shares in or debentures issued by C: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 71(6)(b). 'Shares' and 'debentures' include:

- 160 (1) any investment of the kind specified by art 76 or art 77 (see PARA 224) (art 71(6)(a)(i));
- 161 (2) any investment of the kind specified by art 79 or art 80 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to arts 76, 77 (art 71(6)(a)(ii)); and
- 162 (3) any investment of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to investments of the kind mentioned in art 71(6)(a)(i) or (ii) (art 71(6)(a)(iii)).

2 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 Is of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112): see art 71(1).

4 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/124. Exclusion for overseas persons.

124. Exclusion for overseas persons.

An overseas person<sup>1</sup> does not carry on the activities<sup>2</sup> of dealing in investments as principal or operating a multilateral trading facility<sup>3</sup> by:

- 339 (1) entering into a transaction<sup>4</sup> as principal with or through an authorised person<sup>5</sup>, or an exempt person<sup>6</sup> acting in the course of a business comprising a regulated activity<sup>7</sup> in relation to which he is exempt<sup>8</sup>; or
- 340 (2) entering into a transaction as principal with a person in the United Kingdom, if the transaction is the result of a legitimate approach<sup>9</sup>.

1 'Overseas person' means a person who:

- 163 (1) carries on activities of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112), art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25 (see PARA 139), art 25A, art 25B, art 25C, art 25D (see PARA 139), art 37 (see PARA 152), art 39A (see PARA 104), art 40 (see PARA 160), art 45 (see PARA 190), art 51 (see PARA 171), art 52 (see PARA 187) and art 53, art 53A, art 53B, art 53C (see PARA 174) art 61 (see PARA 203), art 63B and art 63F (see PARA 209) or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (see PARA 221) (or activities of a kind which would be so specified but for the exclusion in art 72); but
- 164 (2) does not carry on any such activities, or offer to do so, from a permanent place of business maintained by him in the United Kingdom: art 3(1) (definition amended by SI 2003/1475; SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/2383; SI 2006/3384). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 Is of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112) or art 25D (see PARA 139): see art 72(1) (amended by SI 2006/3384). See note 8.

4 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

5 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

6 As to exempt persons see PARA 330.

7 As to regulated activities see PARA 80.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72(1)(a). Article 72(1) does not apply where the overseas person is an investment firm or credit institution who is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis, and whose home member state is the United Kingdom: art 72(8) (added by SI 2006/3384). As to the meanings of 'investment firm', 'investment services and activities' and 'home member state' see PARA 88 note 5. As to the meaning of 'credit institution' see PARA 88 note 6.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72(1)(b). 'Legitimate approach' means:

- 165 (1) an approach made to the overseas person which has not been solicited by him in any way, or has been solicited by him in a way which does not contravene the Financial Services and

Markets Act 2000 s 21 (see PARA 225) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72(7)(a)); or

- 166 (2) an approach made by or on behalf of the overseas person in a way which does not contravene the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72(7)(b)).

UPDATE

124 Exclusion for overseas persons

NOTE 1--Activities of the kind specified in SI 2001/544 art 25E (PARA 139), art 53D (PARA 174), and art 63J (PARA 220A) are included in the list of activities in head (1): SI 2001/544 art 3(1) (definition amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(a) Dealing as Principal/125. Exclusion for information society services.

125. Exclusion for information society services.

<sup>1</sup> Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). The exclusion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) does not apply to the activity of effecting or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal, where:

- 167 (1) the activity is carried on by an undertaking which has received official authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 or the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(a) (art 72A as so added; art 72A(2)(a) amended by SI 2004/3379)); and
- 168 (2) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'the Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

<sup>2</sup> See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 20 (amended by SI 2002/1776). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/126. Dealing in investments as agent.

(b) Dealing as Agent

126. Dealing in investments as agent.

Buying<sup>1</sup>, selling<sup>2</sup>, subscribing for or underwriting securities<sup>3</sup> or relevant investments<sup>4</sup> as agent is a specified kind of activity<sup>5</sup>. There are specified exclusions for deals with or through authorised persons<sup>6</sup>, risk management<sup>7</sup>, activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business<sup>8</sup>, sale of goods and supply of services<sup>9</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>10</sup>, sale of a body corporate<sup>11</sup>, employee share schemes<sup>12</sup>, overseas persons<sup>13</sup>, information society services<sup>14</sup>, activities carried on by a provider of relevant goods and services<sup>15</sup>, large risks contracts where risk situated outside the EEA<sup>16</sup> and business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds<sup>17</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>18</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including dealing in investments as agent)<sup>19</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'buying' see PARA 112 note 1.

2 As to the meaning of 'selling' see PARA 112 note 2.

3 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

4 I.e. other than investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 87 or art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to that article: see art 21(1). 'Relevant investment' means (1) rights under a qualifying contract of insurance; (2) rights under any contract of insurance; (3) any investment of the kind specified by arts 83, 84, 85 and 87 (see PARA 224); or (4) any investment of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to an investment falling within heads (1) or (3) above: art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476; renumbered by SI 2006/3384). The reference to a specified kind of activity is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21(1) does not apply to a kind of activity to which art 25D (see PARA 139) applies: art 21(2) (added by SI 2006/3384).

6 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 22; and PARA 127.

7 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23; and PARA 128.

8 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 67; and PARA 129.

9 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 68; and PARA 130.

10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 69; and PARA 131.

11 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 70; and PARA 132.

12 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 71; and PARA 133.

13 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 72; and PARA 134.

14 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 72A; and PARA 135.

15 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 72B; and PARA 136.

16 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 24, 72D; and PARA 137.

17 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 72E, 72F; and PARA 138.

18 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

19 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 18.

UPDATE

126 Dealing in investments as agent

NOTE 19--A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by SI 2001/544 art 25E (arranging regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 139), art 53D (advising on regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) as far as relevant to either of the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see SI 2001/1177 art 3D; and PARA 139.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/127. Exclusion for deals with or through authorised persons.

127. Exclusion for deals with or through authorised persons.

A person who is not an authorised person<sup>1</sup> does not deal in investments as agent<sup>2</sup> by entering into a transaction<sup>3</sup> as agent for another person (the 'client') with or through an authorised person if:

- 341 (1) the transaction is entered into on advice given to the client by an authorised person<sup>4</sup>; or
- 342 (2) it is clear, in all the circumstances, that the client, in his capacity as an investor, is not seeking and has not sought advice from the agent as to the merits of the client's entering into the transaction (or, if the client has sought such advice, the agent has declined to give it but has recommended that the client seek such advice from an authorised person)<sup>5</sup>.

However, this exclusion does not apply if the transaction relates to a contract of insurance<sup>6</sup> or if the agent receives from any person other than the client any pecuniary reward or other advantage, for which he does not account to the client, arising out of his entering into the transaction<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 If he does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126): see art 22(1).

3 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 22(1)(a). Article 22 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 22(3) (added by SI 2006/3384).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 22(1)(b).

6 As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 22(2) (substituted by SI 2003/1476).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/128. Exclusion for risk management.

128. Exclusion for risk management.

A person ('B') does not deal in investments as agent<sup>1</sup> by entering as agent for a relevant person<sup>2</sup> into a transaction<sup>3</sup> with another person ('C') if:

- 343 (1) the transaction relates to certain specified investments<sup>4</sup>;
- 344 (2) neither B nor C is an individual<sup>5</sup>;
- 345 (3) the sole or main purpose for which B enters into the transaction (either by itself or in combination with other such transactions) is that of limiting the extent to which a relevant business<sup>6</sup> will be affected by any identifiable risk arising otherwise than as a result of the carrying on of a regulated activity<sup>7</sup>; and
- 346 (4) the relevant business consists mainly of activities other than regulated activities<sup>8</sup> or activities which would be regulated activities but for a specific statutory exclusion<sup>9</sup>.

1 He does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126): see art 23(1).

2 For these purposes, 'relevant person' means (1) a member of the same group as B; or (2) where B and another person are, or propose to become, participators in a joint enterprise, that other person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(2). As to the meaning of 'joint enterprise' see PARA 113 note 12.

3 As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(1)(a). The investments in question are of the kind specified by any of art 83 (options), art 84 (futures) and art 85 (contracts for differences etc) (or art 89 so far as relevant to any of those articles) (see PARA 224). Article 23 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 23(3) (added by SI 2006/3384).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(1)(b).

6 For these purposes, 'relevant business' means a business carried on by a relevant person (see note 2): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(2).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(1)(c).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(1)(d)(i).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 23(1)(d)(ii). The exclusions are contained in Pt II (arts 4-72F).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/129. Exclusion for activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business.

129. Exclusion for activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of dealing in investments as agent<sup>2</sup> any activity which:

- 347 (1) is carried on in the course of carrying on any profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>; and
- 348 (2) may reasonably be regarded as a necessary part of other services provided in the course of that profession or business<sup>4</sup>.

However this exclusion does not apply if the activity in question is remunerated separately from the other services<sup>5</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/137. Exclusion for large risks contracts where risk situated outside the EEA.

137. Exclusion for large risks contracts where risk situated outside the EEA.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of dealing in investments as agent<sup>2</sup> any activity which is carried on in relation to a large risks contract of insurance<sup>3</sup>, to the extent that the risk of commitment covered by the contract is not situated in an EEA state<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126): see art 72D(1) (as added: see note 4).

3 As to the meaning of 'large risks contract of insurance' see PARA 111 note 3.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72D(1) (art 72D added by SI 2003/1476).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(F) Dealing in Investments/(b) Dealing as Agent/138. Exclusion for Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds.

138. Exclusion for Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds.

A specified type of body corporate<sup>1</sup> does not carry on the specified activity<sup>2</sup> of dealing in investments as agent<sup>3</sup> by entering as agent into a transaction on behalf of the participants of a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund<sup>4</sup>.

1 The type of body corporate specified is a limited company (1) which operates a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund; and (2) the members of which are participants in the Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund operated by that limited company and between them have invested at least 50% of the total investment in that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund excluding any investment made by the Secretary of State: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E(7) (arts 72E, 72F added by SI 2005/1518). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E(7), 'a limited company' means a body corporate with limited liability which is a company or firm formed in accordance with the law of an EEA state and having its registered office, central administration or principal place of business within the territory of an EEA state: art 72E(8) (as so added). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the meaning of 'Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund' see note 4.

2 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 Is of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126): see art 72E(1) (as added: see note 1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E(1) (as added: see note 1). Nothing in art 72E has the effect of excluding a body corporate from the application of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157 (see PARA 539 et seq), in so far as those Regulations would have applied to it but for the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E: art 72E(9) (as so added; amended by SI 2007/2157). Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E has the effect of excluding a body corporate from the application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397 (misleading statements and practices) (see PARA 568), in so far as that section would have applied to it but for the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E: art 72E(10) (as so added). Article 72E is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 72E(11) (added by SI 2006/3384).

'Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund' means a collective investment scheme which:

- 171 (1) is established for the purpose of enabling participants to participate in or receive profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of investments falling within one or more of (a) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76 (see PARA 224), being shares in an unlisted company; (b) art 77 (see PARA 224), being instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of an unlisted company; and (c) art 79 (see PARA 224), being warrants or other instruments entitling the holder to subscribe for shares in an unlisted company;
- 172 (2) has only the following as its participants: (a) the Secretary of State; (b) a body corporate of a type specified in art 72E(7) (see note 1); and (c) one or more persons each of whom at the time they became a participant was (i) a sophisticated investor; (ii) a high net worth individual; (iii) a high net worth company; (iv) a high net worth unincorporated association; (v) a trustee of a high value trust; or (vi) a self-certified sophisticated investor;
- 173 (3) is prevented, by the arrangements by which it is established, from (a) acquiring investments, other than those falling within heads (1)(a)-(c) above; and (b) acquiring investments falling within heads (1)(a)-(c) above in an unlisted company, where the aggregated cost of those investments exceeds £2 million, unless that acquisition is necessary to prevent or reduce the dilution of an existing share-holding in that unlisted company: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as added: see note 1).

'Unlisted company' has the meaning given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 3 (revoked: see now the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3) (see PARA 295): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

'Sophisticated investor' means an individual who is a 'certified sophisticated investor' within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 50(1) (revoked: see now the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50(1)) (see PARA 297), and has signed a statement in the following terms: 'I declare that I am a certified sophisticated investor within the meaning of article 50(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order [2005] and that I understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which I participate, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which I participate, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). I understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. I also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

'High net worth individual' means an individual who is a 'certified high net worth individual' within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 48(2) (revoked: see now the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(2)) (certified high net worth individuals) (see PARA 295), and has signed a statement in the following terms: 'I declare that I am a certified high net worth individual within the meaning of article 48(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order [2005] and that I understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which I participate, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which I participate, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). I understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. I also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

'High net worth company' means a body corporate which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 49(2)(a) (revoked: see now Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(a)) (high net worth companies, unincorporated associations etc) (see PARA 296), and has executed a document (in a manner which binds the company) in the following terms: 'This company is a high net worth company and falls within article 49(2)(a) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order [2005]. We understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which this company participates, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which this company participates, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). We understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. We also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and are aware that it is open to us to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added; definition amended by SI 2006/2383).

'High net worth unincorporated association' means an unincorporated association which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 49(2)(b) (revoked: see now Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(b)) (see PARA 296), and on behalf of which an officer of that association or a member of its governing body has signed a statement in the following terms: 'This unincorporated association is a high net worth unincorporated association and falls within article 49(2)(b) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order [2005]. I understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which this association participates, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which this association participates, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). I understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. I also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and am aware that it is open to the association to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

'High value trust' means a trust where the aggregate value of the cash and investments which form a part of the trust's assets (before deducting the amount of its liabilities) is £10 million or more; on behalf of which a trustee has signed a statement in the following terms: 'This trust is a high value trust. I understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which this trust participates, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which this trust participates, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). I understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. I also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and am aware that it is open to the trust to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

'Self-certified sophisticated investor' means an individual who is a 'self-certified sophisticated investor' within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335, art 50A (revoked: see now Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A) (see PARA 297), and has signed a statement in the following terms: 'I declare that I am a self-certified sophisticated investor within the meaning of article 50A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order [2005] and that I understand that any Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund (within the meaning of article 72F of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001), in which I participate, or any person who operates that Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, in which I participate, will not be authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (and so will not have to satisfy the threshold conditions set out in Part I of Schedule 6 to that Act and will not be subject to Financial Services Authority rules such as those on holding client money). I understand that this means that redress through the Financial Services Authority, the Financial Ombudsman Scheme or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme will not be available. I also understand the risks associated in investing in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund and am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who is authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and who specialises in advising on this kind of investment': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(1) (as so added).

References in arts 72E, 72F to a participant in a Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Fund, doing things on behalf of such a participant and property belonging to such a participant are, respectively, references to that participant in that capacity, to doing things on behalf of that participant in that capacity or to the property of that participant held in that capacity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72F(2) (as so added).

(c) Arranging Deals, etc

139. Arranging deals in investments, regulated mortgage contracts, etc.

Making arrangements for another person to enter into a regulated mortgage contract<sup>8</sup> as borrower<sup>9</sup>, or for another person to vary the terms of a regulated mortgage contract entered into by him as borrower<sup>10</sup>, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that contract, is a specified kind of activity<sup>11</sup>. Making arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements entering into a regulated mortgage contract as borrower is also a specified kind of activity<sup>12</sup>.

Making arrangements for another person to enter into a regulated home reversion plan<sup>13</sup> as reversion seller<sup>14</sup> or as plan provider<sup>15</sup>, or for another person to vary the terms of a regulated home reversion plan, entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him as reversion seller or as plan provider, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that plan, is a specified kind of activity<sup>16</sup>. Making arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements entering into a regulated home reversion plan as reversion seller or as plan provider is also a specified kind of activity<sup>17</sup>.

Making arrangements for another person to enter into a regulated home purchase plan<sup>18</sup> as home purchaser<sup>19</sup>, or for another person to vary the terms of a regulated home purchase plan, entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him as home purchaser, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that plan, is a specified kind of activity<sup>20</sup>. Making arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements entering into a regulated home purchase plan as home purchaser is also a specified kind of activity<sup>21</sup>.

The operation of a multilateral trading facility<sup>22</sup> on which MiFID instruments<sup>23</sup> are traded is also a specified kind of activity<sup>24</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>25</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including arranging deals in investments, arranging regulated mortgage contracts, arranging regulated home reversion plans, arranging regulated home purchase plans and operating a multilateral trading facility)<sup>26</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>27</sup>.

The following are excluded from qualifying as the activity of arranging deals in investments<sup>28</sup>:

- 362 (1) any arrangements for a transaction into which the person making the arrangements enters or is to enter as principal or as agent for some other person<sup>29</sup>, or any arrangements which a person makes with a view to transactions into which he enters or is to enter as principal or as agent for some other person<sup>30</sup>;
- 363 (2) arrangements made by a money-lender<sup>31</sup> under which either: (a) a relevant authorised person<sup>32</sup> or a person acting on his behalf will introduce to the money-lender persons with whom the relevant authorised person has entered, or proposes to enter, into a relevant transaction, or will advise such persons to approach the money-lender, with a view to the money-lender lending money on the security of any contract effected pursuant to a relevant transaction<sup>33</sup>; or (b) a relevant authorised person gives an assurance to the money-lender as to the amount which, on the security of any contract effected pursuant to a relevant transaction, will or may be received by the money-lender should the money-lender lend money to a person introduced to him pursuant to the arrangements<sup>34</sup>;
- 364 (3) arrangements under which a person accepts or is to accept, whether as principal or agent, an instrument<sup>35</sup> creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of any loan, credit, guarantee or other similar financial accommodation or assurance which is, or is to be, made, granted or provided by that person or his principal<sup>36</sup>;
- 365 (4) arrangements having as their sole purpose the provision of finance to enable a person to buy, sell, subscribe for or underwrite investments<sup>37</sup>;
- 366 (5) arrangements made by a company<sup>38</sup> for the purposes of issuing its own shares<sup>39</sup> or share warrants<sup>40</sup>, and arrangements made by any person for the purposes of issuing his own debentures<sup>41</sup> or debenture warrants<sup>42</sup>;
- 367 (6) any arrangements made for the purposes of carrying out the functions of a body or association which is approved under this provision as an international securities self-regulating organisation, whether the arrangements are made by the organisation itself or by a person acting on its behalf<sup>43</sup>.

The following are excluded from qualifying as the activities of arranging deals in investments, regulated mortgage contracts, regulated home reversion plans and regulated home purchase plans<sup>44</sup>:

- 368 (i) arrangements which do not or would not bring about the transaction to which the arrangements relate<sup>45</sup>;
- 369 (ii) arrangements under which a person merely provides means by which one party to a transaction (or potential transaction) is able to communicate with other parties<sup>46</sup>;
- 370 (iii) arrangements made by a person ('A') who is not an authorised person for or with a view to a transaction which is or is to be entered into by a person ('the client') with or through an authorised person if: the transaction is or is to be entered into on advice to the client by an authorised person<sup>47</sup>; or it is clear, in all the circumstances, that the client, in his capacity as an investor, borrower, reversion seller, plan provider or (as the case may be) home purchaser, is not seeking and has not sought advice from A as to the merits of the client's entering into the transaction (or, if the client has sought such advice, A has declined to give it but has recommended that the client seek such advice from an authorised person)<sup>48</sup>;
- 371 (iv) arrangements under which persons ('clients') will be introduced to another person<sup>49</sup>, where the person to whom introductions are to be made is an authorised person<sup>50</sup>, an exempt person acting in the course of a business comprising a regulated activity in relation to which he is exempt<sup>51</sup>, or a person who is not unlawfully carrying on regulated activities in the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business involves him in engaging in certain activities<sup>52</sup>; the introduction is made with a view to the provision of independent advice or the independent exercise of discretion in relation to investments generally or in relation to any class of investments to which the arrangements relate<sup>53</sup>; and the arrangements are made with a view to a person entering into a transaction which does not relate to a contract of insurance<sup>54</sup>.

The following are excluded from qualifying as the activities of arranging regulated mortgage contracts, regulated home reversion plans and regulated home purchase plans<sup>55</sup>:

- 372 (A) any arrangements for a contract or plan into which the person making the arrangements enters or is to enter or for a variation of a contract or plan to which that person is (or is to become) a party<sup>56</sup>; and any arrangements which a person makes with a view to contracts or plans into which he enters or is to enter<sup>57</sup>;
- 373 (B) certain arrangements made in the course of administration by an authorised person<sup>58</sup>; and
- 374 (C) certain arrangements under which a client is introduced to an authorised person, an appointed representative or an overseas person<sup>59</sup>.

18 As to the meaning of 'regulated home purchase plan' see PARA 215 note 1.

19 As to the meaning of 'home purchaser' see PARA 215 note 1.

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25C(2) (as added: see note 20).

22 'Multilateral trading facility' means (1) a multilateral trading facility (within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.15) operated by an investment firm, a credit institution or a market operator; or (2) a facility which (a) is operated by an investment firm, a credit institution or market operator which does not have a home member state; and (b) if its operator had a home member state, would be a multilateral trading facility within the meaning of art 4.1.15: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3384). As to the meanings of 'investment firm', 'credit institution' and 'home member state' see PARA 88 notes 5, 6. 'Market operator' means a market operator within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 4.1.13, or a person who would be a market operator if he had his registered office, or if he does not have a registered office his head office, in an EEA state, but does not include (i) a person to whom the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive does not apply by virtue of art 2 (see PARA 88); (ii) a person who does not have a home member state to whom (if he had his registered office, or if he does not have a registered office his head office, in an EEA state) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive would not apply by virtue of art 2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

23 For these purposes, 'MiFID instrument' means any investment (1) of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 83, 84 or 85 (see par 224); or (2) of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to an investment falling within head (1) above, that is a financial instrument: art 25D(2) (art 25D added by SI 2006/3384).

25 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

26 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C (added by SI 2003/1475; SI 2006/2383).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 25.

28 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25.

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 28(1). The exclusion is from art 25(1). As to entering into a transaction see PARA 113 note 2. The exclusions in art 28(1), (2) do not apply to arrangements made for or with a view to a transaction which relates to a contract of insurance, unless the person making the arrangements either is the only policyholder, or as a result of the transaction, would become the only policyholder: art 28(3) (added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

30 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 28(2). The exclusion is from art 25(2).

31 For these purposes, 'money-lender' means a person who is: (1) a money-lending company within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 s 209 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 338) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 574); (2) a body corporate incorporated under the law of, or of any part of, the United Kingdom relating to building societies (see PARA 1856 et seq); or (3) a person whose ordinary business includes the making of loans or the giving of guarantees in connection with loans: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 30(2).

32 For these purposes, 'relevant authorised person' means an authorised person who has permission to effect contracts of insurance or to sell investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 89 (see PARA 224), so far as relevant to such contracts: art 30(2) (definition amended by SI 2003/1476).

33 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 30(1)(a) (substituted by SI 2001/3544). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25(1), (2). In art 30(1) 'relevant transaction' means the effecting of a contract of insurance or the sale of an investment of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224), so far as relevant to such contracts: art 30(2) (definition amended by SI 2003/1476).

34 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 30(1)(b).

35 The reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 31(1) to a person accepting an instrument includes a reference to a person becoming a party to an instrument otherwise than as a debtor or a surety: art 31(2). As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 115 note 2.

37 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 32. The exclusion is from art 25(2).

38 As to the meaning of 'company' see PARA 116 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 34(2).

39 As to the meaning of 'shares' see PARA 116 note 3; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 34(2).

40 As to the meaning of 'share warrants' see PARA 116 note 4; definition applied by Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 34(2).

41 As to the meaning of 'debentures' see PARA 116 note 3; definition applied by Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 34(2).

42 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 34(1). The exclusion is from art 25(1), (2). It should be noted that a company is not, by reason of issuing its own shares or share warrants, and a person is not, by reason of issuing his own debentures or debenture warrants, to be treated as selling them: art 34(1). As to the meaning of 'debenture warrants' see PARA 116 note 4; definition applied by art 34(2).

43 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 35(1). The exclusion is from art 25(1), (2). The Treasury may approve as an international securities self-regulating organisation any body corporate or unincorporated association with respect to which the conditions mentioned in heads (1)-(6) below appear to it to be met if, having regard to such matters affecting international trade, overseas earnings and the balance of payments or otherwise as they consider relevant, it appears to them that to do so would be desirable and not result in any undue risk to investors: art 35(2). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. The conditions are that:

174 (1) the body or association does not have its head office in the United Kingdom (art 35(3)(a));

175 (2) the body or association is not eligible for recognition under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 287 or s 288 (applications by investment exchanges and clearing houses) (see PARAS 706-707) on the ground that (whether or not it has applied, and whether or not it would be eligible on other grounds) it is unable to satisfy the requirements of one or both of s 292(3)(a) and s 292(3)(b) (requirements for overseas investment exchanges and overseas clearing houses) (see PARA 710) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 35(3)(b));

176 (3) the body or association is able and willing to co-operate with the Financial Services Authority by the sharing of information and in other ways (art 35(3)(c));

177 (4) adequate arrangements exist for co-operation between the Authority and those responsible for the supervision of the body or association in the country or territory in which its head office is situated (art 35(3)(d));

178 (5) the body or association has a membership composed of persons falling within any of the following categories, that is to say, authorised persons, exempt persons, and persons whose head offices are outside the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business involves them in engaging in activities specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (or which would be apart from any exclusion made by Pt II (arts 4-72F)) (art 35(3)(e)); and

179 (6) the body or association facilitates and regulates the activity of its members in the conduct of international securities business (art 35(3)(f)).

As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. 'International securities business' means the business of buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting investments (or agreeing to do so), either as principal or agent, where: (a) the investments are securities or relevant investments and are of a kind which, by their nature, and the manner in which the business is conducted, may be expected normally to be bought or dealt in by persons sufficiently expert to understand the risks involved; and (b) either the transaction is international or each of the parties may be expected to be indifferent to the location of the other, and for the purposes of this definition, it is irrelevant that the investments may ultimately be bought otherwise than in the course of such business by persons not so expert: art 35(4) (amended by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

Any such approval is to be given by notice in writing, and the Treasury may by a further notice in writing withdraw any such approval if for any reason it appears to it that it is not appropriate to it to continue in force: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 35(5).

44 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25, 25A, 25B, 25C.

45 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 26 (amended by SI 2006/2383). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25(1), 25A(1), 25B(1), 25C(1). See also note 6.

46 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 27 (amended by SI 2006/2383). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25(2), 25A(2), 25B(2), 25C(2).

47 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 29(1)(a) (art 29(1) amended by SI 2006/2383). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25(1), 25A(1), (2), 25B(1), (2), 25C(1), (2). The exclusion in art 29(1) does not apply if the transaction relates, or would relate, to a contract of insurance, or A receives from any person other than the client any pecuniary reward or other advantage, for which he does not account to the client, arising out of his making the arrangements: art 29(2) (substituted by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 29 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 29(3) (added by SI 2006/3384).

48 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 29(1)(b) (amended by SI 2006/2383). See note 40.

49 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(a) (art 33 amended by SI 2006/2383). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25(2), 25A(2), 25B(2), 25C(2).

50 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(b)(i). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

51 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(b)(ii). As to exempt persons see PARA 80.

52 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(b)(iii) (amended by SI 2003/1475; SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/2383). The reference in the text is a reference to ordinary business involving him in engaging in an activity of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), art 25 (arranging deals in investments), art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans), art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152), art 39A (assisting in administration and performance of a contract of insurance) (see PARA 104), art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160), art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a stakeholder pension scheme) (see PARA 187), art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 174), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 174), art

53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) (or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activity) (see PARA 221)), or which would do so apart from any exclusion from any of those articles made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: see art 33(b)(iii) (as so amended).

53 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(c).

54 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33(d) (added by SI 2003/1476).

55 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25A, 25B, 25C.

56 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 28A(1) (art 28A added by SI 2003/1475; and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 28A(1) amended by SI 2006/2383). The exclusion is from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 25A(1), 25B(1), 25C(1).

57 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 28A(2) (as added (see note 49); amended by SI 2006/2383).

58 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 29A (art 29A originally added by SI 2003/1475; and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 29A(1) renumbered as such and art 29A(2), (3) added by SI 2006/2383).

A person who is not an authorised person ('A') does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A(1)(b) (see the text and note 10) as a result of (1) anything done by an authorised person ('B') in relation to a regulated mortgage contract which B is administering pursuant to an arrangement of the kind mentioned in art 62(a) (see PARA 204); or (2) anything A does in connection with the administration of a regulated mortgage contract in circumstances falling within art 62(b) (see PARA 204): art 29A(1) (as so renumbered). A person who is not an authorised person ('A') does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by art 25B(1)(b) (see the text and note 16) as a result of (a) anything done by an authorised person ('B') in relation to a regulated home reversion plan which B is administering pursuant to an arrangement of the kind mentioned in art 63C(a) (see PARA 210); or (b) anything A does in connection with the administration of a regulated home reversion plan in circumstances falling within art 63C(b) (see PARA 210): art 29A(2) (as so added). A person who is not an authorised person ('A') does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by art 25C(1)(b) (see the text and note 20) as a result of (i) anything done by an authorised person ('B') in relation to a regulated home purchase plan which B is administering pursuant to an arrangement of the kind mentioned in art 63G(a) (see PARA 216); or (ii) anything A does in connection with the administration of a regulated home purchase plan in circumstances falling within art 63G(b) (see PARA 216): art 29A(3) (as so added).

59 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33A (art 33A added by SI 2003/1475; and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 33A(1A), (1B) added and art 33A(4) substituted by SI 2006/2383).

There are excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A(2) (see the text and note 12) arrangements where (1) they are arrangements under which a client is introduced to a person ('N') who is an authorised person who has permission to carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by any of art 25A, art 53A (see PARA 174) and art 61(1) (see PARA 203); an appointed representative who may carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by either of art 25A and art 53A without contravening the general prohibition (see PARA 80), or an overseas person who carries on activities specified by any of arts 25A, 53A and 61(1); and (2) the conditions mentioned in art 33A(2) (see below) are satisfied: art 33A(1) (as so added). There are excluded from art 25B(2) (see the text and note 17) arrangements where (a) they are arrangements under which a client is introduced to a person ('N') who is an authorised person who has permission to carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by any of art 25B, art 53B (see PARA 174) and art 63B(1) (see PARA 209), an appointed representative who may carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by either of art 25B and art 53B without contravening the general prohibition, or an overseas person who carries on activities specified by any of arts 25B, 53B and 63B(1); and (b) the conditions mentioned in art 33A(2) (see below) are satisfied: art 33A(1A) (as so added). There are excluded from art 25C(2) (see the text and note 21) arrangements where (i) they are arrangements under which a client is introduced to a person ('N') who is an authorised person who has permission to carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by any of art 25C, art 53C (see PARA 174) and art 63F(1) (see PARA 215), an appointed representative who may carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by either of arts 25C and 53C without contravening the general prohibition, or an overseas person who carries on activities specified by any of arts 25C, 53C and 63F(1); and (ii) the conditions mentioned in art 33A(2) are satisfied: art 33(1A) (as so added).

The conditions referred to above are: (A) that the person making the introduction ('P') does not receive any money, other than money payable to P on his own account, paid by the client for or in connection with any transaction which the client enters into with or through N as a result of the introduction; and (B) that before making the introduction P discloses to the client such of the information mentioned in art 33A(3) (see below) as applies to P: art 33A(2) (as so added). That information is: that P is a member of the same group as N; details of any payment which P will receive from N, by way of fee or commission, for introducing the client to N; an indication of any other reward or advantage received or to be received by P that arises out of his introducing clients to N: art 33A(3) (as so added).

'Client' means: (aa) for the purposes of art 33A(1), a borrower within the meaning given by art 61(3)(a)(i) (see PARA 203), or a person who is or may be contemplating entering into a regulated mortgage contract as such a borrower; (bb) for the purposes of art 33A(1A), a reversion seller, a plan provider or a person who is or may be contemplating entering into a regulated home reversion plan as a reversion seller or as a plan provider; (cc) for the purposes of art 33A(1B), a home purchaser or a person who is or may be contemplating entering into a regulated home purchase plan as a home purchaser: art 33A(4) (as so substituted).

UPDATE

139 Arranging deals in investments, regulated mortgage contracts, etc

TEXT AND NOTES 1-24--Making arrangements (1) for another person to enter into a regulated sale and rent back agreement as an agreement seller or as an agreement provider; or (2) for another person to vary the terms of a regulated sale and rent back agreement, entered into on or after 1 July 2009 by him as agreement seller or agreement provider, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that agreement, is a specified kind of activity: SI 2001/544 art 25E(1)(a), (b) (art 25E added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). For the meaning of 'regulated sale and rent back agreement', 'agreement seller', and 'agreement provider' see PARA 220A. Making arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements entering into a regulated sale and rent back agreement as agreement seller or agreement provider is also a specified activity: SI 2001/544 art 25E(2). For transitional provisions see Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) (Amendment) Order 2009, SI 2009/1342, arts 32-34, Schedule.

NOTE 26--A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business an activity specified by SI 2001/544 art 25E (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24), art 53D (see PARA 174), or art 64 so far as relevant to either art 25E or art 53D, unless he carries on the business of engaging in that activity: SI 2001/1177 art 3D (added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

NOTE 45--The exclusion is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(1) (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24): SI 2001/544 art 26 (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

NOTE 46--The exclusion is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(2) (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24): SI 2001/544 art 27 (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

TEXT AND NOTES 47, 48--The exclusion is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(1), (2) (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24): SI 2001/544 art 29(1) (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). Head (iii) now also applies to arrangements made by A if it is clear, in all the circumstances, that the client, in his capacity as an agreement provider, is not seeking and has not sought advice from A as to the merits of the client's entering into the transaction (or, if the client has sought such advice, A has declined to give it but has recommended that the client seek such advice from an authorised person): SI 2001/544 art 29(1)(b).

TEXT AND NOTES 49-52--The exclusion is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(2) (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24): SI 2001/544 art 33 (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). The reference in the text is also a reference to ordinary business involving a person in engaging in an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 25E (arranging regulated sale and rent back agreements), art 53D (advising on regulated sale and rent back agreements): SI 2001/544 art 33(b)(iii).

TEXT AND NOTES 55-59--Heads (A)-(C) are also excluded from qualifying as the activities of arranging regulated sale and rent back agreements under SI 2001/544 art 25E (see TEXT AND NOTES 1-24): SI 2001/544 arts 28A, 29A, 33A (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). Head (A) now also refers to arrangements for such agreements; the exclusion under art 28A(1) is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(1); and the exclusion under art 28A(2) is also from SI 2001/544 art 25E(2): SI 2001/544 art 28A(1), (2). In relation to head (B), a person who is not an authorised person ('A') does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by art 25E(1)(b) as a result of (1) anything done by an authorised person ('B') in relation to a regulated sale and rent back agreement which B is administering pursuant to an arrangement of the kind mentioned in SI 2001/544 art 63K(a) (PARA 220A); or (2) anything A does in connection with the administration of a regulated sale and rent back agreement in circumstances falling within SI 2001/544 art 63K(a): SI 2001/544 art 29A(4) (added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). In relation to head

(c), there are excluded from SI 2001/544 art 25E(2) arrangements where (1) they are arrangements under which a client is introduced to a person ('N') who is (a) an authorised person who has permission to carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by any of SI 2001/544 arts 25E, 53D and 63J(1) (PARA 220A); (b) an appointed representative who may carry on a regulated activity of the kind specified by either SI 2001/544 art 25E or art 53D without contravening the general prohibition; or (c) an overseas person who carries on activities specified by any of SI 2001/544 arts 25E, 53D, 63J(1); and (2) the conditions mentioned in SI 2001/544 art 33A(2) are satisfied: SI 2001/544 art 33A(1C) (added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). For these purposes, 'client' means an agreement provider, an agreement seller or a person who is or may be contemplating entering into a regulated sale and rent back agreement as an agreement provider or agreement seller: SI 2001/544 art 33A(4)(d) (added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

NOTE 60--SI 2001/544 art 36 further amended: SI 2009/1342 (with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

147. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). The exclusion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) does not apply to the activity of effecting or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal, where:

180     (1) the activity is carried on by an undertaking which has received official authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 or the First

Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(a) (art 72A as so added; art 72A(2)(a) amended by SI 2004/3379)); and

- 181 (2) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 36 (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/2383). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

(G) MANAGING INVESTMENTS

152. Managing investments.

Managing assets belonging to another person, in circumstances involving the exercise of discretion, is a specified kind of activity<sup>1</sup> if:

- 389 (1) the assets consist of or include any investment which is a security<sup>2</sup> or a contractually based investment<sup>3</sup>; or
- 390 (2) the arrangements for their management are such that the assets may consist of or include such investments, and either the assets have at any time since 29 April 1988 done so, or the arrangements have at any time (whether before or after that date) been held out as arrangements under which the assets would do so<sup>4</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>5</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including managing investments)<sup>6</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>7</sup>.

This is subject to exclusions for attorneys<sup>8</sup>, trustees, nominees and personal representatives<sup>9</sup>, sale of goods and supply of services<sup>10</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>11</sup>, information society services<sup>12</sup>, provision of information on an incidental basis<sup>13</sup> and Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds<sup>14</sup>.

A person who carries on the activity of managing investments<sup>15</sup>, where the assets in question are held for the purposes of an occupational pension scheme<sup>16</sup>, is to be regarded as carrying on that activity by way of business<sup>17</sup>, except where:

- 391 (a) he is a trustee of a relevant scheme<sup>18</sup> who is a beneficiary or potential beneficiary under the scheme<sup>19</sup> or any other trustee of a relevant scheme who takes no day to day decisions relating to the management of any relevant assets<sup>20</sup>; or
- 392 (b) all day to day decisions in the carrying on of that activity (other than certain excepted decisions)<sup>21</sup>, so far as relating to relevant assets, are taken on his behalf by:

- 69. (i) an authorised person<sup>22</sup> who has permission to carry on managing investments<sup>23</sup>;

- 70. (ii) a person who is an exempt person<sup>24</sup> in relation to activities of that kind<sup>25</sup>; or

- 71. (iii) an overseas person<sup>26</sup>.

1. Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2. As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

3. Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37(a). As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4.

4. Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37(b).

5 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

6 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 5.

8 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38; and PARA 153.

10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 39, 68; and PARA 155.

11 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 39, 69; and PARA 156.

12 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 39, 72A; and PARA 157.

13 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 39, 72C; and PARA 158.

14 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E; and PARA 159.

15 Is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37.

16 For these purposes, 'occupational pension scheme' has the meaning given by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 s 1 with head (b) of the definition omitted (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(3) (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969).

17 See note 5.

18 For these purposes, 'relevant scheme' means any occupational pension scheme of a kind falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(4) (see heads (1)-(4) below) or art 4(5) (see heads (a)-(d) below): art 4(3).

A scheme falls within art 4(4) if:

- 182 (1) it is constituted under an irrevocable trust (art 4(4)(a));
- 183 (2) it has no more than 12 relevant members (art 4(4)(b));
- 184 (3) all relevant members, other than any relevant member who is unfit to act, or is incapable of acting, as trustee of the scheme, are trustees of it (art 4(4)(c)); and
- 185 (4) all day to day decisions relating to the management of the assets of the scheme which are relevant assets are required to be taken by all, or a majority of, relevant members who are trustees of the scheme or by a person of a kind falling within head (b)(i) or (b)(ii) in the text acting alone or jointly with all, or a majority of, such relevant members (art 4(4)(d) (amended by SI 2005/922)).

For these purposes, a person is a relevant member of a scheme if he is an employee or former employee by or in respect of whom contributions to the scheme are being or have been made and to or in respect of whom benefits are or may become payable under the scheme: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(4).

'Relevant assets' means assets of the scheme in question which are securities or contractually based investments: art 4(3). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1; and as to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4; both definitions applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 1(2)(b).

A scheme falls within art 4(5) if:

- 186 (a) it has no more than 50 members (art 4(5)(a));
- 187 (b) the contributions made by or in respect of each member of the scheme are used in the acquisition of a contract of insurance on the life of that member or in the acquisition of a contract to pay an annuity on that life (art 4(5)(b));
- 188 (c) the only decision of a kind described in head (b) in the text which may be taken in relation to the scheme is the selection of such contracts (art 4(5)(c)); and
- 189 (d) each member is given the opportunity to select the contract which the contributions made by or in respect of him will be used to acquire (art 4(5)(d)).

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(1)(a), (2)(a).

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(1)(a), (2)(b) (art 4(2)(b) amended by SI 2005/922).

21 A decision is an excepted decision if:

- 190 (1) it is a decision by the trustees of an occupational pension scheme to buy, sell or subscribe for units in a collective investment scheme, shares or debentures of a body corporate (or warrants relating to such shares or debentures) issued by a body corporate having as its purpose the investment of its funds with the aim of spreading investment risk and giving its members the benefit of the results of the management of those funds by or on behalf of that body, or rights under (or rights to or interests in) any contract of insurance (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(6)(a) (amended by SI 2005/922));
- 191 (2) the decision is taken after advice has been obtained and considered from:

- 33. (a) an authorised person who has permission to carry on activities of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53 (see PARA 171) in relation to the decision in question (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(6)(b), (7)(a) (art 4(6)(b) amended and art 4(7) substituted by SI 2005/922));

34. (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to such activities (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(6)(b), (7) (b) (as so amended and substituted));
34
35. (c) a person exempt from the general prohibition by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327 (see PARA 751) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(6)(b), (7)(c) (as so amended and substituted)); or 35
36. (d) an overseas person (art 4(6)(b), (7)(d) (as so amended and substituted)).
36

As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by art 1(2)(b) (amended by SI 2003/1476). 'Units in a collective investment scheme' means any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 81 (units in a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 224); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 1(2)(d). 'Shares' and 'debentures' mean any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76 (shares etc) (see PARA 224) or art 77 (instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness) (see PARA 224); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 1(2)(c). 'Warrants' means any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 79 (instruments giving entitlements to investments) (see PARA 224); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 1(2)(e). As to the meaning of 'overseas person' see PARA 124 note 1; definition applied by art 1(2)(b).

22 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(1)(b)(i).

24 As to exempt persons see PARA 330 et seq.

25 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(1)(b)(ii).

26 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4(1)(b)(iii).

153. Exclusion for attorneys.

A person does not carry on the specified activity of managing investments<sup>1</sup> if he is a person appointed to manage the assets in question under a power of attorney<sup>2</sup>; and all routine or day-to-day decisions<sup>3</sup> are taken on behalf of that person by: (1) an authorised person with permission to carry on such activities<sup>4</sup>; (2) a person who is an exempt person in relation to activities of that kind<sup>5</sup>; or (3) an overseas person<sup>6</sup>.

1     le of the kind of activity specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 38(1) (as renumbered and amended: see note 2).

2     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38(1)(a) (art 38(1) renumbered as such and amended by SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): see art 38(1) (as so renumbered and amended).

3     le so far as relating to investments of a kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37(a): see PARA 152.

4     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38(1)(b)(i) (as renumbered (see note 2); amended by SI 2001/3544). They are activities of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37: see PARA 152.

5     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38(1)(b)(ii) (as renumbered: see note 2).

6     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 38(1)(b)(iii) (as renumbered (see note 2); amended by SI 2001/3544). As to the meaning of 'overseas person' see PARA 124 note 1.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(G) Managing Investments/154. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

154. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of managing investments<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a person acting as trustee or personal representative, unless: (1) he holds himself out as providing a service comprising such an activity<sup>3</sup>; or (2) the assets in question are held for the purposes of an occupational pension scheme<sup>4</sup>, and he is to be treated<sup>5</sup> as carrying on that activity by way of business<sup>6</sup>. These provisions<sup>7</sup> do not apply if the person carrying on the activity is remunerated for what he does in addition to any remuneration he receives as trustee or personal representative, and for these purposes a person is not to be regarded as receiving additional remuneration merely because his remuneration is calculated by reference to time spent<sup>8</sup>.

1     A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2     le from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 66(3).

3     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 66(3)(a). The activity is of the kind specified by art 37: see PARA 152. Article 66 is subject to art 4(4A) (see PARA 88): art 66(8) (added by SI 2006/3384).

4 'Occupational pension scheme' has the meaning given by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 s 1 with head (b) of the definition omitted (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969).

5 le by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 4: see PARA 152.

Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with the sale of goods or supply of services by a supplier to a customer.

155. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with the sale of goods or supply of services by a supplier to a customer.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of managing investments<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a supplier where the assets in question are those of a customer<sup>3</sup> and are managed for the purposes of, or in connection with, the sale of goods or supply of services, or a related sale or supply<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 le excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 68(6).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 68(6)(a). Article 68(6) does not apply where the assets managed consist of qualifying contracts of insurance, investments of the kind specified by art 81 (see PARA 224), or investments of the kind specified by art 89 (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to such contracts or such investments: art 68(10). As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4. Article 68 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 68(12) (added by SI 2006/3384).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(G) Managing Investments/156. Exclusion for groups and joint enterprises.

156. Exclusion for groups and joint enterprises.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of managing investments<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a person if: (1) he is a member of a group and the assets in question belong to another member of the same group<sup>3</sup>; or (2) he is or proposes to become a participator in a joint enterprise with the person to whom the assets belong, and the assets are managed for the purposes of, or in connection with, that enterprise<sup>4</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 69(5).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 69(5)(a). Article 69 is subject to art 4(4) (see PARA 88): art 69(13) (added by SI 2006/3384).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(G) Managing Investments/157. Exclusion for information society services.

157. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39 (amended by SI 2003/1476). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(G) Managing Investments/158. Exclusion for provision of information on an incidental basis.

158. Exclusion for provision of information on an incidental basis.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of managing investments<sup>2</sup> any activity where the assets in question are rights under a contract of insurance<sup>3</sup> or certain investments<sup>4</sup>, so far as relevant to such a contract, where that activity meets the following conditions<sup>5</sup>:

- 393 (1) that the activity consists of the provision of information to the policyholder or potential policyholder<sup>6</sup>;
- 394 (2) that the activity is carried on by a person in the course of carrying on a profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities<sup>7</sup> and
- 395 (3) that the activity may reasonably be regarded as being incidental to that profession or business<sup>8</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Ie excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (see PARA 152): see art 72C(2) (as added: see note 5).

(H) SAFEGUARDING AND ADMINISTERING INVESTMENTS

160. Safeguarding and administering investments.

The activity consisting of both the safeguarding of assets belonging to another, and the administration of those assets, or arranging for one or more other persons to carry on that activity, is a specified kind of activity<sup>1</sup> if the following condition is met<sup>2</sup>. The condition is that:

- 396 (1) the assets consist of or include any investment which is a security<sup>3</sup> or a contractually based investment<sup>4</sup>; or
- 397 (2) the arrangements for their safeguarding and administration are such that the assets may consist of or include such investments, and either the assets have at any time since 1 June 1997 done so, or the arrangements have at any time (whether before or after that date) been held out as ones under which such investments would be safeguarded and administered<sup>5</sup>.

For these purposes, it is immaterial that title to the assets safeguarded and administered is held in uncertificated form<sup>6</sup> and it is immaterial that the assets safeguarded and administered may be transferred to another person, subject to a commitment by the person safeguarding and administering them, or arranging for their safeguarding and administration, that they will be replaced by equivalent assets at some future date or when so requested by the person to whom they belong<sup>7</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>8</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including safeguarding and administering investments)<sup>9</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>10</sup>.

Certain activities and arrangements are specifically excluded and therefore do not constitute specified kinds of activities: they are acceptance of responsibility by a third party<sup>11</sup>, introduction to qualifying custodians<sup>12</sup>, trustees, nominees and personal representatives<sup>13</sup>, profession or non-investment business<sup>14</sup>, sale of goods and supply of services<sup>15</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>16</sup>, employee share schemes<sup>17</sup>, information society services<sup>18</sup>, provision of information on an incidental basis<sup>19</sup> and Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds<sup>20</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> ie an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40(1). The following activities do not constitute the administration of assets for the purposes of art 40: (1) providing information as to the number of units or the value of any assets safeguarded; (2) converting currency; and (3) receiving documents relating to an investment solely for the purpose of onward transmission to, from or at the direction of the person to whom the investment belongs: art 43.

3 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40(2)(a). As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40(2)(b).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40(3)(a).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40(3)(b).

8 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

9 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

Exclusion for acceptance of responsibility by a third party.

161. Exclusion for acceptance of responsibility by a third party.

Although safeguarding and administering investments is a specified activity<sup>1</sup>, there is an exclusion<sup>2</sup> for any activities which a person carries on pursuant to arrangements which:

- 398 (1) are ones under which a qualifying custodian<sup>3</sup> undertakes to the person to whom the assets belong a responsibility in respect of the assets which is no less onerous than the qualifying custodian would have if the qualifying custodian were safeguarding and administering the assets<sup>4</sup>; and
- 399 (2) are operated by the qualifying custodian in the course of carrying on in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> an activity consisting of both the safeguarding of assets belonging to another and the administration of those assets or arranging for one or more other persons to carry on that activity<sup>6</sup>.

1 Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2     le from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160): see art 41(1).

3     For these purposes, 'qualifying custodian' means a person who is an authorised person who has permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160); or an exempt person acting in the course of a business comprising a regulated activity in relation to which he is exempt: art 41(2).

4     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 41(1)(a).

5     As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

6     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 41(1)(b). As to the safeguarding and administering of investments see art 40; and PARA 160.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. Exclusion for introduction to qualifying custodians.

162. Exclusion for introduction to qualifying custodians.

Although safeguarding and administering investments is a specified activity<sup>1</sup>, there is a specific exclusion<sup>2</sup> for any arrangements pursuant to which introductions are made by a person ('P') to a qualifying custodian<sup>3</sup> with a view to the qualifying custodian providing in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> a service comprising an activity consisting of the safeguarding and administering of assets as described above, where the qualifying person (or other person who is to safeguard and administer the assets in question) is not connected with P<sup>5</sup>.

1     le an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2     le the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160): see art 42(1).

3     As to the meaning of 'qualifying custodian' see PARA 161 note 3; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 42(2)(a).

4     As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 42(1). For the purposes of art 42(1) a person is connected with P if either he is a member of the same group as P, or P is remunerated by him: art 42(2)(b).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

163. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of safeguarding and administering investments<sup>2</sup> any activity carried on by a person acting as trustee or personal representative, unless he holds himself out as providing a service comprising such an activity<sup>3</sup>. These provisions<sup>4</sup> do not apply if the person carrying on the activity is remunerated for what he does in addition to any remuneration he receives as trustee or personal representative, and for these purposes a person is not to be regarded as receiving additional remuneration merely because his remuneration is calculated by reference to time spent<sup>5</sup>.

Also excluded<sup>6</sup> is any activity carried on by a person acting as trustee which consists of arranging for one or more other persons to safeguard and administer trust assets where (1) that other person is a qualifying custodian<sup>7</sup>; or (2) that safeguarding and administration is also arranged by a qualifying custodian<sup>8</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

164. Exclusion for activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of safeguarding and administering investments<sup>2</sup> any activity which:

- 400 (1) is carried on in the course of carrying on any profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>; and

401 (2) may reasonably be regarded as a necessary part of other services provided in the course of that profession or business<sup>4</sup>.

However, this exclusion does not apply if the activity in question is remunerated separately from the other services<sup>5</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160): see art 67(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 67(1)(a) (amended by SI 2001/3544). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. ## 167. Exclusion for activities carried on in connection with employee share schemes.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of safeguarding and administering investments<sup>2</sup> any activity if the assets in question are, or are to be, safeguarded and administered by a person ('C'), a member of the same group as C or a relevant trustee<sup>3</sup> for the purpose of enabling or facilitating the following kinds of transactions:

402 (1) transactions in shares in, or debentures issued by C between, or for the benefit of<sup>4</sup>:

72. (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of C or of another member of the same group as C<sup>5</sup>; and

73. (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers, civil partners, surviving civil partners, or children or step-children under the age of 18 of such employees or former employees<sup>6</sup>; or

403 (2) the holding of such shares or debentures by, or for the benefit of, such persons<sup>7</sup>.

1 A 'specific activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160): see art 71(5).

169. Exclusion for provision of information on an incidental basis.

There is excluded from the specified activity<sup>1</sup> of safeguarding and administering investments<sup>2</sup> any activity where the assets in question are rights under a contract of insurance<sup>3</sup> or certain investments<sup>4</sup>, so far as relevant to such a contract, where that activity meets the following conditions<sup>5</sup>:

- 404 (1) that the activity consists of the provision of information to the policyholder or potential policyholder<sup>6</sup>;
- 405 (2) that the activity is carried on by a person in the course of carrying on a profession or business which does not otherwise consist of the carrying on of regulated activities<sup>7</sup>; and
- 406 (3) that the activity may reasonably be regarded as being incidental to that profession or business<sup>8</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Ie excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160): see art 72C(2) (as added: see note 5).

3 As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

4 Ie an investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 89: see PARA 224.

(I) COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES

171. Establishing etc a collective investment scheme.

The following are specified kinds of activity<sup>1</sup>:

- 407 (1) establishing, operating or winding up a collective investment scheme<sup>2</sup>;
- 408 (2) acting as trustee<sup>3</sup> of an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>4</sup>;
- 409 (3) acting as the depositary<sup>5</sup> or sole director of an open-ended investment company<sup>6</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>7</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including establishing etc a collective investment scheme)<sup>8</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>9</sup>.

There is an exclusion for any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup> and also an exclusion in regard to Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds<sup>11</sup>.

1    Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51(1)(a). As to collective investment schemes generally see PARA 603 et seq.

3    As to the meaning of 'trustee' see PARA 606 note 16; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51(2).

4    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51(1)(b). As to the meaning of 'authorised unit trust scheme' see PARA 603; definition applied by art 51(2).

5    As to the meaning of 'depositary' see PARA 606 note 18; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51(2).

6    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51(1)(c).

7    See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

8 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 7.

10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 51A (added by SI 2002/1776); the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A; and PARA 172.

11 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72E; and PARA 173.

(J) ADVISING ON INVESTMENTS

174. Advising on investments.

Advising a person is a specified kind of activity<sup>1</sup> if the advice is:

- 410 (1) given to the person in his capacity as an investor or potential investor, or in his capacity as agent for an investor or a potential investor<sup>2</sup>; and
- 411 (2) advice on the merits of his doing any of the following (whether as principal or agent): buying<sup>3</sup>, selling<sup>4</sup>, subscribing for or underwriting a particular investment which is a security<sup>5</sup> or a relevant investment<sup>6</sup>, or exercising any right conferred by such an investment to buy, sell, subscribe for or underwrite such an investment<sup>7</sup>.

Advising a person is a specified kind of activity if the advice is: (a) given to the person in his capacity as a borrower or potential borrower<sup>8</sup>; and (b) advice on the merits of his doing any of the following: entering into a particular regulated mortgage contract<sup>9</sup>, or varying the terms of a regulated mortgage contract entered into by him after 31 October 2004<sup>10</sup> in such a way as to vary his obligations under that contract<sup>11</sup>.

Advising a person is a specified kind of activity if the advice is: (i) given to the person in his capacity as a reversion seller or potential reversion seller<sup>12</sup>, or a plan provider or potential plan provider<sup>13</sup>; and (ii) advice on the merits of his doing either of the following: entering into a particular regulated home reversion plan<sup>14</sup>, or varying the terms of a regulated home reversion plan, entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that plan<sup>15</sup>.

Advising a person is a specified kind of activity if the advice is: (A) given to the person in his capacity as a home purchaser or potential home purchaser<sup>16</sup>; and (B) advice on the merits of his doing either of the following: entering into a particular regulated home purchase plan<sup>17</sup> or varying the terms of a regulated home purchase plan, entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him, in such a way as to vary his obligations under that plan<sup>18</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>19</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including advising on investments, advising on regulated mortgage contracts, advising on regulated home reversion plans and advising on regulated home purchase plans)<sup>20</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>21</sup>.

There are exclusions from the above specified activities<sup>22</sup> for advice-giving in newspapers etc<sup>23</sup>, advice given in the course of administration by an authorised person<sup>24</sup>, trustees, nominees and personal representatives<sup>25</sup>, a profession or non-investment business<sup>26</sup>, sale of goods and supply of services<sup>27</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>28</sup>, sale of a body corporate<sup>29</sup>, overseas persons<sup>30</sup>, information society services<sup>31</sup>, activities carried on by a provider of relevant goods or services<sup>32</sup>, large risks contracts where the risk is situated outside the EEA<sup>33</sup> and Business Angel-led Enterprise Capital Funds<sup>34</sup>.

1    Is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

176 Exclusion for advice given in the course of administration by authorised person

TEXT AND NOTES--A person who is not an authorised person ('A') does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 53D (PARA 174) by reason of (1) anything done by an authorised person ('B') in relation to a regulated sale and rent back agreement which B is administering pursuant to arrangements of the kind mentioned in SI 2001/544 art 63K(a) (PARA 220A); or (2) anything A does in connection with the administration of a regulated sale and rent back agreement in circumstances falling within SI 2001/544 art 63K(b): SI 2001/544 art 54A(4) (added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). For the meaning of 'regulated sale and rent back agreement', 'agreement seller', and 'agreement provider' see PARA 220A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(j) Advising on Investments/177. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

177. Exclusion for trustees, nominees and personal representatives.

There is excluded from the specified activities<sup>1</sup> of advising on investments, advising on regulated mortgage contracts, advising on regulated home reversion plans and advising on regulated home purchase plans<sup>2</sup> the giving of advice by a person acting as trustee or personal representative where he gives the advice to:

- 412 (1) a fellow trustee or personal representative for the purposes of the trust or the estate<sup>3</sup>; or
- 413 (2) a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy concerning his interest in the trust fund or estate<sup>4</sup>.

These provisions<sup>5</sup> do not apply if the person carrying on the activity is remunerated for what he does in addition to any remuneration he receives as trustee or personal representative, and for these purposes a person is not to be regarded as receiving additional remuneration merely because his remuneration is calculated by reference to time spent<sup>6</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

187. Establishing etc a stakeholder and a personal pension scheme.

Establishing, operating or winding up a stakeholder pension scheme<sup>1</sup> and establishing, operating or winding up a personal pension scheme<sup>2</sup> are both specified kinds of activity<sup>3</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>4</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including establishing etc a pension scheme)<sup>5</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>6</sup>.

There is an exclusion for any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'stakeholder pension scheme' see the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 s 1 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS) in relation to Great Britain and the meaning given by the Welfare Reform and Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1999, SI 1999/3147 (NI 11); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition amended by SI 2005/593).

2 'Personal pension scheme' means a scheme or arrangement which is not an occupational pension scheme or a stakeholder pension scheme and which is comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, having or capable of having effect so as to provide benefits to or in respect of people (1) on retirement; (2) on having reached a particular age; or (3) on termination of service in an employment: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/1969). As to the meaning of 'occupational pension scheme' see PARA 154 note 4.

The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88. As to the provision of advice on stakeholder products see PARA 188.

4 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

5 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art

3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 4.

7 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52A (added by SI 2002/1776); the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A; and PARA 189.

187 Establishing etc a stakeholder and a personal pension scheme

NOTE 5--A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by SI 2001/544 art 25E (arranging regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 139), art 53D (advising on regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) as far as relevant to either of the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see SI 2001/1177 art 3D; and PARA 139.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(K) Stakeholder and Personal Pension Schemes/188. Exclusion for providing basic advice on stakeholder products.

188. Exclusion for providing basic advice on stakeholder products.

1 A person provides basic advice when (1) he asks a retail consumer (see note 2) questions to enable him to assess whether a stakeholder product (see note 3) is appropriate for that consumer; (2) relying on the information provided by the retail consumer, he assesses that a stakeholder product is appropriate for the retail consumer and (a) describes that product to that consumer; or (b) gives a recommendation of that product to that consumer; and (3) the retail consumer has indicated to the person that he has understood the description and the recommendation in head (b) above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52B(2) (art 52B added by SI 2004/2737).

2 'Retail consumer' means any person who is advised by a person on the merits of opening or buying a stakeholder product (see note 3) in the course of a business carried on by him: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52B(3) (as added: see note 1).

3 'Stakeholder product' means (1) an account which qualifies as a stakeholder child trust fund within the meaning given by the Child Trust Funds Regulations 2004, SI 2004/1450 (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 565); (2) rights under a stakeholder pension scheme (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS) which is subject to lifestyle, which is the process, applied from a date at least five years before the member's retirement date or in the case of a member who joins the scheme less than five years before his retirement date, immediately after he becomes a member and continuing until the member's retirement date, by which an investment strategy is adopted by the trustees or manager which aims to minimise the variation or potential variation in the value of the member's rights caused by market conditions from time to time; and (3) an investment of a kind specified in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52B(3) (as added (see note 1); amended by SI 2005/593). The following kinds of investment have been so specified: (a) certain deposit accounts (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Stakeholder Products) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2738, reg 4 (amended by SI 2005/594)); (b) units in certain collective investment schemes (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Stakeholder Products) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2738, reg 5); and (c) rights under certain linked long-term contracts (reg 6). As to the requirements applicable to units in collective investment schemes and rights in a linked long-term fund, the additional requirements to be satisfied where the returns under a linked long-term contract are smoothed and for the charge cap applicable to stakeholder collective investment schemes and linked long-term fund see regs 7-9 (reg 7 amended by SI 2005/594). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52B(1) (as added: see note 1). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(K) Stakeholder and Personal Pension Schemes/189. Exclusion for information society services.

189. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). The exclusion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) does not apply to the activity of effecting or carrying out a contract of insurance as principal, where:

- 192 (1) the activity is carried on by an undertaking which has received official authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(2)(a) (art 72A as so added; art 72A(2)(a) amended by SI 2005/2114)); and
- 193 (2) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives (art 72A(2)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52A (added by SI 2002/1776). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

(L) SENDING DEMATERIALISED INSTRUCTIONS

190. Sending dematerialised instructions.

Sending, on behalf of another person, dematerialised instructions<sup>1</sup> relating to a security<sup>2</sup> or a contractually based investment<sup>3</sup> is a specified kind of activity<sup>4</sup>, where those instructions are sent on behalf of another person by means of a relevant system in respect of which there is an approved operator<sup>5</sup>. Causing dematerialised instructions relating to a security or a contractually based investment to be sent on behalf of another person by means of such a system is also a specified kind of activity where the person causing them to be sent is a system-participant<sup>6</sup>.

A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business<sup>7</sup> a relevant investment business activity (including sending dematerialised instructions)<sup>8</sup>, unless he carries on the business of engaging in one or more such activities<sup>9</sup>.

Certain activities and arrangements are specifically excluded and therefore do not constitute specified kinds of activities: they are instructions on behalf of participating issuers<sup>10</sup>, instructions on behalf of settlement banks<sup>11</sup>, instructions in connection with takeover offers<sup>12</sup>, instructions in the course of providing a network<sup>13</sup>, trustees, nominees and personal representatives<sup>14</sup>, groups and joint enterprises<sup>15</sup> and information society services<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'dematerialised instructions' see the Uncertified Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3755, reg 3 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 421); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45(3) (amended by SI 2002/682).

2 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1.

3 As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4.

4 I.e. an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45(1) (amended by SI 2002/682). As to the meaning of 'operator' see the Uncertified Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3755, reg 3 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 421); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45(3) (as amended: see note 1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45(2) (amended by SI 2001/3544; SI 2002/682). As to the meaning of 'system-participant' see the Uncertified Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3755, reg 3; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45(3) (as so amended).

7 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

8 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(1) is without prejudice to art 4 in regard to occupational pension schemes (see PARA 152): art 3(3) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, is made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 419: see note 7.

10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 46; and PARA 191.

11 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 47; and PARA 192.

(N) FUNERAL PLAN CONTRACTS

200. Funeral plan contracts.

Entering as provider into a funeral plan contract<sup>1</sup> is a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup>. Certain contracts are specifically excluded<sup>3</sup> and therefore do not constitute specified activities. These exclusions are plans covered by insurance and trust arrangements<sup>4</sup> and any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>.

1 A 'funeral plan contract' is a contract (other than one excluded by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 60) under which:

199 (1) a person (the 'customer') makes one or more payments to another person (the 'provider') (art 59(2)(a)); and

200 (2) the provider undertakes to provide, or secure that another person provides, a funeral in the United Kingdom for the customer (or some other person who is living at the date when the contract is entered into) on his death (art 59(2)(b)), unless, at the time of entering into the contract, the customer and the provider intend or expect the funeral to occur within one month (art 59(2)). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 59(1). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 Is excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 59.

There is an exclusion<sup>1</sup> from the specified activity<sup>2</sup> of entering as provider into a funeral plan contract in regard to any contract under which:

- 421 (1) the provider undertakes to secure that sums paid by the customer under the contract will be applied towards a contract of whole life insurance on the life of the customer (or other person for whom the funeral is to be provided), effected and carried out by an authorised person who has permission to effect and carry out such contracts of insurance, for the purpose of providing the funeral<sup>3</sup>; or
  - 422 (2) the provider undertakes to secure that sums paid by the customer under the contract will be held on trust for the purpose of providing the funeral, and that the following requirements are or will be met with respect to the trust:
- 47
- 74. (a) the trust must be established by a written instrument<sup>4</sup>;
  - 75. (b) more than half of the trustees must be unconnected<sup>5</sup> with the provider<sup>6</sup>;
  - 76. (c) the trustees must appoint, or have appointed, an independent fund manager who is an authorised person who has permission to carry on a specified kind of activity<sup>7</sup>, and who is a person who is unconnected<sup>8</sup> with the provider, to manage the assets of the trust<sup>9</sup>;
  - 77. (d) annual accounts must be prepared, and audited by a person who is eligible for appointment as a statutory auditor<sup>10</sup>, with respect to the assets and liabilities of the trust<sup>11</sup>; and
  - 78. (e) the assets and liabilities of the trust must, at least once every three years, be determined, calculated and verified by an actuary who is a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries or of the Faculty of Actuaries<sup>12</sup>.

(O) REGULATED MORTGAGE CONTRACTS

203. Entering into and administering regulated mortgage contracts.

Entering into a regulated mortgage contract<sup>1</sup> as lender is a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup>. Administering<sup>3</sup> a regulated mortgage contract is also a specified kind of activity<sup>4</sup>.

Certain contracts are specifically excluded<sup>5</sup> from administering a regulated mortgage contract and therefore do not constitute that specified activity. They are arranging administration by an authorised person<sup>6</sup> and administration pursuant to agreement with an authorised person<sup>7</sup>.

1 A contract is a 'regulated mortgage contract' if, at the time it is entered into, the following conditions are met:

- 203 (1) the contract is one under which a person (the 'lender') provides credit to an individual or to trustees (the 'borrower') (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 61(3)(a)(i) (art 61(3)(a) substituted by SI 2001/3544));
- 204 (2) the contract provides for the obligation of the borrower to repay to be secured by a first legal mortgage on land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 61(3)(a)(ii) (art 61(3)(a) as so substituted));
- 205 (3) at least 40% of that land is used, or is intended to be used, as or in connection with a dwelling by the borrower or (in the case of credit provided to trustees) by an individual who is a beneficiary of the trust, or by a related person (arts 3(1), 61(3)(a)(iii) (art 61(3)(a) as so substituted));

but such a contract is not a regulated mortgage contract if it is a regulated home purchase plan (see PARA 215): arts 3(1), 61(3)(a) (art 61(3)(a) as so substituted; amended by SI 2006/2383).

'Credit' includes a cash loan, and any other form of financial accommodation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(3)(c). A 'first legal mortgage' means a legal mortgage ranking in priority ahead of all other mortgages (if any) affecting the land in question, where 'mortgage' includes charge and (in Scotland) a heritable security: art 61(4)(a) (art 61(4) amended by SI 2001/3544). The area of any land which comprises a building or other structure containing two or more storeys is to be taken to be the aggregate of the floor areas of each of those storeys: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(4)(b) (as so amended). 'Timeshare accommodation' has the meaning given by the Timeshare Act 1992 s 1 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 867 et seq): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(4)(d) (as so amended). 'Related person', in relation to the borrower or (in the case of credit provided to trustees) a beneficiary of the trust, means: (a) that person's spouse or civil partner; (b) a person (whether or not of the opposite sex) whose relationship with that person has the characteristics of the relationship between husband and wife; or (c) that person's parent, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild: art 61(4)(c)(iii) (art 61(4) as so amended; art 61(4)(c) amended by SI 2005/2114).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(1). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 'Administering' a regulated mortgage contract means either or both of:

- 206 (1) notifying the borrower of changes in interest rates or payments due under the contract, or of other matters of which the contract requires him to be notified (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(3)(b)(i)); and 207 (2) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the contract from the borrower (art 61(3)(b)(ii));

but a person is not to be treated as administering a regulated mortgage contract merely because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the contract (or to require that such action is or is not taken) (art 61(3)(b)).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(2) (amended by SI 2001/3544). It is a specified kind of activity where the contract was entered into by way of business after the coming into force of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(O) Regulated Mortgage Contracts/208. Exclusion for information society services.

208. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63A (added by SI 2002/1776). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(P) Regulated Home Reversion Plans/209. Entering into and administering regulated home reversion plans.

(P) REGULATED HOME REVERSION PLANS

209. Entering into and administering regulated home reversion plans.

Entering into a regulated home reversion plan<sup>1</sup> as plan provider is a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup>. Administering<sup>3</sup> a regulated home reversion plan is also a specified kind of activity<sup>4</sup>.

Certain contracts are specifically excluded<sup>5</sup> from administering a regulated home reversion plan and therefore do not constitute that specified activity. They are arranging administration by an authorised person<sup>6</sup> and administration pursuant to agreement with an authorised person<sup>7</sup>.

1 A 'regulated home reversion plan' is an arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, in relation to which the following conditions are met at the time it is entered into:

- 208 (1) the arrangement is one under which a person (the 'plan provider') buys all or part of a qualifying interest in land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom from an individual or trustees (the 'reversion seller') (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 63B(3)(a)(i) (art 63B added by SI 2006/2383));
- 209 (2) the reversion seller (if he is an individual) or an individual who is a beneficiary of the trust (if the reversion seller is a trustee), or a related person, is entitled under the arrangement to occupy at least 40% of the land in question as or in connection with a dwelling, and intends to do so (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 63B(3)(a)(ii) (art 63B as so added)); and
- 210 (3) the arrangement specifies one or more qualifying termination events, on the occurrence of which that entitlement will end (arts 3(1), 63B(3)(a)(iii) (art 63B as so added)).

For the purposes of art 63B(3)(a)(ii) (see head (2) above), the area of any land which comprises a building or other structure containing two or more storeys is to be taken to be the aggregate of the floor areas of each of those storeys: art 63B(5) (as so added).

The reference to a 'qualifying interest' in land in relation to land in England or Wales, is to an estate in fee simple absolute or a term of years absolute, whether subsisting at law or in equity; and in relation to land in Northern Ireland, it is to any freehold estate or any leasehold estate, whether subsisting at law or in equity: art 63B(4)(a) (as so added). 'Timeshare accommodation' has the meaning given by the Timeshare Act 1992 s 1 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 867 et seq): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(4)(b) (as so added). 'Related person' in relation to the reversion seller or, where the reversion seller is a trustee, a beneficiary of the trust, means (a) that person's spouse or civil partner; (b) a person (whether or not of the opposite sex) whose relationship with that person has the characteristics of the relationship between husband and wife; or (c) that person's parent, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild: art 63B(4)(c) (as so added). 'Qualifying termination event', in relation to a person's entitlement to occupy land, means: (i) the person becomes a resident of a care home; (ii) the person dies; (iii) the end of a specified period of at least 20 years beginning with the day on which the reversion seller entered into the arrangement: art 63B(4)(d) (as so added). For these purposes, 'care home' in relation to England and Wales, has the meaning given by the Care Standards Act 2000 s 3 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS); and in relation to Northern Ireland, means a residential care home within the meaning of the Health and Personal Social Services (Quality, Improvement and Regulation) (Northern Ireland) Order 2003, SI 2003/431 (NI 9), art 10 or a nursing home within the meaning of art 11: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(6) (as so added). See also note 2.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(1) (as added: see note 1). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, references to entering into a regulated home reversion plan as plan provider include acquiring any obligations or rights (including his interest in land) of the plan provider, under such a plan; but in relation to a person who acquires any such obligations or rights, an activity is a specified kind of activity for the purposes of art 25B(1)(b) (see PARA 139) and art 53B(b)(ii) (see PARA 174) and art 63B(2) (see the text to note 4) only if the plan was entered into by the plan provider (rather than the obligations or rights acquired) on or after 6 April 2007: see art 63B(7) (as so added). Accordingly, references in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, to a plan provider, other than in art 63B(7), include a person who acquires any such obligations or rights: art 63B(8) (as so added). See note 1.

3 'Administering' a regulated home reversion plan means any of (1) notifying the reversion seller of changes in payments due under the plan, or of other matters of which the plan requires him to be notified; (2) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of making payments to the reversion seller under the plan; and (3) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the plan from the reversion seller, but a person is not to be treated as administering a regulated home reversion plan merely because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the plan (or to require that such action is or is not taken): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(3)(b) (as added: see note 1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(2) (as added: see note 1). It is a specified kind of activity where the plan was entered into on or after 6 April 2007. See note 2.

211. Exclusion for administration pursuant to agreement with authorised person.

There is an exclusion<sup>1</sup> from the specified activity<sup>2</sup> of administering<sup>3</sup> a regulated home reversion plan<sup>4</sup> for a person who is not an authorised person<sup>5</sup> where he administers the plan pursuant to an agreement with an authorised person who has permission to carry on the activity<sup>6</sup>.

1 Excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(2).

2 Means an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 As to the meaning of 'administering' see PARA 209 note 3.

4 As to the meaning of 'regulated home reversion plan' see PARA 209 note 1.

5 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

Exclusion for beneficiary under trust, will or intestacy.

212. Exclusion for beneficiary under trust, will or intestacy.

There is excluded from the specified activities<sup>1</sup> of entering into a regulated home reversion plan as plan provider or administering a regulated home reversion plan<sup>2</sup> where the reversion seller under the plan<sup>3</sup> in question is a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy<sup>4</sup>.

These provisions<sup>5</sup> do not apply if the person carrying on the activity is remunerated for what he does in addition to any remuneration he receives as trustee or personal representative, and for these purposes a person is not to be regarded as receiving additional remuneration merely because his remuneration is calculated by reference to time spent<sup>6</sup>.

1 A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

2 Excluded from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(1) or (2) (see PARA 209): see art 66(6B) (as added: see note 3). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

(Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 66 is subject to art 4(4A) (see PARA 88): art 66(8) (added by SI 2006/3384)

3 As to the meanings of 'regulated home reversion plan' and 'reversion seller' see PARA 209 note 1.

214. Exclusion for information society services.

Any activity consisting of the provision of an information society service from an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup> is not categorised as a specified activity<sup>2</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72A(1) (art 72A added by SI 2002/1776). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63E (added by SI 2006/2383). The reference is to a specified activity under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt II (arts 4-72F). A 'specified activity' is an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(Q) Regulated Home Purchase Plans/215. Entering into and administering regulated home purchase plans.

(Q) REGULATED HOME PURCHASE PLANS

215. Entering into and administering regulated home purchase plans.

Entering into a regulated home purchase plan<sup>1</sup> as home purchase provider is a specified kind of activity<sup>2</sup>. Administering<sup>3</sup> a regulated home purchase plan is also a specified kind of activity<sup>4</sup>.

Certain contracts are specifically excluded<sup>5</sup> from administering a regulated home purchase plan and therefore do not constitute that specified activity. They are arranging administration by an authorised person<sup>6</sup> and administration pursuant to agreement with an authorised person<sup>7</sup>.

1 'Regulated home purchase plan' is an arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, in relation to which the following conditions are met at the time it is entered into:

- 211 (1) the arrangement is one under which a person (the 'home purchase provider') buys a qualifying interest or an undivided share of a qualifying interest in land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 63F(3)(a)(i) (definition in art 3(1); and art 63F added by SI 2006/2383));
- 212 (2) where an undivided share of a qualifying interest in land is bought, the interest is held on trust for the home purchase provider and the individual or trustees mentioned in head (3) below

as beneficial tenants in common (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 3(1), 63F(3)(a)(ii) (as so added));

213 (3) the arrangement provides for the obligation of an individual or trustees (the 'home purchaser') to buy the interest bought by the home purchase provider over the course of or at the end of a specified period (arts 3(1), 63F(3)(a)(iii) (as so added)); and

214 (4) the home purchaser (if he is an individual) or an individual who is a beneficiary of the trust (if the home purchaser is a trustee), or a related person, is entitled under the arrangement to occupy at least 40% of the land in question as or in connection with a dwelling during that period, and intends to do so (arts 3(1), 63F(3)(a)(iv) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 115 note 2. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. Article 63B(4)(a)-(c) (see PARA 209 note 1) applies for the purposes of art 63F(3)(a) (see heads (1)-(4) above) with references to the 'reversion seller' being read as references to the 'home purchaser': art 63F(4) (as so added). Article 63B(5) (see PARA 209 note 1) applies for the purposes of art 63F(3)(a)(iv) (see head (4) above) with the reference to 'art 63B(3)(a)(ii)' being read as a reference to 'art 63F(3)(a)(iv)': art 63F(5) (as so added).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63F(1) (as added: see note 1). The reference is to an activity of a kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, which is carried on by way of business, and relates to an investment of a kind specified by that Order and applicable to that activity, and is therefore a regulated activity for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22: see PARAS 84, 88.

3 'Administering' a regulated home purchase plan means either or both of (1) notifying the home purchaser of changes in payments due under the plan, or of other matters of which the plan requires him to be notified; and (2) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the plan from the home purchaser; but a person is not to be treated as administering a regulated home purchase plan merely because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the plan or to require that such action is or is not taken: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63F(3)(b) (as added: see note 1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63F(2) (as added: see note 1). It is a specified kind of activity where the plan was entered into on or after 6 April 2007.

TEXT AND NOTES--There is a new regulated activity of entering into and administering regulated sale and rent back agreements and exclusions apply in relation to arranging administration by an authorised person and administration pursuant to an agreement with an authorised person: see PARA 220A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(Q) Regulated Home Purchase Plans/220A. Regulated sale and rent back agreements.

220A. Regulated sale and rent back agreements.

Entering into a regulated sale and rent back agreement as an agreement provider is a specified kind of activity: SI 2001/544 art 63J(1) (arts 63J-63M added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes). A 'regulated sale and rent back agreement' is an arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, in relation to which the following conditions are met at the time it is entered into: (1) the arrangement is one under which a person (the 'agreement provider') buys all or part of the qualifying interest in land (other than timeshare accommodation) in the United Kingdom from an individual or trustees (the 'agreement seller'); and (2) the agreement seller (if the agreement seller is an individual) or an individual who is the beneficiary of the trust (if the agreement seller is a trustee), or a related person, is entitled under the arrangement to occupy at least 40 per cent of the land in question as or in connection with a dwelling, and intends to do so; but such an arrangement is not a regulated sale and rent back agreement if it is a regulated home reversion plan (see PARA 209): SI 2001/544 art 63J(3)(a). Administering a regulated sale and rent back agreement is also a specified kind of activity when the agreement was entered into on or after 1 July 2009: SI 2001/544 art 63J(2). 'Administering' a regulated sale and rent back agreement means any of: (a) notifying the agreement seller of changes in payments due under the agreement, or of other matters of which the agreement requires the agreement seller to be notified; (b) taking any necessary steps for the purpose of making payments to the agreement seller under the agreement; and (c) taking any necessary steps for the purposes of collecting or recovering payments due under the agreement from the agreement seller, but a person is not treated as administering a regulated sale and rent back agreement because he has, or exercises, a right to take action for the purposes of enforcing the agreement (or to require that such action is or is not taken): SI 2001/544 art 63J(3)(b). The reference to a 'qualifying interest' in land is to an estate in fee simple absolute or a term of years absolute, whether subsisting at law or in equity; 'timeshare accommodation' has the meaning given by the Timeshare Act 1992 s 1 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 868 NOTE 3); and 'related person' in relation to the agreement seller or, where the agreement seller is a trustee, a beneficiary of the trust, means (i) his spouse or civil partner; (ii) a person (whether or not of the opposite sex) whose relationship with him has the characteristic of the relationship between husband and wife; and (iii) his parent, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild: SI 2001/544 art 63J(4). For the purposes of head (2), the area of any land which comprises a building or other structure containing two or more storeys is to be taken to be the aggregate of the floor areas of each of those storeys: SI 2001/544 art 63J(5). References to entering into a regulated sale and rent back agreement as agreement provider include acquiring any obligations or rights of the agreement provider, including the agreement provider's interest in land or interests under one or more of the instruments or agreements referred to in heads (1), (2), but in relation to a person who acquires any such obligations or rights, an activity is a specified kind of activity for the purposes of SI 2001/544 art 25E(1)(b) (PARA 139), art 53D(b)(ii) (PARA 174), and art 63J(2) only if the agreement was entered into by the agreement provider (rather than the obligations or rights acquired) on or after 1 July 2009: SI 2001/544 art 63J(6). References to an agreement provider, other than in the foregoing provision, include a person who acquires any such obligations or rights: SI 2001/544 art 63J(7).

A person who is not an authorised person does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 63J(2) in relation to a regulated sale and rent back agreement where that person (A) arranges for another person, being an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of that kind, to administer the agreement; or (B) administers the agreement during a period of not more than one month beginning with the day on which any such arrangement comes to an end: SI 2001/544 art 63K(a), (b). A person who is not an authorised person does not carry on an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 63J(2) in relation to a regulated sale and rent back agreement where that person administers the agreement pursuant to an agreement with an authorised person who has permission to carry on activity of that kind: SI 2001/544 art 63L. The specified activities of entering into and administering regulated sale and rent back agreements are also subject to the exclusions in SI 2001/544 arts 66, 72, 72A: SI 2001/544 art 63M.

For transitional provisions see Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) (Amendment) Order 2009, SI 2009/1342, arts 32-34, Schedule.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Regulated Activities/C. SPECIFIED ACTIVITIES AND EXCLUSIONS/(Q) Regulated Home Purchase Plans/220B. Dormant account funds.

220B. Dormant account funds.

The meeting of repayment claims by a reclaim fund and the management of dormant account funds (including the investment of such funds) by a reclaim fund are specified kinds of activity: SI 2001/544 art 63N(1)(a), (b) (art 63N added by SI 2009/1389). 'Account', 'balance', 'dormant' and 'reclaim fund' have the same meaning as in Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008, Pt I (ss 1-15) (PARA 590A); 'dormant account funds' and 'repayment claims' have the same meaning as in Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 5; and 'management of dormant account funds' means the acceptance of a transfer from a bank or building society of the balance of a dormant account, or a proportion of such a balance, and the management of those funds in such a way as to enable the reclaim fund to meet whatever repayment claims it is prudent to anticipate: SI 2001/544 art 63N(2).

17 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 84) and s 419 (see PARA 87).

18 The reference is to an activity to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) applies, namely an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112); art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126); art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), except in so far as that activity relates to an investment of the kind specified by art 86 (Lloyd's syndicate capacity and syndicate membership), or art 89 (rights and interests) (see PARA 224) so far as relevant to art 86; art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152); art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160); art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190); art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171); art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187); art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174); and art 64 (agreeing), so far as relevant to any of the articles mentioned above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/1969; SI 2006/3384). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, art 3(2) does not apply to any insurance mediation activity: see art 3(2) (as so amended). A person is not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business any insurance mediation activity unless he takes up or pursues that activity for remuneration: art 3(4) (art 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 112 note 20. A person is also not to be regarded as carrying on by way of business activities specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts), art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans), art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139), art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts), art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans), art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) or art 64 (agreeing) as far as relevant to the articles mentioned above, unless he carried on the business of engaging in those activities: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Carrying on Regulated Activities by Way of Business) Order 2001, SI 2001/1177, arts 3A, 3B, 3C; and PARA 139.

4   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 75. As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

5   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76(1)(a), (b). This includes any shares of a class defined as deferred shares for the purposes of the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119 (see PARA 1906) and any transferable shares in a body incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom relating to industrial and provident societies or credit unions, or in a body constituted under the law of another EEA state for the purposes equivalent to those of such a body: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76(2). However it does not include shares or stock in the share capital of (1) an open-ended investment company; (2) a building society incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom; (3) a body incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom relating to industrial and provident societies or credit unions: art 76(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to industrial and provident societies see further PARA 2394 et seq. As to the old definition of 'shares' (apparently extending to stock) see Borland's Trustee v Steel Bros & Co Ltd [1901] 1 Ch 279 at 288.

6   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 77(1)(a)-(f). This only applies to such instruments as do not fall within art 78(1) (see head (6) in the text): art 77(1). If and to the extent that they would otherwise fall within head (5) in the text, the following are excluded: (1) an instrument acknowledging or creating indebtedness for, or for money borrowed to defray, the consideration payable under a contract for the supply of goods or services; (2) a cheque or other bill of exchange, a banker's draft or a letter of credit (but not a bill of exchange accepted by a banker); (3) a banknote, a statement showing a balance on a current, deposit or savings account, a lease or other disposition of property, or a heritable security; and (4) a contract of insurance: art 77(2). Note that an instrument excluded from art 78(1) (see head (6) in the text) by art 78(2)(b) (see note 7 head (b)) is not thereby to be taken to fall within art 77(1): art 77(3). As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 115 note 2. As to the definition of 'debentures' see Levy v Abercorris Slate and Slab Co (1887) 37 ChD 260, [1886-90] All ER Rep 509. As to the validity of a charge when particulars were delivered to the registrar although the charge was not registered see Slavenburg's Bank NV v International Natural Resources Ltd [1980] 1 All ER 955, [1980] 1 WLR 1076.

7   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 78(1)(a)-(g). This does not include: (1) so far as applicable, the instruments mentioned in note 6 heads (1)-(4); and (2) any instrument creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of: (a) money received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank; or (b) money raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or treated as so raised by virtue of the National Debt Act 1972 s 11(3) (see PARA 1367): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 78(2).

Note that an instrument excluded from art 78(1) by art 78(2)(b) (see head (b) above) is not thereby to be taken to fall within art 77(1) (see head (5) in the text): art 77(3). As to the National Assembly for Wales see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 79(1). It is immaterial whether the investment to which the entitlement relates is in existence or identifiable: art 79(2). Note that an investment of the kind specified by head (7) in the text is not to be regarded as falling within art 83 (see head (11) in the text), art 84 (see head (12) in the text) or art 85 (see head (13) in the text): art 79(3).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 80(1)(a), (b). This does not include any certificate or other instrument which confers rights in respect of two or more investments issued by different persons, or in respect of two or more different investments of the kind specified by art 78 (see head (6) in the text) and issued by the same person: art 80(2). As to the meaning of 'property' see PARA 88 note 3.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 81. As to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 82 (substituted by SI 2006/1969). As to the meaning of 'stakeholder pension scheme' see PARA 187 note 1. As to the meaning of 'personal pension scheme' see PARA 187 note 2.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(1)(a)-(e) (art 83(1) renumbered as such and amended by SI 2006/3384). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1. As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4. The reference to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive is a reference to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) on markets in financial instruments. In regard to the restriction on the application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(1)(e) see also note 13.

13 The other options referred to are:

- 215 (1) options (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(1)(a)-(e) (see heads (11)(a)-(e) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; and (d) either to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 5 or 6 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies, or which in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 38 (see PARA 88 note 5) are to be considered as having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments and not being for commercial purposes, and to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 7 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(2)(a)-(d) (art 83(2)-(5) added by SI 2006/3384));
- 216 (2) options (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, art 83(1)(a)-(e) (see heads (11)(a)-(e) in the text) does not apply; (b) which may be settled physically; and (c) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 10 (see PARA 88 note 5) (read with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(3)(a)-(c) (as so added)).

Article 83(1)(e), (2), (3) only applies to options in relation to which (i) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (ii) a management company is providing, in accordance with the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex 1 Section B para 1; or (iii) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in Annex 1 Section A para 8: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(4) (as so added). Expressions used in art 83(1)(e), (2), (3) and in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) have the same meaning as in that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83(5) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 88 note 5. As to the meaning of 'credit institution' see PARA 88 note 6. As to the meaning of 'investment services and activities' see PARA 88 note 5. As to the meaning of 'market operator' see PARA 139 note 22. 'Management company' has the meaning given by the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) art 1a.2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3384).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1). This does not include rights under any contract which is made for commercial and not investment purposes: art 84(2). A contract is to be regarded as made for investment purposes if it is made or traded on a recognised investment exchange, or is made otherwise than on a recognised investment exchange but is expressed to be as traded on such an exchange or on the same terms as those on which an equivalent contract would be made on such an exchange: art 84(3). A contract not falling within art 84(3) is to be regarded as made for commercial purposes if under the terms of the contract delivery is to be made within seven days, unless it can be shown that there existed an understanding that (notwithstanding the express terms of the contract) delivery would not be made within seven days: art 84(4).

The following are indications that a contract not falling within art 84(3) or art 84(4) is made for commercial purposes and the absence of them is an indication that it is made for investment purposes: (1) one or more of the parties is a producer of the commodity or other property, or uses it in his business; (2) the seller delivers or intends to deliver the property or the purchaser takes or intends to take delivery of it: art 84(5).

It is an indication that a contract is made for commercial purposes that the prices, the lot, the delivery date or other terms are determined by the parties for the purposes of the particular contract and not by reference (or not solely by reference) to regularly published prices, to standard lots or delivery dates or to standard terms: art 84(6).

The following are indications that a contract is made for investment purposes: (a) it is expressed to be as traded on an investment exchange; (b) performance of the contract is ensured by an investment exchange or a clearing house; (c) there are arrangements for the payment or provision of margin: art 84(7).

For these purposes, a price is to be taken to be agreed on when a contract is made: (i) notwithstanding that it is left to be determined by reference to the price at which a contract is to be entered into on a market or exchange or could be entered into at a time and place specified in the contract; or (ii) in a case where the contract is expressed to be by reference to a standard lot and quality, notwithstanding that provision is made for a variation in the price to take account of any variation in quantity or quality on delivery: art 84(8).

15 The other futures and forwards are:

- 217 (1) futures (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1) (see head (12) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; and (d) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 5 or 6 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1A)(a)-(d) (art 84(1A)-(1E) added by SI 2006/3384));
- 218 (2) futures and forwards (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1) (see head (12) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; (d) which in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 38 (see PARA 88 note 5) are to be considered as having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments and not being for commercial purposes; and (e) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 7 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1B)(a)-(e) (as so added));
- 219 (3) futures (a) to which art 84(1) (see head (12) in the text) does not apply; (b) which may be settled physically; and (c) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 10 (see PARA 88 note 5) (read with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1C)(a)-(c) (as so added)).

Article 84(1A), (1B), (1C) only applies to futures or forwards in relation to which (i) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (ii) a management company is providing, in accordance with the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section B para 1 (see PARA 88 note 5); or (iii) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section A para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1D) (as so added). Expressions used in art 84(1A)-(1C) and in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) have the same meaning as in that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84(1E) (as so added).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(1)(a), (b). This does not include:

- 220 (1) rights under a contract if the parties intend that the profit is to be secured or the loss is to be avoided by one or more of the parties taking delivery of any property to which the contract relates (art 85(2)(a));
- 221 (2) rights under a contract under which money is received by way of deposit on terms that any interest or other return to be paid on the sum deposited will be calculated by reference to fluctuations in an index or other factor (art 85(2)(b));
- 222 (3) rights under any contract under which: (a) money is received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank; or (b) money is raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or treated as so raised by virtue of the National Debt Act 1972 s 11(3) (see PARA 1367) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(2)(c));
- 223 (4) rights under a qualifying contract of insurance (art 85(2)(d)).

As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4. As to the definition of 'contracts for differences' see City Index Ltd v Leslie [1992] QB 98, [1991] 3 All ER 180, CA.

17 The derivative instruments for the transfer of credit risk (1) to which neither the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 83 (see head (11) in the text) nor art 85(1) (see heads (13)(a), (b) in the text) applies; and (2) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(3) (art 85(3)-(5) added by SI 2006/3384). 'Derivative instruments for the transfer of credit risk' has the same meaning as in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(5) (as so added).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(3) only applies to derivatives in relation to which (a) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (b) a management company is providing, in accordance with UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section B para 1 (see PARA 88 note 5); or (c) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in Annex I Section A para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 85(4) (as so added).

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 86(1). As to the meaning of 'syndicate' see PARA 198 note 2.

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 86(2).

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 87. As to the meaning of 'funeral plan contract' see PARA 200 note 1.

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 88. As to the meaning of 'regulated mortgage contract' see PARA 203 note 1.

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 88A (added by SI 2006/2383). As to the meaning of 'regulated home reversion plan' see PARA 209 note 1.

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 88B (added by SI 2006/2383). As to the meaning of 'regulated home purchase plan' see PARA 215 note 1.

24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 89(1) (amended by SI 2006/2383). This specifically excludes the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, arts 88, 88A, 88B (see heads (17)-(19) in the text). In addition this does not include interests under the trusts of an occupational pension scheme: art 89(2). Nor does it include rights to or interests in a contract of insurance of the kind referred to in art 60(1)(a) (see PARA 201) or interests under a trust of the kind mentioned in art 60(1)(b) (see PARA 201): art 89(3). Nor does it include anything which is specified by any other provision of Pt III (arts 73-89): art 89(4). As to the meaning of 'occupational pension scheme' see PARA 152 note 14.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/A. IN GENERAL/225. Restriction on financial promotion.

(iii) Financial Promotion

A. IN GENERAL

225. Restriction on financial promotion.

A person must not, in the course of business<sup>1</sup>, communicate<sup>2</sup> an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity<sup>3</sup>. 'Engaging in investment activity' means: (1) entering or offering to enter into an agreement the making or performance of which by either party constitutes a controlled activity<sup>4</sup>; or (2) exercising any rights conferred by a controlled investment to acquire, dispose of, underwrite or convert a controlled investment<sup>5</sup>. An activity is a controlled activity if: (a) it is an activity of a specified kind or one which falls within a specified class of activity<sup>6</sup>; and (b) it relates to an investment of a specified kind, or to one which falls within a specified class of investment<sup>7</sup>. 'Specified' means specified in an order made by the Treasury<sup>8</sup>. An investment is a controlled investment if it is an investment of a specified kind or one which falls within a specified class of investment<sup>9</sup>.

However, this restriction does not apply if:

- 463 (i) the person making the communication is an authorised person<sup>10</sup>; or
- 464 (ii) the content of the communication is approved<sup>11</sup> by an authorised person<sup>12</sup>.

In the case of a communication originating outside the United Kingdom<sup>13</sup>, the restriction<sup>14</sup> applies only if the communication is capable of having an effect in the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>. The Treasury may by order specify circumstances (which may include compliance with financial promotion rules<sup>16</sup>) in which the restriction<sup>17</sup> does not apply<sup>18</sup>.

A person who contravenes the financial promotion prohibition<sup>19</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>20</sup>.

In proceedings for this offence it is a defence for the accused to show: (A) that he believed on reasonable grounds that the content of the communication was prepared, or approved<sup>21</sup>, by an authorised person<sup>22</sup>; or (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>23</sup>.

1 The Treasury may by order specify circumstances in which a person is to be regarded for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) as: (1) acting in the course of business; (2) not acting in the course of business: s 21(4). 'Specified' means specified in an order made by the Treasury: s 21(15). In exercise of the power under s 21, the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529 (see PARA 227 et seq) replacing the earlier Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, SI 2001/1335. As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 'Communicate' includes causing a communication to be made: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(13).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1). See also the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 5.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(9)(a). Schedule 2 (in regard to specified activities and investments) (see PARAS 84, 85), except Sch 2 para 26, applies for the purposes of s 21(9) and s 21(10) with references to s 22 (see PARA 84) being read as references to each of those provisions: s 21(11). Nothing in Sch 2, as applied by s 21(11), limits the powers conferred by s 21(9) or s 21(10): s 21(12).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(9)(b). 'Investment' includes any asset, right or interest: s 21(14). See note 6. As to controlled activities see PARA 227 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(15). See note 1.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(10). See note 6. As to controlled investments see PARA 241.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/A. IN GENERAL/226. Enforceability of agreements resulting from unlawful communications.

226. Enforceability of agreements resulting from unlawful communications.

If in consequence of an unlawful communication<sup>1</sup> a person enters as a customer into a controlled agreement<sup>2</sup>, it is unenforceable against him and he is entitled to recover:

- 465 (1)    any money or other property paid or transferred by him under the agreement<sup>3</sup>; and
- 466 (2)    compensation for any loss sustained by him as a result of having parted with it<sup>4</sup>.

If in consequence of an unlawful communication a person exercises any rights conferred by a controlled investment<sup>5</sup>, no obligation to which he is subject as a result of exercising them is enforceable against him and he is entitled to recover: (a) any money or other property paid or transferred by him under the obligation<sup>6</sup>; and (b) compensation for any loss sustained by him as a result of having parted with it<sup>7</sup>.

However, the court may allow: (i) the agreement or obligation to be enforced<sup>8</sup>; or (ii) money or property paid or transferred under the agreement or obligation to be retained<sup>9</sup>, if it is satisfied that it is just and equitable in the circumstances of the case<sup>10</sup>. In considering whether to allow the agreement or obligation to be enforced or (as the case may be) the money or property paid or transferred under the agreement to be retained<sup>11</sup>:

- 467 (A)    if the applicant<sup>12</sup> made the unlawful communication, the court must consider whether he reasonably believed that he was not making such a communication<sup>13</sup>;

468 (B) if the applicant did not make the unlawful communication, the court must consider whether he knew that the agreement was entered into in consequence of such a communication<sup>14</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'unlawful communication' means a communication in relation to which there has been a contravention of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): s 30(1). Any reference to making a communication includes causing a communication to be made: s 30(9).

2 For these purposes, 'controlled agreement' means an agreement the making or performance of which by either party constitutes a controlled activity for the purposes of s 21(1) (see PARA 225): s 30(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 30(2)(a). If any property required to be returned has passed to a third party, references to that property are to be read as references to its value at the time of its receipt by the person required to return it: s 30(13).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 30(2)(b). See further note 7.

5 As to the meaning of 'controlled investment' see PARA 225; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 30(1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 30(3)(a).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 30(3)(b). The amount of compensation recoverable as a result of s 30(2) or s 30(3) is: (1) the amount agreed between the parties; or (2) on the application of either party, the amount determined by the court: s 30(10). If a person elects not to perform an agreement or an obligation which (by virtue of s 30(2) or s 30(3)) is unenforceable against him, he must repay any money and return any other property received by him under the agreement: s 30(11). If (by virtue of s 30(2) or s 30(3)) a person recovers money paid or property transferred by him under an agreement or obligation, he must repay any money and return any other property received by him as a result of exercising the rights in question: s 30(12).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES/227. Accepting deposits.

B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES

227. Accepting deposits.

Accepting deposits<sup>1</sup> is a controlled activity<sup>2</sup> if:

469 (1) money received by way of deposit is lent to others; or

470 (2) any other activity of the person accepting the deposit is financed wholly, or to a material extent, out of the capital of or interest on money received by way of deposit, and the person accepting the deposit holds himself out as accepting deposits on a day to day basis<sup>3</sup>.

1 'Deposit' means a sum of money which is a deposit for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5 (see PARA 89): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 2(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES/229. Dealing in securities and contractually based investments.

229. Dealing in securities and contractually based investments.

Buying<sup>1</sup>, selling<sup>2</sup>, subscribing for or underwriting securities<sup>3</sup> or contractually based investments<sup>4</sup> as principal or agent is a controlled activity<sup>5</sup>. A person does not carry on such an activity by accepting an instrument<sup>6</sup> creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of any loan, credit, guarantee or other similar financial accommodation or assurance which he has made, granted or provided<sup>7</sup>.

1 'Buying' includes acquiring for valuable consideration: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28.

2 'Selling', in relation to any investment, includes disposing of the investment for valuable consideration, and for these purposes 'disposing' includes:

228 (1) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under a contract:

37. (a) surrendering, assigning or converting those rights; or 37

38. (b) assuming the corresponding liabilities under the contract;
38

229 (2) in the case of an investment consisting of rights under other arrangements, assuming the corresponding liabilities under the arrangements; and

230 (3) in the case of any other investment, issuing or creating the investment or granting the rights or interests of which it consists: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28.

3 'Security' means a controlled investment falling within any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 paras 14-20 (see PARA 241) or, so far as relevant to any such investment, Sch 1 para 27 (see PARA 241): Sch 1 para 28.

4 In other than investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 25 (funeral plan contracts) (see PARA 241), or Sch 1 para 27 (rights to or interests in investments) (see PARA 241) so far as relevant to Sch 1 para 25: see Sch 1 para 3(1). 'Contractually based investment' means:

231 (1) rights under a qualifying contract of insurance;

232 (2) any investment of the kind specified by any of Sch 1 para 21 (options) (see PARA 241), Sch 1 para 22 (futures) (see PARA 241), Sch 1 para 23 (contracts for differences) (see PARA 241) and Sch 1 para 25 (funeral plan contracts) (see PARA 241);

233 (3) any investment of the kind specified by Sch 1 para 27 (rights to or interests in investments) (see PARA 241) so far as relevant to an investment falling within head (1) or head (2) above: Sch 1 para 28.

As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by art 2(1).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 2(1), Sch 1 para 3(1). As to the meaning of 'controlled activity' see PARA 225.

6 This reference to a person accepting an instrument includes a reference to a person becoming a party to an instrument otherwise than as a debtor or a surety: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 3(3). 'Instrument' includes any record whether or not in the form of a document: art 2(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES/230. Arranging deals in investments.

230. Arranging deals in investments.

Making arrangements for another person (whether as principal or agent) to buy<sup>1</sup>, sell<sup>2</sup>, subscribe for or underwrite a particular investment which is: (1) a security<sup>3</sup>; (2) a contractually based investment<sup>4</sup>; (3) the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate, or a person's membership (or prospective membership) of a Lloyd's syndicate; or (4) a right to or interest in investments in head (3) above<sup>5</sup>, is a controlled activity<sup>6</sup>.

Making arrangements with a view to a person who participates in the arrangements buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting investments falling within heads (1), (2), (3) or (4) above (whether as principal or agent) is also a controlled activity<sup>7</sup>. However, a person does not carry on such an activity merely by providing means by which one party to a transaction (or potential transaction) is able to communicate<sup>8</sup> with other such parties<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'buying' see PARA 229 note 1.

2 As to the meaning of 'selling' see PARA 229 note 2.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES/232. Managing investments.

232. Managing investments.

Managing assets belonging to another person, in circumstances involving the exercise of discretion, is a controlled activity<sup>1</sup> if:

- 471 (1) the assets consist of or include any investment which is a security<sup>2</sup> or a contractually based investment<sup>3</sup>; or
- 472 (2) the arrangements for their management are such that the assets may consist of or include such investments, and either the assets have at any time since 29 April 1988 done so, or the arrangements have at any time (whether before or after that date) been held out as arrangements under which the assets would do so<sup>4</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'controlled activity' see PARA 225.

2 As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 229 note 3.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 5(a). As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 229 note 4.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/B. CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES/233. Safeguarding and administering investments.

233. Safeguarding and administering investments.

The activity consisting of both:

- 473 (1) the safeguarding of assets belonging to another<sup>1</sup>; and
- 474 (2) the administration of those assets<sup>2</sup>, or arranging for one or more other persons to carry on that activity, is a controlled activity<sup>3</sup> if either the condition in head (a) or head (b) below is met<sup>4</sup>:

- 475 (a) the assets consist of or include any investment which is a security<sup>5</sup> or a contractually based investment<sup>6</sup>; or
- 476 (b) the arrangements for their safeguarding and administration are such that the assets may consist of or include investments of the kind mentioned in head (a) above and either the assets have at any time since 1 June 1997 done so, or the arrangements have at any time (whether before or after that date) been held out as ones under which such investments would be safeguarded and administered<sup>7</sup>.

For these purposes: (i) it is immaterial that title to the assets safeguarded and administered is held in uncertificated form<sup>8</sup>; and (ii) it is immaterial that the assets safeguarded and administered may be transferred to another person, subject to a commitment by the person safeguarding and administering them, or arranging for their safeguarding and administration, that they will be replaced by equivalent assets at some future date or when so requested by the person to whom they belong<sup>9</sup>.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 6(1) (b). For the purposes of Sch 1 para 6, the following activities do not constitute the administration of assets:

234 (1) providing information as to the number of units or the value of any assets safeguarded (Sch 1 para 6(4)(a));

235 (2) converting currency (Sch 1 para 6(4)(b));

236 (3) receiving documents relating to an investment solely for the purpose of onward transmission to, from or at the direction of the person to whom the investment belongs (Sch 1 para 6(4)(c)).

As to the meaning of 'units', in a collective investment scheme, see PARA 603; definition applied by art 2(1).

3 As to the meaning of 'controlled activity' see PARA 225.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 12. As to the meaning of 'deposit' see PARA 227 note 1.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 13. As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by Sch 1 para 28.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 14(1). This includes any shares of a class defined as deferred shares for the purposes of the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119 (see PARA 1906) and any transferable shares in a body incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom relating to industrial and provident societies or credit unions or in a body constituted under the law of another EEA state for purposes equivalent to those of such a body: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 14(2)(a), (b). It does not include shares or stock in the share capital of: (1) an open-ended investment company; (2) a building society incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom; (3) any body incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom relating to industrial and provident societies or credit unions; (4) any body constituted under the law of an EEA state for purposes equivalent to those of a body falling within head (2) or head (3) above: Sch 1 para 14(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to open-ended investment companies see PARA 621 et seq. As to industrial and provident societies and credit unions see further PARA 2394 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 15(1) (a)-(f). This only applies to such instruments as do not fall within Sch 1 para 16 (see head (5) in the text): Sch 1 para 15(1). However, if and to the extent that they would otherwise fall within head (4) in the text, there are excluded: (1) any instrument acknowledging or creating indebtedness for, or for money borrowed to defray, the consideration payable under a contract for the supply of goods or services; (2) a cheque or other bill of exchange, a banker's draft or a letter of credit (but not a bill of exchange accepted by a banker); (3) a banknote, a statement showing a balance on a current, deposit or saving account, a lease or other disposition of property, or a heritable security; and (4) a contract of insurance: Sch 1 para 15(2). Note that an instrument excluded from Sch 1 para 16(1) (see head (5) in the text) by Sch 1 para (2)(b) is not thereby to be taken to fall within Sch 1 para 15(1): Sch 1 para 15(3). As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 229 note 6.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 16(1) (a)-(b). This does not include:

237 (1) so far as applicable, the instruments mentioned in Sch 1 para 15(2)(a)-(d) (see note 5 heads (1)-(4)) (Sch 1 para 16(2)(a)); and

238 (2) any instrument creating or acknowledging indebtedness in respect of: (a) money received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank (see PARA 810 et seq); or (b) money raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or treated as so raised by virtue of the National Debt Act 1972 s 11(3) (see PARA 1367) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 16(2)(b)).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 17(1). It is immaterial whether the investment to which the entitlement relates is in existence or identifiable: Sch 1 para 17(2). Note that an investment falling within head (6) in the text is not to be regarded as falling within Sch 1 para 21, 22 or 23 (see heads (10)-(12) in the text): Sch 1 para 17(3).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 18(1) (a), (b). This does not include any instrument which confers rights in respect of two or more investments issued by different persons, or in respect of two or more different investments of the kind specified by Sch 1 para 16

(see head (5) in the text) and issued by the same person: Sch 1 para 18(2). 'Property' includes currency of the United Kingdom or any other country or territory: Sch 1 para 28.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 19. As to the meaning of 'units', in a collective investment scheme, see PARA 603; definition applied by art 2(1).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 20(1), (2) (Sch 1 para 20 substituted by SI 2006/1969). As to the meanings of 'stakeholder pension scheme' and 'personal pension scheme' see PARA 312; definitions applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 20(3) (as so substituted).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(1)(a)-(e) (Sch 1 para 21(1) renumbered as such and amended by SI 2006/3384). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 229 note 3. As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 229 note 4. The reference to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive is a reference to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) on markets in financial instruments. In regard to the restriction on the application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(1)(e) see also note 12.

12 The other options referred to are:

- 239 (1) options (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(a)-(e) (see heads (10)(a)-(e) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; and (d) either to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 5 or 6 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies, or which in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 38 (see PARA 88 note 5) are to be considered as having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments and not being for commercial purposes, and to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 7 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(2)(a)-(d) (Sch 1 para 21(2)-(5) added by SI 2006/3384));
- 240 (2) options (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(1)(a)-(e) (see heads (10)(a)-(e) in the text) does not apply; (b) which may be settled physically; and (c) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 10 (see PARA 88 note 5) (read with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(3)(a)-(c) (as so added)).

Schedule 1 para 21(1)(e), (2), (3) only applies to options in relation to which (i) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (ii) a management company is providing, in accordance with the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex 1 Section B para 1; or (iii) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in Annex 1 Section A para 8: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(4) (as so added). Expressions used in Sch 1 para 21(1)(e), (2), (3) and in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) have the same meaning as in that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(5) (as so added). As to the meanings of 'investment firm', 'credit institution' and 'investment services and activities' see PARA 88 notes 5, 6; definitions applied by Sch 1 para 28 (definitions added by SI 2006/2383). As to the meaning of 'market operator' see PARA 139 note 22; and as to the meaning of 'management company' see PARA 224 note 12; definitions applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28 (definitions as so added).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1). This does not include rights under any contract which is made for commercial and not investment purposes: Sch 1 para 22(2). For the purposes of Sch 1 para 22(2), in considering whether a contract is to be regarded as made for investment purposes or for commercial purposes, the indicators set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 84 must be applied in the same way as they are applied for the purposes of art 84 (see PARA 224): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(3).

14 The other futures and forwards are:

- 241 (1) futures (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1) (see head (11) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; and (d) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 5 or 6 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1A)(a)-(d) (Sch 1 para 22(1A)-(1E) added by SI 2006/3384));
- 242 (2) futures and forwards (a) to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1) (see head (11) in the text) does not apply; (b) which relate to commodities; (c) which may be settled physically; (d) which in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 38 (see PARA 88 note 5) are to be considered as having the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments and not being for commercial purposes; and (e) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 7 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1B)(a)-(e) (as so added));
- 243 (3) futures (a) to which Sch 1 para 22(1) (see head (11) in the text) does not apply; (b) which may be settled physically; and (c) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 10 (see PARA 88 note 5) (read with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006) applies (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1C)(a)-(c) (as so added)).

Article 84(1A), (1B), (1C) only applies to futures or forwards in relation to which (i) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (ii) a management company is providing, in accordance with the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section B para 1 (see PARA 88 note 5); or (iii) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section A para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1D) (as so added). Expressions used in Sch 1 para 22(1A)-(1C) and in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) have the same meaning as in that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 22(1E) (as so added).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(1). This does not include:

- 244 (1) rights under a contract if the parties intend that the profit is to be secured or the loss is to be avoided by one or more of the parties taking delivery of any property to which the contract relates (Sch 1 para 23(2)(a));
- 245 (2) rights under a contract under which money is received by way of deposit on terms that any interest or other return to be paid on the sum deposited will be calculated by reference to fluctuations in an index or other factor (Sch 1 para 23(2)(b));
- 246 (3) rights under any contract under which: (a) money is received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank (see PARA 810 et seq); or (b) money is raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or treated as so raised by virtue of the National Debt Act 1972 s 11(3) (see PARA 1367) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(2)(c));
- 247 (4) rights under a qualifying contract of insurance (Sch 1 para 23(2)(d)).

As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by art 2(1).

16 Ie derivative instruments for the transfer of credit risk (1) to which neither the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 21(1) (see head (10) in the text) nor Sch 1 para 23(1) (see heads (12)(a), (b) in the text) applies; and (2) to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) Annex I Section C para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5) applies: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(3) (Sch 1 para 23(3)-(5) added by SI 2006/3384).

'Derivative instruments for the transfer of credit risk' has the same meaning as in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(5) (as so added).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(3) only applies to derivatives in relation to which (a) an investment firm or credit institution is providing or performing investment services and activities on a professional basis; (b) a management company is providing, in accordance with UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) art 5(3), the investment service specified in Section A para 4 or 5, or the ancillary service specified in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) Annex I Section B para 1 (see PARA 88 note 5); or (c) a market operator is providing the investment service specified in Annex I Section A para 8 (see PARA 88 note 5): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 23(4) (as so added).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 24(1). As to the meaning of 'syndicate' see PARA 198 note 2; definition applied by Sch 1 para 28. As to Lloyd's see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 24(2).

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 25. As to the meaning of 'qualifying funeral plan contract' see PARA 236; definition applied by Sch 1 paras 9, 28.

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 26. As to the meaning of 'qualifying credit' see PARA 237 note 1; definition applied by Sch 1 paras 10, 28.

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 26A (added by SI 2006/2383). As to the meaning of 'regulated home reversion plan' see PARA 209 note 1; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28 (definition added by SI 2006/2383).

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 26B (added by SI 2006/2383). As to the meaning of 'regulated home purchase plan' see PARA 215 note 1; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28 (definition added by SI 2006/2383).

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 27(1) (amended by SI 2006/2383). The reference is to any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 Pt II other than para 26, 26A or 26B. This also does not apply to interests under the trusts of an occupational pension scheme (Sch 1 para 27(2)), to any right or interest acquired as a result of entering into a funeral plan contract (Sch 1 para 27(2A)) or to anything which falls within any other provision of Sch 1 Pt II (see heads (1)-(19) in the text) (Sch 1 para 27(3)). 'Occupational pension scheme' has the meaning given by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 s 1, but with para (b) of the definition omitted (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 741): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 28 (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969). 'Funeral plan contract' means a contract under which: (1) a person (the 'customer') makes one or more payments to another person (the 'provider'); and (2) the provider undertakes to provide, or to secure that another person provides, a funeral in the United Kingdom for the customer (or some other person who is living at the date when the contract is entered into) on his death: Sch 1 paras 9(2), 27(2A).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(A) Introduction/242. Meaning of 'communications'.

D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS

(A) INTRODUCTION

242. Meaning of 'communications'.

The restriction on financial promotion requires that a person must not, in the course of business, communicate an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity unless that person is an authorised person or the content of the communication is approved by an authorised person<sup>1</sup>. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005<sup>2</sup> defines what constitutes a communication for these purposes.

The word 'communicate' itself includes causing a communication to be made or directed<sup>3</sup>. Any reference to a communication is a reference to the communication, in the course of business, of an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity<sup>4</sup>. Any reference to a communication being made to another person is a reference to a communication being addressed, whether verbally or in legible form, to a particular person or persons (for example where it is contained in a telephone call or letter)<sup>5</sup>. Any reference to a communication being directed at persons is a reference to a communication being addressed to persons generally (for example where it is contained in a television broadcast or website)<sup>6</sup>.

Communications are classified either as 'real time' or 'non-real time'. A 'real time communication' is any communication made in the course of a personal visit, telephone conversation or other interactive dialogue<sup>7</sup>. Any other communication is referred to as a 'non-real time communication'<sup>8</sup>. Non-real time communications include communications made by letter or e-mail or contained in a publication<sup>9</sup>. The following factors are treated as indications that a communication is a non-real time communication<sup>10</sup>: (1) the communication is made to or directed at more than one recipient in identical terms (save for details of the recipient's identity)<sup>11</sup>; (2) the communication is made or directed by way of a system which in the normal course constitutes or creates a record of the communication which is available to the recipient to refer to at a later time<sup>12</sup>; (3) the communication is made or directed by way of a system which in the normal course does not enable or require the recipient to respond immediately to it<sup>13</sup>.

Real time communications may be solicited or unsolicited. A real time communication is solicited where it is made in the course of a personal visit, telephone call or other interactive dialogue if that call, visit or dialogue was initiated by the recipient of the communication or if it takes place in response to an express request from the recipient of the communication<sup>14</sup>. For these purposes, a person is not to be treated as expressly requesting a call, visit or dialogue simply because: (a) he omits to indicate that he does not wish to receive any or any further visits or calls or to engage in any or any further dialogue<sup>15</sup>; or (b) he agrees to standard terms that state that such visits, calls or dialogue will take place, unless he has signified clearly that, in addition to agreeing to the terms, he is willing for them to take place<sup>16</sup>. A communication is solicited only if it is clear from all the circumstances when the call, visit or dialogue is initiated or requested that during the course of the visit, call or dialogue communications will be made concerning the kind of controlled activities or investments to which the communications in fact made relate<sup>17</sup>. In any other case the communication is unsolicited<sup>18</sup>.

Where a real time communication is solicited by a recipient ('R'), it is treated as having also been solicited by any other person to whom it is made at the same time as it is made to R if that other recipient is a close relative of R, or if that other recipient is expected to engage in any investment activity jointly with R<sup>19</sup>. A 'recipient' of a communication is the person to whom the communication is made or, in the case of a non-real time communication which is directed at persons generally, any person who reads or hears the communication<sup>20</sup>.

ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(B) All Controlled Activities/247. Communications to overseas recipients.

(B) ALL CONTROLLED ACTIVITIES

247. Communications to overseas recipients.

The restriction on financial promotion<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup>:

- 518 (1) which is made (whether from inside or outside the United Kingdom) to a person<sup>3</sup> who receives the communication outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>; or
- 519 (2) which is directed (whether from inside or outside the United Kingdom) only at persons<sup>5</sup> outside the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup>.

However, this exemption does not apply to an outgoing electronic commerce communication<sup>7</sup>, nor does it apply to an unsolicited real time communication<sup>8</sup> unless: (a) it is made from a place outside the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>; and (b) it is made for the purposes of a business which is carried on outside the United Kingdom and which is not carried on in the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>.

For the purposes of head (b) above:

- 520 (i) if the conditions set out in heads (A), (B), (C) and (D) below are met, a communication directed from a place inside the United Kingdom is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>;
- 521 (ii) if the conditions set out in heads (C) and (D) below are met, a communication directed from a place outside the United Kingdom is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom<sup>12</sup>;
- 522 (iii) in any other case where one or more of the conditions in heads (A) to (E) below are met, that fact is to be taken into account in determining whether or not a communication is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom (but a communication may still be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom even if none of the conditions in heads (A) to (E) below is met)<sup>13</sup>.

The conditions are that:

- 523 (A) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it is directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>;
- 524 (B) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it must not be acted upon by persons in the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>;
- 525 (C) the communication is not referred to in, or directly accessible from, any other communication which is made to a person or directed at persons in the United Kingdom by the person directing the communication<sup>16</sup>;
- 526 (D) there are in place proper systems and procedures to prevent recipients in the United Kingdom (other than those to whom the communication might otherwise lawfully have been made by the person directing it or a member of the same group) engaging in the investment activity to which the communication relates with the person directing the communication, a close relative of his or a member of the same group<sup>17</sup>;
- 527 (E) the communication is included in a website, newspaper, journal, magazine or periodical publication which is principally accessed in or intended for a market outside the United Kingdom<sup>18</sup>, or is included in a radio or television broadcast or teletext service transmitted principally for reception outside the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

5 As to a communication being directed at persons see PARA 242.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 12(1)(b). For these purposes, a communication may be treated as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom even if:

248 (1) it is also directed, for the purposes of art 19(1)(b), at investment professionals falling within art 19(5) (but disregarding art 19(6) (see PARA 255) for this purpose) (art 12(5)(a));

249 (2) it is also directed, for the purposes of art 49(1)(b), at high net worth persons to whom art 49 applies (but disregarding art 49(2)(e) (see PARA 296) for this purpose) and it relates to a controlled activity to which art 49 applies (art 12(5)(b));

250 (3) it is a communication to which art 31 applies (see PARA 270) (art 12(5)(c)).

Where a communication falls within art 12(5)(a) or (b):

251 (a) the condition in art 12(4)(a) (see head (A) in the text) is to be construed as requiring an indication that the communication is directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom or persons having professional experience in matters relating to investments or high net worth persons (as the case may be) (art 12(6)(a));

252 (b) the condition in art 12(4)(b) (see head (B) in the text) is to be construed as requiring an indication that the communication must not be acted upon by persons in the United Kingdom except by persons who have professional experience in matters relating to investments or who are not high net worth persons (as the case may be) (art 12(6)(b));

253 (c) the condition in art 12(4)(c) (see head (C) in the text) will not apply where the other communication referred to is made to a person or directed at a person in the United Kingdom to whom art 12(5) applies (see heads (1), (2), (3) above) (art 12(6)(c)).

Where a person makes or directs a communication<sup>1</sup> (the 'first communication') which is exempt from the financial promotion restriction<sup>2</sup> because<sup>3</sup> it is accompanied by certain indications or contains certain information, then the financial promotion restriction does not apply to any subsequent communication which complies with the following requirements<sup>4</sup>. The requirements are that the subsequent communication:

- 530 (1) is a non-real time communication<sup>5</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>6</sup>;
- 531 (2) is made by the same person who made the first communication<sup>7</sup>;
- 532 (3) is made to a recipient<sup>8</sup> of the first communication<sup>9</sup>;
- 533 (4) relates to the same controlled activity<sup>10</sup> and the same controlled investment<sup>11</sup> as the first communication<sup>12</sup>; and
- 534 (5) is made within 12 months of the recipient receiving the first communication<sup>13</sup>.

These provisions<sup>14</sup> only apply in the case of a person who makes or directs a communication on behalf of another where the first communication is made by that other person<sup>15</sup>. Where a person makes or directs a communication on behalf of another person in reliance on this exemption<sup>16</sup> the person on whose behalf the communication was made or directed remains responsible for the content of that communication<sup>17</sup>.

250. Introductions.

If the requirements listed in heads (a) to (c) below are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made with a view to or for the purposes of introducing the recipient<sup>3</sup> to:

- 535 (1) an authorised person who carries on the controlled activity<sup>4</sup> to which the communication relates<sup>5</sup>; or
- 536 (2) an exempt person where the communication relates to a controlled activity which is also a regulated activity in relation to which he is an exempt person<sup>6</sup>.

The requirements are that:

- 537 (a) the maker of the communication ('A') is not a close relative<sup>7</sup> of, nor a member of the same group as, the person to whom the introduction is, or is to be, made<sup>8</sup>;
- 538 (b) A does not receive from any person other than the recipient any pecuniary reward or other advantage arising out of his making the introduction<sup>9</sup>; and
- 539 (c) it is clear in all the circumstances that the recipient, in his capacity as an investor, is not seeking and has not sought advice from A as to the merits of the recipient engaging in investment activity<sup>10</sup> (or, if the client has sought such advice, A has declined to give it, but has recommended that the recipient seek such advice from an authorised person)<sup>11</sup>.

251. Exempt persons.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which:

- 540 (1) is a non-real time communication<sup>3</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>4</sup>;
- 541 (2) is made or directed by an exempt person<sup>5</sup>; and
- 542 (3) is for the purposes of that exempt person's business of carrying on a controlled activity<sup>6</sup> which is also a regulated activity in relation to which he is an exempt person<sup>7</sup>, nor does it apply to any unsolicited real time communication<sup>8</sup> made by a person ('AR') who is an appointed representative<sup>9</sup> where:

- 543 (a) the communication is made by AR in carrying on the business: (i) for which his principal ('P') has accepted responsibility<sup>10</sup>; and (ii) in relation to which AR is exempt from the general prohibition<sup>11</sup>; and
- 544 (b) the communication is one which, if it were made by P, would comply with any financial promotion rules made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>12</sup> which are relevant to a communication of that kind<sup>13</sup>.

253. Communications caused to be made or directed by unauthorised persons.

If one of the conditions below is met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to a communication<sup>2</sup> caused to be made or directed by an unauthorised person which is made or directed by an authorised person<sup>3</sup>.

The conditions are that (1) the authorised person prepared the content of the communication<sup>4</sup>; or (2) it is a real time communication<sup>5</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(B) All Controlled Activities/254. Mere conduits.

254. Mere conduits.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made or directed by a person who acts as a mere conduit for it<sup>3</sup>. A person acts as a mere conduit for a communication if:

547 (1) he communicates<sup>4</sup> it in the course of a business carried on by him, the principal purpose of which is transmitting or receiving material provided to him by others<sup>5</sup>;

548 (2) the content of the communication is wholly devised by another person<sup>6</sup>; and

549 (3) the nature of the service provided by him in relation to the communication is such that he does not select, modify or otherwise exercise control over its content<sup>7</sup> prior to its transmission or receipt<sup>8</sup>.

Electronic commerce communications are not generally exempt from the restriction on financial promotion<sup>9</sup>. The financial promotion restriction does not apply to an electronic commerce communication where<sup>10</sup>:

550 (a) the making of the communication constitutes the provision of an information society service of a certain kind (namely, 'mere conduit', 'caching' and 'hosting')<sup>11</sup>; and

551 (b) the relevant conditions<sup>12</sup>, to the extent that they are applicable at the time of, or prior to, the making of the communication, are or have been met at that time<sup>13</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 18(2)(b).

7 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 18(2)(c), a person does not select, modify or otherwise exercise control over the content of a communication merely by removing or having the power to remove material:

254 (1) which is, or is alleged to be, illegal, defamatory or in breach of copyright (art 18(3)(a));

255 (2) in response to a request to a body which is empowered by or under any enactment to make such a request (art 18(3)(b)); or 256 (3) when otherwise required to do so by law (art 18(3)(c)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(B) All Controlled Activities/255. Investment professionals.

255. Investment professionals.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which: (1) is made only to recipients<sup>3</sup> whom the person making the communication believes on reasonable grounds to be investment professionals<sup>4</sup>; or (2) may reasonably be regarded as directed only at such recipients<sup>5</sup>.

If:

552 (a) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it is directed at persons having professional experience in matters relating to investments and that any investment or investment activity to which it relates is available only to such persons or will be engaged in only with such persons<sup>6</sup>;

- 553 (b) the communication is accompanied by an indication that persons who do not have professional experience in matters relating to investments should not rely on it<sup>7</sup>;
- 554 (c) there are in place proper systems and procedures to prevent recipients other than investment professionals engaging in the investment activity to which the communication relates with the person directing the communication, a close relative<sup>8</sup> of his or a member of the same group<sup>9</sup>, then the communication is to be regarded as directed only at investment professionals<sup>10</sup>. In any other case in which one or more of the conditions set out in heads (a) to (c) above are met, that fact is to be taken into account in determining whether the communication is directed only at investment professionals (but a communication may still be regarded as so directed even if none of the conditions in heads (a) to (c) above is met)<sup>11</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 19(1)(a). 'Investment professionals' means:

257 (1) an authorised person (art 19(5)(a));

258 (2) an exempt person where the communication relates to a controlled activity which is a regulated activity in relation to which the person is exempt (art 19(5)(b));

259 (3) any other person:

39. (a) whose ordinary activities involve him in carrying on the controlled activity to which the communication relates for the purpose of a business carried on by him (art 19(5)(c)(i)); or
39

40. (b) who it is reasonable to expect will carry on such activity for the purposes of a business carried on by him (art 19(5)(c)(ii));
40

260 (4) a government, a local authority (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) or an international organisation (art 19(5)(d));

261 (5) a person ('A') who is a director, officer or employee of a person ('B') falling within any of heads (1)-(4) above where the communication is made to A in that capacity and where A's responsibilities when acting in that capacity involve him in the carrying on by B of controlled activities (art 19(5)(e)).

As to controlled activities see PARA 227 et seq. As to the meaning of 'government' see PARA 241. 'International organisation' means any body the members of which comprise states including the United Kingdom or another EEA state or bodies whose members comprise states including the United Kingdom or another EEA state: art 2(1). As to authorised persons see PARA 314 et seq. As to regulated activities generally see PARA 84. As to investment generally see PARA 85. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 19(1)(b). For these purposes, a communication may be treated as made only to or directed only at investment professionals even if it is also made to or directed at other persons to whom it may lawfully be communicated: art 19(6). As to communication being made to another person see PARA 242; and as to communication being directed at persons see PARA 242.

256. Communications by journalists.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any non-real time communication<sup>2</sup> if:

- 555 (1) the content of the communication<sup>3</sup> is devised by a person acting in the capacity of a journalist<sup>4</sup>;
- 556 (2) the communication is contained in a qualifying publication<sup>5</sup>; and
- 557 (3) in the case of a communication requiring disclosure<sup>6</sup>, one of the conditions below is met<sup>7</sup>:
- 51
81. (a) the communication is accompanied by an indication explaining the nature of the author's<sup>8</sup> financial interest or that of a member of his family<sup>9</sup> (as the case may be)<sup>10</sup>;
82. (b) the authors are subject to proper systems and procedures which prevent the publication of communications requiring disclosure without the explanation referred to in head (a) above<sup>11</sup>; or
83. (c) the qualifying publication in which the communication appears falls within the remit of the Code of Practice issued by the Press Complaints Commission<sup>12</sup>, or the OFCOM Broadcasting Code<sup>13</sup>, or the Producers' Guidelines issued by the British Broadcasting Corporation<sup>14</sup>.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(1)(a).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(1)(b). A 'qualifying publication' is a publication or service of the kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 54(1) or art 54(2) and which is of the nature described in art 54 (see PARA 175); and for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20, a certificate given under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 54(3) and not revoked is conclusive evidence of the matters certified: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(5)(b).

6 A communication requires disclosure if:

- 262 (1) an author of the communication or a member of his family is likely to obtain a financial benefit or avoid a financial loss if people act in accordance with the invitation or inducement contained in the communication (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(3)(a));
- 263 (2) the communication relates to a controlled investment of a kind falling within art 20(4) (see heads (a)-(d) below) (art 20(3)(b)); and
- 264 (3) the communication identifies directly a person who issues or provides the controlled investment to which the communication relates (art 20(3)(c)).

A 'controlled investment' falls within art 20(4) if it is:

- 265 (a) an investment falling within Sch 1 para 14 (shares or stock in share capital) (see PARA 241) (art 20(4)(a));
- 266 (b) an investment falling within Sch 1 para 21 (options) (see PARA 241) to acquire or dispose of an investment falling within head (a) above (art 20(4)(b));
- 267 (c) an investment falling within Sch 1 para 22 (futures) (see PARA 241), being rights under a contract for the sale of an investment falling within head (a) above (art 20(4)(c)); or
- 268 (d) an investment falling within Sch 1 para 23 (contracts for differences) (see PARA 241), being rights under a contract relating to, or to fluctuations in, the value or price of an investment falling within head (a) above (art 20(4)(d)).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(1)(c).

8 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20, the 'author' of the communication is the person who devises the content of the communication and the person who is responsible for deciding to include the communication in the qualifying publication: art 20(5)(a)). As to the meaning of 'qualifying publication' see note 5.

9 The members of a person's family are his spouse or civil partner and any children of his under the age of 18 years: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20(5)(c) (amended by SI 2005/3392).

257. Promotion broadcast by company director.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to a communication<sup>2</sup> which is communicated as part of a qualifying service<sup>3</sup> by a person ('D') who is a director or employee of an undertaking ('U') where:

- 558 (1) the communication invites or induces the recipient to acquire:
53
84. (a) a controlled investment of a particular kind<sup>4</sup> which is issued by U (or by an undertaking in the same group as U)<sup>5</sup>; or
85. (b) a controlled investment issued or provided by an authorised person in the same group as U<sup>6</sup>;
54
559 (2) the communication:
55
86. (a) comprises words which are spoken by D and not broadcast, transmitted or displayed in writing<sup>7</sup>; or
87. (b) is displayed in writing only because it forms part of an interactive dialogue to which D is a party and in the course of which D is expected to respond immediately to questions put by a recipient of the communication<sup>8</sup>;
56
560 (3) the communication is not part of an organised marketing campaign<sup>9</sup>; and 561 (4) the communication is accompanied by an indication that D is a director or employee (as the case may be) of U<sup>10</sup>.

258. Incoming electronic commerce communications.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to an incoming electronic communication<sup>2</sup>. However, this does not include:

- 562 (1) a communication which constitutes an advertisement by the operator of a UCITS Directive scheme<sup>3</sup> of units in that scheme<sup>4</sup>;
- 563 (2) a communication consisting of an invitation or inducement to enter into a contract of insurance, where:
- 57
- 88. (a) the communication is made by an undertaking which has received official authorisation<sup>5</sup>;
- 89. (b) the insurance falls within the scope of any of the Insurance Directives<sup>6</sup>; or
- 58
- 564 (3) an unsolicited communication made by electronic mail<sup>7</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(1). 'Incoming electronic commerce communication' means an electronic commerce communication made from an establishment in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 6(g). As to the meaning of 'electronic commerce communication' see PARA 254 note 9. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3 'UCITS Directive scheme' means an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities which is subject to the UCITS Directive (ie EC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities), and which has been authorised in accordance with art 4: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(3).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(2)(a).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(2)(b)(i). The official authorisation referred to in the text is authorisation in accordance with the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 4 or the First Non-life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(2)(b)(ii). As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 20B(2)(b)(iii). For the purposes of art 20B, a communication by electronic mail is to be regarded as unsolicited, unless it is made in response to an express request from the recipient of the communication: art 20B(4). As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242.

(D) RELEVANT INSURANCE ACTIVITY

261. Non-real time communications.

If the following requirements are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any non-real time communication<sup>2</sup> which relates to a relevant insurance activity<sup>3</sup>. The requirements are that the communication<sup>4</sup> is accompanied by an indication:

- 572 (1) of the full name<sup>5</sup> of the person with whom the investment which is the subject of the communication is to be made (the 'insurer')<sup>6</sup>;
- 573 (2) of the country or territory in which the insurer is incorporated (described as such)<sup>7</sup>;

- 574 (3) if different, of the country or territory in which the insurer's principal place of business is situated (described as such)<sup>8</sup>;
- 575 (4) whether or not the insurer is regulated in respect of its insurance business<sup>9</sup>;
- 576 (5) if the insurer is so regulated, of the name of the regulator of the insurer in its principal place of business or, if there is more than one such regulator, the name of the prudential regulator<sup>10</sup>; and
- 577 (6) whether any transaction to which the communication relates would, if entered into by the recipient<sup>11</sup> and the insurer, fall within the jurisdiction of any dispute resolution scheme or compensation scheme and, if so, identifying each such scheme<sup>12</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 24(1). For the purposes of Pt V (arts 21-26), a 'relevant insurance activity' means a controlled activity falling within Sch 1 para 2 (ie effecting and carrying out contracts of insurance: see PARA 228) carried on in relation to an investment falling within Sch 1 para 13 (ie rights under a contract of insurance: see PARA 241) where that investment is not a qualifying contract of insurance: art 21. As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by art 2(1).

4 As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

5 'Full name', in relation to a person, means the name under which that person carries on business and, if different, that person's corporate name: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 24(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(D) Relevant Insurance Activity/262. Non-real time communications relating to reinsurance and large risks.

262. Non-real time communications relating to reinsurance and large risks.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meaning of 'relevant insurance activity' see PARA 261 note 3.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(1)(a).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(1)(b). 'Large risks' means:

269 (1) risks falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 1 para 4 (railway rolling stock), Sch 1 para 5 (aircraft), Sch 1 para 6 (ships), Sch 1 para 7 (goods in transit), Sch 1 para 11 (aircraft liability) or Sch 1 para 12 (liability of ships) (see PARA 90) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(2)(a));

270 (2) risks falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 1 para 14 (credit) or Sch 1 para 15 (suretyship) (see PARA 90) provided that the risks relate to a business carried on by the recipient (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(2)(b));

271 (3) risks falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Sch 1 para 3 (land vehicles), Sch 1 para 8 (fire and natural forces), Sch 1 para 9 (damage to property), Sch 1 para 10 (motor vehicle liability), Sch 1 para 13 (general liability) or Sch 1 para 16 (miscellaneous financial loss) (see PARA 90) provided that the risks relate to a business carried on by the recipient and that the condition specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(3) (see below) is met in relation to that business (art 25(2)(c)).

As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242.

The condition referred to in head (3) above is that at least two of the three following criteria were exceeded in the most recent financial year for which information is available prior to the making of the communication:

272 (a) the balance sheet total of the business (within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 ss 382(5), 465(5) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 247(5) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARAS 694-695) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 255(5)) was 6.2 million euros (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(3)(a));

273 (b) the net turnover (within the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 s 474(1) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 262(1) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 715) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 270(1)) was 12.8 million euros (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(3)(b));

274 (c) the number of employees (within the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 ss 382(6), 465(6) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 247(6)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARAS 694-695) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 255(6)) was 250 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (see the Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 25(3)(c)), and for a financial year which is a company's financial year but not in fact a year, the net turnover of the recipient must be proportionately adjusted: art 25(3). As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

For the purposes of art 25(3), where the recipient is a member of a group for which consolidated accounts (within the meaning of EC Council Directive 83/349 (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) based on the Article 54(3)(g) of the Treaty on consolidated accounts (the 'Seventh Company Law Directive')) are drawn up, the question whether the condition met in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, is met is to be determined by reference to those accounts: art 25(4).

5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(D) Relevant Insurance Activity/263. Real time communication.

263. Real time communication.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any real time communication<sup>2</sup> (whether solicited or unsolicited<sup>3</sup>) which relates to a relevant insurance activity<sup>4</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

(b) Non-real Time and Real Time Communications

265. One off non-real time communications and solicited real time communications.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to a one off communication<sup>2</sup> which is either a non-real time communication<sup>3</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>4</sup>. If all the conditions set out in heads (1) to (3) below are met in relation to a communication it is to be regarded as a one off communication<sup>5</sup>. In any other case in which one or more of those conditions are met, that fact is to be taken into account in determining whether the communication is a one off communication (but a communication may still be regarded as a one off communication even if none of the following conditions is met)<sup>6</sup>. The conditions are that:

- 580 (1) the communication is made only to one recipient<sup>7</sup> or only to one group of recipients in the expectation that they would engage in any investment activity jointly<sup>8</sup>;
- 581 (2) the identity of the product or service to which the communication relates has been determined having regard to the particular circumstances of the recipient<sup>9</sup>;
- 582 (3) the communication is not part of an organised marketing campaign<sup>10</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

266. One off unsolicited real time communications.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to an unsolicited real time communication<sup>2</sup> if the conditions set out in heads (1) to (3) below are met<sup>3</sup>.

The conditions are that:

- 583 (1) the communication is a one off communication<sup>4</sup>;
- 584 (2) the communicator believes on reasonable grounds that the recipient understands the risks associated with engaging in the investment activity to which the communication relates<sup>5</sup>;
- 585 (3) at the time that the communication is made, the communicator believes on reasonable grounds that the recipient<sup>6</sup> would expect to be contacted by him in relation to the investment activity to which the communication relates<sup>7</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(E) Certain Controlled Activities/(b) Non-real Time and Real Time Communications/267. Real time communications: introductions.

267. Real time communications: introductions.

If the requirements set out in heads (i) and (ii) below<sup>1</sup> are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>2</sup> does not apply to any real time communication<sup>3</sup> which:

- 586 (1) relates to the controlled activities of providing, arranging and advising on qualifying credit, a regulated home reversion plan or a regulated purchase plan<sup>4</sup>; and
- 587 (2) is made for the purpose of, or with a view to, introducing the recipient<sup>5</sup> to a person ('N') who is (a) an authorised person<sup>6</sup> who carries on the controlled activity to which the communication relates<sup>7</sup>; (b) an appointed representative<sup>8</sup>, where the controlled activity to which the communication relates is also a regulated activity<sup>9</sup> in respect of which he is exempt from the general prohibition<sup>10</sup>; or (c) an overseas person<sup>11</sup> who carries on the controlled activity to which the communication relates<sup>12</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that the maker of the communication ('M'):

- 588 (i) does not receive any money, other than money payable to M on his own account, paid by the recipient for or in connection with any transaction which the recipient enters into with or through N as a result of the introduction<sup>13</sup>; and
- 589 (ii) before making the introduction, discloses to the recipient such of the information mentioned below as applies to M<sup>14</sup>:

102. (A) that M is a member of the same group as N<sup>15</sup>;
103. (B) details of any payment which M will receive from N, by way of fee or commission, for introducing the recipient to N<sup>16</sup>;
104. (C) an indication of any other reward or advantage received or to be received by M that arises out of his making introductions to N<sup>17</sup>.

267 Real time communications: introductions

TEXT AND NOTE 4--The restriction also does not apply to any real time communication which relates to the controlled activities of providing, arranging and advising on a regulated sale and rent back agreement (ie controlled activities falling within SI 2005/1529 arts 10I, 10J, 10K (PARA 239A)): SI 2005/1529 art 28B(1)(a) (further amended by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

268. Communications required or authorised by enactments.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is required or authorised by or under any enactment other than the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>. However, this does not apply to a communication relating to the controlled activities of providing, arranging or advising on qualifying credit or agreeing to carry on that controlled activity<sup>4</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

(d) Communications by Overseas Communicators

269. Overseas communicators: solicited real time communications.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any solicited real time communication<sup>2</sup> which is made by an overseas communicator<sup>3</sup> from outside the United Kingdom in the course of or for the purposes of his carrying on the business of engaging in relevant investment activities outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the meanings of 'solicited real time communication' and 'real time communication' see PARA 242. As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264.

3 'Overseas communicator' means a person who carries on relevant investment activities outside the United Kingdom but who does not carry on any such activity from a permanent place of business maintained by him in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 30(2). 'Relevant investment activities' means controlled activities which fall within Sch 1 paras 3-7 or paras 10-10B (see PARAS 229-234, 237) or, so far as relevant to any of Sch 1 paras 3-7, 10-10B, Sch 1 para 11 (see PARA 240): arts 2(1), 30(2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(E) Certain Controlled Activities/(d) Communications by Overseas Communicators/270. Overseas communicators: non-real time communications to previously overseas customers.

270. Overseas communicators: non-real time communications to previously overseas customers.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any non-real time communication<sup>2</sup> which is communicated<sup>3</sup> by an overseas communicator<sup>4</sup> from outside the United Kingdom to a previously overseas customer<sup>5</sup> of his<sup>6</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meaning of 'communicate' see PARA 242.

4 As to the meaning of 'overseas communicator' see PARA 269 note 3.

5 'Previously overseas customer' means a person with whom the overseas communicator has done business within the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the communication was received (the 'earlier business') and where:

275 (1) at the time that the earlier business was done, the customer was neither resident in the United Kingdom nor had a place of business there (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 31(2)(a)); or 276 (2) at the time the earlier business was done, the overseas communicator had on a former occasion done business with the customer, being business of the same description as the business to which the communication relates, and on that former occasion the customer was neither resident in the United Kingdom nor had a place of business there (art 31(2)(b)).

As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242. For the purposes of art 31, an overseas communicator has done business with a customer if, in the course of carrying on his relevant investment activities outside the United Kingdom, he has:

277 (a) effected a transaction, or arranged for a transaction to be effected, with the customer (art 31(3)(a));

278 (b) provided, outside the United Kingdom, a service to the customer as described in Sch 1 para 6 (see PARA 233) (whether or not Sch 1 para 6 was in force at the time the business was done) (art 31(3)(b)); or 279 (c) given, outside the United Kingdom, any advice to the customer as described in Sch 1 para 7 (see PARA 234) (whether or not Sch 1 para 7 was in force at the time the business was done) (art 31(3)(c)).

As to the meaning of 'relevant investment activities' see PARA 269 note 3. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

Overseas communicators: unsolicited real time communications to previously overseas customers.

271. Overseas communicators: unsolicited real time communications to previously overseas customers.

If the following two requirements are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to an unsolicited real time communication<sup>2</sup> which is made by an overseas communicator<sup>3</sup> from outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> to a previously overseas customer<sup>5</sup> of his<sup>6</sup>. The first requirement is that the terms on which previous transactions and services had been effected or provided by the overseas communicator to the previously overseas customer were such that the customer would reasonably expect, at the time that the unsolicited real time communication is made, to be contacted by the overseas communicator in relation to the investment activity to which the communication<sup>7</sup> relates<sup>8</sup>. The second requirement is that the previously overseas customer has been informed by the overseas communicator on an earlier occasion<sup>9</sup>:

- 590 (1) that the protections conferred by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 will not apply to any unsolicited real time communication which is made by the overseas communicator and which relates to that investment activity<sup>10</sup>;
- 591 (2) that the protections conferred by or under that Act may not apply to any investment activity that may be engaged in as a result of the communication<sup>11</sup>; and
- 592 (3) whether any transaction between them resulting from the communication would fall within the jurisdiction of any dispute resolution scheme or compensation scheme or, if there is no such scheme, of that fact<sup>12</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

Overseas communicators: unsolicited real time communications to knowledgeable customers.

272. Overseas communicators: unsolicited real time communications to knowledgeable customers.

If the following three requirements are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to an unsolicited real time communication<sup>2</sup> which is made by an overseas communicator<sup>3</sup> from outside the United Kingdom in the course of his carrying on relevant investment activities<sup>4</sup> outside the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>. The first requirement is that the overseas communicator believes on reasonable grounds that the recipient<sup>6</sup> is sufficiently knowledgeable to understand the risks associated with engaging in the investment activity to which the communication<sup>7</sup> relates<sup>8</sup>. The second requirement is that, in relation to any particular investment activity, the recipient has been informed by the overseas communicator on an earlier occasion:

- 593 (1) that the protections conferred by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 will not apply to any unsolicited real time communication which is made by him and which relates to that activity<sup>9</sup>;
- 594 (2) that the protections conferred by or under that Act may not apply to any investment activity that may be engaged in as a result of the communication<sup>10</sup>; and
- 595 (3) whether any transaction between them resulting from the communication would fall within the jurisdiction of any dispute resolution scheme or compensation scheme or, if there is no such scheme, of that fact<sup>11</sup>.

The third requirement is that the recipient, after being given a proper opportunity to consider the information given to him in accordance with the second requirement, has clearly signified that he understands the warnings referred to in heads (1) and (2) above and that he accepts that he will not benefit from the protections referred to<sup>12</sup>.

282. Promotions of securities already admitted to certain markets.

If the requirements set out in heads (a) to (c) below are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which:

- 617 (1) is a non-real time communication<sup>3</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>4</sup>;
- 618 (2) is communicated<sup>5</sup> by a body corporate ('A'), other than an open-ended investment company<sup>6</sup>; and
- 619 (3) relates only to relevant investments<sup>7</sup> issued, or to be issued, by A or by another body corporate in the same group<sup>8</sup>, if relevant investments issued by A or by any such body corporate are permitted to be traded on a relevant market<sup>9</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that the communication:

- 620 (a) is not, and is not accompanied by, an invitation to engage in investment activity<sup>10</sup>;
- 621 (b) is not, and is not accompanied by, an inducement relating to an investment other than one issued, or to be issued, by A (or another body corporate in the same group)<sup>11</sup>;
- 622 (c) is not, and is not accompanied by, an inducement relating to a relevant investment which refers to (i) the price at which relevant investments have been bought or sold in the past<sup>12</sup>; or (ii) the yield on such investments<sup>13</sup>, unless the inducement also contains an indication that past performance cannot be relied on as a guide to future performance<sup>14</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(E) Certain Controlled Activities/(m) Communications in regard to Companies/293. Common interest group of a company.

293. Common interest group of a company.

If the first requirement described below and either the second or the third requirement described below are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which:

- 652 (1) is a non-real time communication<sup>3</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>4</sup>;
- 653 (2) is made only to persons who are members of a common interest group<sup>5</sup> of a company, or may reasonably be regarded as directed only at such persons<sup>6</sup>; and
- 654 (3) relates to specified investments<sup>7</sup> which are issued by that company<sup>8</sup>.

The first requirement is that the communication is accompanied by an indication:

- 655 (a) that the directors of the company (or its promoters named in the communication) have taken all reasonable care to ensure that every statement of fact or opinion included in the communication is true and not misleading given the form and context in which it appears<sup>9</sup>;
- 656 (b) that the directors of the company (or its promoters named in the communication) have not limited their liability with respect to the communication<sup>10</sup>; and
- 657 (c) that any person who is in any doubt about the investment to which the communication relates should consult an authorised person specialising in advising on investments of the kind in question<sup>11</sup>.

The second requirement is that the communication is accompanied by an indication:

- 658 (i) that the directors of the company (or its promoters named in the communication) have taken all reasonable care to ensure that any person belonging to the common interest group (and his professional advisers) can have access, at all reasonable times, to all the information that he or they would reasonably require, and reasonably expect to find, for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the company and of the rights attaching to the investments in question<sup>12</sup>; and
- 659 (ii) describing the means by which such information can be accessed<sup>13</sup>.

The third requirement is that the communication is accompanied by an indication that any person considering subscribing for the investments in question should regard any subscription as made primarily to assist the furtherance of the company's objectives (other than any purely financial objectives) and only secondarily, if at all, as an investment<sup>14</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 52(2)(a). As to the meanings of 'solicited real time communication' and 'real time communication' see PARA 242.

5 'Common interest group', in relation to a company, means an identified group of persons who at the time the communication is made might reasonably be regarded as having an existing and common interest with each other and that company in the affairs of the company and what is done with the proceeds arising from any investment to which the communication relates: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 52(1). Persons are not to be regarded as having such an interest if the only reason why they would be so regarded is that:

286 (1) they will have such an interest if they become members or creditors of the company (art 52(8)(a));

287 (2) they all carry on a particular trade or profession (art 52(8)(b)); or

288 (3) they are persons with whom the company has an existing business relationship, whether by being its clients, customers, contractors, suppliers or otherwise (art 52(8)(c)).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 52(2)(b). For these purposes:

289 (1) if all the conditions set out in art 52(7)(a)-(c) (see heads (a)-(c) below) are met, the communication is to be regarded as directed at persons who are members of the common interest group (art 52(6)(a));

290 (2) in any other case in which one or more of those conditions are met, that fact must be taken into account in determining whether the communication is directed at persons who are members of the common interest group (but a communication may still be regarded as directed only at such persons even if none of the conditions in art 52(7) is met) (art 52(6)(b)).

The conditions are that:

291 (a) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it is directed at persons who are members of the common interest group and that any investment or activity to which it relates is available only to such persons (art 52(7)(a));

292 (b) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it must not be acted upon by persons who are not members of the common interest group (art 52(7)(b));

293 (c) there are in place proper systems and procedures to prevent recipients other than members of the common interest group engaging in the investment activity to which the communication relates with the person directing the communication, a close relative of his or a member of the same group (art 52(7)(c)).

As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242. As to a person engaging in investment activity see PARA 242. As to the meaning of 'close relative' see PARA 242 note 19.

7 Investments falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 14 (shares or stock in the share capital of any body corporate or unincorporated body) (see PARA 241) or Sch 1 para 15 (instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness) (see PARA 241).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(E) Certain Controlled Activities/(m) Communications in regard to Companies/294. Annual accounts and directors' report.

294. Annual accounts and directors' report.

If the following four requirements are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> by a body corporate (other than an open-ended investment company) which:

- 660 (1) consists of, or is accompanied by, the whole or any part of the annual accounts<sup>3</sup> of a body corporate (other than an open-ended investment company)<sup>4</sup>; or
- 661 (2) is accompanied by any report which is prepared and approved by the directors of such a body corporate under the Companies Act 2006<sup>5</sup>, the corresponding Northern Ireland enactment<sup>6</sup> or the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom which corresponds to those provisions<sup>7</sup>.

The first requirement is that the communication:

- 662 (a) does not contain any invitation to persons to underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire or dispose of, a controlled investment<sup>8</sup>; and
- 663 (b) does not advise persons to engage in any of the activities within head (a) above<sup>9</sup>.

The second requirement is that the communication does not contain any invitation to persons to:

- 664 (i) effect any transaction with the body corporate (or with any named person) in the course of that body's (or person's) carrying on of any of certain specified activities<sup>10</sup>; or
- 665 (ii) make use of any services provided by that body corporate (or by any named person) in the course of carrying on such activity<sup>11</sup>.

The third requirement is that the communication does not contain any inducement relating to an investment other than one issued by the body corporate (or another body corporate in the same group) which falls within certain specified controlled investments<sup>12</sup>.

The fourth requirement is that the communication does not contain any reference to:

- 666 (A) the price at which investments issued by the body corporate have in the past been bought or sold<sup>13</sup>; or 667 (B) the yield on such investments<sup>14</sup>, unless it is also accompanied by an indication that past performance cannot be relied on as a guide to future performance<sup>15</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 'Annual accounts' means:

- 294 (1) accounts produced by virtue of the Companies Act 2006 Pt 15 (ss 380-474) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 Pt VII (ss 221-262A)) (see COMPANIES) (or of the Companies Act 2006 Pt 15 as applied by virtue of any other enactment) (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 59(7)(a));
- 295 (2) accounts produced by virtue of the corresponding Northern Ireland enactment (or of that enactment as applied by virtue of any other enactment) (art 59(7)(b));
- 296 (3) a summary financial statement prepared under the Companies Act 2006 ss 426-429, 434, 435 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 251) (see COMPANIES) (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 59(7)(c));
- 297 (4) accounts delivered to the registrar under the Companies Act 1985 Pt XXIII Ch II (ss 699A-703R) (prospectively repealed) (see COMPANIES) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 59(7)(d));
- 298 (5) accounts which are produced or published by virtue of the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom and which correspond to accounts within any of heads (1)-(4) above (art 59(7)(e)).

As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

(n) Communications to High Net Worth and Sophisticated Individuals, etc

295. Certified high net worth individuals.

If the requirements relating to the giving of a warning<sup>1</sup> and also those set out in heads (i) to (iii) below<sup>2</sup> are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>3</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>4</sup> which:

- 668 (1) is a non-real time communication<sup>5</sup> or a solicited real time communication<sup>6</sup>;
- 669 (2) is made to an individual whom the person making the communication believes on reasonable grounds to be a certified high net worth individual<sup>7</sup>; and
- 670 (3) relates only to one or more of the following investments<sup>8</sup>:
- 70
- 122. (a) stock or shares in an unlisted company<sup>9</sup>;
- 123. (b) an instrument acknowledging the indebtedness of an unlisted company<sup>10</sup>;
- 124. (c) investments conferring entitlement or rights with respect to investments falling within heads (a) or (b) above<sup>11</sup>;
- 125. (d) an investment comprising units in a collective investment scheme being a scheme which invests wholly or predominantly in investments falling within heads (a) or (b) above<sup>12</sup>;
- 126. (e) options to acquire or dispose of an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>13</sup>;
- 127. (f) rights under a contract for the sale of an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>14</sup>;
- 128. (g) a contract relating to, or to fluctuations in the value or price of, an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>15</sup>,
- 71
- 671 provided in each case that it is an investment under the terms of which the investor cannot incur a liability or obligation to pay or contribute more than he commits by way of investment<sup>16</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that the communication is accompanied by the giving of a warning<sup>17</sup> and also by an indication:

- 672 (i) that it is exempt from the general restriction<sup>18</sup> on the communication of invitations or inducements to engage in investment activity on the grounds that it is made to a certified high net worth individual<sup>19</sup>;
- 673 (ii) of the requirements that must be met for a person to qualify as a certified high net worth individual<sup>20</sup>;
- 674 (iii) that any individual who is in any doubt about the investment to which the communication relates should consult an authorised person specialising in advising on investments of the kind in question<sup>21</sup>.

1 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(4); and the text and note 17.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(7).

3 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

4 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

5 As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(1)(a). As to the meanings of 'solicited real time communication' and 'real time communication' see PARA 242.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(1)(b). 'Certified high net worth individual' means any individual who has signed, within the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the communication is made, a statement complying with Sch 5 Pt I (see below): art 48(2).

The validity of a statement signed for the purposes of art 48(2) is not affected by a defect in the form or wording of the statement, provided that the defect does not alter the statement's meaning and that the words shown in bold type in Sch 5 Pt I (see below) are so shown in the statement: art 48(3).

The statement to be signed for the purposes of art 48(2) must be in the following form and contain the following content (see Sch 5 Pt I):

'Statement for Certified High Net Worth Individual'

I declare that I am a certified high net worth individual for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005.

I understand that this means:

- 299 (a) I can receive financial promotions that may not have been approved by a person authorised by the Financial Services Authority;
- 300 (b) the content of such financial promotions may not conform to rules issued by the Financial Services Authority;
- 301 (c) by signing this statement I may lose significant rights;
- 302 (d) I may have no right to complain to either of the following:
41. (i) the Financial Services Authority; or 41
42. (ii) the Financial Ombudsman Scheme;
42
- 303 (e) I may have no right to seek compensation from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

I am a certified high net worth individual because at least one of the following applies:

- 304 (a) I had, during the financial year immediately preceding the date below, an annual income to the value of £100,000 or more;
- 305 (b) I held, throughout the financial year immediately preceding the date below, net assets to the value of £250,000 or more. Net assets for these purposes do not include:
43. (i) the property which is my primary residence or any loan secured on that residence;
43
44. (ii) any rights of mine under a qualifying contract of insurance within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001; or 44
45. (iii) any benefits (in the form of pensions or otherwise) which are payable on the termination of my service or on my death or retirement and to which I am (or my dependants are), or may be, entitled.
45

I accept that I can lose my property and other assets from making investment decisions based on financial promotions.

I am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who specialises in advising on investments.

As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 2(1).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(1)(d). The investments referred to in the text are those falling within art 48(8).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(a). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 14: see PARA 241.

An 'unlisted company' means a body corporate the shares in which are not:

- 306 (1) listed or quoted on an investment exchange whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere (art 3(1)(a));
- 307 (2) shares in respect of which information is, with the agreement or approval of any officer of the company, published for the purpose of facilitating deals in the shares indicating prices at which persons have dealt or are willing to deal in them other than persons who, at the time the information is published, are existing members of a relevant class (art 3(1)(b));
- 308 (3) subject to a marketing arrangement which accords to the company the facilities referred to in the Companies Act 1985 s 163(2)(b) (prospectively repealed) (see COMPANIES) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 s 693(3)) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), art 173(2)(b) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3(1)(c)).

For the purposes of the application of art 3 in respect of outgoing electronic commerce communications any reference in the Companies Act 1985 s 163(2)(b) (prospectively repealed) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 s 693(3)) (or the equivalent provision in the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6)) (see head (3) above) to a company includes a reference to a company registered under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3(1)(c)) and any reference to an investment exchange (see art 3(1)(a)) includes a reference to an investment exchange which is recognised as an investment exchange under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: art 8A(3). As to the meaning of 'outgoing electronic commerce communication' see PARA 247 note 7; and as to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

For the purpose of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3(1)(b) (see head (2) above), a person is to be regarded as a member of a relevant class if he was, at the relevant time:

- 309 (a) an existing member or debenture holder of the company (art 3(2)(a));
- 310 (b) an existing employee of the company (art 3(2)(b));

- 311 (c) a close relative of such a member or employee (art 3(2)(c)); or
- 312 (d) a trustee (acting in his capacity as such) of a trust, the principal beneficiary of which is a person within any of heads (a), (b) and (c) above (art 3(2)(d)).

As to the meaning of 'close relative' see PARA 242 note 19.

References to shares in and debentures of an unlisted company are references:

- 313 (i) in the case of a body corporate which is a company within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 1), to shares and debentures within the meaning of that Act (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3(3)(a));
- 314 (ii) in the case of a body corporate which is a company within the meaning of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), to shares and debentures within the meaning of that Order (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 3(3)(b));
- 315 (iii) in the case of any other body corporate, to investments falling within Sch 1 para 14 (shares or stock in the share capital of any body corporate or unincorporated body) (see PARA 241) or Sch 1 para 15 (instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness) (see PARA 241) (art 3(3)(c)).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(b). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 15: see PARA 241. As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 229 note 6.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(c). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 17 or Sch 1 para 18: see PARA 241.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(d). As to the meaning of 'units', in a collective investment scheme, see PARA 603; definition applied by art 2(1).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(e). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 21: see PARA 241.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(f). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 22: see PARA 241.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8)(g). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 23: see PARA 241.

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(8).

17 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(4), (5), (6).

The requirements of art 48(4) are that either the communication is accompanied by the giving of a warning in accordance with art 48(5), (6) or where, because of the nature of the communication, this is not reasonably practicable:

- 316 (1) a warning in accordance with art 48(5) is given to the recipient orally at the beginning of the communication together with an indication that he will receive the warning in legible form and that, before receipt of that warning, he should consider carefully any decision to engage in investment activity to which the communication relates (art 48(4)(a)); and
- 317 (2) a warning in accordance with art 48(5) and 48(6)(d)-(h) (see heads (d)-(h) below) is sent to the recipient of the communication within two business days of the day on which the communication is made (art 48(4)(b)).

As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242. 'Business day' means any day except a Saturday, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a day which is a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 in any part of the United Kingdom: art 48(9). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

The warning must be in the following terms: 'The content of this promotion has not been approved by an authorised person within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. Reliance on this promotion for the purpose of engaging in any investment activity may expose an individual to a significant risk of losing all of the property or other assets invested': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(5). However where a warning is sent pursuant to art 48(4)(b) (see head (2) above), for the words 'this promotion' in both places where they occur there must be substituted wording which clearly identifies the promotion which is the subject of the warning: art 48(5).

The warning must:

- 318 (a) be given at the beginning of the communication (art 48(6)(a));
- 319 (b) precede any other written or pictorial matter (art 48(6)(b));
- 320 (c) be in a font size consistent with the text forming the remainder of the communication (art 48(6)(c));
- 321 (d) be indelible (art 48(6)(d));
- 322 (e) be legible (art 48(6)(e));
- 323 (f) be printed in black, bold type (art 48(6)(f));
- 324 (g) be surrounded by a black border which does not interfere with the text of the warning (art 48(6)(g)); and
- 325 (h) not be hidden, obscured or interrupted by any other written or pictorial matter (art 48(6)(h)).

18 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21; and PARA 225.

5 As to communications being directed at persons see PARA 242.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(1)(b). For these purposes:

- 326 (1) if all the conditions set out in art 49(4)(a)-(c) (see heads (a)-(c) below) are met, the communication is to be regarded as directed at persons to whom art 49(2) applies (art 49(3)(a));
327 (2) in any other case in which one or more of those conditions are met, that fact is to be taken into account in determining whether the communication is directed at persons to whom art 49(2) applies (but a communication may still be regarded as so directed even if none of the conditions in art 49(4) is met) (art 49(3)(b)).

The conditions are that:

- 328 (a) the communication includes an indication of the description of persons to whom it is directed and an indication of the fact that the controlled investment or controlled activity to which it relates is available only to such persons (art 49(4)(a));
329 (b) the communication includes an indication that persons of any other description should not act upon it (art 49(4)(b));
330 (c) there are in place proper systems and procedures to prevent recipients other than persons to whom art 49(2) applies engaging in the investment activity to which the communication relates with the person directing the communication, a close relative of his or a member of the same group (art 49(4)(c)).

As to controlled investments see PARA 241. As to controlled activities see PARA 227 et seq. As to the meaning of 'close relative' see PARA 242 note 19.

7 'Called-up share capital' has the meaning given in the Companies Act 1985 (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1048) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006) or in the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(5).

For the purposes of the application of art 49 to outgoing electronic commerce communications, any reference in the Companies Acts or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6) (see above), to a body corporate or company includes a reference to a body corporate or company registered under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 8A(2). As to the meaning of 'outgoing electronic commerce communication' see PARA 247 note 7. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

8 'Net assets' has the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 s 831 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 264)(see COMPANIES) or the equivalent provision of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6): see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(7). See note 7.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(a)(i). In the application of art 49 to outgoing electronic commerce communications, any reference to an amount in pounds sterling includes a reference to an equivalent amount in another currency: art 8A(1)(c).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(a)(ii). See note 9.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(b). See note 9.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(c). 'High value trust' means a trust where the aggregate value of the cash and investments which form part of the trust's assets (before deducting the amount of its liabilities) is £10 million or more, or has been £10 million or more at any time during the year immediately preceding the date on which the communication in question was first made or directed: art 49(6)(b). See note 9.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 49(2)(d). As to a person engaging in investment activity see PARA 225.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(4) REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Financial Promotion/D. EXEMPT COMMUNICATIONS/(E) Certain Controlled Activities/(n) Communications to High Net Worth and Sophisticated Individuals, etc/297. Sophisticated investors.

297. Sophisticated investors.

If the following requirements are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which:

- 682 (1) is made to a certified sophisticated investor<sup>3</sup>;
- 683 (2) does not invite or induce the recipient<sup>4</sup> to engage in investment activity<sup>5</sup> with the person who has signed the certificate<sup>6</sup>; and
- 684 (3) relates only to a description of investment in respect of which that investor is certified<sup>7</sup>.

The requirements are that the communication is accompanied by an indication:

- 685 (a) that it is exempt from the general restriction<sup>8</sup> on the communication of invitations or inducements to engage in investment activity on the ground that it is made to a certified sophisticated investor<sup>9</sup>;
- 686 (b) of the requirements that must be met for a person to qualify as a certified sophisticated investor<sup>10</sup>;
- 687 (c) that the content of the communication has not been approved by an authorised person and that such approval is, unless this exemption or any other exemption applies, required<sup>11</sup>;
- 688 (d) that reliance on the communication for the purpose of engaging in any investment activity may expose the individual to a significant risk of losing all of the property invested or of incurring additional liability<sup>12</sup>;

689 (e) that any person who is in any doubt about the investment to which the communication relates should consult an authorised person specialising in advising on investments of the kind in question<sup>13</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50(2)(a). 'Certified sophisticated investor', in relation to any description of investment, means a person:

331 (1) who has a current certificate in writing or other legible form signed by an authorised person to the effect that he is sufficiently knowledgeable to understand the risks associated with that description of investment (art 50(1)(a)); and

332 (2) who has signed, within the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the communication is made, a statement in the following terms: 'I make this statement so that I am able to receive promotions which are exempt from the restrictions on financial promotion in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. The exemption relates to certified sophisticated investors and I declare that I qualify as such in relation to investments of the following kind [list them]. I accept that the contents of promotions and other material that I receive may not have been approved by an authorised person and that their content may not therefore be subject to controls which would apply if the promotion were made or approved by an authorised person. I am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who specialises in advising on this kind of investment' (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50(1)(b)).

For the purposes of art 50(1)(a) (see head (1) above), a certificate is current if it is signed and dated not more than three years before the date on which the communication is made: art 50(4). In the application of art 50(1)(a) to outgoing electronic commerce communications, the reference to an authorised person includes a reference to a person who is entitled, under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom, to carry on regulated activities in that state: art 8A(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'outgoing electronic commerce communication' see PARA 247 note 7. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

The validity of a statement signed in accordance with art 50(1)(b) (see head (2) above) is not affected by a defect in the wording of the statement, provided that the defect does not alter the statement's meaning: art 50(1A).

As to self-certified sophisticated investors see PARA 298.

298. Self-certified sophisticated investors.

If the requirements relating to the giving of a warning<sup>1</sup> and also those set out in heads (i) to (iii) below<sup>2</sup> are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>3</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>4</sup> which:

- 690 (1) is made to an individual whom the person making the communication believes on reasonable grounds to be a self-certified sophisticated investor<sup>5</sup>; and 691 (2) relates only to one or more of the following investments<sup>6</sup>:
- 74
- 131. (a) stock or shares in an unlisted company<sup>7</sup>;
  - 132. (b) an instrument acknowledging the indebtedness of an unlisted company<sup>8</sup>;
  - 133. (c) investments conferring entitlement or rights with respect to investments falling within heads (a) or (b) above<sup>9</sup>;
  - 134. (d) an investment comprising units in a collective investment scheme being a scheme which invests wholly or predominantly in investments falling within heads (a) or (b) above<sup>10</sup>;
  - 135. (e) options to acquire or dispose of an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>11</sup>;
  - 136. (f) rights under a contract for the sale of an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>12</sup>;
  - 137. (g) a contract relating to, or to fluctuations in the value or price of, an investment falling within heads (a), (b) or (c) above<sup>13</sup>,
- 75
- 692 provided in each case that it is an investment under the terms of which the investor cannot incur a liability or obligation to pay or contribute more than he commits by way of investment<sup>14</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that the communication is accompanied by the giving of a warning<sup>15</sup> and also by an indication:

- 693 (i) that it is exempt from the general restriction<sup>16</sup> on the communication of invitations or inducements to engage in investment activity on the grounds that it is made to a self-certified sophisticated investor<sup>17</sup>;
- 694 (ii) of the requirements that must be met for a person to qualify as a self-certified sophisticated investor<sup>18</sup>;
- 695 (iii) that any individual who is in any doubt about the investment to which the communication relates should consult an authorised person specialising in advising on investments of the kind in question<sup>19</sup>.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(7).

3 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

4 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 48(1)(b). 'Self-certified sophisticated investor' means any individual who has signed, within the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the communication is made, a statement complying with Sch 5 Pt II (see below): art 50A(1).

The validity of a statement signed for the purposes of art 50A(1) is not affected by a defect in the form or wording of the statement, provided that the defect does not alter the statement's meaning and that the words shown in bold type in Sch 5 Pt I (see below) are so shown in the statement: art 50A(2).

The statement to be signed for the purposes of art 50A(1) must be in the following form and contain the following content (see Sch 5 Pt II):

'Statement for Self-certified Sophisticated Investor'

I declare that I am a self-certified sophisticated investor for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act (Financial Promotion) Order 2005.

I understand that this means:

- 333 (a) I can receive financial promotions that may not have been approved by a person authorised by the Financial Services Authority;
- 334 (b) the content of such financial promotions may not conform to rules issued by the Financial Services Authority;
- 335 (c) by signing this statement I may lose significant rights;
- 336 (d) I may have no right to complain to either of the following:
  - 46. (i) the Financial Services Authority; or 46
  - 47. (ii) the Financial Ombudsman Scheme;
47
- 337 (e) I may have no right to seek compensation from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

I am a self-certified sophisticated investor because at least one of the following applies:

- 338 (a) I am a member of a network or syndicate of business angels and have been so for at least the last six months prior to the date below;
- 339 (b) I have made more than one investment in an unlisted company in the two years prior to the date below;
- 340 (c) I am working, or have worked in the two years prior to the date below, in a professional capacity in the private equity sector, or in the provision of finance for small and medium enterprises;
- 341 (d) I am currently, or have been in the two years prior to the date below, a director of a company with an annual turnover of at least £1 million.

I accept that I can lose my property and other assets from making investment decisions based on financial promotions.

I am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who specialises in advising on investments.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(8)(d). As to the meaning of 'units', in a collective investment scheme, see PARA 603; definition applied by art 2(1).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(8)(e). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 21: see PARA 241.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(8)(f). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 22: see PARA 241.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(8)(g). The investment referred to in the text is one falling within Sch 1 para 23: see PARA 241.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(8).

15 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(4), (5), (6).

The requirements of art 50A(4) are that either the communication is accompanied by the giving of a warning in accordance with art 50A(5), (6) or where, because of the nature of the communication, this is not reasonably practicable:

342 (1) a warning in accordance with art 50A(5) is given to the recipient orally at the beginning of the communication together with an indication that he will receive the warning in legible form and that, before receipt of that warning, he should consider carefully any decision to engage in investment activity to which the communication relates (art 50A(4)(a)); and

343 (2) a warning in accordance with art 50A(5) and 50A(6)(d)-(h) (see heads (d)-(h) below) is sent to the recipient of the communication within two business days of the day on which the communication is made (art 50A(4)(b)).

As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242. 'Business day' means any day except a Saturday, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a day which is a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 in any part of the United Kingdom: art 50A(9). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

The warning must be in the following terms: 'The content of this promotion has not been approved by an authorised person within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. Reliance on this promotion for the purpose of engaging in any investment activity may expose an individual to a significant risk of losing all of the property or other assets invested': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 50A(5). However where a warning is sent pursuant to art 50A(4)(b) (see head (2) above), for the words 'this promotion' in both places where they occur there must be substituted wording which clearly identifies the promotion which is the subject of the warning: art 50A(5).

The warning must:

344 (a) be given at the beginning of the communication (art 50A(6)(a));

345 (b) precede any other written or pictorial matter (art 50A(6)(b));

346 (c) be in a font size consistent with the text forming the remainder of the communication (art 50A(6)(c));

347 (d) be indelible (art 50A(6)(d));

- 348 (e) be legible (art 50A(6)(e));
  - 349 (f) be printed in black, bold type (art 50A(6)(f));
  - 350 (g) be surrounded by a black border which does not interfere with the text of the warning (art 50A(6)(g)); and
  - 351 (h) not be hidden, obscured or interrupted by any other written or pictorial matter (art 50A(6)(h)).
- 16 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21; and PARA 225.

300. Settlers, trustees and personal representatives.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made between:

- 698 (1) a person when acting as a settlor or grantor of a trust, a trustee or a personal representative; and
- 699 (2) a trustee of the trust, a fellow trustee or a fellow personal representative (as the case may be), if the communication is made for the purposes of the trust or estate<sup>3</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

301. Beneficiaries of trust, will or intestacy.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made:

- 700 (1) between a person when acting as a settlor or grantor of a trust, trustee or personal representative and a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy; or
- 701 (2) between a beneficiary under a trust, will or intestacy and another beneficiary under the same trust, will or intestacy, if the communication relates to the management or distribution of that trust fund or estate<sup>3</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

(p) Communications by Members of Professions

302. Communications by members of professions.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to a real time communication<sup>2</sup> (whether solicited or unsolicited)<sup>3</sup> which:

702 (1) is made by a person ('P') who carries on a regulated activity to which the general prohibition does not apply<sup>4</sup>; and where the controlled activity<sup>7</sup> to which the communication relates is an excluded activity<sup>8</sup> which would be undertaken by P for the purposes of, and incidental to, the provision by him of professional services to or at the request of the recipient<sup>9</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meanings of 'solicited real time communication' and 'unsolicited real time communication' see PARA 242.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55(1)(a). The non-application of the general prohibition is by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327: see PARA 751.

5 As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55(1)(b). As to the meaning of 'professional services' see PARA 751 note 11; definition applied by art 55(2).

7 As to controlled activities see PARA 227 et seq.

8 An 'excluded activity' is an activity to which the general prohibition would apply but for the application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327 (see PARA 751) or the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 67 (see PARA 129): see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55(3).

303. Non-real time communications by members of professions.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to a non-real time communication<sup>2</sup> which:

- 704 (1) is made by a person ('P') who carries on Part XX activities<sup>3</sup>; and
- 705 (2) is limited to what is required or permitted as described below<sup>4</sup>.

The limitations are that the communication must consist of a strictly worded statement<sup>5</sup>, and may in addition set out the Part XX activities which P is able to offer to his clients, provided it is clear that these are the investment services to which that statement relates<sup>6</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242. As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55A(1)(a). 'Part XX activities' means the regulated activities to which the general prohibition (ie in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19 (see PARA 80)) does not apply when they are carried on by P by virtue of s 327 (see PARA 751): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55A(5). 5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55A(2). The communication must be in the following terms: 'This [firm/company] is not authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 but we are able in certain circumstances to offer a limited range of investment services to clients because we are members of [relevant designated professional body]. We can provide these investment services if they are an incidental part of the professional services we have been engaged to provide': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 55A(2). The validity of a communication made in accordance with art 55A(2) is not affected by a defect in the wording of it provided that the defect does not alter the communication's meaning: art 55A(4).

(s) Communications in regard to Employee Share Schemes

306. Participation in employee share schemes.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> by a person ('C'), a member of the same group as C or a relevant trustee<sup>3</sup> where the communication is for the purposes of an employee share scheme and relates to any of certain specified investments<sup>4</sup> issued by C<sup>5</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 'Relevant trustee' means a person who, in pursuance of an actual or proposed employee share scheme, holds as trustee or will hold as trustee investments issued by C: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 60(3). 'Employee share scheme', in relation to any investments issued by C, means arrangements made or to be made by C or by a person in the same group as C to enable or facilitate:

352 (1) transactions in the investments specified in art 60(1)(a) or (b) (see note 4 heads (1), (2)) between or for the benefit of:

48. (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of C or of another member of the same group as C (art 60(2)(a)(i));

48

49. (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers, civil partners, surviving civil partners or children or step-children under the age of 18 of such employees or former employees (art 60(2)(a)(ii) (amended by SI 2005/3392)); or

49

353 (2) the holding of those investments by, or for the benefit of, such persons (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 60(2)(b)).

4 le (1) investments falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 14 (shares or stock in the share capital of any body corporate or unincorporated body) (see PARA 241) or Sch 1 para 15 (instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness) (see PARA 241) (art 60(1)(a)); (2) investments falling within Sch 1 para 17 (instruments giving entitlements to investments) (see PARA 241) or Sch 1 para 18 (certificates representing certain securities) (see PARA 241) so far as relating to any investments within head (1) above (art 60(1)(b)); or (3) investments falling within Sch 1 para 21 (options) (see PARA 241) or Sch 1 para 27 (rights or interests in other investments) (see PARA 241) so far as relating to any investments within head (1) or head (2) above (art 60(1)(c)).

(t) Communications in regard to Goods and Services

307. Sale of goods and supply of services.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any non-real time communication<sup>2</sup> or any solicited real time communication<sup>3</sup> made by a supplier<sup>4</sup> to a customer<sup>5</sup> of his for the purposes of, or in connection with, the sale of goods or supply of services or a related sale or supply<sup>6</sup>. However, this exemption does not apply if the communication relates to a qualifying contract of insurance<sup>7</sup> or units<sup>8</sup> in a collective investment scheme<sup>9</sup>, or relates to any rights to or interests in such contract or such units<sup>10</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'non-real time communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meanings of 'solicited real time communication' and 'real time communication' see PARA 242.

4 'Supplier' means a person whose main business is to sell goods or supply services and not to carry on controlled activities falling within any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 paras 3-7 (see PARAS 229-234) and, where the supplier is a member of a group, also means any other member of that group: art 61(1). As to the sale of goods and the supply of services generally see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES.

5 'Customer' means a person, other than an individual, to whom a supplier sells goods or supplies services, or agrees to do so, and, where the customer is a member of a group, also means any other member of that group: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 61(1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 61(2). 'A related sale or supply' means a sale of goods or supply of services to the customer otherwise than by the supplier, but for or in connection with the same purpose as the sale or supply mentioned in art 61(1) (see notes 4-5): art 61(1).

7 As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 2(1).

8 As to the meaning of 'units', in a collective investment scheme, see PARA 603; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 2(1).

(u) Communications in regard to Corporate Sales, Takeovers

308. Sale of body corporate.

The financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> by, or on behalf of, a body corporate, a partnership, a single individual or a group of connected individuals<sup>3</sup> which relates to a qualifying transaction<sup>4</sup>. A transaction is a qualifying transaction if:

706 (1) it is a transaction to acquire or dispose of shares in a body corporate other than an open-ended investment company, or is entered into for the purposes of such an acquisition or disposal<sup>5</sup>; and either

707 (2) the following conditions are met<sup>6</sup>:

138. (a) the shares consist of or include 50 per cent or more of the voting shares<sup>7</sup> in the body corporate<sup>8</sup>; or

139. (b) the shares, together with any already held by the person acquiring them, consist of or include at least that percentage of such shares<sup>9</sup>; and

140. (c) in either case, the acquisition or disposal is, or is to be, between parties each of whom is a body corporate, a partnership, a single individual or a group of connected individuals<sup>10</sup>; or

708 (3) those conditions are not met, but the object of the transaction may nevertheless reasonably be regarded as being the acquisition of day to day control of the affairs of the body corporate<sup>11</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 'A group of connected individuals' means:

354 (1) in relation to a party disposing of shares in a body corporate, a single group of persons each of whom is:

50. (a) a director or manager of the body corporate (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 62(4)(a)(i));
50

51. (b) a close relative of any such director or manager (art 62(4)(a)(ii)); or 51

52. (c) a person acting as trustee for any person falling within head (a) or (b) above (art 62(4)(a)(iii)); and 52

355 (2) in relation to a party acquiring shares in a body corporate, a single group of persons each of whom is:

53. (a) a person who is or is to be a director or manager of the body corporate (art 62(4)(b)(i));
53

54. (b) a close relative of any such person (art 62(4)(b)(ii)); or 54

55. (c) a person acting as trustee for any person falling within head (a) or (b) above (art 62(4)(b)(iii)).
55

As to the meaning of 'close relative' see PARA 242 note 19.

309. Takeovers of relevant unlisted companies.

The first requirement is that the communication is accompanied by specified material<sup>5</sup>, namely:

709 (1) an indication of the identity of the offeror and, if the offer is being made on behalf of another person, the identity of that person<sup>6</sup>;

- 710 (2) an indication of the fact that the terms of the offer are recommended by all directors of the company other than (if that is the case) any director who is the offeror or a director of the offeror<sup>7</sup>;
- 711 (3) an indication to the effect that any person who is in any doubt about the invitation or inducement should consult a person authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>8</sup>;
- 712 (4) an indication that, except in so far as the offer may be totally withdrawn and all persons released from any obligation incurred under it, the offer is open for acceptance by every recipient for the period of at least 21 days beginning with the day after the day on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer<sup>9</sup>;
- 713 (5) an indication of the date on which the invitation or inducement was first communicated to the recipients of the offer<sup>10</sup>;
- 714 (6) an indication that the acquisition of the shares or debentures to which the offer relates is not conditional upon the recipients approving or consenting to any payment or other benefit being made or given to any director or former director of the company in connection with, or as compensation or consideration for:
- 78
141. (a) his ceasing to be a director<sup>11</sup>;
142. (b) his ceasing to hold any office held in conjunction with any directorship<sup>12</sup>; or
143. (c) in the case of a former director, his ceasing to hold any office which he held in conjunction with his former directorship and which he continued to hold after ceasing to be a director<sup>13</sup>;
- 79
- 715 (7) an indication of the place where additional material may be inspected<sup>14</sup>;
- 716 (8) the audited accounts of the company in respect of the latest accounting reference period for which the period for laying and delivering accounts has passed<sup>15</sup> or, if accounts in respect of a later accounting reference period have been delivered, as shown in those accounts and not the earlier accounts<sup>16</sup>;
- 717 (9) advice to the directors of the company on the financial implications of the offer which is given by a competent person who is independent of and who has no substantial financial interest in the company or the offeror, being advice which gives the opinion of that person in relation to the offer<sup>17</sup>;
- 718 (10) an indication by the directors of the company, acting as a board, of the following matters:
- 80
144. (a) whether or not there has been any material change in the financial position or prospects of the company since the end of the latest accounting reference period in respect of which audited accounts have been delivered to the relevant registrar of companies under the relevant legislation<sup>18</sup>;
145. (b) if there has been any such change, the particulars of it<sup>19</sup>;
146. (c) any interests, in percentage terms, which any of them have in the shares in or debentures of the company and which are required to be entered in the register kept by the company<sup>20</sup>;
147. (d) any interests, in percentage terms, which any of them have in the shares in or debentures of any offeror which is a body corporate and which, if the director were a director of the offeror, would, in the case of a company within the meaning of the Companies Acts or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986<sup>21</sup>, be required to be entered in the register kept by the offeror<sup>22</sup> and, in any other case, be required to be so entered if the offeror were such a company<sup>23</sup>;
- 81
- 719 (11) an indication of any material interest which any director has in any contract entered into by the offeror and in any contract entered into by any member of any group of which the offeror is a member<sup>24</sup>;

- 720 (12) an indication as to whether or not each director intends to accept the offer in respect of his own beneficial holdings in the company<sup>25</sup>;
- 721 (13) in the case of an offeror which is a body corporate and the shares in or debentures of which are to be the consideration or any part of the consideration for the offer, an indication by the directors of the offeror that the information concerning the offeror and those shares or debentures contained in the document is correct<sup>26</sup>;
- 722 (14) if the offeror is making the offer on behalf of another person:
- 82
148. (a) an indication by the offeror as to whether or not he has taken any steps to ascertain whether that person will be in a position to implement the offer<sup>27</sup>;
149. (b) if he has taken any such steps, an indication by him as to what those steps are<sup>28</sup>; and
150. (c) the offeror's opinion as to whether that person will be in a position to implement the offer<sup>29</sup>;
- 83
- 723 (15) an indication that each of the following: (a) each of the directors of the company; (b) the offeror; and (c) if the offeror is a body corporate, each of the directors of the offeror, is responsible for the required information related to the offer and the accompanying information in so far as it relates to themselves or their respective bodies corporate and that, to the best of their knowledge and belief (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information is in accordance with the facts and that no material fact has been omitted<sup>30</sup>;
- 724 (16) the particulars of: (a) all shares in or debentures of the company; and (b) all investments relating to instruments giving entitlements to investments<sup>31</sup>, units in a collective investment scheme<sup>32</sup> or options<sup>33</sup> so far as relating to shares in or debentures of the company, which are held by or on behalf of the offeror or each offeror, if there is more than one, or if none are so held an appropriate negative statement<sup>34</sup>;
- 725 (17) an indication as to whether or not the offer is conditional upon acceptance in respect of a minimum number of shares or debentures being received and, if the offer is so conditional, what the minimum number is<sup>35</sup>;
- 726 (18) where the offer is conditional upon acceptances, an indication of the date which is the latest date on which it can become unconditional<sup>36</sup>;
- 727 (19) if the offer is, or has become, unconditional an indication of the fact that it will remain open until further notice and that at least 14 days' notice will be given before it is closed<sup>37</sup>;
- 728 (20) an indication as to whether or not, if circumstances arise in which an offeror is able compulsorily to acquire shares of any dissenting minority<sup>38</sup>, that offeror intends to acquire those shares<sup>39</sup>;
- 729 (21) if shares or debentures are to be acquired for cash, an indication of the period within which the payment will be made<sup>40</sup>;
- 730 (22) subject to the proviso mentioned below<sup>41</sup>, if the consideration or any part of the consideration for the shares or debentures to be acquired is shares in or debentures of an offeror: (a) an indication of the nature and particulars of the offeror's business, its financial and trading prospects and its place of incorporation<sup>42</sup>; and (b) the following information, in respect of any offeror which is a body corporate and in respect of the company, for the period of five years immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or information in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer: turnover, profit on ordinary activities before and after tax, extraordinary items, profits and loss and the rate per cent of any dividends paid, adjusted as appropriate to take account of relevant changes over the period and the total amount absorbed thereby<sup>43</sup>; although in the case of a body corporate which was incorporated during the period of five years immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or information in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer or which has, at any time during that period been exempt from the audit of accounts provisions of the Companies Acts or their Northern Ireland equivalent<sup>44</sup>, the information described in heads (a) and (b) above with respect to that body corporate need be included only in relation to the period since its incorporation or since it last ceased to be exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors, as the case may be<sup>45</sup>;

- 731 (23) particulars of the first dividend in which any such shares or debentures will participate and of the rights attaching to them (including in the case of debentures, rights as to interest) and of any restrictions on their transfer<sup>46</sup>;
- 732 (24) an indication of the effect of the acceptance on the capital and income position of the holder of the shares in or debentures of the company<sup>47</sup>;
- 733 (25) particulars of all material contracts (not being contracts which were entered into in the ordinary course of business) which were entered into by each of the company and the offeror during the period of two years immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or information in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer<sup>48</sup>;
- 734 (26) particulars of the terms on which shares in or debentures of the company acquired in pursuance of the offer will be transferred and any restrictions on their transfer<sup>49</sup>;
- 735 (27) an indication as to whether or not it is proposed, in connection with the offer, that any payment or other benefit be made or given to any director or former director of the company in connection with, or as compensation or consideration for: (a) his ceasing to be a director; (b) his ceasing to hold any office held in conjunction with any directorship; or (c) in the case of a former director, his ceasing to hold any office which he held in conjunction with his former directorship and which he continued to hold after ceasing to be a director, and, if such payments or benefits are proposed, details of each one<sup>50</sup>;
- 736 (28) an indication as to whether or not there exists any agreement or arrangement between: (a) the offeror or any person with whom the offeror has an agreement<sup>51</sup>; and (b) any director or shareholder of the company or any person who has been such a director or shareholder, at any time during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer, being an agreement or arrangement which is connected with or dependent on the offer and, if there is any such agreement or arrangement particulars of it<sup>52</sup>;
- 737 (29) an indication whether or not the offeror has reason to believe that there has been any material change in the financial position or prospects of the company since the end of the accounting reference period to which the accounts referred to in head (8) above<sup>53</sup> relate, and if the offeror has reason to believe that there has been such a change, the particulars of it<sup>54</sup>;
- 738 (30) an indication as to whether or not there is any agreement or arrangement whereby any shares or debentures acquired by the offeror in pursuance of the offer will or may be transferred to any other person, together with the names of the parties to any such agreement or arrangement and particulars of all shares and debentures in the company held by such persons<sup>55</sup>;
- 739 (31) particulars of any dealings: (a) in the shares in or debentures of the company; and (b) if the offeror is a body corporate, in the shares in or debentures of the offeror, which took place during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer and which were entered into by every person who was a director of either the company or the offeror during that period, and, if there have been no such dealings, an indication to that effect<sup>56</sup>;
- 740 (32) in a case in which the offeror is a body corporate which is required to deliver accounts<sup>57</sup>, particulars of the assets and liabilities as shown in its audited accounts in respect of the latest accounting reference period for which the period for laying and delivering accounts under the relevant legislation has passed or, if accounts in respect of a later accounting reference period have been delivered under the relevant legislation, as shown in those accounts and not the earlier accounts<sup>58</sup>;

- 741 (33) where valuations of assets are given in connection with the offer, the basis on which the valuation was made and the names and addresses of the persons who valued them and particulars of any relevant qualifications<sup>59</sup>;
- 742 (34) if any profit forecast is given in connection with the offer, an indication of the assumptions on which the forecast is based<sup>60</sup>.

The second requirement is that certain additional material<sup>61</sup> is available at a place in the United Kingdom<sup>62</sup> at all times during normal office hours for inspection free of charge<sup>63</sup>. The additional material is as follows:

- 743 (i) the memorandum and articles of association of the company<sup>64</sup>;
- 744 (ii) if the offeror is a body corporate, the memorandum and articles of association of the offeror or, if there is no such memorandum and articles, any instrument<sup>65</sup> constituting or defining the constitution of the offeror and, in either case, if the relevant document is not written in English, a certified translation in English<sup>66</sup>;
- 745 (iii) in the case of a company that does not fall within head (v) below:
- 84 151. (A) the audited accounts of the company in respect of the last two accounting reference periods for which the laying and delivering of accounts<sup>67</sup> has passed<sup>68</sup>; and
152. (B) if accounts have been delivered to the relevant registrar of companies, in respect of a later accounting reference period, a copy of those accounts<sup>69</sup>;
- 85 746 (iv) in the case of an offeror which is required to deliver accounts to the registrar of companies and which does not fall within head (v) below:
- 86 153. (A) the audited accounts of the offeror in respect of the last two accounting reference periods for which the laying and delivering of accounts<sup>70</sup> has passed<sup>71</sup>; and
154. (B) if accounts have been delivered to the relevant registrar of companies in respect of a later accounting reference period, a copy of those accounts<sup>72</sup>;
- 87 747 (v) in the case of a company or an offeror: (A) which was incorporated during the period of three years immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer; or (B) which has, at any time during that period, been exempt from the audit of accounts provisions of the Companies Acts or their Northern Ireland equivalent<sup>73</sup>, the information described in whichever is relevant of head (iii) or (iv) above<sup>74</sup> with respect to that body corporate need be included only in relation to the period since its incorporation or since it last ceased to be exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors, as the case may be<sup>75</sup>;
- 748 (vi) all existing contracts of service entered into for a period of more than one year between the company and any of its directors and, if the offeror is a body corporate, between the offeror and any of its directors<sup>76</sup>;
- 749 (vii) any report, letter, valuation or other document any part of which is exhibited or referred to in the information required to be made available relating to the offer or as accompanying material<sup>77</sup>;
- 750 (viii) if the offer document contains any statement purporting to have been made by an expert, that expert's written consent to the inclusion of that statement<sup>78</sup>;
- 751 (ix) all material contracts (if any) of the company and of the offeror (not, in either case, being contracts which were entered into in the ordinary course of business) which were entered into during the period of two years immediately preceding the date on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer<sup>79</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264. As to the meaning of 'communication' see PARA 242.

3 As to the meaning of 'communicate' see PARA 242.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 64(1). In arts 63, 64, 65 (see PARA 310) and art 66 (see PARA 311), a 'relevant unlisted company', in relation to a takeover offer, means a company which is an unlisted company at the time that the offer is made and which has been an unlisted company throughout the period of ten years immediately preceding the date of the offer: art 63(1). As to the meaning of 'unlisted company' see PARA 295 note 9.

In arts 63-66 references to a takeover offer for a relevant unlisted company are references to an offer which meets the requirements of Sch 4 Pt I and which is an offer:

- 356 (1) for all the shares in, or all the shares comprised in the equity or non-equity share capital of, a relevant unlisted company (other than any shares already held by or on behalf of the person making the offer) (art 63(2)(a)); or
- 357 (2) for all the debentures of such a company (other than any debentures already held by or on behalf of the person making the offer) (art 63(2)(b)).

Shares in or debentures of an unlisted company are to be regarded as being held by or on behalf of the person making the offer if the person who holds them, or on whose behalf they are held, has agreed that an offer should not be made in respect of them: art 63(3).

The terms of the offer must be recommended by all the directors of the company other than any director who: (a) is the person by whom, or on whose behalf, an offer is made ('offeror'); or (b) a director of the offeror: Sch 4 para 1(a), (b).

In relation to an offer for debentures or for non-equity share capital where, at the date of the offer, shares carrying 50% or less of the voting rights attributable to the equity share capital are held by or on behalf of the offeror, the offer must include or be accompanied by an offer made by the offeror for the rest of the shares comprised in the equity share capital: Sch 4 para 2(1), (2).

In relation to an offer for shares comprised in the equity share capital where, at the date of the offer, shares which carry 50% or less of the categories of voting rights described in Sch 4 para 3(3) are held by or on behalf of the offeror, it must be a condition of the offer that sufficient shares will be acquired or agreed to be acquired by the offeror pursuant to or during the offer so as to result in shares carrying more than 50% of one or both categories of relevant voting rights being held by him or on his behalf: Sch 4 para 3(1), (2). The categories of voting rights are voting rights exercisable in general meetings of the company and voting rights attributable to the equity share capital: Sch 4 para 3(3).

The offer must be open for acceptance by every recipient for the period of at least 21 days beginning with the day after the day on which the invitation or inducement in question was first communicated to recipients of the offer: Sch 4 para 4(1). However, this does not apply if the offer is totally withdrawn and all persons released from any obligation incurred under it: Sch 4 para 4(2). As to the meaning of 'recipient' see PARA 242.

The acquisition of the shares or debentures to which the offer relates must not be conditional upon the recipients approving or consenting to any payment or other benefit being made or given to any director or former director of the company in connection with, or as compensation or consideration for:

- 358 (i) his ceasing to be a director (Sch 4 para 5(a));
- 359 (ii) his ceasing to hold any office held in conjunction with any directorship (Sch 4 para 5(b)); or
- 360 (iii) in the case of a former director, his ceasing to hold any office which he held in conjunction with his former directorship and which he continued to hold after ceasing to be a director (Sch 4 para 5(c)).

The consideration for the shares or debentures must be cash, or in the case of an offeror which is a body corporate other than an open-ended investment company, either cash or shares in, or debentures of, the body corporate or any combination of such cash, shares or debentures: Sch 4 para 6.

(v) Communications in regard to Pension Products

312. Pension products offered by employers.

If the requirements set out in heads (1) to (4) below are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made by an employer to an employee in relation to a group personal pension scheme<sup>3</sup> or a stakeholder pension scheme<sup>4</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that:

- 756 (1) the employer will make a contribution to the group personal pension scheme or stakeholder pension scheme to which the communication relates in the event of the employee becoming a member of the scheme and the communication contains a statement informing the employee of this<sup>5</sup>;
- 757 (2) the employer has not received, and will not receive, any direct financial benefit from the scheme<sup>6</sup>;
- 758 (3) the employer notifies the employee in writing prior to the employee becoming a member of the scheme of the amount of the contribution that the employer will make to the scheme in respect of that employee<sup>7</sup>; and 759 (4) in the case of a non-real time communication<sup>8</sup>, the communication contains, or is accompanied by, a statement informing the employee of his right to seek advice from an authorised person<sup>9</sup> or an appointed representative<sup>10</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264.

3 'Group personal pension scheme' means arrangements administered on a group basis under a personal pension scheme and which are available to employees of the same employer or of employers within a group: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 72(4). 'Personal pension scheme' means a scheme or arrangement which is not an occupational pension scheme or a stakeholder pension scheme and which is comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, having or capable of having effect so as to provide benefits to or in respect of people: (1) on retirement; (2) on having reached a particular age; or (3) on termination of service in an employment: art 72(4) (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969). As to the meaning of 'stakeholder pension scheme' see the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 s 1 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 72(4). As to the meaning of 'instrument' see PARA 229 note 6.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 72(1). See also note 3.

(w) Communications by Advice Centres

313. Advice centres.

If the requirements of heads (1) to (5) below are met, the financial promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup> which is made by a person in the course of carrying out his duties as an adviser for, or employee of, an advice centre<sup>3</sup>.

The requirements referred to above are that the communication relates to:

- 760 (1) qualifying credit<sup>4</sup>;
- 761 (2) rights under, or rights to or interests in rights under, qualifying contracts of insurance<sup>5</sup>;
- 762 (3) a child trust fund<sup>6</sup>;
- 763 (4) a regulated home reversion plan<sup>7</sup>; or
- 764 (5) a regulated home purchase plan<sup>8</sup>.

1 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, any reference to the financial promotion restriction is a reference to the restriction in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21(1) (see PARA 225): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, arts 2(1), 5.

2 As to the communications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Pt VI (arts 27-73) applies see PARA 264.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 73(1). 'Advice centre' means a body which: (1) gives advice which is free and in respect of which the centre does not receive any fee, commission or other reward; (2) provides debt advice as its principal financial services activity; and (3) in the case of a body which is not part of a local authority, holds adequate professional indemnity insurance or a guarantee providing comparable cover: art 73(3). 'Adequate professional indemnity insurance', in relation to an advice centre, means insurance providing cover that is adequate having regard to: (a) the claims record of the centre; (b) the financial resources of the centre; and (c) the right of clients of the centre to be compensated for loss arising from the negligent provision of financial advice: art 73(3). As to the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 332 note 13; definition applied by art 73(3).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, art 73(2)(a). As to the meaning of 'qualifying credit' see PARA 237 note 1.

(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES

(i) Authorisation

A. IN GENERAL

314. Authorised persons.

No person may carry on a regulated activity in the United Kingdom<sup>1</sup>, or purport to do so, unless he is an authorised person or an exempt person. This is referred to as the 'general prohibition'<sup>2</sup>. The following persons are authorised for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000:

- 765 (1) a person who has a Part IV permission<sup>3</sup> to carry on one or more regulated activities<sup>4</sup>;
- 766 (2) an EEA firm<sup>5</sup> qualifying for authorisation<sup>6</sup>;
- 767 (3) a Treaty firm qualifying for authorisation<sup>7</sup>;
- 768 (4) a person who is otherwise authorised by a provision of, or a provision made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>8</sup>.

If a firm<sup>9</sup> is authorised, it is authorised to carry on the regulated activities concerned in the name of the firm<sup>10</sup> and its authorisation is not affected by any change in its membership<sup>11</sup>.

If an authorised firm is dissolved, its authorisation continues to have effect in relation to any individual or firm which succeeds to the business of the dissolved firm<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19; and PARA 80. As to exempt persons see PARA 330. Note that the general prohibition does not apply to designated professional bodies carrying on exempt regulated activities under Pt XX (ss 325-333): see PARA 749 et seq. Such bodies are thus neither authorised nor exempt as such.

3 As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31(1)(a). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

5 As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31(1)(b). EEA firms are authorised under Sch 3: see PARA 315.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31(1)(c). Treaty firms are authorised under Sch 4: see PARA 319.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31(1)(d). 'Authorised person' means a person who is authorised for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: ss 31(2), 417(1).

9 'Firm' means: (1) a partnership; or (2) an unincorporated association of persons: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 32(4). 'Partnership' does not include a partnership which is constituted under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom and is a body corporate: s 32(5). As to partnerships generally see PARTNERSHIP. As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 32(1)(b).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 32(2) (amended by SI 2007/1973). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 32, a firm is to be regarded as succeeding to the business of another individual or firm only if: (1) the members of the resulting firm are substantially the same as those of the former firm; and (2) succession is to the whole or substantially the whole of the business of the former firm: s 32(3) (amended by SI 2007/1973).

B. EXERCISE OF PASSPORT RIGHTS BY EEA FIRMS

315. Qualifying for authorisation.

Once an EEA firm<sup>1</sup> which is seeking to establish a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup> in exercise of an EEA right<sup>3</sup> satisfies the establishment conditions set out in heads (1) to (4) and heads (a) to (d) below, it qualifies for authorisation<sup>4</sup>; and once an EEA firm which is seeking to provide services in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right satisfies the service conditions set out in heads (i) to (v) below, it qualifies for authorisation<sup>5</sup>. Note that there are special provisions about the use of a tied agent<sup>6</sup>.

If the firm is an EEA firm other than a reinsurance undertaking or an insurance intermediary<sup>7</sup>, the establishment conditions are that<sup>8</sup>:

- 769 (1) the Financial Services Authority<sup>9</sup> has received notice (a 'consent notice') from the firm's home state regulator<sup>10</sup> that it has given the firm consent to establish a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>;
- 770 (2) the consent notice is given in accordance with the relevant Single Market Directive<sup>12</sup>, identifies the activities to which consent relates<sup>13</sup> and includes such other information as may be prescribed<sup>14</sup>;
- 771 (3) in the case of an investment firm<sup>15</sup>, the Authority has given the firm notice for the purposes of this provision or two months have elapsed beginning with the date when the home state regulator gave the consent notice<sup>16</sup>; and
- 772 (4) in the case of a credit institution, a financial institution, an undertaking pursuing the activity of direct insurance or a management company<sup>17</sup>, the firm has been informed of the applicable provisions<sup>18</sup> or two months have elapsed beginning with the date when the Authority received the consent notice<sup>19</sup>.

If the EEA firm is an insurance intermediary<sup>20</sup>, the establishment conditions are that:

- 773 (a) the firm has given its home state regulator notice of its intention to establish a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>21</sup>;
- 774 (b) the Authority has received notice (a 'regulator's notice') from the firm's home state regulator that the firm intends to establish a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>22</sup>;
- 775 (c) the firm's home state regulator has informed the firm that the regulator's notice has been sent to the Authority<sup>23</sup>; and
- 776 (d) one month has elapsed beginning with the date on which the firm's home state regulator informed the firm that the regulator's notice has been sent to the Authority<sup>24</sup>.

If the Authority has received a consent notice, it must prepare for the firm's supervision<sup>25</sup>, except in the case of an investment firm<sup>26</sup>, notify the firm of the applicable provisions (if any)<sup>27</sup> and, if the firm is an undertaking pursuing the activity of direct insurance<sup>28</sup>, notify its home state regulator of the applicable provisions (if any)<sup>29</sup>.

The service conditions are that:

- 777 (i) the firm has given its home state regulator notice of its intention to provide services in the United Kingdom (a 'notice of intention')<sup>30</sup>;
- 778 (ii) if the firm is an investment firm, an undertaking pursuing the activity of direct insurance, an insurance intermediary or a management company<sup>31</sup>, the Authority has received notice (a 'regulator's notice') from the firm's home state regulator containing such information as may be prescribed<sup>32</sup>;
- 779 (iii) if the firm is a credit institution<sup>33</sup>, and is seeking to provide services in exercise of the right under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>34</sup>, the Authority has received notice (a 'regulator's notice') from the firm's home state regulator stating that the firm intends to exercise that right in the United Kingdom<sup>35</sup>;
- 780 (iv) if the firm is an undertaking pursuing the activity of direct insurance or a management company or an insurance intermediary<sup>36</sup>, its home state regulator has informed it that the regulator's notice has been sent to the Authority<sup>37</sup>; and
- 781 (v) if the firm is an insurance intermediary<sup>38</sup>, one month has elapsed beginning with the date on which the firm's home state regulator informed the firm that the regulator's notice has been sent to the Authority<sup>39</sup>.

If the Authority has received a regulator's notice or, where none is required<sup>40</sup>, has been informed of the firm's intention to provide services in the United Kingdom, it must (unless the firm is an insurance intermediary)<sup>41</sup> prepare for the firm's supervision<sup>42</sup> and notify the firm of the applicable provisions<sup>43</sup> (if any)<sup>44</sup>.

On qualifying for authorisation<sup>45</sup>, a firm has, in respect of each permitted activity which is a regulated activity<sup>46</sup>, permission to carry it on through its United Kingdom branch (if it satisfies the establishment conditions) or by providing services in the United Kingdom (if it satisfies the service conditions)<sup>47</sup>. The permission is to be treated as being on terms equivalent to those appearing from the consent notice, regulator's notice or notice of intention<sup>48</sup>.

If (A) a management company<sup>49</sup> qualifies for authorisation<sup>50</sup>; but (B) the Authority determines that the way in which the firm intends to invite persons in the United Kingdom to become participants in any collective investment scheme<sup>51</sup> which that firm manages does not comply with the law in force in the United Kingdom<sup>52</sup>, the Authority may give a notice to the firm and the firm's home state regulator of the Authority's determination under head (B) above<sup>53</sup>. Heads (A) and (B) above do not give a firm to which the Authority has given (and not withdrawn) such a notice<sup>54</sup> permission to carry on through the firm's United Kingdom branch the regulated activity of dealing in<sup>55</sup> units<sup>56</sup> in the collective investment schemes which the firm manages<sup>57</sup>. Any such notice<sup>58</sup> must be given before the end of the period of two months beginning with the day on which the Authority received the consent notice<sup>59</sup>.

1 'EEA firm' means any of the following if the firm does not have its relevant office in the United Kingdom (see note 2):

- 361 (1) an investment firm (as defined in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.1) which is authorised (within the meaning of art 5) by its home state regulator (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a) (amended by SI 2007/126));
- 362 (2) a credit institution (as defined in Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 4.1) which is authorised (within the meaning of art 4.2) by its home state regulator (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(b) (Sch 3 para 5(b), (c) substituted by SI 2006/3221));

- 363 (3) a financial institution (as defined in the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 4.5) which is a subsidiary of the kind mentioned in art 24 and which fulfils the conditions in that article (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(c) (as so substituted));
- 364 (4) an undertaking pursuing the activity of direct insurance (within the meaning of the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 2 or First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) art 1) which has received authorisation under the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 4 or the First Non-life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 6 from its home state regulator (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d) (amended by SI 2003/2066; SI 2004/3379));
- 365 (5) an undertaking pursuing the activity of reinsurance (within the meaning of the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 2.1(a)) which has received authorisation under (or is deemed to be authorised in accordance with) the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1)) art 3 from its home state regulator (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(da) (added by SI 2007/3253));
- 366 (6) an insurance intermediary (as defined in the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation) art 2.5), or a reinsurance intermediary (as defined in art 2.6) which is registered with its home state regulator under art 3 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e) (added by SI 2003/1473)); or
- 367 (7) a management company (as defined in the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 1a.2) which is authorised (within the meaning of art 5) by its home state regulator (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(f) (added by SI 2003/2066)).

For these purposes, 'relevant office' means (a) in relation to a firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e) (see head (5) above) which has a registered office, its registered office; (b) in relation to any other firm, its head office: Sch 3 para 5A (added by SI 2003/1473). 'Home state regulator' means the competent authority (within the meaning of the relevant Single Market Directive) of an EEA state (other than the United Kingdom) in relation to the EEA firm concerned: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 9. As to the meaning of 'Single Market Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. 'EEA state' has the meaning given by the Interpretation Act 1978 Sc 1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 8 (substituted by SI 2007/108).

2 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3 'EEA right' means the entitlement of a person to establish a branch, or provide services, in an EEA state other than that in which he has relevant office: (1) in accordance with the Treaty Establishing the European Community (Rome, 25 March 1957; TS 1 (1973); Cmnd 5179) (the 'EC Treaty') as applied in the EEA; and (2) subject to the conditions of the relevant Single Market Directive : Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 7 (amended by SI 2003/1473). For these purposes, 'relevant office' means (a) in relation to a person who has a registered office and whose entitlement is subject to the conditions of the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation), his registered office; (b) in relation to any other person, his head office: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 7A (added by SI 2003/1473).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(1).

An EEA firm which falls within Sch 3 para 5(da) (see note 1 head (5)) which establishes a branch in the United Kingdom, or provides services in the United Kingdom, in exercise of an EEA right qualifies for authorisation: Sch 3 para 12(5) (Sch 3 para 12(5), (6) added by SI 2007/3253). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(1), (2) (see the text to note 5) does not apply to an EEA firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(da): Sch 3 para 12(6) (as so added). See note 47.

Where an EEA firm is not qualified for authorisation under Sch 3 para 12, then: (1) the provisions of s 26 (agreements made by unauthorised persons) (see PARA 81) do not apply to an agreement entered into by the firm (Sch 3 para 16(1), (2)); (2) the provisions of s 27 (agreements made through unauthorised persons) (see PARA 81) do not apply to an agreement in relation to which the firm is a third party for the purposes of s 27 (Sch 3 para 16(3)); and (3) the provisions of s 29 (accepting deposits in breach of general prohibition) (see PARA 82) do not apply to an agreement in relation to which the firm is the deposit-taker (Sch 3 para 16(4)).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(2). See note 4.

6 If an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a) (see note 1 head (1)) is seeking to use a tied agent established in the United Kingdom in connection with the exercise of an EEA right deriving from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)), the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 Pt II applies as if the firm were seeking to establish a branch in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(3) (Sch 3 para 12(3), (4) added by SI 2007/126). 'Tied agent' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 4.1.25: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 11A (added by SI 2007/126). However if (1) an EEA firm already qualifies for authorisation by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(1) (see the text to note 4); and (2) the EEA right which it is exercising derives from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)), the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(3) does not require the firm to satisfy the establishment conditions in respect of its use of the tied agent in question: Sch 3 para 12(4) (as so added).

7 Ie if the EEA firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a), (b), (c), (d) or (f): see note 1 heads (1), (2), (3), (4), (7). See also note 4.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1) (amended by SI 2003/1473; SI 2003/2066).

9 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

10 As to the meaning of 'home state regulator' see note 1.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(a).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(b)(i).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(b)(ii).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(b)(iii). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). The regulations may modify any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which is an applicable provision (see note 18) in its application to an EEA firm qualifying for authorisation: Sch 3 para 17(a). In exercise of this power the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, prescribe that the following information must be included in the consent notice: reg 2(1).

In the case of an investment firm, the prescribed information is a statement that the firm is an investment firm (reg 2(2)(a)); the requisite details of the branch (reg 2(2)(b)); details of the accredited compensation scheme of which the firm is a member in accordance with European Parliament and EC Council Directive 97/9 (OJ L84, 26.3.97, p 22) on investor-compensation schemes (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(2)(c) (reg 2(2)(c) substituted and reg 2(2)(d) added by SI 2006/3385)); and a statement of whether the firm intends to use a tied agent established in the United Kingdom (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(2)(d) (as so added)). 'Investment firm' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a) (see note 1 head (1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2). 'Requisite details', in relation to a branch, means particulars of the programme of operations carried on, or to be carried on, from the branch, including a description of the particular EEA activities to be carried on, and of the structural organisation of the branch; the address in the EEA state in which the branch is, or is to be, established from which information about the business may be obtained; and the names of the managers of the business: reg 1(2). 'EEA activities', in relation to an EEA firm, means activities which the firm is seeking to carry on in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right; and, in relation to a UK firm, means activities which the firm is seeking to carry on in another EEA state in exercise of an EEA right: reg 1(2). As to the meaning of 'UK firm' see PARA 323 note 4.

In the case of a management company, the prescribed information is (1) a statement that the firm is a management company (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(2A)(a) (reg 2(2A) added by SI 2003/2066)); (2) the requisite details of the branch (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(2A)(b)); and (3) details of any compensation scheme which is intended to protect the branch's investors (reg 2(2A)(b) (as so added)). A 'management company' is an EEA firm falling within the 2000 Act Sch 3 para 5(f) (see note 1 head (6)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2003/2066).

In the case of a credit institution, the information prescribed for inclusion in a consent notice is:

- 368 (a) a statement that the firm is a credit institution (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(3)(a));
- 369 (b) the requisite details of the branch (reg 2(3)(b));
- 370 (c) the amount of the firm's own funds (reg 2(3)(c)); and
- 371 (d) except where the firm is an electronic money institution, the sum of the capital requirements under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 75 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(3)(d) (amended by SI 2002/765; SI 2006/3221)).

'Credit institution' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(b) (see note 1 head (2)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2). 'Own funds' has the meaning as defined in the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) Title V, Chapter 2, Section 1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(3)(c). 'Electronic money institution' means an electronic money institution as defined in EC Council Directive 2000/46 (OJ L275, 27.10.2000, p 36) on the taking up, pursuit of and prudential supervision of the business of electronic money institutions: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2002/765).

In the case of a financial institution, the prescribed information is:

- 372 (i) a statement that:
  - 56. (A) the firm is a financial institution (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(4)(a)(i));
56
  - 57. (B) the firm is a subsidiary undertaking of a credit institution (other than an electronic money institution) which is authorised in the EEA state in question and which holds at least 90% of the voting rights in the firm (reg 2(4)(a)(ii));
57
  - 58. (C) the firm carries on in that EEA state the EEA activities in question (reg 2(4)(a)(iii));
58
  - 59. (D) the memorandum and articles of association, or other constituent instrument, of the firm permit it to carry on those activities (reg 2(4)(a)(iv));
59
  - 60. (E) the consolidated supervision of the firm's parent undertaking (or, if more than one, any one of them) effectively includes supervision of the firm (reg 2(4)(a)(v)); 60
  - 61. (F) the firm's parent undertaking has guaranteed or, if more than one, they have jointly and severally guaranteed, the firm's obligations, with the consent of the home state regulator (reg 2(4)(a)(vi));
61
  - 62. (G) the firm's business is being conducted in a prudent manner (reg 2(4)(a)(vii));
62
- 373 (ii) the requisite details of the branch (reg 2(4)(b));
- 374 (iii) the amount of the firm's own funds (reg 2(4)(c)); and

- 375 (iv) the sum of the capital requirements under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 75 of the firm's parent undertaking (reg 2(4)(d) (substituted by SI 2006/3221)).

'Financial institution' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(c) (see note 1 head (3)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2). For the purposes of reg 2(4)(a)(ii) (see head (i)(b) above), any two or more credit institutions which are authorised in that EEA state and hold voting rights in the firm are to be treated as a single credit institution, and as being parent undertakings of the firm: reg 2(4)(a)(ii).

In the case of an insurance firm, the information prescribed for inclusion in a consent notice is:

- 376 (aa) a scheme of operations prepared in accordance with such requirements as may be imposed by the firm's home state regulator, setting out (amongst other things) the types of business to be carried on and the structural organisation of the branch (reg 2(5)(a));
- 377 (bb) the name of the firm's authorised agent (reg 2(5)(b));
- 378 (cc) the address in the United Kingdom from which information about the business may be obtained, and a statement that this is the address for service on the firm's authorised agent (reg 2(5)(c));
- 379 (dd) in the case of a firm which intends to cover relevant motor vehicle risks, a declaration by the firm that it has become a member of the Motor Insurers' Bureau (reg 2(5)(d)); and
- 380 (ee) a statement by the firm's home state regulator attesting that the firm has the minimum margin of solvency calculated in accordance with the appropriate provisions (reg 2(5)(e)).

'Insurance firm' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d) (see note 1 head (4)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2). 'Authorised agent' means, in relation to an EEA firm or UK firm, an agent or employee of the firm who has authority to bind the firm in its relations with third parties, and to represent the firm in its relations with the Authority or the host state regulator (as the case may be) and with the courts in the United Kingdom or the EEA state concerned (as the case may be): reg 1(2). The Motor Insurers' Bureau is a company limited by guarantee and was incorporated under the Companies Act 1929 on 14 June 1946 (see further INSURANCE): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(5)(d). The minimum margin of solvency is calculated in accordance with such of the following as are appropriate, namely the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) arts 16, 17, and the First Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 79/267 (OJ L63, 13.3.79, p 1) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct life assurance art 1 or undertakings carrying on the reinsurance and retrocession activities referred to in EC Council Directive 64/225 (OJ P56, 4.4.64, p 878) on the abolition of restrictions on freedom of establishment and freedom to provide services in respect of reinsurance and retrocession)) arts 18-20: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(5)(e).

15 Ie in the case of a firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a): see note 1 head (1).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(ba) (added by SI 2007/126).

17 Ie in the case of a firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(b), (c), (d) or (f): see note 1 heads (2), (3), (4), (6).

18 For these purposes, 'applicable provisions' means the host state rules with which the firm is required to comply when carrying on a permitted activity through a branch in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(4). For these purposes, 'host state rules' means rules: (1) made in accordance with the relevant Single Market Directive; and (2) which are the responsibility of the United Kingdom (both as to implementation and as to supervision of compliance) in accordance with that Directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(4). 'Permitted activity' means an activity identified in the consent notice or regulator's notice, as the case may be: Sch 3 para 13(4) (definition amended by SI 2003/1473).

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1)(c).

20 Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e): see note 1 head (5).

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1A)(a) (Sch 3 para 13(1A) added by SI 2003/1473).

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1A)(b) (as added: see note 21).

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1A)(c) (as added: see note 21).

24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(1A)(d) (as added: see note 21).

25 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(2)(a).

26 Ie except if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a): see note 1 head (1).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(2)(b) (amended by SI 2007/126). A notice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(2)(b) or (c) must be given before the end of the period of two months beginning with the day on which the Authority received the consent notice: Sch 3 para 13(3).

28 Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d): see note 1 head (4).

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 13(2)(c). See note 27.

30 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1)(a).

31 Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a), (d), (e) or (f): see note 1 heads (1), (4), (5), (6).

32 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1)(b). The following information is prescribed for inclusion in a regulator's notice given to the Authority by a firm's home state regulator: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(1).

In the case of an investment firm (see note 14), the information prescribed for inclusion in the regulator's notice is: (1) a statement that the firm is an investment firm (reg 3(2)(a) (reg 3(2) amended by SI 2006/3385)); (2) particulars of the programme of operations to be carried on in the United Kingdom, including a description of the particular EEA activities to be carried on (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(2)(b)); and (3) a statement of whether the firm intends to use a tied agent to provide services in the United Kingdom (reg 3(2)(c) (added by SI 2006/3385)). However, in the case of an investment firm exercising the right under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 31.5, the prescribed information is a statement that the firm is an investment firm, and a statement that the firm intends to exercise that right in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(2ZA)(a), (b) (added by SI 2006/3385).

In the case of a management company (see note 14), the prescribed information is (a) a statement that the firm is a management company (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(2A)(a) (reg 3(2A) added by SI 2003/2066)); (b) particulars of the programme of operations to be carried on in the United Kingdom including a description of the particular EEA activities to be carried on (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(2A)(b) (as so added)); and (c) details of any compensation scheme which is intended to protect investors (reg 3(2A)(c) (as so added)).

In the case of an insurance firm (see note 14), the prescribed information is:

- 381 (i) a statement of the classes of business which the firm is authorised to carry on (reg 3(3)(a));
- 382 (ii) the name and address of the firm (reg 3(3)(b));
- 383 (iii) the nature of the risks or commitments which the firm proposes to cover in the United Kingdom (reg 3(3)(c));
- 384 (iv) in the case of a firm which intends to cover relevant motor vehicle risks: (A) the name and address of the claims representative (reg 3(3)(d)(i)); and (B) a declaration by the firm that it has become a member of the Motor Insurers' Bureau (reg 3(3)(d)(ii)); and
- 385 (v) a statement by the firm's home state regulator attesting that the firm has the minimum margin of solvency (reg 3(3)(e)).

For the purposes of head (i) above, 'authorised' means authorised in accordance with the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 6 or the First Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 79/267 (OJ L63, 13.3.79, p 1)) art 6: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(3)(a). For the purposes of head (iv) above, 'relevant motor vehicle risks' means risks of damage arising out of or in connection with the use of motor vehicles on land, including third party risks (but excluding carrier's liability): reg 1(2). For the purposes of head (iv)(A) above, 'claims representative', in relation to a UK firm and an EEA state, means a person who has been designated as the firm's representative in that EEA state, and has authority: (aa) to act on behalf of the firm and to represent, or to instruct others to represent, the firm in relation to any matters giving rise to claims made against policies issued by the firm, to the extent that they cover motor vehicles risks situated in the EEA state; (bb) to pay sums in settlement of such claims (but not to settle such claims); and (cc) to accept service on behalf of the firm of proceedings in respect of such claims: reg 1(2). For the purposes of head (v) above, the minimum margin of solvency is calculated in accordance with such of the following as are appropriate, namely the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) arts 16, 17, and the First Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 79/267 (OJ L63, 13.3.79, p 1)) arts 18-20: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(3)(e).

In the case of an insurance intermediary, the prescribed information is that the firm intends to carry on insurance mediation or reinsurance mediation (in each case, within the meaning of the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation)) by providing services in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(4) (added by SI 2003/1473). 'Insurance intermediary' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e) (see note 1 head (5)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 1(2) (definition amended by SI 2003/1473).

33    Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(b): see head 1 note (2).

34    Ie the right under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 31.5.

35    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1)(ba) (added by SI 2007/126).

36    Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d) or (e): see note 1 heads (4), (5).

37    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1)(c) (amended by SI 2003/1473).

38    Ie if the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e): see note 1 head (5).

39    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1)(d) (added by SI 2003/1473).

40    Ie required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(1).

41    Ie the firm falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(e): see note 1 head (5).

42    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(2)(a) (Sch 3 para 14(2) amended by SI 2003/1473).

43    See note 18.

44    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(2)(b). Schedule 3 para 14(2)(b) does not apply in the case of an investment firm (ie a firm falling with Sch 3 para 5(a)): Sch 3 para 14(2A) (added by SI 2007/126). A notice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 14(2)(b) must be given before the end of the period of two months beginning on the day on which the Authority received the regulator's notice, or was informed of the firm's intention: Sch 3 para 14(3).

45    Ie as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(1), (2) or (3): see the text and notes 4-6.

46    As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

47    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15(1) (amended by SI 2007/3253). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15(1) is to be read subject to Sch 3 para 15A(3): Sch 3 para 15(1A) (added by SI 2003/2066).

A firm which qualifies for authorisation as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(5) (see note 4) has, in respect of each permitted activity which is a regulated activity, permission to carry it on through its United Kingdom branch or by providing services in the United Kingdom: Sch 3 para 15(5) (Sch 3 para 15(5)-(7) added by SI 2007/3253). The permission is to be treated as being on terms equivalent to those appearing in the authorisation granted to the firm under the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 3 by its home state regulator (its 'home authorisation'): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15(6) (as so added). For the purposes of Sch 3 para 15(5), 'permitted activity' means an activity which the firm is permitted to carry on under its home authorisation: Sch 3 para 15(7) (as so added).

48 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15(2). The Consumer Credit Act 1974 ss 21, 39(1) (business requiring a licence under that Act: see CONSUMER CREDIT) do not apply in relation to the carrying on of a permitted activity which is Consumer Credit Act business by a firm which qualifies for authorisation as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12, unless the Office of Fair Trading has exercised the power conferred on it by s 203 (see PARA 464) in relation to the firm: Sch 3 para 15(3) (amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (19)(a); and the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(9)). As to the meaning of 'Consumer Credit Act business' see PARA 464 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15(4). As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

49 Ie a firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(f): see note 1 head (6).

50 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15A(1)(a) (Sch 3 para 15A added by SI 2003/2066). The qualification is as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 12(1) (establishment conditions satisfied): see the text and notes 1-4.

51 As to collective investment schemes see PARA 603 et seq.

52 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15A(1)(b) (as added: see note 50).

53 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15A(2) (as added: see note 50). Sections 264(4) and 265(1), (2), (4) (see PARA 672) apply to a notice given under Sch 3 para 15A(2) as they apply to a notice given by the Authority under s 264(2) (see PARA 672): Sch 3 para 15A(5) (as so added). If a decision notice is given to the firm under s 265(4) (see PARA 672), by virtue of Sch 3 para 15A(5), the firm may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 15A(6) (as so added). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

54 Ie a notice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 15A(2).

55 The reference to 'dealing in' units in a collective investment scheme must be read with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22, any relevant order under that provision and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): Sch 3 para 15A(7)(b) (as added: see note 50). As to the meaning of 'units' see PARA 603; definition applied by Sch 3 para 15A(7)(a) (as so added).

56 See note 55.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/B. EXERCISE OF PASSPORT RIGHTS BY EEA FIRMS/316. Changes in regard to management companies, credit and financial institutions, and investment firms.

316. Changes in regard to management companies, credit and financial institutions, and investment firms.

A management company, credit institution or financial institution<sup>1</sup> which has established a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup> in exercise of an EEA right<sup>3</sup> must not make a change in the requisite details<sup>4</sup> of the branch, unless the relevant requirements<sup>5</sup> have been complied with<sup>6</sup>. Where the relevant requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>7</sup>. The Financial Services Authority must, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice from a management company, credit institution or financial institution<sup>8</sup>, inform the firm of any consequential changes in the applicable provisions<sup>9</sup>.

An investment firm<sup>10</sup> which has established a branch in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right must not make a change in the requisite details of the branch, use (for the first time) any tied agent established in the United Kingdom, or cease to use tied agents established in the United Kingdom, unless the relevant requirements<sup>11</sup> have been complied with<sup>12</sup>. Where those requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>13</sup>.

A management company which is providing services in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right must not make a change in any of the particulars of the programme of operations to be carried on in the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>, unless the relevant requirements<sup>15</sup> have been complied with<sup>16</sup>. Where the relevant requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>17</sup>. The Authority must, as soon as practicable after receiving a notice from an investment firm<sup>18</sup>, inform the firm of any consequential changes in the applicable provisions<sup>19</sup>.

An investment firm which is providing services in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right must not make a change in any of the programme of operations to be carried on in the United Kingdom<sup>20</sup>, use (for the first time) any tied agent to provide services in the United Kingdom, or cease to use tied agents to provide services in the United Kingdom, unless the relevant requirements<sup>21</sup> have been complied with<sup>22</sup>. Where those requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>23</sup>.

1 As to the meanings of 'management company', 'credit institution' and 'financial institution' see PARA 315 note 14.

2 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3 As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

4 As to the meaning of 'requisite details' see PARA 315 note 14.

5 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 4, the relevant requirements are that:

386 (1) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority and to its home state regulator stating the details of the proposed change (reg 4(3), (4)(a));

387 (2) the Authority has received from the home state regulator a notice stating those details (reg 4(3), (4)(b)); and

388 (3) either the Authority has informed the firm that it may make the change, or the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the Authority the notice mentioned in head (1) above has elapsed (reg 4(3), (4)(c)).

If the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control the relevant requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority and to its home state regulator, stating the details of the change: reg 4(3), (5). As to the meaning of 'home state regulator' see PARA 315 note 1.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/B. EXERCISE OF PASSPORT RIGHTS BY EEA FIRMS/317. Changes in regard to insurance firms.

317. Changes in regard to insurance firms.

An insurance firm<sup>1</sup> which has established a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup> in exercise of an EEA right<sup>3</sup> must not make a change in any of certain details of the firm's scheme of operations, the name of its authorised agent and the address in the United Kingdom from which information may be obtained<sup>4</sup> with respect to the branch, unless the relevant requirements<sup>5</sup> have been complied with<sup>6</sup>. Where the relevant requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>7</sup>.

An insurance firm which is providing services in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right must not make a change in the name and address of the firm, the nature of its proposed risks and commitments in the United Kingdom or certain details in regard to any relevant motor vehicle risks<sup>8</sup>, unless the relevant requirements<sup>9</sup> have been complied with<sup>10</sup>. Where the relevant requirements have been complied with, the firm's permission is to be treated as varied accordingly<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'insurance firm' see PARA 315 note 14.

2 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3 As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

4 I.e. the details referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 2(5)(a)-(c): see PARA 315 note 14.

5 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 6, the relevant requirements are that:

395 (1) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority and to its home state regulator stating the details of the proposed change (reg 6(3), (4)(a));

396 (2) the Authority has received from the home state regulator a notice stating that it has approved the proposed change (reg 6(3), (4)(b));

397 (3) the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the Authority the notice mentioned in head (1) above has elapsed (reg 6(3), (4)(c)); and

398 (4) either: (a) a further period of one month has elapsed (reg 6(3), (4)(d)(i)); or (b) the Authority has informed the home state regulator of any consequential changes in the applicable provisions (reg 6(3), (4)(d)(ii)).

If the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control, the relevant requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority and to its home state regulator, stating the details of the change: reg 6(3), (5). As to the meaning of 'applicable provisions' see PARA 315 note 18; definition applied by reg 6(6)(b).

The Financial Services Authority must, as soon as practicable, acknowledge receipt of the documents sent under reg 6(4) or reg 6(5) (see reg 6(6)(a)) and, in the case of a notice under reg 6(5) inform the firm's home state regulator of any consequential changes in the applicable provisions (see reg 6(6)(b)).

As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

See also the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 17(b), which provides that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to an EEA firm or to an activity that it carries on in the United Kingdom and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases. As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 6(2).

8 In any of the matters referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 3(3)(b), (c) or (d): see PARA 315 note 32.

9 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 7, the relevant requirements are that:

399 (1) the firm has given a notice to its home state regulator stating the details of the proposed change (reg 7(3), (4)(a)); and 400 (2) the home state regulator has passed to the Authority the information contained in that notice (reg 7(3), (4)(b)).

If the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control, the relevant requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given to its home state regulator a notice stating the details of the change: reg 7(3), (5).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/B. EXERCISE OF PASSPORT RIGHTS BY EEA FIRMS/318. Ceasing to be qualified for authorisation.

318. Ceasing to be qualified for authorisation.

At the request of an EEA firm, the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> may give a direction cancelling its authorisation<sup>8</sup>. If an EEA firm has a Part IV permission<sup>9</sup>, it does not cease to be an authorised person merely because it ceases to qualify for authorisation<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority may, on an application by a financial institution<sup>11</sup> which is qualified for authorisation<sup>12</sup>, direct that the firm's qualification for authorisation<sup>13</sup> is cancelled from such date as may be specified in the direction<sup>14</sup>. The Authority must not give such a direction unless the firm has given notice to its home state regulator<sup>15</sup> and the Authority has agreed with the home state regulator that the direction should be given<sup>16</sup>. The Authority must, as soon as practicable, send a copy of the direction to the firm and to the firm's home state regulator<sup>17</sup>.

- 14   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 9(1). The date specified in such a direction must not be earlier than the date requested in the application but, subject to that, is to be such date as may be agreed between the Authority and the firm's home state regulator: reg 9(3). A firm in respect of which such a direction has been given may (ie notwithstanding the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 40(3) (see PARA 348)) apply for permission under s 40 (see PARA 348), to take effect not earlier than the date referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 9(1): reg 9(5). Regulation 9 is made in exercise of the power in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 18, namely that regulations may provide that in prescribed circumstances an EEA firm may, on following the prescribed procedure, have its qualification for authorisation under Sch 3 cancelled and seek to become an authorised person by applying for a Part IV permission.

C. TREATY FIRMS

319. Qualifying for authorisation.

Once a Treaty firm<sup>1</sup> which is seeking to carry on a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> satisfies the conditions set out in heads (1) to (3) below, it qualifies for authorisation<sup>3</sup>. The conditions are that:

- 782 (1) the firm has received home state authorisation (that is authorisation under the law of its home state) to carry on the regulated activity in question (the 'permitted activity')<sup>4</sup>;
- 783 (2) the relevant provisions of the law of the firm's home state: (a) afford equivalent protection<sup>5</sup>; or (b) satisfy the conditions laid down by a Community instrument for the co-ordination or approximation of laws, regulations or administrative provisions of member states relating to the carrying on of that activity<sup>6</sup>; and
- 784 (3) the firm has no EEA right<sup>7</sup> to carry on that activity in the manner in which it is seeking to carry it on<sup>8</sup>.

On qualifying for authorisation<sup>9</sup>, a Treaty firm has permission to carry on each permitted activity through its United Kingdom branch or by providing services in the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>. The permission is to be treated as being on terms equivalent to those to which the firm's home state authorisation is subject<sup>11</sup>. If, on qualifying for authorisation, a firm has a Part IV permission<sup>12</sup> which includes permission to carry on a permitted activity, the Authority must give a direction cancelling the permission so far as it relates to that activity<sup>13</sup>.

A Treaty firm which qualifies for authorisation<sup>14</sup>, but is not carrying on in the United Kingdom the regulated activity, or any of the regulated activities, which it has permission to carry on there<sup>15</sup>, must at least seven days before it begins to carry on such a regulated activity, give the Authority written notice of its intention to do so<sup>16</sup>. A person who does not comply with this requirement<sup>17</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>. In proceedings against a person for such an offence it is a defence for him to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>19</sup>. A person is guilty of an offence if in, or in connection with, a notice given by him<sup>20</sup> he provides information which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular<sup>21</sup> or he recklessly provides information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>22</sup>.

1 'Treaty firm' means a person: (1) whose head office is situated in an EEA state (its 'home state') other than the United Kingdom; and (2) which is recognised under the law of that state as its national: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 425(2)(b), Sch 4 para 1. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 4 para 2. As to authorisation see PARA 314. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH) Ch 5. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 4 para 3(1)(a). A firm is not to be regarded as having home state authorisation unless its home state regulator has so informed the Financial Services Authority in writing: Sch 4 para 3(2). 'Home state regulator', in relation to a Treaty firm, means the competent authority of the firm's home state for the purpose of its home state authorisation: s 425(2)(c), Sch 4 para 1. In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 'home state authorisation' has the meaning given in Sch 4: s 425(2)(a) (see head (1) in the text). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

A certificate issued by the Treasury that the provisions of the law of a particular EEA state afford equivalent protection in relation to the activities specified in the certificate is conclusive evidence of that fact: Sch 4 para

3(4). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 4 para 3(1)(b)(i). Provisions afford equivalent protection if, in relation to the firm's carrying on of the permitted activity, they afford consumers protection which is at least equivalent to that afforded by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in relation to that activity: Sch 4 para 3(3). 'Consumers' means persons who are consumers for the purposes of s 138 (see PARA 21): Sch 4 para 1.

If a Treaty firm to which Sch 4 para 5(2) applies has given notice under that provision, it need not give such a notice if it again becomes a firm to which Sch 4 para 5(2) applies: Sch 4 para 5(3). Section 51(1), (3), (6) (applications for Part IV permission) (see PARA 349) applies to a notice under Sch 4 para 5(2) as it applies to an application for a Part IV permission: Sch 4 para 5(4).

321. Qualifying for authorisation.

A person who for the time being is an operator, trustee or depositary of a recognised collective investment scheme is an authorised person<sup>1</sup> and has permission to carry on, so far as it is a regulated activity<sup>2</sup>: (1) any activity, appropriate to the capacity in which he acts in relation to the scheme<sup>3</sup>; (2) any activity in connection with, or for the purposes of, the scheme<sup>4</sup>.

An authorised open-ended investment company is an authorised person<sup>5</sup> and has permission to carry on, so far as it is a regulated activity: (a) the operation of the scheme<sup>6</sup>; (b) any activity in connection with, or for the purposes of, the operation of the scheme<sup>7</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 36, Sch 5 para 1(1). As to the meanings of 'operator' and 'trustee' see PARA 606 note 16; as to the meaning of 'depositary' see PARA 606 note 18; and as to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603. 'Recognised' means recognised by virtue of s 264 (see PARA 672): Sch 5 para 1(2).

2 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 5 para 2(1)(a). The scheme referred to in the text is of the kind described in Sch 2 para 8 (see PARA 84). ### 322. Ceasing to be qualified for authorisation.

At the request of a person who is for the time being an operator, trustee or depositary of a recognised collective investment scheme<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> may give a direction cancelling his authorisation as such a person<sup>3</sup>.

If such a person has a Part IV permission<sup>4</sup>, he does not cease to be an authorised person<sup>5</sup> merely because he ceases to be a person so authorised<sup>6</sup>.

1 I.e. a person authorised as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 5 para 1(1): see PARA 321 note 1.

Exercise of right to establish a branch.

E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS

323. Exercise of right to establish a branch.

Provision is made<sup>1</sup> in relation to the exercise outside the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup> of EEA rights<sup>3</sup> by UK firms<sup>4</sup>. A UK firm may not exercise an EEA right to establish a branch unless the following conditions are satisfied<sup>5</sup>:

- 785 (1) the firm has given the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>, in the specified<sup>7</sup> way, a notice of intention (that is, a notice of its intention to establish a branch and which: (a) identifies the activities which it seeks to carry on through the branch<sup>8</sup>; and (b) includes such other information as may be specified)<sup>9</sup>;
- 786 (2) the Authority has given notice (a 'consent notice') to the host state regulator<sup>10</sup>;
- 787 (3) (a) if the EEA right in question derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive<sup>11</sup>, that one month has elapsed beginning with the date on which the firm received notice<sup>12</sup> that the Authority has given a consent notice<sup>13</sup>; (b) in any other case, that either (i) the host state regulator has notified the firm (or, where the EEA right in question derives from any of the Insurance Directives<sup>14</sup>, the Authority) of the applicable provisions<sup>15</sup>; or (ii) two months have elapsed beginning with the date on which the Authority gave the consent notice<sup>16</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from the Banking Consolidation Directive<sup>17</sup>, the UCITS Directive<sup>18</sup> or, in the case of a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>19</sup> and the first condition (see head (1) above) is satisfied, the Authority must give a consent notice to the host state regulator unless it has reason to doubt the adequacy of the firm's resources or its administrative structure<sup>20</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from any of the Insurance Directives and the first condition (see head (1) above) is satisfied, the Authority must give a consent notice unless it has reason to doubt the adequacy of the firm's resources or its administrative structure<sup>21</sup>, or to question the reputation, qualifications or experience of the directors<sup>22</sup> or managers<sup>23</sup> of the firm or the person proposed as the branch's authorised agent for the purposes of the Insurance Directives<sup>24</sup>, in relation to the business to be conducted through the proposed branch<sup>25</sup>. If the firm's EEA right derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive, the first condition (see head (1) above) is satisfied and the second condition (see head (2) above) applies, the Authority must give a consent notice, and must do so within one month beginning with the date on which it received the firm's notice of intention<sup>26</sup>. If the firm is a UK investment firm and the first condition (see head (1) above) is satisfied, the Authority must give a consent notice to the host state regulator within three months beginning with the date on which it received the firm's notice of intention unless the Authority has reason to doubt the adequacy of the firm's resources or its administrative structure<sup>27</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse to give a consent notice it must give the firm concerned a warning notice<sup>28</sup>. If the Authority gives a consent notice it must give written notice that it has done so to the firm concerned<sup>29</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse to give a consent notice it must, within the relevant period<sup>30</sup>, give the person who gave that notice a decision notice to that effect<sup>31</sup>, and that person may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>32</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from any of the Insurance Directives and the host state regulator has notified it of the applicable provisions, the Authority must inform the firm of those provisions<sup>33</sup>.

Rules may specify the procedure to be followed by the Authority in exercising its functions as described above<sup>34</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>35</sup> contravenes the prohibition in regard to establishing a branch<sup>36</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>37</sup>.

The Authority must include in its public record<sup>38</sup> in relation to any UK firm whose EEA right derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive information as to each EEA state in which the UK firm, in accordance with such a right has established a branch<sup>39</sup>.

If a UK investment firm is seeking to use a tied agent<sup>40</sup> established in an EEA state (other than the United Kingdom) in connection with the exercise of an EEA right deriving from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive, the provisions of Schedule 3 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 on establishment<sup>41</sup> apply as if the firm were seeking to establish a branch in that state<sup>42</sup>.

1    Ie by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 37, Sch 3 Pt III (paras 19-25).

2    As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3    As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

4    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 37. 'UK firm' means a person whose relevant office is in the UK and who has an EEA right to carry on activity in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Sch 3 para 10 (amended by SI 2003/1473). For these purposes, 'relevant office' means (1) in relation to firm whose EEA right derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation) and which has a registered office, its registered office; (2) in relation to any other firm, its head office: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 10A (added by SI 2003/1473). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

5    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(1) (amended by SI 2003/1473; SI 2007/3253). This is subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(5ZA), (5A) (as to Sch 3 para 19(5A) see note 10).

Schedule 3 para 19 does not apply to a UK firm having an EEA right which is subject to the conditions of the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(5ZA) (added by SI 2007/3253).

6    As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

7    'Specified' means specified in rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(15). 'Rule' means a rule made by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 417(1).

8    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(2)(a). Subject to Sch 3 para 19(5B), the activities identified in a notice of intention may include activities which are not regulated activities: Sch 3 para 19(3) (amended by SI 2007/126). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

If the firm is a UK investment firm, a notice of intention may not include ancillary services unless such services are to be provided in connection with the carrying on of one or more investment services and activities: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(5B) (Sch 3 par 19(5B), (5C) added by SI 2007/126). 'UK investment firm' means a UK firm (1) which is an investment firm; and (2) whose EEA right derives from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1) on markets in financial instruments): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 10B (added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5. 'Ancillary services' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p1)) art 4.1.3: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(5C) (as so added).

Where the activities identified in the notice include any activity which is not a regulated activity and that activity is one which the UK firm in question is able to carry on in the EEA state in question without contravening any provision of the law of the United Kingdom (or any part of it), the UK firm is to be treated, for the purposes of the exercise of its EEA right, as being authorised to carry on that activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 19(1) (renumbered as such by SI 2007/3253). Where the activities of a UK firm which pursues the activity of reinsurance (within the meaning of the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 2.1(a)) includes any activity which is not a regulated activity and that activity is one which the UK firm in question is able to carry on in the EEA state in question without contravening any provision of the law of the United Kingdom (or any part of the United Kingdom), the UK firm is to be treated, for the purpose of the exercise of its EEA right, as being authorised to carry on that activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, art 19(2) (added by SI 2007/3253). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 19 is in exercise of the power in the Financial Services and Market Act 2000 Sch 3 para 22(1), namely that regulations may make such provision as the Treasury considers appropriate in relation to a UK firm's exercise of EEA rights, and may in particular provide for the application (with or without modification) of any provision of, or made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(2)(b).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(4). 'Host state regulator' means the competent authority (within the meaning of the relevant Single Market Directive) of an EEA state (other than the United Kingdom) in relation to a UK firm's exercise of EEA rights there: Sch 3 para 11. As to the meaning of 'Single Market Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

If (1) the EEA right in question derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3) on insurance mediation); and (2) the EEA state in which the firm intends to establish a branch has not notified the Commission, in accordance with the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3)) art 6(2), of its wish to be informed of the intention of any UK firm to establish a branch in its territory, the second and third conditions (ie the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(4), (5): see heads (2), (3) in the text) do not apply (and so the firm may establish the branch to which its notice of intention relates as soon as the first condition (ie Sch 3 para 19(2): see head (1) in the text) is satisfied): Sch 3 para 19(5A) (added by SI 2003/1473).

11 Ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p 3).

14 As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(5)(b)(i) (as substituted: see note 13). See note 10. For these purposes, 'applicable provisions' means the host state rules with which the firm will be required to comply when conducting business through the proposed branch in the EEA state concerned: Sch 3 para 19(13). 'Host state rules' means rules: (1) made in accordance with the relevant Single Market Directive; and (2) which are the responsibility of the EEA state concerned (both as to implementation and as to supervision of compliance) in accordance with that Directive: Sch 3 para 19(14).

However if (1) a UK investment firm has already established a branch in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19 (see the text and notes 1-34); and (2) the EEA right which it is exercising derives from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive, Sch 3 para 19 does not apply in respect of its use of the tied agent in question: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20A(2) (as so added).

UPDATE

323 Exercise of right to establish a branch

NOTES 18, 30--Directive 85/611 replaced: see PARA 6.

EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/324. Exercise of right to provide services.

324. Exercise of right to provide services.

A UK firm<sup>1</sup> may not exercise an EEA right<sup>2</sup> to provide services unless the firm has given the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>, in the specified<sup>4</sup> way, notice of its intention to provide services (a 'notice of intention') which: (1) identifies the activities which it seeks to carry out by way of provision of services<sup>5</sup>; and (2) includes such other information as may be specified<sup>6</sup>. The activities identified in a notice of intention may include activities which are not regulated activities<sup>7</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from the Banking Consolidation Directive<sup>8</sup>, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>9</sup> or the UCITS Directive<sup>10</sup>, the Authority must, within one month of receiving a notice of intention, send a copy of it to the host state regulator<sup>11</sup> with such other information as may be specified<sup>12</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from any of the Insurance Directives<sup>13</sup>, the Authority must, within one month of receiving the notice of intention, give notice in specified terms (a 'consent notice') to the host state regulator<sup>14</sup> or give written notice to the firm of its refusal to give a consent notice<sup>15</sup> and its reasons for that refusal<sup>16</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive<sup>17</sup> and the EEA state in which the firm intends to provide services has notified the European Commission, in accordance with that directive<sup>18</sup>, of its wish to be informed of the intention of any UK firm to provide services in its territory (a) the Authority must, within one month of receiving the notice of intention, send a copy of it to the host state regulator<sup>19</sup>; (b) the Authority, when it sends the copy in accordance with head (a) above, must give written notice to the firm concerned that it has done so<sup>20</sup>; and (c) the firm concerned must not provide the services to which its notice of intention relates until one month, beginning with the date on which it receives the notice under head (b) above has elapsed<sup>21</sup>.

When the Authority sends the copy of the notice of intention<sup>22</sup> or gives a consent notice<sup>23</sup>, it must give written notice to the firm concerned<sup>24</sup>. If the firm's EEA right derives from any of the Insurance Directives or from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive, it must not provide the services to which its notice of intention relates until it has received written notice<sup>25</sup>.

If the firm's EEA right derives from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive, the Authority must comply as soon as reasonably practicable with a request for information under that directive<sup>26</sup> from the host state regulator<sup>27</sup>.

Rules may specify the procedure to be followed by the Authority in these circumstances<sup>28</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>29</sup> contravenes the prohibition in regard to providing services<sup>30</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>31</sup>.

The Authority must include in its public record<sup>32</sup> in relation to any UK firm whose EEA right derives from the Insurance Mediation Directive information as to each EEA state in which the UK firm, in accordance with such a right is providing services<sup>33</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'UK firm' see PARA 323 note 4.

2 As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 13. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 'Specified' means specified in rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(6). 'Rule' means a rule made by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 417(1).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(1)(a) (Sch 3 para 20(1) amended by SI 2007/3253).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20 does not apply to a UK firm having an EEA right which is subject to the conditions of the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(4D) (added by SI 2007/3253).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(1)(b).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(2) (amended by SI 2007/126). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 20(2) is subject to Sch 3 para 20(2A). If the firm is a UK investment firm, a notice of intention may not include ancillary services unless such services are to be provided in connection with the carrying on of one or more investment services and activities: Sch 3 para 19(2A) (Sch 3 para 19(2A), (2B) added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'UK investment firm' see PARA 323 note 8. For these purposes, 'ancillary services' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.3: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(2B) (as so added).

Where the activities identified in the notice include any activity which is not a regulated activity and that activity is one which the UK firm in question is able to carry on in the EEA state in question without contravening any provision of the law of the United Kingdom (or any part of it), the UK firm is to be treated, for the purposes of the exercise of its EEA right, as being authorised to carry on that activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 19. This is in exercise of the power in the Financial Services and Market Act 2000 Sch 3 para 22(1), namely that regulations may make such provision as the Treasury considers appropriate in relation to a UK firm's exercise of EEA rights, and may in particular provide for the application (with or without modification) of any provision of, or made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. ### 324 Exercise of right to provide services

NOTE 10--Directive 85/611 replaced: see PARA 6.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/325. Management companies, credit and financial institutions, UK investment firms: changes to branch details.

325. Management companies, credit and financial institutions, UK investment firms: changes to branch details.

A UK firm<sup>1</sup> which has exercised an EEA right<sup>2</sup>, deriving from the UCITS Directive<sup>3</sup> or the Banking Consolidation Directive<sup>4</sup>, to establish a branch must not make a change in the requisite details<sup>5</sup> of the branch unless the following requirements<sup>6</sup> have been complied with<sup>7</sup>:

- 788 (1) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>8</sup> and to the host state regulator<sup>9</sup> stating the details of the proposed change<sup>10</sup>;

- 789 (2) the Authority has given the host state regulator a notice<sup>11</sup>; and 790 (3) either the host state regulator has informed the firm that it may make the change, or the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the host state regulator the notice mentioned in head (1) above<sup>12</sup> has elapsed<sup>13</sup>.

Alternatively (if the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control) the requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority and to the host state regulator, stating the details of the change<sup>14</sup>.

A UK investment firm<sup>15</sup> which has exercised an EEA right deriving from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>16</sup> to establish a branch must not (a) make a change in the requisite details of the branch<sup>17</sup>; (b) use, for the first time, any tied agent<sup>18</sup> established in the EEA state in which the branch is established<sup>19</sup>; or (c) cease to use tied agents established in the EEA state in which the branch is established<sup>20</sup>, unless the following requirements have been complied with<sup>21</sup>:

- 791 (i) the firm has given a notice to the Authority stating the details of the proposed change<sup>22</sup>; and 792 (ii) the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the notice has elapsed<sup>23</sup>.

The Authority must, as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving such a notice, inform the host state regulator of the proposed change<sup>24</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>25</sup> contravenes the above prohibitions<sup>26</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>27</sup>.

The Authority must, within the period of one month beginning with the day on which it received the notice referred to in head (1) above<sup>28</sup>, either consent to the change or refuse to consent to the change<sup>29</sup>. If the Authority consents to the change, it must give a notice to the host state regulator informing it of the details of the proposed change<sup>30</sup> and inform the firm that it has given that notice, stating the date on which it did so<sup>31</sup>. If the Authority refuses to consent to the change the firm may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>32</sup> and the Authority must give notice to the firm of the refusal, stating the reasons for it, and giving an indication of the firm's right to refer the matter to the Tribunal, and the procedure on such a reference<sup>33</sup>. The Authority may not refuse to consent to the change unless, having regard to the change and to the EEA activities<sup>34</sup> which the firm is seeking to carry on, it doubts the adequacy of the administrative structure or the financial situation of the firm; and in reaching a determination as to the adequacy of the administrative structure, the Authority may have regard to the adequacy of management, systems and controls and the presence of relevant skills needed for the EEA activities to be carried on<sup>35</sup>.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 11(1) (amended by SI 2006/3385). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, regs 11, 11A are in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 22(2)(a), namely that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to a UK firm or to an activity that it carries on and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases.

Where a provision of the kind mentioned in Sch 3 para 22(2) requires the Financial Services Authority's consent to a change (or proposed change): (1) consent may be refused only on prescribed grounds; and (2) if the Authority decides to refuse consent, the firm concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 22(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

Where a UK firm has a Part IV permission and is exercising an EEA right to carry on any Consumer Credit Act business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom the Authority may exercise its power under s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that (a) the firm; (b) any of the firm's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present); or (c) if the firm is a body corporate, a controller of the firm or an associate of such a controller, has done any of the things specified in the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 25(2A)(a)-(e) (see CONSUMER CREDIT): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 23(2) amended by the Environment Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (19)(b); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(10), (11)). The Authority may also exercise its power under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that it has concerns about any of the following: (i) the firm's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to Consumer Credit Act businesses; (ii) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who are participating in any Consumer Credit Act business being carried on by the firm; (iii) practices and procedures that the firm is implementing in connection with any such business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(2A) (added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(12)). As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the meaning of 'Consumer Credit Act business' see PARA 464 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meanings of 'associate' and 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16; definitions applied by Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

Where a UK firm is not required to have a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on and is exercising the right conferred by the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 24 to carry on that business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom then, if requested to do so by the host state regulator in the EEA state in which the UK firm's business is being carried on, the Authority may impose any requirement in relation to the firm which it could impose if: (A) the firm had a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on; and (B) the Authority was entitled to exercise its power under Pt IV to vary that permission: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 24(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 24(1)(b) amended by SI 2000/2952; SI 2006/3221). ### 325 Management companies, credit and financial institutions, UK investment firms: changes to branch details

NOTE 3--Directive 85/611 replaced: see PARA 6.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/326. Management companies, UK investment firms: changes to services.

326. Management companies, UK investment firms: changes to services.

A UK firm<sup>1</sup> which is providing services in exercise of an EEA right<sup>2</sup>, deriving from the UCITS Directive<sup>3</sup>, must not make a change in the programme of operations, or the EEA activities<sup>4</sup>, to be carried on in exercise of that right, unless the relevant requirements have been complied with<sup>5</sup>. The 'relevant requirements' are that: (1) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> and to the host state regulator<sup>7</sup> stating the details of the proposed change<sup>8</sup>; or (2) if the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control, it has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority and to the host state regulator, stating the details of the change<sup>9</sup>.

A UK investment firm<sup>10</sup> which is providing services in a particular EEA state in exercise of an EEA right deriving from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>11</sup> must not (a) make a change in the programme of operations, or the EEA activities, to be carried on in exercise of that right<sup>12</sup>; (b) use, for the first time, any tied agent<sup>13</sup> to provide services in the territory of that state<sup>14</sup>; or (c) cease to use tied agents to provide services in the territory of that state<sup>15</sup>, unless the following requirements have been complied with<sup>16</sup>:

793 (i) the firm has given a notice to the Authority stating the details of the proposed change<sup>17</sup>; and

794 (ii) the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the notice has elapsed<sup>18</sup>.

The Authority must, as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving such a notice, inform the host state regulator of the proposed change<sup>19</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>20</sup> contravenes the above prohibitions<sup>21</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>22</sup>.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 12(1) (amended by SI 2003/2066; SI 2006/3385). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, regs 12, 12A are in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 22(2)(a), namely that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to a UK firm or to an activity that it carries on and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases.

Where a provision of the kind mentioned in Sch 3 para 22(2) requires the Financial Services Authority's consent to a change (or proposed change): (1) consent may be refused only on prescribed grounds; and (2) if the Authority decides to refuse consent, the firm concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 22(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

Where a UK firm has a Part IV permission and is exercising an EEA right to carry on any Consumer Credit Act business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom the Authority may exercise its power under s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that (a) the firm; (b) any of the firm's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present); or (c) if the firm is a body corporate, a controller of the firm or an associate of such a controller, has done any of the things specified in the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 25(2A)(a)-(e) (see CONSUMER CREDIT): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 23(2) amended by the Environment Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (19)(b); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(10), (11)). The Authority may also exercise its power under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that it has concerns about any of the following: (i) the firm's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to Consumer Credit Act businesses; (ii) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who are participating in any Consumer Credit Act business being carried on by the firm; (iii) practices and procedures that the firm is implementing in connection with any such business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(2A) (added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(12)). ### 326 Management companies, UK investment firms: changes to services

NOTE 3--Directive 85/611 replaced: see PARA 6.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/327. UK insurance firms: changes to relevant EEA details of branches.

327. UK insurance firms: changes to relevant EEA details of branches.

- 795 (1) the address of the branch<sup>7</sup>;
- 796 (2) the name of the UK firm's<sup>8</sup> authorised agent<sup>9</sup> and, in the case of a member of Lloyd's, confirmation that the authorised agent has power to accept service of proceedings on behalf of Lloyd's<sup>10</sup>;
- 797 (3) the classes or parts of classes of business carried on, or to be carried on, and the nature of the risks or commitments covered, or to be covered, in the EEA state<sup>11</sup> concerned<sup>12</sup>;
- 798 (4) details of the structural organisation of the branch<sup>13</sup>;
- 799 (5) the guiding principles as to reinsurance of business carried on, or to be carried on, in the EEA state concerned, including the firm's maximum retention per risk or event after all reinsurance ceded<sup>14</sup>;
- 800 (6) estimates of:
  - 88 155. (a) the costs of installing administrative services and the organisation for securing business in the EEA state concerned<sup>15</sup>;
  - 156. (b) the resources available to cover those costs<sup>16</sup>; and
  - 157. (c) if contracts of insurance providing assistance for travellers or other persons<sup>17</sup> are, or are to be, effected or carried out, the resources available for providing assistance<sup>18</sup>;
- 89 801 (7) for each of the first three years following the establishment of the branch:
  - 90 158. (a) estimates of the firm's margin of solvency and the margin of solvency required, and the method of calculation<sup>19</sup>;
  - 159. (b) if the firm carries on, or intends to carry on, business comprising the effecting or carrying out of contracts of long-term insurance<sup>20</sup>, certain details<sup>21</sup> as respects the business carried on, or to be carried on, in the EEA state concerned<sup>22</sup>; and
  - 160. (c) if the firm carries on, or intends to carry on, business comprising the effecting or carrying out of contracts of general insurance<sup>23</sup>, certain details<sup>24</sup> as respects the business carried on, or to be carried on, in the EEA state concerned<sup>25</sup>;
- 91 802 (8) if the insurer covers, or intends to cover, relevant motor vehicle risks<sup>26</sup>, details of the firm's membership of the national bureau<sup>27</sup> and the national guarantee fund<sup>28</sup> in the EEA state concerned<sup>29</sup>; and
- 803 (9) if the firm covers, or intends to cover, health insurance risks<sup>30</sup>, the technical bases used, or to be used, for calculating premiums in respect of such risks<sup>31</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>32</sup> contravenes the above prohibitions<sup>33</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>34</sup>.

A UK firm which has exercised an EEA right, deriving from any of the Insurance Directives, to establish a branch must not make a change in any of the relevant EEA details described above unless:

- 804 (i) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>35</sup> and to the host state regulator<sup>36</sup> stating the details of the proposed change<sup>37</sup>;
- 805 (ii) the Authority has given the host state regulator a notice<sup>38</sup>;
- 806 (iii) the period of one month beginning with the day on which the firm gave the Authority the notice mentioned in head (i) above<sup>39</sup> has elapsed<sup>40</sup>; and
- 807 (iv) either a further period of one month has elapsed<sup>41</sup> or the Authority has informed the firm of any consequential changes in the applicable provisions<sup>42</sup> of which the Authority has been notified by the host state regulator<sup>43</sup>.

Alternatively (if the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control) the requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority and to the host state regulator, stating the details of the change<sup>44</sup>.

The Authority must, within one month of receiving the notice referred to in head (i) above<sup>45</sup>, either consent to the change or refuse to consent to the change<sup>46</sup>. If the Authority consents to the change, it must give a notice to the host state regulator informing it of the details of the proposed change<sup>47</sup> and inform the firm that it has given that notice, stating the date on which it did so<sup>48</sup>. If the Authority refuses to consent to the change the firm may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>49</sup> and the Authority must give notice to the firm of the refusal, stating the reasons for it, and giving an indication of the firm's right to refer the matter to the Tribunal, and the procedure on such a reference<sup>50</sup>. The Authority may not refuse to consent to the change unless, having regard to the change, the Authority has reason: (A) to doubt the adequacy of the firm's administrative structure or financial situation<sup>51</sup>; or (B) to question the reputation, qualifications or experience of the directors or managers of the firm or the authorised agent<sup>52</sup>, in relation to the business conducted, or to be conducted, through the branch<sup>53</sup>.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 13(1). Regulation 13 is made in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 37, Sch 3 para 22(2)(a), which provides that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to a UK firm or to an activity that it carries on and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases.

Where a provision of the kind mentioned in Sch 3 para 22(2) requires the Financial Services Authority's consent to a change (or proposed change): (1) consent may be refused only on prescribed grounds; and (2) if the Authority decides to refuse consent, the firm concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 22(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. ### 327 UK insurance firms: changes to relevant EEA details of branches

NOTE 28--Directive 84/5 replaced: European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2009/103 (OJ L263, 7.10.2009, p 11).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/328. UK insurance firms: changes to relevant UK details of branches.

328. UK insurance firms: changes to relevant UK details of branches.

A UK firm<sup>1</sup> which has exercised an EEA right<sup>2</sup>, deriving from any of the Insurance Directives<sup>3</sup>, to establish a branch must not make a change in any of the information which the UK firm was required to provide to the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> in its notice of intention to establish a branch<sup>5</sup> with respect to the branch, unless: (1) the firm has given a notice to the Authority stating the details of the proposed change at least one month before the change is effected<sup>6</sup>; or (2) if the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control, the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority stating the details of the change<sup>7</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>8</sup> contravenes the above prohibitions<sup>9</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'UK firm' see PARA 323 note 4.

2 As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

3 As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

4 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 13. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

5 I.e. a change in any of the information which the UK firm was required to provide to the Authority by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 19(2) (see PARA 323), other than a change in the relevant EEA details referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 13 (see PARA 327): reg 15(2).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 15(1) (a). Regulation 15 is in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 37, Sch 3 para 22(2)(a), namely that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to a UK firm or to an activity that it carries on and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases.

Where a provision of the kind mentioned in Sch 3 para 22(2) requires the Authority's consent to a change (or proposed change) (1) consent may be refused only on prescribed grounds; and (2) if the Authority decides to refuse consent, the firm concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 22(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

Where a UK firm has a Part IV permission and is exercising an EEA right to carry on any Consumer Credit Act business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom the Authority may exercise its power under s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that (a) the firm; (b) any of the firm's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present); or (c) if the firm is a body corporate, a controller of the firm or an associate of such a controller, has done any of the things specified in the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 25(2)(a)-(e) (see CONSUMER CREDIT): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 23(2) amended by the Environment Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (19)(b); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(10), (11)). The Authority may also exercise its power under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that it has concerns about any of the following: (i) the firm's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to Consumer Credit Act businesses; (ii) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who are participating in any Consumer Credit Act business being carried on by the firm; (iii) practices and procedures that the firm is implementing in connection with any such business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(2A) (added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(12)). As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the meaning of 'Consumer Credit Act business' see PARA 464 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meanings of 'associate' and 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16; definitions applied by Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

Where a UK firm is not required to have a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on and is exercising the right conferred by the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 24 to carry on that business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom then, if requested to do so by the host state regulator in the EEA state in which the UK firm's business is being carried on, the Authority may impose any requirement in relation to the firm which it could impose if: (A) the firm had a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on; and (B) the Authority was entitled to exercise its power under Pt IV to vary that permission: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 24(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 24(1)(b) amended by SI 2000/2952; SI 2006/3221). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

As to the information to be included in the public record see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 25(a); and PARA 323.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 15(1) (b). See note 6.

8 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

9 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 15(1).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 18(1). Such an offence is punishable: (1) on summary conviction, by a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; or (2) on conviction on indictment, by a fine: reg 18(1). In proceedings for such an offence, it is a defence for the firm to show that it took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence: reg 18(2). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

Regulation 18 is made in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 22(2)(b), which provides that regulations may make provision with respect of the consequences of the UK firm's failure to comply with a provision of the regulations. See note 6.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(i) Authorisation/E. EXERCISE OF EEA RIGHTS BY UK FIRMS/329. UK insurance firms: changes to services.

329. UK insurance firms: changes to services.

A UK firm<sup>1</sup> which is providing services in exercise of an EEA right<sup>2</sup>, deriving from any of the Insurance Directives<sup>3</sup>, must not make a change in the relevant details<sup>4</sup>, unless certain requirements<sup>5</sup> have been complied with<sup>6</sup>. The relevant details are:

- 808 (1) the EEA state in which the EEA activities<sup>7</sup> are carried on, or are to be carried on<sup>8</sup>;
- 809 (2) the nature of the risks or commitments covered, or to be covered, in the EEA state concerned<sup>9</sup>;
- 810 (3) if the firm covers, or intends to cover, relevant motor vehicle risks<sup>10</sup>: (a) the name and address of the claims representative<sup>11</sup>; and (b) details of the firm's membership of the national bureau<sup>12</sup> and the national guarantee fund<sup>13</sup> in the EEA state concerned<sup>14</sup>; and
- 811 (4) if the insurer covers, or intends to cover, health insurance risks<sup>15</sup>, the technical bases used, or to be used, for calculating premiums in respect of such risks<sup>16</sup>.

If a UK firm which is not an authorised person<sup>17</sup> contravenes the above prohibition<sup>18</sup> it is guilty of an offence<sup>19</sup>.

The firm must not make a change in any of the relevant details described above unless: (i) the firm has given a notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>20</sup> stating the details of the proposed change<sup>21</sup>; and (ii) the Authority has given the host state regulator<sup>22</sup> a notice<sup>23</sup>.

Alternatively (if the change is occasioned by circumstances beyond the firm's control) the requirements are that the firm has as soon as practicable (whether before or after the change) given a notice to the Authority stating the details of the change<sup>24</sup>.

The Authority must, within one month of receiving a notice under head (i) above<sup>25</sup>, either consent to the change or refuse to consent to the change<sup>26</sup>. If the Authority consents to the change, it must give a notice to the host state regulator informing it of the details of the proposed change<sup>27</sup> and inform the firm that it has given that notice, stating the date on which it did so<sup>28</sup>. If the Authority refuses to consent to the change the firm may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>29</sup> and the Authority must give notice to the firm of the refusal, stating the reasons for it, and giving an indication of the firm's right to refer the matter to the Tribunal, and the procedure on such a reference<sup>30</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'UK firm' see PARA 323 note 4.

2 As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

3 As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

4 See heads (1)-(4) in the text.

5 See the requirements in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 16(3); reg 16(2).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 16(1). Regulation 16 is made in exercise of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 37, Sch 3 para 22(2)(a), which provides that regulations may make provision as to any change (or proposed change) of a prescribed kind relating to a UK firm or to an activity that it carries on and as to the procedure to be followed in relation to such cases.

Where a provision of the kind mentioned in Sch 3 para 22(2) requires the Financial Services Authority's consent to a change (or proposed change): (1) consent may be refused only on prescribed grounds; and (2) if the Authority decides to refuse consent, the firm concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: Sch 3 para 22(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

Where a UK firm has a Part IV permission and is exercising an EEA right to carry on any Consumer Credit Act business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom the Authority may exercise its power under s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that (a) the firm; (b) any of the firm's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present); or (c) if the firm is a body corporate, a controller of the firm or an associate of such a controller, has done any of the things specified in the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 25(2)(a)-(e) (see CONSUMER CREDIT): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 23(2) amended by the Environment Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (19)(b); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(1), (2) amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(10), (11)). The Authority may also exercise its power under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 45 (see PARA 355) in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that it has concerns about any of the following: (i) the firm's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to Consumer Credit Act businesses; (ii) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who are participating in any Consumer Credit Act business being carried on by the firm; (iii) practices and procedures that the firm is implementing in connection with any such business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(2A) (added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(12)). As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the meaning of 'Consumer Credit Act business' see PARA 464 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meanings of 'associate' and 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16; definitions applied by Sch 3 para 23(3). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

Where a UK firm is not required to have a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on and is exercising the right conferred by the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 24 to carry on that business in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom then, if requested to do so by the host state regulator in the EEA state in which the UK firm's business is being carried on, the Authority may impose any requirement in relation to the firm which it could impose if: (A) the firm had a Part IV permission in relation to the business which it is carrying on; and (B) the Authority was entitled to exercise its power under Pt IV to vary that permission: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 24(1), (2) (Sch 3 para 24(1)(b) amended by SI 2000/2952; SI 2006/3221). ## (ii) Exemption

A. PERSONS EXEMPTED BY EXEMPTION ORDERS

330. Power of the Treasury to make exemption orders.

No person may carry on a regulated activity in the United Kingdom, or purport to do so, unless he is an authorised person or an exempt person. This is referred to as the 'general prohibition'<sup>1</sup>. The Treasury may by order provide for specified<sup>2</sup> persons<sup>3</sup>, or persons falling within a specified class<sup>4</sup>, to be exempt from the general prohibition<sup>5</sup>. However, a person cannot be an exempt person<sup>6</sup> as a result of an exemption order if he has a Part IV permission<sup>7</sup>.

An exemption order may provide for an exemption to have effect:

- 812 (1) in respect of all regulated activities<sup>8</sup>;
- 813 (2) in respect of one or more specified regulated activities<sup>9</sup>;
- 814 (3) only in specified circumstances<sup>10</sup>;
- 815 (4) only in relation to specified functions<sup>11</sup>;
- 816 (5) subject to conditions<sup>12</sup>.

1 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 19; and PARA 80. As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 'Specified' means specified by the exemption order: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 38(4). In exercise of the power under s 38 the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/1201: see PARA 331 et seq. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 38(1)(b).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 38(1). If the order is the first order to be made, or to contain provisions made, under s 38 or if it contains provisions restricting or removing an exemption provided by an earlier order made under s 38 then the order must not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(3), (5). See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

A person acting as a policyholder advocate<sup>1</sup> is exempt from the general prohibition<sup>2</sup> in respect of any specified regulated activity<sup>3</sup> of arranging deals in investments or advising on investments<sup>4</sup> in so far as he carries on these activities in connection with, or for the purposes of, his role as policyholder advocate<sup>5</sup>.

1 'Policyholder advocate' means a person who is: (1) appointed by an insurer ('I') to represent the interests of policyholders in negotiations with I about I's proposals to redefine the rights and interests in any surplus assets arising in I's with-profits fund; and (2) approved or nominated by the Financial Services Authority to carry out that role: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/1201, Schedule para 51(2) (Schedule para 51 added by SI 2007/1821). For these purposes, 'with-profits fund' means a long-term insurance fund in which policyholders are eligible to participate in surplus assets of the fund: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/1201, Schedule para 51(3) (as so added). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

3 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

4 Ie any regulated activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25 (see PARA 139) or art 53 (see PARA 174).

B. EXEMPTION OF APPOINTED REPRESENTATIVES

346. Exemption from general prohibition.

If a person (other than an authorised person<sup>1</sup>):

- 881 (1) is a party to a contract with an authorised person ('his principal') which: (a) permits or requires him to carry on business of a prescribed description<sup>2</sup>; and (b) complies with such requirements as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>; and
- 882 (2) is someone for whose activities in carrying on the whole or part of that business his principal has accepted responsibility in writing<sup>4</sup>, he is exempt from the general prohibition from carrying on regulated activities in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> in relation to any regulated activity<sup>6</sup> comprised in the carrying on of that business for which his principal has accepted responsibility<sup>7</sup>. Such a person is an 'appointed representative'<sup>8</sup>.

However a person is not exempt<sup>9</sup> (a) if his principal is an investment firm<sup>10</sup> or a credit institution<sup>11</sup>; and (b) so far as the business for which his principal has accepted responsibility is investment services business<sup>12</sup>, unless he is entered on the applicable register<sup>13</sup>.

The principal of an appointed representative is responsible, to the same extent as if he had expressly permitted it, for anything done or omitted by the representative in carrying on the business for which he has accepted responsibility<sup>14</sup>.

In determining whether an authorised person has complied with a provision contained in or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, or with a provision contained in any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>15</sup>, anything which a relevant person<sup>16</sup> has done or omitted as respects business for which the authorised person has accepted responsibility is to be treated as having been done or omitted by the authorised person<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(i). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. In exercise of its power the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217: see the text and note 3.

Any business which comprises:

- 416 (1) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), where the transaction relates to a contract of insurance which is not a qualifying contract of insurance or a contract of long-term care insurance (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(aa) (added by SI 2003/1476; and amended by SI 2004/453));
- 417 (2) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), where the arrangements are for or with a view to transactions relating to securities or relevant investments (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(a) (reg 2(1) renumbered by SI 2001/2508)); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(a) amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2004/453));
- 418 (3) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (arranging regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 139) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(ab) (added by SI 2003/1475));
- 419 (4) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25B (arranging regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 139) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(aba) (reg 2(1)(aba), (abb) added by SI 2006/2383));
- 420 (5) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25C (arranging regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 139) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(abb) (as so added));
- 421 (6) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance) (see PARA 104) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(ac) (added by SI 2003/1476; and amended by SI 2004/453));
- 422 (7) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160), where the activity consists of arranging for one or more other persons to safeguard and administer assets (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(b) (as so renumbered));
- 423 (8) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 52B (providing basic advice on stakeholder products) (see PARA 188) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(ba) (added by SI 2004/2737));
- 424 (9) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(c) (as so renumbered; amended by SI 2003/1475));
- 425 (10) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 174) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(ca) (added by SI 2003/1475; and amended by SI 2006/2383));

- 426 (11) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 174) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(cb) (reg 2(1)(cb), (cc) added by SI 2006/2383));
- 427 (12) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(cc) (as so added)); or
- 428 (13) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 64 (agreeing to carry on activities) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to an activity falling within heads (1)-(7), (9)-(12) above (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(d) (as so renumbered; amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2006/2383)), is prescribed for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(i) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)).

'Contract of long-term care insurance' means a contract of insurance in respect of which the following conditions are met: (a) the purpose (or one of the purposes) of the policy is to protect the policyholder against the risk of becoming unable to live independently without assistance in consequence of a deterioration of mental or physical health, injury, sickness or other infirmity; (b) benefits under the contract are payable in respect of services, accommodation or goods, which are (or which is) necessary or desirable due to a deterioration of mental or physical health, injury, sickness or other infirmity; (c) the contract is expressed to be in effect until the death of the policyholder (except that the contract may give the policyholder the option to surrender the policy); and (d) the benefits under the contract are capable of being paid throughout the life of the policyholder: reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2004/453). As to the meaning of 'security' see PARA 89 note 1; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'qualifying contract of insurance' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'relevant investments' see PARA 126 note 4; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2003/1476). In head (13) above the reference is to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1)(aa), (a), (ab), (ac), (aba), (abb), (b), (c), (ca), (cb), (cc). See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 12. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

In its application to a contract with a principal who is an EEA investment firm or an EEA credit institution, the list in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1) (see above) is treated as including in addition (i) the activity of placing financial instruments; and (ii) the activity of providing advice to clients or potential clients in relation to the placing of financial instruments: reg 2(1A) (reg 2(1A), (1B) added by SI 2006/3414). For these purposes, 'clients' and 'financial instruments' have the meanings given in, respectively, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4 paras 1.10 and 1.17: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 2(1B) (as so added). 'Principal', in relation to a contract, means the party who is an authorised person (as to which see PARA 314), 'representative' means the other party: reg 1(2). 'EEA credit institution' means a credit institution under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) which has its relevant office in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2006/3414). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. 'EEA investment firm' means an investment firm as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424A (see PARA 21) which has its relevant office in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2) (definition added by SI 2006/3414).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(ii). The prescribed requirements are in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217: see note 2.

Except where reg 3(1A) applies to a contract between a principal and a representative, it is a prescribed requirement for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(ii) that such a contract must (unless it prohibits the representative from representing other counterparties) contain a provision enabling the principal to: (1) impose such a prohibition; or (2) impose restrictions as to the other counterparties which the representative may represent, or as to the types of investment in relation to which the representative may represent other counterparties: reg 3(1) (amended by SI 2006/3414). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(1A) applies where the principal is an EEA investment firm or an EEA credit institution: reg 3(1A) (added by SI 2006/3414). 'Other counterparties' means persons other than the principal: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2).

For the purposes of reg 3(1) a representative is to be treated as representing other counterparties where he:

- 429 (a) enters into investment transactions as agent (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126) for other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(2)(aa) (added by SI 2003/1476));
- 430 (b) makes arrangements (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25 (see PARA 139)) for persons to enter (or with a view to persons entering) into investment transactions with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(2)(a) (amended by SI 2003/1476));
- 431 (c) assists in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (see PARA 104)) for other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(2)(ab) (added by SI 2003/1476));
- 432 (d) arranges (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 40 (see PARA 160)) for other counterparties to safeguard and administer assets (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(2)(b)); or
- 433 (e) gives advice (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53 (see PARA 174)) on the merits of entering into investment transactions with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(2)(c)).

'Investment transaction' means a transaction to buy, sell, subscribe for or underwrite an investment which is a security or a relevant investment: reg 3(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476). As to the meanings of 'buy' and 'sell' see PARA 112 notes 1, 2; definitions applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 1(2).

A representative is also to be treated as representing other counterparties for the purposes of reg 3(1) where he:

- 434 (i) makes arrangements (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25A (see PARA 139)) for persons to enter (or with a view to persons entering) as borrowers into regulated mortgage contracts with other counterparties, or for a person to vary a regulated mortgage contract entered into by a person as borrower after the coming into force of art 61 (see PARA 203) with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(3)(a) (reg 3(3) added by SI 2003/1475)); or
- 435 (ii) gives advice (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53A (see PARA 174)) on the merits of persons entering as borrowers into regulated mortgage contracts with other counterparties, or persons varying regulated mortgage contracts entered into by them as borrower after the coming into force of art 61 (see PARA 203) with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(3)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meanings of 'borrower' and 'regulated mortgage contract' see PARA 203 note 1; definitions applied by reg 1(2) (definitions added by SI 2003/1475).

A representative is also to be treated as representing other counterparties for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(1) where he:

- 436 (A) makes arrangements (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25B (see PARA 139)) for a person to enter (or with a view to a person entering) as reversion seller or plan provider into a regulated home reversion plan with other counterparties, or for a person to vary a regulated home reversion plan entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him as reversion seller or plan provider with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(3A)(a) (reg 3(3A), (3B) added by SI 2006/2383)); or
- 437 (B) gives advice (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53B (see PARA 174)) on the merits of a person entering as reversion seller or plan provider into a regulated home reversion plan with other counterparties, or a person varying a regulated home reversion plan entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him as reversion seller or plan provider with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(3A)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meanings of 'plan provider', 'regulated home reversion plan' and 'reversion seller' see PARA 209 note 1; definitions applied by art 1(2) (definitions added by SI 2006/2383).

A representative is also to be treated as representing other counterparties for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(1) where he:

- 438 (aa) makes arrangements (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 25C (see PARA 139)) for a person to enter (or with a view to a person entering) as home purchaser into a regulated home purchase plan with other counterparties, or for a person to vary a regulated home purchase plan entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by a person as home purchaser with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(3B)(a) (as so added)); or
- 439 (bb) gives advice (in circumstances constituting the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53C (see PARA 174)) on the merits of a person entering as home purchaser into a regulated home purchase plan with other counterparties, or a person varying a regulated home purchase plan entered into on or after 6 April 2007 by him as home purchaser with other counterparties (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, SI 2001/544, reg 3(3B)(b) (as so added)).

As to the meanings of 'home purchaser', 'regulated home purchase plan' and 'reversion seller' see PARA 215 note 1; definitions applied by art 1(2) (definitions added by SI 2006/2383).

Where the contract between the principal and the representative permits or requires the representative to carry on business which includes an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25 (see PARA 139), art 39A (see PARA 104) or art 53 (see PARA 174) or an activity of the kind specified by art 64 (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to any of those articles, and which relates to a contract of insurance (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(4) (reg 3(4), (5) added by SI 2003/1476)), it is also a prescribed requirement for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(ii) that the contract between the principal and the representative contain a provision providing that the representative is not permitted or required to carry on business, so far as it comprises an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(4) (see above), unless he is included in the record maintained by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 347 (see PARA 475) by virtue of Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93 (recorded insurance intermediaries) (see PARA 476) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(5) (as so added)). See also note 13.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(b).

5 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

6 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1). As to the legal relationship between principal and agent generally see AGENCY.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 39(2), 417(1).

9     Ie as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1).

10    As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5.

11    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1A)(a) (s 39(1A), (1B) added by SI 2007/126). For these purposes, 'credit institution' means: (1) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions); or (2) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under that Directive if it had its relevant office in an EEA state; and 'relevant office' means (a) in relation to a body corporate, its registered office or, if it has no registered office, its head office; and (b) in relation to a person other than a body corporate, the person's head office: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(8) (s 39(7), (8) added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. See also note 13.

12    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1A)(b) (as added: see note 11). See note 13. A person carries on 'investment services business' if (1) the business includes providing services or carrying on activities of the kind mentioned in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.25; and (2) as a result of providing such services or carrying on such activities he is a tied agent or would be if he were established in an EEA state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(7) (as added: see note 11).

13    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1A) (as added: see note 11). The 'applicable register' is (1) in the case of a person established in an EEA state (other than the United Kingdom) which permits investment firms authorised by the competent authority of that state to appoint tied agents, the register of tied agents maintained in that state pursuant to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 23; (2) in the case of a person established in an EEA state which does not permit investment firms authorised as mentioned in head (1) above to appoint tied agents (a) if his principal has his relevant office in the United Kingdom, the record maintained by the Authority by virtue of s 347(1)(ha) (see PARA 475); and (b) if his principal is established in an EEA state (other than the United Kingdom) which permits investment firms authorised by the competent authority of the State to appoint tied agents, the register of tied agents maintained by that state pursuant to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 23; and (c) in any other case, the record maintained by the Authority by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 347(1)(ha) (see PARA 475): s 39(1B) (as added: see note 11). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. 'Competent authority' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.22: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(8) (as added: see note 11).

In the case of a representative to whom s 39(1A) applies, it is a prescribed requirement for the purposes of s 39(1)(a)(ii) (see the text and note 3), except where s 39(1A) applies, that the contract between the principal and the representative must contain a provision that the representative is only permitted to provide the services and carry on the activities referred to in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.25 while he is entered on the applicable register: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(6) (added by SI 2006/3414). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Appointed Representatives) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1217, reg 3(6) does not apply in relation to a contract made on or before 31 October 2007: reg 4 (added by SI 2007/763).

14    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(3).

15    Ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments.

16    'Relevant person' means a person who at the material time is or was an appointed representative by virtue of being a party to a contract with the authorised person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(5).

17    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(4) (amended by SI 2007/126). Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(4) is to cause the knowledge or intentions of an appointed representative to be attributed to his principal for the purpose of determining whether the principal has committed an offence, unless in all the circumstances it is reasonable for them to be attributed to him: s 39(6).

EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(ii) Exemption/C. CERTAIN TIED AGENTS OUTSIDE THE UNITED KINGDOM/347. Tied agents operating outside the United Kingdom.

C. CERTAIN TIED AGENTS OUTSIDE THE UNITED KINGDOM

347. Tied agents operating outside the United Kingdom.

The provisions set out below<sup>1</sup> apply to an authorised person<sup>2</sup> whose relevant office<sup>3</sup> is in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> if (1) he is a party to a contract with a person (other than an authorised person) who is established in the United Kingdom, or in an EEA state<sup>5</sup> which does not permit investment firms<sup>6</sup> authorised by the competent authority<sup>7</sup> of the state to appoint tied agents<sup>8</sup>; and (2) the contract is a relevant contract<sup>9</sup>.

An authorised person<sup>10</sup> who:

- 883 (a) enters into or continues to perform a relevant contract with an agent which does not comply with the applicable requirements<sup>11</sup>;
- 884 (b) enters into or continues to perform a relevant contract without accepting or having accepted responsibility in writing for the agent's activities in carrying on investment services business<sup>12</sup>;
- 885 (c) enters into a relevant contract with an agent who is not entered on the record maintained by the Financial Services Authority<sup>13</sup>; or
- 886 (d) continues to perform a relevant contract with an agent when he knows or ought to know that the agent is not entered on that record<sup>14</sup>, is to be taken for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to have contravened a requirement imposed on him by or under that Act<sup>15</sup>.

1    Ie the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A.

2    As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

3    For these purposes, 'relevant office' means (1) in relation to a body corporate, its registered office or, if it has no registered office, its head office; and (2) in relation to a person other than a body corporate, the person's head office: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(9) (s 39A added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

4    As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5    As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

6    As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5.

7    For these purposes, 'competent authority' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.22: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(9) (as added: see note 3).

8    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(1)(a) (as added: see note 3).

9    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(1)(b) (as added: see note 3).

A contract is a 'relevant contract' if it satisfies Conditions A to C: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(2) (as so added). Condition A is that the contract permits or requires the person mentioned in s 39A(1)(a) (see head (1) in the text) (the 'agent') to carry on investment services business: s 39A(3) (as so added). Condition B is that either (1) it is a condition of the contract that such business may only be carried on by the agent in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom; or (2) in a case not falling within head (1) above, the Financial Services Authority is satisfied that no such business is, or is likely to be, carried on by the agent in the United Kingdom: s 39A(4) (as so added). Condition C is that the business is of a description that, if carried on in the United Kingdom, would be prescribed for the purposes of s 39(1)(a)(i) (see PARA 346): s 39A(5) (as so added). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

A person carries on 'investment services business' if (a) his business includes providing services or carrying on activities of the kind mentioned in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.25; and (b) as a result of providing such services or carrying on such activities he is a tied agent: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(8) (as so added).

10 le an authorised person to whom the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A applies.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(6)(a) (as added: see note 3). The 'applicable requirements' are the requirements prescribed for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39(1)(a)(ii) (see PARA 346) which have effect in the case of a person to whom s 39(1A) (see PARA 346) applies: s 39A(7) (as so added).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(6)(b) (as added: see note 3).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 39A(6)(c) (as added: see note 3). The reference is to the record maintained by the Authority under s 347(1)(ha): see PARA 475.

A. APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION

348. Who may apply for permission.

An application for permission to carry on one or more regulated activities<sup>1</sup> may be made to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> by: (1) an individual<sup>3</sup>; (2) a body corporate<sup>4</sup>; (3) a partnership<sup>5</sup>; or (4) an unincorporated association<sup>6</sup>. A permission given by the Authority under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or having effect as if so given is referred to in the Act as a 'Part IV permission'<sup>7</sup>.

An authorised person<sup>8</sup> may not apply for permission<sup>9</sup> if he has a permission given to him by the Authority under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>10</sup>, or having effect as if so given, which is in force<sup>11</sup>. An EEA firm<sup>12</sup> may not apply for permission to carry on a regulated activity which it is, or would be, entitled to carry on in exercise of an EEA right<sup>13</sup>, whether through a United Kingdom<sup>14</sup> branch or by providing services in the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

349. Procedure for making applications.

An application for a Part IV permission<sup>1</sup> must:

- 887 (1) contain a statement of the regulated activity<sup>2</sup> or regulated activities which the applicant proposes to carry on and for which he wishes to have permission<sup>3</sup>; and
- 888 (2) give the address of a place in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> for service on the applicant of any notice or other document<sup>5</sup> which is required or authorised to be served on him under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>.

An application for the variation of a Part IV permission must contain a statement of the desired variation<sup>7</sup> and a statement of the regulated activity or regulated activities which the applicant proposes to carry on if his permission is varied<sup>8</sup>.

Any application under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup> must be made in such manner as the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup> may direct<sup>11</sup> and must contain, or be accompanied by, such other information as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>12</sup>.

At any time after receiving an application and before determining it, the Authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>13</sup>. Different directions may be given, and different requirements imposed, in relation to different applications or categories of application<sup>14</sup>. The Authority may require an applicant to provide information which he is required to provide<sup>15</sup> in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the Authority may direct<sup>16</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/A. APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION/350. Procedure for determining applications.

350. Procedure for determining applications.

An application under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> must be determined by the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it received the completed application<sup>3</sup>. The Authority may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so, and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it received the application<sup>4</sup>. The applicant may withdraw his application, by giving the Authority written notice, at any time before the Authority determines it<sup>5</sup>.

If the Authority grants an application for, or for variation of, a Part IV permission<sup>6</sup>, it must give the applicant written notice<sup>7</sup>. The notice must state the date from which the permission, or the variation, has effect<sup>8</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give a Part IV permission but to exercise its power to incorporate limitations in the description of the regulated activity<sup>9</sup> or its power to specify a narrower or wider description of the activity than that to which the application relates<sup>10</sup> or its power to include other requirements as it considers appropriate<sup>11</sup>, then it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>12</sup>. The same applies where it proposes to vary a Part IV permission and to exercise any of those powers<sup>13</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse an application made under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>14</sup> unless it appears to the Authority that: (1) the applicant is an EEA firm<sup>15</sup>; and (2) the application is made with a view to carrying on a regulated activity<sup>16</sup> in a manner in which the applicant is, or would be, entitled to carry on that activity in the exercise of an EEA right<sup>17</sup> whether through a United Kingdom<sup>18</sup> branch or by providing services in the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup>.

If the Authority decides to give a Part IV permission but to exercise its power to incorporate limitations in the description of the regulated activity<sup>20</sup> or its power to specify a narrower or wider description of the activity than that to which the application relates<sup>21</sup> or its power to include other requirements as it considers appropriate<sup>22</sup>, then it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>23</sup>. The same applies where it proposes to vary a Part IV permission and to exercise any of those powers or to refuse an application for permission<sup>24</sup>.

EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/A. APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION/351. The threshold conditions.

351. The threshold conditions.

In giving or varying permission, or imposing or varying any requirement, under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must ensure that the person concerned will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions in relation to all of the regulated activities<sup>3</sup> for which he has or will have permission<sup>4</sup>. The threshold conditions concern: (1) legal status<sup>5</sup>; (2) location of offices and appointment of claims representatives<sup>6</sup>; (3) close links<sup>7</sup>; (4) adequate resources<sup>8</sup>; and (5) suitability<sup>9</sup>. There are possible additional specified conditions for certain persons<sup>10</sup> and provisions on how the threshold conditions apply to those with EEA passport rights<sup>11</sup> and treaty rights<sup>12</sup>.

The legal status threshold conditions are as follows. If the regulated activity concerned is the effecting or carrying out of contracts of insurance<sup>13</sup>, the authorised person<sup>14</sup> must be a body corporate<sup>15</sup> (other than a limited liability partnership<sup>16</sup>), a registered friendly society<sup>17</sup> or a member of Lloyd's<sup>18</sup>. If the person concerned appears to the Authority to be seeking to carry on, or to be carrying on, a regulated activity constituting accepting deposits or issuing electronic money<sup>19</sup>, it must be<sup>20</sup> a body corporate<sup>21</sup> or a partnership<sup>22</sup>.

The threshold conditions relating to the location of offices are as follows. If the person concerned is a body corporate constituted under the law of any part of the United Kingdom<sup>23</sup> its head office<sup>24</sup>, and if it has a registered office, that office<sup>25</sup>, must be in the United Kingdom<sup>26</sup>. If the person concerned has its head office in the United Kingdom but is not a body corporate, it must carry on business in the United Kingdom<sup>27</sup>. If it appears to the Authority that the regulated activity that the person concerned is carrying on, or is seeking to carry on, is the effecting or carrying out of contracts of insurance<sup>28</sup>, and contracts of insurance against damage arising out of or in connection with the use of motor vehicles on land (other than carrier's liability) are being, or will be, effected or carried out by the person concerned<sup>29</sup>, that person must have a claims representative<sup>30</sup> in each EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>31</sup>.

The close links threshold condition is as follows. If the person concerned ('A') has close links with another person ('CL')<sup>32</sup>, the Authority must be satisfied:

- 889 (a) that those links are not likely to prevent the Authority's effective supervision of A<sup>33</sup>; and
- 890 (b) if it appears to the Authority that CL is subject to the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a territory which is not an EEA state (the 'foreign provisions')<sup>34</sup>, that neither the foreign provisions, nor any deficiency in their enforcement, would prevent the Authority's effective supervision of A<sup>35</sup>.

The threshold condition relating to adequacy of resources is as follows. The resources of the person concerned must, in the opinion of the Authority, be adequate in relation to the regulated activities that he seeks to carry on, or carries on<sup>36</sup>. In reaching that opinion, the Authority may take into account the person's membership of a group<sup>37</sup> and any effect which that membership may have<sup>38</sup> and may have regard to the provision he makes and, if he is a member of a group, which other members of the group make in respect of liabilities (including contingent and future liabilities)<sup>39</sup> and the means by which he manages and, if he is a member of a group, which other members of the group manage the incidence of risk in connection with his business<sup>40</sup>.

The threshold condition on suitability requires that the person concerned must satisfy the Authority that he is a fit and proper person having regard to all the circumstances, including his connection with any person<sup>41</sup>, the nature of any regulated activity that he carries on or seeks to carry on<sup>42</sup> and the need to ensure that his affairs are conducted soundly and prudently<sup>43</sup>.

In relation to an EEA firm<sup>44</sup> qualifying for authorisation<sup>45</sup>, the threshold conditions on legal status, close links, adequate resources and suitability<sup>46</sup> apply, so far as relevant, to an application for permission under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>47</sup> and to the exercise of the Authority's own-initiative power<sup>48</sup> in relation to a Part IV permission<sup>49</sup>. In relation to a person who qualifies for authorisation as a treaty firm<sup>50</sup>, the threshold conditions on legal status, close links, adequate resources and suitability<sup>51</sup> apply, so far as relevant, to an application for an additional permission<sup>52</sup>, and to the exercise of the Authority's own-initiative power<sup>53</sup> in relation to additional permission<sup>54</sup>.

Where a person has his head office outside the EEA<sup>55</sup> and appears to the Authority to be seeking to carry on a regulated activity relating to insurance business<sup>56</sup>, he must, for the purposes of such provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as may be specified in an order made by the Treasury<sup>57</sup>, satisfy specified additional conditions<sup>58</sup>. Those additional conditions are as follows:

- 891 (i) the person must have a representative who is resident in the United Kingdom and who has authority to bind it in its relations with third parties and to represent it in its relations with the Authority and the courts in the United Kingdom<sup>59</sup>;
- 892 (ii) if the person concerned is not a Swiss general insurance company: (A) it must be a body corporate entitled under the law of the place where its head office is situated to effect and carry out contracts of insurance<sup>60</sup>; (B) it must have in the United Kingdom<sup>61</sup> assets of such value as may be specified in the rules<sup>62</sup>; (C) unless the regulated activity in question relates solely to reinsurance, it must have made a deposit (of money or securities, as may be specified) of such an amount and with such a person as may be specified in the rules<sup>63</sup>, and on such terms and subject to such other provisions as may be specified in the rules<sup>64</sup>.

The Treasury may by order vary or remove any of the threshold conditions set out above<sup>65</sup> or may add to those conditions<sup>66</sup>.

- 12 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 7. Treaty rights are under Sch 4: see PARA 319.
- 13 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 references to contracts of insurance are to be read with s 22, Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 424(1)(a). The law applicable to a contract of insurance, the effecting of which constitutes the carrying on of a regulated activity, is to be determined, if it is of a prescribed description, in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury: s 424(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). In exercise of this power the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Law Applicable to Contracts of Insurance) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2635 (amended by SI 2001/3542) (see CONFLICT OF LAWS); and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Motor Insurance) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2403. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.
- 14 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.
- 15 As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.
- 16 As to limited liability partnerships see PARTNERSHIP vol 79 (2008) PARA 234 et seq.
- 17 'Registered friendly society' means a society which is: (1) a friendly society within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1974 s 7(1)(a) (see PARA 2096); and (2) registered within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1974: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1).
- 18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 1(1) (amended by SI 2001/2507). As to Lloyd's generally see INSURANCE.
- 19 As to accepting deposits see PARA 89. As to issuing electronic money see PARA 96.
- 20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 1(2) (amended by SI 2002/682).
- 21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 1(2)(a).
- 22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 1(2)(b). As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11.
- 23 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.
- 24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(1)(a). See note 26.
- 25 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(1)(b). See note 26.
- 26 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(1) (amended by SI 2003/682; SI 2007/126). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(1) is subject to Sch 6 para 2(2A), (3). If (1) the regulated activity concerned is any of the investment services and activities; and (2) the person concerned is a body corporate with no registered office, Sch 6 para 2(2B) applies in place of Sch 6 para 2(1): Sch 6 para 2(2A) (Sch 6 para 2(2A), (2B) added by SI 2007/126). If the person concerned has its head office in the United Kingdom, it must carry on business in the United Kingdom: Sch 6 para 2(2B) (as so added).
- Schedule 6 para 2(1) also does not apply if the regulated activity concerned is an insurance mediation activity: Sch 6 para 2(3) (Sch 6 para 2(3)-(6) added by SI 2003/1476). 'Insurance mediation activity' means any of the following activities: (a) dealing in rights under a contract of insurance as agent; (b) arranging deals in rights under a contract of insurance; (c) assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance; (d) advising on buying or selling rights under a contract of insurance; (e) agreeing to do any of the activities specified in heads (a)-(d) above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(5) (as so added). Sch 6 para 2(5) must be read with s 22, any relevant order under that provision and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): Sch 6 para 2(6) (as so added). If the regulated activity concerned is an insurance mediation activity, the person concerned (i) if it is a body corporate constituted under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, must have its registered office, or if it has no registered office, its head office, in the United Kingdom; (ii) if a natural person, is to be treated for the purposes of Sch 6 para 2(2) (see the text to note 27), as having his head office in the United Kingdom if his residence is situated there: Sch 6 para 2(4) (as so added). As to certain applicants who have applied for an interim permission or interim approval under Pt IV see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Transitional Provisions) (General Insurance Intermediaries) Order 2004, SI 2004/3351.
- 27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2(2). See also note 26.

28 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2A(1)(a) (Sch 6 para 2A added by SI 2002/2707).

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2A(1)(b) (as added: see note 27). For these purposes contracts of reinsurance are to be disregarded: Sch 6 para 2A(2) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'reinsurance' see PARA 591 note 8.

30 A claims representative is a person with responsibility for handling and settling claims arising from accidents of the kind mentioned in the Fourth Motor Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2000/26 (OJ L181, 20.7.2000, p 65) on the approximation of the laws of the member states relating to insurance against civil liability in respect of the use of motor vehicles and amending Council Directives 73/239 and 88/357) art 1(2): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2A(3) (as added: see note 28).

31 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 2A(1) (as added: see note 28).

32 A has close links with CL if:

440 (1) CL is a parent undertaking of A (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 3(2)(a));

441 (2) CL is a subsidiary undertaking of A (Sch 6 para 3(2)(b));

442 (3) CL is a parent undertaking of a subsidiary undertaking of A (Sch 6 para 3(2)(c));

443 (4) CL is a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of A (Sch 6 para 3(2)(d));

444 (5) CL owns or controls 20% or more of the voting rights or capital of A (Sch 6 para 3(2)(e)); or 445 (6) A owns or controls 20% or more of the voting rights or capital of CL (Sch 6 para 3(2)(f)).

'Subsidiary undertaking' includes all the instances mentioned in the Seventh Company Law Directive (ie EC Council Directive 83/349 (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) based on the Article 54(3)(g) of the Treaty on consolidated accounts) art 1(1), (2) in which an entity may be a subsidiary of an undertaking: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 3(3).

In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, except in relation to an incorporated friendly society, 'parent undertaking' and 'subsidiary undertaking' have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see the Companies Act 2006 s 1162, Sch 7; and COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARAS 26, 27): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 420(1) (amended by SI 2008/948). 'Incorporated friendly society' means a society incorporated under the Friendly Societies Act 1992: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1). However, 'parent undertaking' also includes an individual who would be a parent undertaking for the purposes of those provisions if he were taken to be an undertaking (and 'subsidiary undertaking' is to be read accordingly) (s 420(2)(a)); 'subsidiary undertaking' also includes, in relation to a body incorporated in or formed under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom, an undertaking which is a subsidiary undertaking within the meaning of any rule of law in force in that state for purposes connected with implementation of EC Council Directive 83/349 (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) (and 'parent undertaking' is to be read accordingly) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 420(2)(b)). In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 'subsidiary undertaking', in relation to an incorporated friendly society, means a body corporate of which the society has control within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1992 s 13(9)(a) or s 13(9)(aa) (see PARA 2134) (and 'parent undertaking' is to be read accordingly): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 420(3).

33 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 3(1)(a).

34 As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

35 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 3(1)(b).

36 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 4(1). The threshold conditions set out in Sch 6 paras 4, 5 (adequate resources; suitability) are removed in relation to a Swiss general insurance company: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, art 3(3) (substituted by SI 2005/680). 'Swiss general insurance company' means a person: (1) whose head office is in Switzerland; (2) who is authorised by the supervisory authority in Switzerland as mentioned in the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Swiss Confederation on direct insurance other than life insurance, signed at Luxembourg on 10 October 1989, art 7.1; (3) who is seeking to carry on, or is carrying on, from a branch in the United Kingdom, a regulated activity consisting of the effecting or carrying out of contracts of insurance of a kind which is subject to that Agreement: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, art 1(2). 'Supervisory authority' means an authority responsible for supervising carrying on insurance business: art 1(2).

37 'Group', in relation to a person ('A'), means A and any person who is: (1) a parent undertaking of A; (2) a subsidiary undertaking of A; (3) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of A; (4) a parent undertaking of a subsidiary undertaking of A; (5) an undertaking in which A or an undertaking mentioned in heads (1), (2), (3) or (4) above has a participating interest; (6) if A or an undertaking mentioned in heads (1) or (4) above is a building society, an associated undertaking of the society; or (7) if A or an undertaking mentioned in heads (1) or (4) above is an incorporated friendly society, a body corporate of which the society has joint control (within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1992 s 13(9)(c) or s 13(9)(cc) (see PARA 2134)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 421(1). 'Participating interest' has the meaning in s 421A: s 421(2) (s 421(2) amended and s 421A added by SI 2008/948). In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 421 a 'participating interest' means an interest held by an undertaking in the shares of another undertaking which it holds on a long-term basis for the purpose of securing a contribution to its activities by the exercise of control or influence arising from or related to that interest: s 421A(1) (as so added). A holding of 20% or more of the shares of an undertaking is presumed to be a participating interest unless the contrary is shown: s 421A(2) (as so added). The reference in s 421A(1) to an interest in shares includes: (a) an interest which is convertible into an interest in shares, and (b) an option to acquire shares or any such interest; and an interest or option falls within head (a) or (b) above notwithstanding that the shares to which it relates are, until the conversion or the exercise of the option, unissued: s 421A(3) (as so added). For the purposes of s 421A an interest held on behalf of an undertaking is to be treated as held by it: s 421A(4) (as so added). In s 421A 'undertaking' has the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see the Companies Act 2006 s 1161(1); and COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARAS 26, 27): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 421A(5) (as so added). 'Associated undertaking' has the meaning given in the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119(1) (see PARA 1916): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 421(3).

38 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 4(2)(a). See note 36.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 1(1) (see note 18), and provides that the conditions set out in Sch 6 paras 4, 5 do not apply to Swiss general insurance companies (see note 36).

66 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 6 para 9(b). A Swiss general insurance company must, for the purposes of s 41 and Sch 6, satisfy the following additional conditions:

- 446 (1) the value of the assets of the business carried on by it in the United Kingdom must not fall below the amount of the liabilities of that business, that value and amount being determined in such manner as may be specified in rules (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, reg 4(1)(a), (2) (reg 4 added by SI 2005/680));
- 447 (2) such assets must be maintained in such places as may be specified in rules and must be of such a nature as may be specified as being appropriate in relation to the currency in which the liabilities of the company are or may be required to be met (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, reg 4(1)(b), (2) (as so added)); and
- 448 (3) when applying to the Authority for permission to carry on a regulated activity it must submit to the Authority a statement from the supervisory authorities in Switzerland (a) stating the classes of insurance business which the company is authorised to carry on in Switzerland; (b) specifying the risks covered there; (c) declaring that the company is constituted in Switzerland in a form permitted by the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Swiss Confederation on direct insurance other than life insurance, signed at Luxembourg on 10 October 1989, Annex 3; (d) confirming that the company limits its business activities to insurance and to operations directly arising therefrom to the exclusion of all other commercial business; and (e) declaring that the company has the required solvency margin or minimum guarantee fund (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Variation of Threshold Conditions) Order 2001, SI 2001/2507, reg 4(1)(c) (as so added)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/B. GRANT OF PERMISSION/352. Giving permission.

B. GRANT OF PERMISSION

352. Giving permission.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may give permission for the applicant<sup>2</sup> to carry on the regulated activity<sup>3</sup> or activities to which his application relates or such of them as may be specified in the permission<sup>4</sup>.

If the applicant in relation to a particular regulated activity is exempt from the general prohibition as a result of the provisions relating to appointed representatives or of an exemption order<sup>5</sup>, but has applied for permission in relation to another regulated activity<sup>6</sup>, the application is to be treated as relating to all the regulated activities which, if permission is given, he will carry on<sup>7</sup>. If the applicant in relation to a particular regulated activity is exempt from the general prohibition as a result of the provisions relating to exemptions for recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses<sup>8</sup>, but has applied for permission in relation to another regulated activity<sup>9</sup>, the application is to be treated as relating only to that other regulated activity<sup>10</sup>. If the applicant is a person to whom, in relation to a particular regulated activity, the general prohibition does not apply<sup>11</sup>, but who has applied for permission in relation to another regulated activity<sup>12</sup>, the application is to be treated as relating only to that other regulated activity<sup>13</sup>.

If it gives permission, the Authority must specify the permitted regulated activity or activities, described in such manner as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>14</sup>. The Authority may:

- 893 (1) incorporate in the description of a regulated activity such limitations (for example as to circumstances in which the activity may, or may not, be carried on) as it considers appropriate<sup>15</sup>;
- 894 (2) specify a narrower or wider description of regulated activity than that to which the application relates<sup>16</sup>;
- 895 (3) give permission for the carrying on of a regulated activity which is not included among those to which the application relates<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 'Applicant' means an applicant for permission under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 40 (see PARA 348): s 42(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/B. GRANT OF PERMISSION/353. Imposition of requirements.

353. Imposition of requirements.

A Part IV permission<sup>1</sup> may include such requirements as the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> considers appropriate<sup>3</sup>. A requirement may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the person concerned to take specified action<sup>4</sup>, or so as to require him to refrain from taking specified action<sup>5</sup>. A requirement may extend to activities which are not regulated activities<sup>6</sup>. A requirement may be imposed by reference to the person's relationship with his group<sup>7</sup>, or other members of his group<sup>8</sup>.

Any requirement imposed by the Authority expires at the end of such period as the Authority may specify in the permission<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 43(1). When giving a person a Part IV permission the Authority may impose an assets requirement: see PARA 359.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 43(5). However s 43(5) does not affect the Authority's powers under s 44 (variation and cancellation of permission at request of authorised person) (see PARA 354) or s 45 (variation and cancellation of permission on the Authority's own initiative) (see PARA 355): s 43(6).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION/354. Variation, refusal or cancellation at request of authorised person.

C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION

354. Variation, refusal or cancellation at request of authorised person.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, on the application of an authorised person<sup>2</sup> with a Part IV permission<sup>3</sup>, vary the permission by:

- 896 (1) adding a regulated activity<sup>4</sup> to those for which it gives permission<sup>5</sup>;
- 897 (2) removing a regulated activity from those for which it gives permission<sup>6</sup>;
- 898 (3) varying the description of a regulated activity for which it gives permission<sup>7</sup>;
- 899 (4) cancelling a requirement previously imposed by the Authority<sup>8</sup>; or
- 900 (5) varying a requirement<sup>9</sup>.

The Authority's power to vary a Part IV permission extends to including any provision in the permission as varied that could be included if a fresh permission were being given in response to an application<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority may, on the application of an authorised person with a Part IV permission, cancel the permission<sup>11</sup>. The Authority may refuse an application<sup>12</sup> if it appears to it that the interests of consumers, or potential consumers, would be adversely affected if the application were to be granted<sup>13</sup>; and that it is desirable in the interests of consumers, or potential consumers, for the application to be refused<sup>14</sup>. If, as a result of a variation of a Part IV permission, there are no longer any regulated activities for which the authorised person concerned has permission, the Authority must, once it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to keep the permission in force, cancel it<sup>15</sup>.

If an authorised person's Part IV permission is cancelled<sup>16</sup>, and as a result, there is no regulated activity for which he has permission<sup>17</sup>, the Authority must give a direction withdrawing that person's status as an authorised person<sup>18</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION/355. Variation or cancellation on the Financial Services Authority's own initiative.

355. Variation or cancellation on the Financial Services Authority's own initiative.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may exercise its power to vary or cancel a Part IV permission<sup>2</sup> in relation to an authorised person<sup>3</sup> if it appears to it that:

- 901 (1) he is failing, or is likely to fail, to satisfy the threshold conditions<sup>4</sup>;
- 902 (2) he has failed, during a period of at least 12 months, to carry on a regulated activity<sup>5</sup> for which he has a Part IV permission<sup>6</sup>; or
- 903 (3) it is desirable to exercise that power in order to protect the interests of consumers or potential consumers<sup>7</sup>.

Without prejudice to the generality of the above<sup>8</sup>, the Authority may, in relation to an authorised person who is an investment firm<sup>9</sup>, exercise its power<sup>10</sup> to cancel the Part IV permission of the firm if it appears to it that:

- 904 (a) the firm has failed, during a period of at least six months, to carry on a regulated activity which is an investment service or activity<sup>11</sup> for which it has a Part IV permission<sup>12</sup>;
- 905 (b) the firm obtained the Part IV permission by making a false statement or by other irregular means<sup>13</sup>;
- 906 (c) the firm no longer satisfies the requirements for authorisation pursuant to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive or pursuant to or contained in any related Community legislation<sup>14</sup>, in relation to a regulated activity which is an investment service or activity for which it has a Part IV permission<sup>15</sup>; or
- 907 (d) the firm has seriously and systematically infringed the operating conditions pursuant to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive or pursuant to or contained in any related Community legislation<sup>16</sup> in relation to a regulated activity which is an investment service or activity for which it has a Part IV permission<sup>17</sup>.

This power<sup>18</sup> is referred to as the Authority's own-initiative power<sup>19</sup>. If, as a result of a variation of a Part IV permission, there are no longer any regulated activities for which the authorised person concerned has permission, the Authority must, once it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary to keep the permission in force, cancel it<sup>20</sup>. The Authority's power to vary a Part IV permission extends to including any provision in the permission as varied that could be included if a fresh permission were being given in response to an application<sup>21</sup>.

If the Authority is considering whether, and if so how, to exercise its own-initiative power in relation to an additional Part IV permission<sup>22</sup>, it must take into account:

- 908 (i) the home state authorisation<sup>23</sup> of the authorised person concerned<sup>24</sup>;
- 909 (ii) any relevant Directive<sup>25</sup>; and
- 910 (iii) relevant provisions of the EC Treaty<sup>26</sup>.

UPDATE

355 Variation or cancellation on the Financial Services Authority's own initiative

TEXT AND NOTE 7--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 45(1)(c) amended: Banking Act 2009 s 248.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION/356. Exercise of the Financial Services Authority's own-initiative power in support of overseas regulator.

356. Exercise of the Financial Services Authority's own-initiative power in support of overseas regulator.

The Financial Services Authority's<sup>1</sup> own-initiative power<sup>2</sup> may be exercised in respect of an authorised person<sup>3</sup> at the request of, or for the purpose of assisting, a regulator who is outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> and who is of a prescribed kind<sup>5</sup>.

If a request to the Authority for the exercise of its own-initiative power has been made by a regulator who is: (1) outside the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup>; (2) of a prescribed kind<sup>7</sup>; and (3) acting in pursuance of provisions of a prescribed kind<sup>8</sup>, the Authority must, in deciding whether or not to exercise that power in response to the request, consider whether it is necessary to do so in order to comply with a Community obligation<sup>9</sup>.

In deciding in any case in which the Authority does not consider that the exercise of its own-initiative power is necessary in order to comply with a Community obligation, it may take into account in particular:

- 911 (a) whether in the country or territory of the regulator concerned, corresponding assistance would be given to a United Kingdom regulatory authority<sup>10</sup>;
- 912 (b) whether the case concerns the breach of a law, or other requirement, which has no close parallel in the United Kingdom or involves the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>;
- 913 (c) the seriousness of the case and its importance to persons in the United Kingdom<sup>12</sup>;
- 914 (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to give the assistance sought<sup>13</sup>.

The Authority may decide not to exercise its own-initiative power, in response to a request<sup>14</sup>, unless the regulator concerned undertakes to make such contribution towards the cost of its exercise as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

3 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(1)(a). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(1) applies whether or not the Authority has powers which are exercisable in relation to the authorised person by virtue of any provision of Pt XIII (ss 193-204) (see PARA 456 et seq): s 47(2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(1)(b). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). In exercise of the power under s 47(1), (3) (and also ss 417(1), 428(3)) (see notes 7-8) the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, which prescribe the following kinds of regulator, namely a regulator who exercises:

449 (1) a function corresponding to any function of the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 2(1), (2)(a));

450 (2) a function corresponding to any function exercised by the competent authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) (official listing) (see PARA 385 et seq) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 2(1), (2)(b));

451 (3) a function corresponding to any function exercised by the Secretary of State under the Companies Act 1985 (see COMPANIES) (as to replacement provisions see also the Companies Act 2006) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 2(1), (2)(c)); or

452 (4) a function in connection with:

63. (a) the investigation of conduct of the kind prohibited by the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64) (insider dealing) (see PARA 574A et seq) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 2(1), (2)(d)(i)); or
63

64. (b) the enforcement of rules (whether or not having the force of law) relating to such conduct (reg 2(1), (2)(d)(ii)).
64

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(3)(a).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(3)(b). The following kinds of regulator are prescribed for the purposes of s 47(3)(b): (1) any host state regulator (within the meaning of Sch 3) (see PARA 323 note 10) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 3(2)(a)); and (2) the supervisory authority in Switzerland (within the meaning of the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Swiss Confederation on direct insurance other than life assurance, signed at Luxembourg on 10 October 1989) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 3(2)(b)).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(3)(c). The following provisions are prescribed for the purposes of s 47(3)(c):

453 (1) in the case of a regulator to whom the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Own-initiative Power) (Overseas Regulators) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2639, reg 3(2)(a) (see note 7) applies: (a) any provision of Community legislation (reg 3(3)(a)(i)); and (b) any rule of law in force in an EEA state for purposes connected with the implementation of any such provision (reg 3(3)(a)(ii));

454 (2) in the case of a regulator to whom reg 3(2)(b) (see note 7) applies: (a) any provision of the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Swiss Confederation on direct insurance other than life assurance, signed at Luxembourg on 10 October 1989 (reg 3(3)(b)(i)); and (b) any rule of law in force in Switzerland for purposes connected with the implementation of any such provision (reg 3(3)(b)(ii)).

14 'Request' means a request of a kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(1) (see the text to notes 1-5): s 47(7).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 47(5). Section 47(5) does not apply if the Authority decides that it is necessary for it to exercise its own-initiative power in order to comply with a Community obligation: s 47(6).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION/357. Procedure for the exercise of the Financial Services Authority's own-initiative power.

357. Procedure for the exercise of the Financial Services Authority's own-initiative power.

Where the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> exercises its own-initiative power<sup>2</sup> to vary an authorised person's<sup>3</sup> Part IV permission<sup>4</sup>, such variation takes effect:

915 (1) immediately, if a notice<sup>5</sup> states that that is the case<sup>6</sup>;

916 (2) on such date as may be specified in the notice<sup>7</sup>; or

917 (3) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review<sup>8</sup>.

A variation may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Authority, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its own-initiative power, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the variation to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>9</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to vary the Part IV permission, or varies it with immediate effect, it must give the authorised person written notice<sup>10</sup>. The notice must:

- 918 (a) give details of the variation<sup>11</sup>;
- 919 (b) state the Authority's reasons for the variation and for its determination as to when the variation takes effect<sup>12</sup>;
- 920 (c) inform the authorised person that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>13</sup>;
- 921 (d) inform him of when the variation takes effect<sup>14</sup>; and
- 922 (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>15</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by the authorised person, the Authority decides to vary the permission in the way proposed<sup>16</sup>, or, if the permission has been varied, it decides not to rescind the variation<sup>17</sup>, it must give him written notice<sup>18</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by the authorised person, the Authority decides not to vary the permission in the way proposed<sup>19</sup>, or decides to vary the permission in a different way<sup>20</sup>, or decides to rescind a variation which has effect<sup>21</sup>, it must give him written notice<sup>22</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to cancel<sup>23</sup> an authorised person's Part IV permission otherwise than at his request, it must give him a warning notice<sup>24</sup>. If the Authority decides to cancel an authorised person's Part IV permission otherwise than at his request, it must give him a decision notice<sup>25</sup>.

358. Variation of permission on acquisition of control.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that a person has acquired control<sup>2</sup> over a UK authorised person<sup>3</sup> who has a Part IV permission<sup>4</sup> but there are no grounds for exercising its own-initiative power<sup>5</sup>, then if it appears to the Authority that the likely effect of the acquisition of control on the authorised person, or on any of its activities, is uncertain the Authority may vary the authorised person's permission by imposing a requirement<sup>6</sup> or by varying a requirement included in the authorised person's permission<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 Any reference to a person having acquired control is to be read in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XII (ss 178-192) (see PARA 377 et seq): s 46(3).

3 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XII (ss 178-192), 'UK authorised person' means an authorised person who: (1) is a body incorporated in, or an unincorporated association formed under the law of, any part of the United Kingdom; and (2) is not a person authorised as a result of s 36, Sch 5 para 1 (see PARAS 321, 322): ss 178(4), 417(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iii) Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities/C. VARIATION, REFUSAL AND CANCELLATION OF PERMISSION/359. Prohibitions and restrictions which may be imposed by the Financial Services Authority.

359. Prohibitions and restrictions which may be imposed by the Financial Services Authority.

An 'assets requirement' is a requirement<sup>1</sup>: (1) prohibiting the disposal of, or other dealing with, any of A's<sup>2</sup> assets (whether in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> or elsewhere) or restricting such disposals or dealings<sup>4</sup>; or (2) that all or any of A's assets, or all or any assets belonging to consumers but held by A or to his order, must be transferred to and held by a trustee approved by the Authority<sup>5</sup>. If the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>, on giving a person a Part IV permission<sup>7</sup>, imposes an assets requirement on him<sup>8</sup> or varies an authorised person's<sup>9</sup> Part IV permission so as to alter an assets requirement imposed on him or impose such a requirement on him<sup>10</sup> then the following provision is made.

If the Authority imposes a requirement of the kind referred to in head (1) above<sup>11</sup>, and gives notice of the requirement to any institution with whom A keeps an account<sup>12</sup>, the notice has the following effects<sup>13</sup>. The institution does not act in breach of any contract with A if, having been instructed by A (or on his behalf) to transfer any sum or otherwise make any payment out of A's account, it refuses to do so in the reasonably held belief that complying with the instruction would be incompatible with the requirement<sup>14</sup>. If the institution complies with such an instruction, it is liable to pay to the Authority an amount equal to the amount transferred from, or otherwise paid out of, A's account in contravention of the requirement<sup>15</sup>.

If the Authority imposes a requirement of the kind referred to in head (2) above, no assets held by a person as trustee in accordance with the requirement may, while the requirement is in force, be released or dealt with except with the consent of the Authority<sup>16</sup>. If, while a requirement of the kind referred to in head (2) above is in force, A creates a charge<sup>17</sup> over any assets of his held in accordance with the requirement, the charge is (to the extent that it confers security over the assets) void against the liquidator and any of A's creditors<sup>18</sup>.

Assets held by a person as trustee ('T') are to be taken to be held by T in accordance with a requirement referred to in head (2) above only if: (a) A has given T written notice that those assets are to be held by T in accordance with the requirement<sup>19</sup>; or (b) they are assets into which assets to which head (a) above applies have been transposed by T on the instructions of A<sup>20</sup>.

1 le under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 43: see PARA 353.

2 A person on whom an assets requirement is imposed is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 48 as 'A': s 48(2).

In considering an application for a Part IV permission<sup>1</sup>, or whether to vary or cancel a Part IV permission<sup>2</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may have regard to any person appearing to it to be, or likely to be, in a relationship with the applicant or person given permission which is relevant<sup>4</sup>.

Before (1) giving permission in response to an application made by a person who is connected with an EEA firm other than an EEA firm which is an insurance or reinsurance intermediary<sup>5</sup>; or (2) varying any permission given by the Authority to such a person, where the effect of the variation is to grant permission for the purposes of a Single Market Directive<sup>6</sup> other than the one for the purposes of which the existing permission was granted<sup>7</sup>, the Authority must consult the firm's home state regulator<sup>8</sup>. A person ('A') is connected with an EEA firm if A is a subsidiary undertaking<sup>9</sup> of the firm<sup>10</sup> or if A is a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking<sup>11</sup> of the firm<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(iv) Conduct of Business/363. Conduct of business.

(iv) Conduct of Business

363. Conduct of business.

Once authorised<sup>1</sup> and permitted to carry on regulated activities<sup>2</sup>, there must also in regard to conduct of business be compliance with the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance<sup>3</sup>.

The relevant sourcebook of the Handbook<sup>4</sup> has been reissued in light of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>5</sup> and applies to a firm with respect to the following activities carried on from an establishment maintained by it, or its appointed representative, in the United Kingdom: (1) accepting deposits; (2) designated investment business; (3) long-term insurance business in relation to life policies; and activities connected with them<sup>6</sup>. While for full details reference should be made to the Handbook in general and the above sourcebook in particular, highlighted briefly below are relevant matters of importance.

Client classification is of fundamental significance as there are different levels of regulatory protection according to whether a person is a client, a retail client, a professional client or an eligible counterparty<sup>7</sup>, with retail clients enjoying the highest level of protection as it is assumed that they have no specialist investment knowledge.

Another significant matter is price transparency and the Directive has requirements implemented in the Handbook that certain reasonable pricing information be made public and continue to be made public both before and after shares are admitted to trading<sup>8</sup>.

There are also important rules as to best execution. These require (subject to specific client instructions) that investment firms take all reasonable steps to obtain, when executing orders, the best possible result for their clients taking into account price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature or any other consideration relevant to the execution of the order<sup>9</sup>.

The last subject to be highlighted is conflicts of interest. Generally investment firms must take all reasonable steps to identify conflicts of interest between themselves, including their managers, employees and tied agents, or any person directly or indirectly linked to them by control and their clients or between one client and another that arise in the course of providing any investment and ancillary services, or combinations of such services<sup>10</sup>.

Power of the Financial Services Authority to make prohibition orders.

(v) Performance

A. PROHIBITION ORDERS

364. Power of the Financial Services Authority to make prohibition orders.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> carried on by an authorised person<sup>3</sup>, the Authority may make an order (a 'prohibition order') prohibiting the individual from performing a specified<sup>4</sup> function, any function falling within a specified description or any function<sup>5</sup>.

A prohibition order may relate to: (1) a specified regulated activity, any regulated activity falling within a specified description or all regulated activities<sup>6</sup>; (2) authorised persons generally or any person within a specified class of authorised person<sup>7</sup>.

An individual who performs or agrees to perform a function in breach of a prohibition order is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

An authorised person must take reasonable care to ensure that no function of his, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity, is performed by a person who is prohibited from performing that function by a prohibition order<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may, on the application of the individual named in a prohibition order, vary or revoke it<sup>10</sup>.

The provisions described above apply to the performance of functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by: (a) a person who is an exempt person<sup>11</sup> in relation to that activity<sup>12</sup>; and (b) a person to whom<sup>13</sup> the general prohibition<sup>14</sup> does not apply in relation to that activity<sup>15</sup>, as they apply to the performance of functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by an authorised person<sup>16</sup>.

365. Procedure for making prohibition orders.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> proposes to make a prohibition order<sup>2</sup> it must give the individual concerned a warning notice<sup>3</sup>. The warning notice must set out the terms of the prohibition<sup>4</sup>.

If the Authority decides to make a prohibition order it must give the individual concerned a decision notice<sup>5</sup>. The decision notice must: (1) name the individual to whom the prohibition order applies<sup>6</sup>; (2) set out the terms of the order<sup>7</sup>; and (3) be given to the individual named in the order<sup>8</sup>.

A person against whom a decision to make a prohibition order is made may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>9</sup>.

366. Applications to vary or revoke prohibition orders.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, on the application of the individual named in a prohibition order, vary or revoke it<sup>2</sup>. Where such an application is made the Authority must respond as follows<sup>3</sup>.

If the Authority decides to grant the application, it must give the applicant written notice of its decision<sup>4</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>6</sup>.

If the Authority gives the applicant a decision notice, he may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/B. APPROVAL/367. Approval for particular arrangements.

B. APPROVAL

367. Approval for particular arrangements.

An authorised person<sup>1</sup> ('A') must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function<sup>2</sup> under an arrangement<sup>3</sup> entered into by A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless the Financial Services Authority approves the performance by that person of the controlled function to which the arrangement relates<sup>4</sup>.

Similarly, A must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by a contractor of A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless the Authority approves the performance by that person of the controlled function to which the arrangement relates<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 'Controlled function' means a function of a description specified in rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59(3). As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2. A 'controlled function' will usually have a particular significance in the context of the firm's regulated activities. A list of controlled functions is contained in the Financial Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 10. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

The Authority may specify a description of function under s 59(3) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person, it is satisfied that the first, second or third condition is met: s 59(4). The first condition is that the function is likely to enable the person responsible for its performance to exercise a significant influence on the conduct of the authorised person's affairs, so far as relating to the regulated activity: s 59(5). In determining whether the first condition is met, the Authority may take into account the likely consequences of a failure to discharge that function properly: s 59(9). The second condition is that the function will involve the person performing it in dealing with customers of the authorised person in a manner substantially connected with the carrying on of the regulated activity: s 59(6). 'Customer', in relation to an authorised person, means a person who is using, or who is or may be contemplating using, any of the services provided by the authorised person: s 59(11). The third condition is that the function will involve the person performing it in dealing with property of customers of the authorised person in a manner substantially connected with the carrying on of the regulated activity: s 59(7).

As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Authorisation Manual (AUTH), Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 10.

3 'Arrangement' means any kind of arrangement for the performance of a function of A which is entered into by A or any contractor of his with another person; and includes, in particular, that other person's appointment to an office, his becoming a partner or his employment (whether under a contract of service or otherwise): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59(10).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59(1). Neither s 59(1) nor s 59(2) applies to an arrangement which allows a person to perform a function if the question of whether he is a fit and proper person to perform the function is reserved under any of the Single Market Directives to an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59(8). As to the meaning of 'Single Market Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. Contravention of s 59(1) or s 59(2) is actionable at the suit of a private person: see s 71; and PARA 376.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 59(2). See note 4.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/B. APPROVAL/368. Applications for approval.

368. Applications for approval.

An application for the Financial Services Authority's<sup>1</sup> approval<sup>2</sup> may be made by the authorised person concerned<sup>3</sup>. The application must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct<sup>4</sup> and must contain, or be accompanied by, such information as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>5</sup>.

At any time after receiving the application and before determining it, the Authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>6</sup>. The Authority may require an applicant to present information which he is required to give<sup>7</sup> in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the Authority may direct<sup>8</sup>. Different directions may be given, and different requirements imposed, in relation to different applications or categories of application<sup>9</sup>.

The 'authorised person concerned' also includes (1) an EEA firm with respect to which the Authority has received a consent notice or a regulator's notice under Sch 3 para 13 (see PARA 315) or a regulator's notice under Sch 3 para 14 (see PARA 315), and which will be the authorised person concerned if it qualifies for authorisation under Sch 3; and (2) an EEA firm which falls within Sch 3 para 5(da) (reinsurance undertaking) (see PARA 315 note 1) which establishes a branch in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (EEA Passport Rights) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2511, reg 10 (amended by SI 2003/1473; SI 2007/3253). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/B. APPROVAL/369. Determination of approval applications.

369. Determination of approval applications.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may grant an application for approval<sup>2</sup> only if it is satisfied that the person in respect of whom the application is made (the 'candidate') is a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the application relates<sup>3</sup>. In deciding that question, the Authority may have regard (among other things) to whether the candidate, or any person who may perform a function on his behalf: (1) has obtained a qualification<sup>4</sup>; (2) has undergone, or is undergoing, training<sup>5</sup>; or (3) possesses a level of competence<sup>6</sup>, required by general rules<sup>7</sup> in relation to persons performing functions of the kind to which the application relates<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority must, before the end of the period of consideration (that is the period of three months beginning with the date on which it receives an application<sup>9</sup>), determine whether to grant the application<sup>10</sup>, or to give a warning notice<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority imposes a requirement to provide further information<sup>12</sup>, the period for consideration stops running on the day on which the requirement is imposed but starts running again: (a) on the day on which the required information is received by the Authority<sup>13</sup>; or (b) if the information is not provided on a single day, on the last of the days on which it is received by the Authority<sup>14</sup>.

A person who makes an application for approval<sup>15</sup> may withdraw his application by giving written notice to the Authority at any time before the Authority determines it, but only with the consent of the candidate<sup>16</sup> and the person by whom the candidate is to be retained to perform the function concerned, if not the applicant<sup>17</sup>.

371. Withdrawal of approval.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may withdraw an approval<sup>2</sup> if it considers that the person in respect of whom it was given is not a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the approval relates<sup>3</sup>. When considering whether to withdraw its approval, the Authority may take into account any matter which it could take into account if it were considering an application for approval<sup>4</sup> in respect of the performance of the function to which the approval relates<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority proposes to withdraw its approval, it must give each of the interested parties<sup>6</sup> a warning notice<sup>7</sup>. If the Authority decides to withdraw its approval, it must give each of the interested parties a decision notice<sup>8</sup>. If the Authority decides to withdraw its approval, each of the interested parties may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>9</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/C. CONDUCT/372. Statements of principle and codes of practice.

C. CONDUCT

372. Statements of principle and codes of practice.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may issue statements of principle with respect to the conduct expected of approved persons<sup>2</sup>. If the Authority issues a statement of principle<sup>3</sup>, it must also issue a code of practice for the purpose of helping to determine whether or not a person's conduct complies with the statement of principle<sup>4</sup>. Such a code may specify:

- 923 (1) descriptions of conduct which, in the opinion of the Authority, comply with a statement of principle<sup>5</sup>;
- 924 (2) descriptions of conduct which, in the opinion of the Authority, do not comply with a statement of principle<sup>6</sup>;
- 925 (3) factors which, in the opinion of the Authority, are to be taken into account in determining whether or not a person's conduct complies with a statement of principle<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority may at any time alter or replace a statement or code which has been issued<sup>8</sup>. If a statement or code is altered or replaced, the altered or replacement statement or code must be issued by the Authority<sup>9</sup>. A statement or code must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>10</sup>. A code published<sup>11</sup> and in force at the time when any particular conduct takes place may be relied on so far as it tends to establish whether or not that conduct complies with a statement of principle<sup>12</sup>.

Failure to comply with a statement of principle does not of itself give rise to any right of action by persons affected or affect the validity of any transaction<sup>13</sup>. A person is not to be taken to have failed to comply with a statement of principle if he shows that, at the time of the alleged failure, it or its associated code of practice had not been published<sup>14</sup>.

The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement or code which it publishes<sup>15</sup>. The power to issue statements of principle and codes of practice includes power to make different provision in relation to persons, cases or circumstances of different descriptions<sup>16</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a statement or code<sup>17</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/C. CONDUCT/373. Procedure for statements and codes.

373. Procedure for statements and codes.

Before issuing a statement or code<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must publish a draft of it in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>3</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>4</sup> and notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>5</sup>.

Before issuing the proposed statement or code, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed statement or code it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>7</sup> and its response to them<sup>8</sup>.

If the statement or code differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant, the Authority must<sup>9</sup> publish details of the difference<sup>10</sup> and those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>11</sup>.

Note that a cost benefit analysis is not required if the Authority considers that, making the appropriate comparison<sup>12</sup>, there will be no increase in costs<sup>13</sup> or that, making that comparison, there will be an increase in costs but the increase will be of minimal significance<sup>14</sup>.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, High Level Standards, Statements of Principle and Code of Practice for Approved Persons (APER). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 65(1). The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a copy of a draft published under s 65(1): s 65(9). Section 65(1)-(6) does not apply if the Authority considers that the delay involved in complying with it would prejudice the interests of consumers: s 65(7). A statement or code must state that it is issued under s 64 (see PARA 372): s 65(8). Section 65 also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement or code: s 65(10).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 65(2)(a). 'Cost benefit analysis' means an estimate of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise if the proposed statement or code is issued; or from the statement or code that has been issued where it differs significantly from the published draft: s 65(11). See note 3.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 65(5)(b). See note 3.

12 'Appropriate comparison' means: (1) in relation to the cost benefit analysis accompanying the draft statement or code, a comparison between the overall position if the statement or code is issued and the overall position if it is not issued; (2) in relation to the cost benefit analysis accompanying the published details of the difference between the statement (or code) and the draft, a comparison between the overall position after the issuing of the statement or code and the overall position before it was issued: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 65(12).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(v) Performance/C. CONDUCT/374. Disciplinary powers of the Financial Services Authority.

374. Disciplinary powers of the Financial Services Authority.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may take action against a person<sup>2</sup> if it appears to the Authority that he is guilty of misconduct<sup>3</sup> and the Authority is satisfied that it is appropriate in all the circumstances to take action against him<sup>4</sup>. A person is guilty of misconduct if, while an approved person<sup>5</sup>:

926 (1) he has failed to comply with a statement of principle<sup>6</sup>; or

927 (2) he has been knowingly concerned in a contravention by the relevant authorised person<sup>7</sup> of a requirement imposed on that authorised person by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or by any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>8</sup>.

If the Authority is entitled to take action against a person, it may impose a penalty on him of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>, or publish a statement of his misconduct<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may not take action after the end of the period of two years beginning with the first day on which the Authority knew of the misconduct, unless proceedings in respect of it against the person concerned were begun before the end of that period<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to take action against a person<sup>12</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>13</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the penalty<sup>14</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement must set out the terms of the statement<sup>15</sup>.

If the Authority decides to take action against a person<sup>16</sup>, it must give him a decision notice<sup>17</sup>. A decision notice about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty<sup>18</sup>. A decision notice about the publication of a statement must set out the terms of the statement<sup>19</sup>. If the Authority decides to take action against a person, he may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>20</sup>.

After a statement of misconduct<sup>21</sup> is published, the Authority must send a copy of it to the person concerned and to any person to whom a copy of the decision notice was given<sup>22</sup>.

375. Statements of policy.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to the imposition and the amount of penalties in respect of misconduct<sup>2</sup>. The Authority's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be must include having regard to:

- 928 (1) the seriousness of the misconduct in question in relation to the nature of the principle or requirement concerned<sup>3</sup>;
- 929 (2) the extent to which that misconduct was deliberate or reckless<sup>4</sup>; and
- 930 (3) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual<sup>5</sup>.

The Authority may at any time alter or replace a statement of policy so issued<sup>6</sup>. If a statement is altered or replaced, the Authority must issue the altered or replacement statement<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it publishes<sup>8</sup>. A statement issued must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement<sup>10</sup>.

In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power to take action<sup>11</sup> in the case of any particular misconduct, the Authority must have regard to any statement of policy published and in force at the time when the misconduct in question occurred<sup>12</sup>.

Before issuing a statement, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>13</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>14</sup>. Before issuing the proposed statement, the Authority must have regard to any such representations made to it<sup>15</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>16</sup> and its response to them<sup>17</sup>. ## D. ACTIONS FOR BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY

376. Breach of duty.

A contravention of certain provisions relating to the performance of regulated activities<sup>1</sup> is actionable at the suit of a private person<sup>2</sup> who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty<sup>3</sup>.

In prescribed cases, a contravention of that kind which would be actionable at the suit of a private person is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty<sup>4</sup>.

1 le the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 56(6) (see PARA 364) or s 59(1) or s 59(2) (see PARA 367). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

2 'Private person' has such meaning as may be prescribed: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 71(3). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1).

In exercise of this power the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, which define 'private person' as:

455 (1) any individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on: (a) any regulated activity (reg 3(1)(a)(i)); or (b) any activity which would be a regulated activity apart from any exclusion made by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 72 (overseas persons) (see PARAS 124, 134, 146, 182, 207, 213, 219, 222) or art 72A (information society services) (see PARAS 95, 103, 108, 125, 135, 147, 157, 168, 172, 183, 189, 197, 201, 202, 208, 214, 220, 223) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(1)(a)(ii) (amended by SI 2002/1775)); and

456 (2) any person who is not an individual, unless he suffers the loss in question in the course of carrying on business of any kind (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(1)(b)),

but it does not include a government, a local authority (in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) or an international organisation (regs 3(1), 5(1)).

In regard to head (1) above, an individual who suffers loss in the course of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10 (see PARA 100)) written at Lloyd's is not to be taken to suffer loss in the course of carrying on a regulated activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 3(2). As to the meanings of 'government', 'local authority' and 'international organisation' see PARA 33 note 3. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 71(1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 71(2). A case where the following condition is satisfied is prescribed for the purposes of s 71(2) (and so in such a case the contravention of s 56(6) (see PARA 364) or s 59(1) or s 59(2) (see PARA 367) is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 5(2). The condition is that the action would be brought at the suit of a person (who is not a private person) acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of a private person and any remedy would be exclusively for the benefit of that private person and could not be effected through an action brought otherwise than at the suit of the fiduciary or representative: reg 5(3).

(vi) Control over Authorised Persons

A. NOTICE OF CONTROL

377. Notice of control.

If a step which a person proposes to take would result in his acquiring control over a UK authorised person<sup>1</sup>, an additional kind of control over a UK authorised person, or an increase in a relevant kind of control which he already has over a UK authorised person, he must notify the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> of his proposal<sup>3</sup>. A person who is under such a duty to notify the Authority<sup>4</sup> must also give notice to the Authority on acquiring, or increasing, the control in question<sup>5</sup>. A person who, without himself taking any such step, acquires any such control or additional or increased control must notify the Authority before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which he first becomes aware that he has acquired it<sup>6</sup>. The Treasury<sup>7</sup> may by order provide for exemptions from the obligation to notify the Authority<sup>8</sup>.

A notice of control<sup>9</sup> must: (1) be given to the Authority in writing; and (2) include such information and be accompanied by such documents<sup>10</sup> as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>11</sup>. The Authority may require the person giving a notice of control to provide such additional information or documents as it reasonably considers necessary in order to enable it to determine what action it is to take in response to the notice<sup>12</sup>. Different requirements may be imposed in different circumstances<sup>13</sup>.

If a step which a controller<sup>14</sup> of a UK authorised person proposes to take would result in his ceasing to have control of a relevant kind over the authorised person, or reducing a relevant kind of control over that person, he must notify the Authority of his proposal<sup>15</sup>. A controller of a UK authorised person who, without himself taking any such step, ceases to have that control or reduces that control must notify the Authority before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which he first becomes aware that he has ceased to have the control in question or that he has reduced that control<sup>16</sup>. The notice must be given to the Authority in writing and must include details of the extent of the control (if any) which the person concerned will retain (or still retains) over the authorised person concerned<sup>17</sup>. The Treasury may by order provide for exemptions from the obligation to notify the Authority<sup>18</sup>.

A person who fails to comply with the duty to notify the Authority imposed on him by the provisions described above<sup>19</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>20</sup>. If a person who has given a notice of control to the Authority carries out the proposal to which the notice relates, he is guilty of an offence if: (a) the period of three months beginning with the date on which the Authority received the notice is still running; and (b) the Authority has not responded to the notice by either giving its approval or giving him a warning notice<sup>21</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'UK authorised person' see PARA 358 note 3. As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 11. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(1). A notice under s 178(1), (2) is referred to in Pt XII (ss 178-192) as a 'notice of control': s 178(5).

4 It is a duty imposed by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(1): see the text to notes 1-3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(3).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(2). See note 3.

7 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 192(a). As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

In any case where a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to take, in relation to a relevant friendly society, such a step as is mentioned in s 178(1) (see the text to notes 1-3), or acquires control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control (in each case, within the meaning of Pt XII) over a relevant friendly society without himself taking any such step, the acquirer is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 178 to notify the Authority of his proposal or acquisition: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/2638, art 2(1). 'Relevant friendly society' means any UK authorised person who is a friendly society to which neither the Friendly Societies Act 1992 s 37(2) nor s 37(3) (see PARA 2112) applies: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/2638, art 2(3). 'Acquirer' means the acquirer, any of the acquirer's associates, or the acquirer and any of his associates: art 2(3). As to the meaning of 'associate' see PARA 591 note 16; definition applied by art 1(2).

In any case where a person (the 'acquirer'): (1) proposes to take a step which would result in his (a) acquiring control over an authorised building society in the case mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 179(2)(a) (holding of 10% or more of the shares) (see PARA 378); or (b) acquiring an additional kind of control over such a society of the kind mentioned in s 179(4)(a) (holding of shares) (see PARA 378); or (2) without himself taking any such step, has acquired such control or such an additional kind of control over such a society, the acquirer is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 178 to notify the Authority of his proposal or his acquisition unless the proposed step would result in the acquirer holding, or the acquirer holds, a holding of 10% or more of the capital of that authorised building society: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338, art 2(1), (2). 'Authorised building society' means a building society (within the meaning of the Building Societies Act 1986 (see PARA 1856)) which is a UK authorised person for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XII: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338, art 1(2). 'Capital', in relation to an authorised building society, consists of the following: (i) any shares of a class defined as deferred shares for the purposes of the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119 (see PARA 1906) which have been issued by that society; and (ii) the general reserves of that society: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338, art 1(2).

In any case where a controller of an authorised building society: (A) proposes to take a step which would result in his acquiring an increase of his control over that society in the circumstances mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 180(1)(a) (increase in percentage of shares) (see PARA 378); or (b) has acquired increased control over that society in those circumstances without himself taking any such step, the controller is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 178 to notify the Authority of his proposal or his acquisition unless the proposed step would result in the controller increasing, or the controller has increased, his holding of the capital of that authorised building society by any of the steps mentioned in s 180(2) (see PARA 379): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338, art 2(4), (5). For these purposes, 'controller' means the controller, any of the controller's associates, or the controller and any of his associates: art 2(6).

9 See note 3.

14 As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 190(1). A person who is under the duty to notify the Authority imposed by s 190(1) must also give a notice to the Authority: (1) on ceasing to have the control in question; or (2) on reducing that control: s 190(3). As to when a controller of a UK authorised person reduces his control see PARA 380.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 190(4).

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 192(a).

In any case where a controller of a relevant friendly society proposes to take, in relation to that relevant friendly society, such a step as is mentioned in s 190(1) (see the text and note 15), or ceases to have or reduces a relevant kind of control (within the meaning of Pt XII) over that relevant friendly society without himself taking any such step, the controller is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 190 to notify the Authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) Order 2001, SI 2001/2638, art 2(2).

In any case where a controller of an authorised building society: (1) proposes to take a step which would result in his ceasing to have control of the kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 179(4)(a) (holding of shares) (see PARA 378 head (a)) over that society; or (2) has ceased to have such control without himself taking any such step, the controller is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 190 to notify the Authority of his proposal or that cessation unless the proposed step would result in the controller ceasing, or the controller has ceased, to hold 10% or more of the capital of that authorised building society: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338 art 3(1), (2). In any case where a controller of an authorised building society: (a) proposes to take a step which would result in his reducing his control over that society in the circumstances mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 181(1)(a) (decrease in percentage of shares) (see PARA 380 head (1)); or (b) has reduced his control in those circumstances without himself taking any such step, the controller is exempt from any obligation imposed by s 190 to notify the Authority of his proposal or that reduction unless the proposed step would result in the controller reducing, or the controller has reduced, his holding of the capital of that authorised building society by any of the steps mentioned in s 181(2) (see PARA 380): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2001, SI 2001/3338, art 3(3), (4). For these purposes, 'controller' means the controller, any of the controller's associates, or the controller and any of his associates: art 3(5).

19 le the duty imposed by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 178(1), (2), 190(1), (2).

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 191(1), (2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: s 191(6). As to the standard scale see PARA 27 note 21. It is a defence for a person charged with an offence of failing to comply with the duty to notify imposed on him by s 178(1) or s 190(1) to show that he had, at the time of the alleged offence, no knowledge of the act or circumstances by virtue of which the duty to notify the Authority arose: s 191(9). If a person who was under a duty to notify the Authority imposed by s 178(1) or s 190(1), but who had no knowledge of the act or circumstances by virtue of which that duty arose, subsequently becomes aware of that act or those circumstances, he must notify the Authority before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which he first became so aware: s 191(10). A person who fails to comply with the duty to notify the Authority imposed by s 191(10) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: s 191(11).

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 191(3). A warning notice is given under s 183(3) (see PARA 381) or s 185(3) (see PARA 382). As to warning notices generally see PARA 769. A person guilty of an offence under s 191(3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: s 191(6).

B. VARYING CONTROL

378. Acquiring control.

For the purposes of the provisions relating to control over authorised persons<sup>1</sup>, a person (the 'acquirer') acquires control over a UK authorised person<sup>2</sup> ('A') on first falling within any of the cases mentioned below<sup>3</sup>. Those cases are where the acquirer<sup>4</sup>:

931 (1) holds 10 per cent or more of the shares<sup>5</sup> in A<sup>6</sup>;

932 (2) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of A by virtue of his shareholding in A<sup>7</sup>;

- 933 (3) holds 10 per cent or more of the shares in a parent undertaking<sup>8</sup> ('P') of A<sup>9</sup>;
- 934 (4) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his shareholding in P<sup>10</sup>;
- 935 (5) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 10 per cent or more of the voting power<sup>11</sup> in A<sup>12</sup>;
- 936 (6) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of A by virtue of his voting power in A<sup>13</sup>;
- 937 (7) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 10 per cent or more of the voting power in P<sup>14</sup>; or
- 938 (8) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his voting power in P<sup>15</sup>.

For the purposes of the provisions relating to control over authorised persons<sup>16</sup>, each of the following is to be regarded as a kind of control<sup>17</sup>:

- 939 (a) control arising as a result of the holding of shares in A<sup>18</sup>;
- 940 (b) control arising as a result of the holding of shares in P<sup>19</sup>;
- 941 (c) control arising as a result of the entitlement to exercise, or control the exercise of, voting power in A<sup>20</sup>;
- 942 (d) control arising as a result of the entitlement to exercise, or control the exercise of, voting power in P<sup>21</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>22</sup> may by order amend the provisions described above by varying, or removing, any of the cases in which a person is treated as having control over a UK authorised person or by adding a case<sup>23</sup>.

TEXT AND NOTE 23--For 'having control' read 'acquiring control': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 192(b) (amended by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(vi) Control over Authorised Persons/B. VARYING CONTROL/379. Increasing control.

379. Increasing control.

For the purposes of the provisions relating to control over authorised persons<sup>1</sup>, a controller<sup>2</sup> of a person ('A') who is a UK authorised person<sup>3</sup> increases his control over A if<sup>4</sup>:

- 943 (1) the percentage of shares<sup>5</sup> held by the controller in A increases by any of the steps described below<sup>6</sup>;
 944 (2) the percentage of shares held by the controller in a parent undertaking<sup>7</sup> ('P') of A increases by any of the steps described below<sup>8</sup>;
 945 (3) the percentage of voting power<sup>9</sup> which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in A increases by any of the steps described below<sup>10</sup>;
 946 (4) the percentage of voting power which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in P increases by any of the steps described below<sup>11</sup>; or 947 (5) the controller becomes a parent undertaking of A<sup>12</sup>.

The steps mentioned above are:

- 948 (a) from below 10 per cent to 10 per cent or more but less than 20 per cent<sup>13</sup>;
- 949 (b) from below 20 per cent to 20 per cent or more but less than 33 per cent<sup>14</sup>;
- 950 (c) from below 33 per cent to 33 per cent or more but less than 50 per cent<sup>15</sup>;

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(vi) Control over Authorised Persons/B. VARYING CONTROL/380. Reducing control.

380. Reducing control.

For the purposes of the provisions relating to control over authorised persons<sup>1</sup>, a controller<sup>2</sup> of a person ('A') who is a UK authorised person<sup>3</sup> reduces his control over A, if<sup>4</sup>:

- 952 (1) the percentage of shares<sup>5</sup> held by the controller in A decreases by any of the steps described below<sup>6</sup>;
- 953 (2) the percentage of shares held by the controller in a parent undertaking<sup>7</sup> ('P') of A decreases by any of the steps described below<sup>8</sup>;
- 954 (3) the percentage of voting power<sup>9</sup> which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in A decreases by any of the steps described below<sup>10</sup>;
- 955 (4) the percentage of voting power which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in P decreases by any of the steps described below<sup>11</sup>; or
- 956 (5) the controller ceases to be a parent undertaking of A<sup>12</sup>, unless the controller ceases to have the kind of control concerned over A as a result<sup>13</sup>.

The steps mentioned above are:

- 957 (a) from 50 per cent or more to 33 per cent or more but less than 50 per cent<sup>14</sup>;
- 958 (b) from 33 per cent or more to 20 per cent or more but less than 33 per cent<sup>15</sup>;
- 959 (c) from 20 per cent or more to 10 per cent or more but less than 20 per cent<sup>16</sup>;
- 960 (d) from 10 per cent or more to less than 10 per cent<sup>17</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>18</sup> may by order amend the provisions described above by varying, or removing, any of the cases in which a person is treated as reducing his control over a UK authorised person or by adding a case<sup>19</sup>.

TEXT AND NOTE 19--For 'reducing his control' read 'reducing or ceasing to have control': Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 192(d) (amended by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(vi) Control over Authorised Persons/B. VARYING CONTROL/381. Duty of the Financial Services Authority in relation to notice of control.

381. Duty of the Financial Services Authority in relation to notice of control.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must, before the end of the period of three months beginning with the date on which it receives a notice of control<sup>2</sup> (the 'period for consideration'), determine whether: (1) to approve of the person concerned having the control<sup>3</sup> to which the notice relates; or (2) to serve a warning notice<sup>4</sup>. Before doing so, the Authority must comply with such requirements as to consultation with competent authorities outside the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give the person concerned a notice of objection<sup>7</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>8</sup>.

On considering a notice of control, the Authority may give a decision notice<sup>9</sup> to the person acquiring control<sup>10</sup> (the 'acquirer') unless it is satisfied that the approval requirements are met<sup>11</sup>. The approval requirements are that: (a) the acquirer is a fit and proper person to have the control over the authorised person<sup>12</sup> that he has or would have if he acquired the control in question; and (b) the interests of consumers<sup>13</sup> would not be threatened by the acquirer's control or by his acquiring that control<sup>14</sup>. In deciding whether the approval requirements are met, the Authority must have regard, in relation to the control that the acquirer has over the authorised person concerned ('A'), or will have over A if the proposal to which the notice of control relates is carried into effect, to its duty to consider the threshold conditions<sup>15</sup> in relation to each regulated activity<sup>16</sup> carried on by A<sup>17</sup>. If the Authority gives a notice but considers that the approval requirements would be met if the person to whom the notice is given were to take, or refrain from taking, a particular step, the notice must identify that step<sup>18</sup>. A person to whom a notice is given may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup>.

As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

Regulations have been made prescribing that:

457 (1) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or s 178(2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person is an investment firm; (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; or (iv) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm specified by head (1)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person;

458 (2) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or s 178(2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person has permission to accept deposits (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (see PARA 89)); (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; or (iv) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm of a kind specified by head (2)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person;

459 (3) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a United Kingdom authorised person in circumstances falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(1) or (2) (see PARA 377); (b) that United Kingdom authorised person has permission to operate a collective investment scheme; (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; (iv) an EEA management company; or (v)

the parent undertaking of an EEA firm of a kind specified by head (3)(b)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person; or

- 460 (4) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or (2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person has permission to effect or carry on contracts of insurance (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (see PARA 90 note 3)); (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; (iv) an EEA reinsurance undertaking; or (v) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm of a kind specified by head (4)(b)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person, the Authority must, as the case may be, consult the home state regulator of any EEA firm that is mentioned in head (1)(c), (2)(c), (3)(c) or (4)(c) above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consultation with Competent Authorities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2509, regs 3, 5, 6 (amended by SI 2003/2066; SI 2004/1862; SI 2007/3255). This requirement must be complied with by the Authority before determining whether to approve the change of control or to give a warning notice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 183(3) or s 185(3) (see PARA 382); see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Consultation with Competent Authorities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2509, reg 3. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(vi) Control over Authorised Persons/B. VARYING CONTROL/382. Approval of acquisition of control.

382. Approval of acquisition of control.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> decides to approve of the person concerned having the control<sup>2</sup> to which the notice of control relates, it must notify that person of its approval in writing without delay<sup>3</sup>. The Authority's approval remains effective only if the person to whom it relates acquires the control<sup>4</sup> in question: (1) before the end of such period as may be specified in the notice; or (2) if no period is specified, before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date: (a) of the notice of approval; (b) on which the Authority is treated as having given approval<sup>5</sup>; or (c) of a decision on a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>6</sup> which results in the person concerned receiving approval<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority's approval<sup>8</sup> may be given unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>. In imposing any conditions, the Authority must have regard to its duty with respect to the threshold conditions<sup>10</sup>. If the Authority proposes to impose conditions on a person it must give him a warning notice<sup>11</sup>, and if the Authority decides to impose conditions on a person it must give him a decision notice<sup>12</sup>. A person who is subject to a condition may apply to the Authority for the condition to be varied or cancelled<sup>13</sup>. The Authority may, on its own initiative, cancel a condition<sup>14</sup>. If the Authority has given its approval to a person subject to a condition, that person may refer to the Tribunal: (i) the imposition of the condition; or (ii) the Authority's decision to refuse an application to vary or cancel the condition<sup>15</sup>.

382 Approval of acquisition of control

TEXT AND NOTES--2000 Act ss 184, 185 replaced: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 187, 191 (substituted by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(5) AUTHORISATION, EXEMPTION, ETC IN RELATION TO REGULATED ACTIVITIES/(vi) Control over Authorised Persons/B. VARYING CONTROL/383. Objection to existing control.

383. Objection to existing control.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> is not satisfied that the approval requirements<sup>2</sup> are met, it may give a decision notice<sup>3</sup> to a person if he has failed to comply with a duty to notify the Authority<sup>4</sup>. The Authority may also give a decision notice to a person who is a controller of a UK authorised person<sup>5</sup> if the Authority becomes aware of matters as a result of which it is satisfied that: (1) the approval requirements are not met with respect to the controller; or (2) a condition<sup>6</sup> required that person to do (or refrain from doing) a particular thing and the condition has been breached as a result of his failing to do (or doing) that thing<sup>7</sup>. A person to whom a notice is given may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>8</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to give a notice of objection<sup>9</sup> to a person<sup>10</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>11</sup>. Before doing so, the Authority must comply with such requirements as to consultation with competent authorities outside the United Kingdom<sup>12</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>. The Authority may require the person concerned to provide such additional information or documents<sup>14</sup> as it considers reasonable<sup>15</sup>. Different requirements may be imposed in different circumstances<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 11. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Approval requirements' has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 186 (see PARA 381): s 187(5).

3 le under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 187. As to decision notices see PARA 770.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 187(1). The duty to notify the Authority is imposed by s 178: see PARA 377. If the failure relates to s 178(1) or s 178(2) (see PARA 377), the Authority may (instead of giving a notice under s 187(1)) approve the acquisition of the control in question by the person concerned as if he had given it a notice of control: s 187(2). As to the meaning of 'notice of control' see PARA 377 note 3.

5 As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16. As to the meaning of 'UK authorised person' see PARA 358 note 3.

6 Is a condition imposed by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 185: see PARA 382.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 187(3).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 187(4). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

9 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XII (ss 178-192), 'notice of objection' means a notice under s 186 (see PARA 381) or s 187 (see the text to notes 1-8): s 187(6).

10 Is under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 187: see the text to notes 1-8.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 188(1). As to warning notices see PARA 769. If the Authority decides to give a warning notice under s 188, it must do so before the end of the period of three months beginning: (1) in the case of a notice to be given under s 187(1) (see the text to notes 1-4), with the date on which it became aware of the failure to comply with the duty in question; (2) in the case of a notice to be given under s 187(3) (see the text to notes 5-7), with the date on which it became aware of the matters in question: s 188(3).

12 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 188(2). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

Regulations have been made prescribing that:

- 461 (1) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or s 178(2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person is an investment firm; (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; or (iv) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm specified by head (1)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person;
- 462 (2) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or s 178(2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person has permission to accept deposits (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (see PARA 89)); (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; or (iv) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm of a kind specified by head (2)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person;
- 463 (3) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a United Kingdom authorised person in circumstances falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 178(1) or (2) (see PARA 377); (b) that United Kingdom authorised person has permission to operate a collective investment scheme; (c) the acquirer is (i) an EEA investment firm; (ii) an EEA credit institution; (iii) an EEA insurance undertaking; (iv) an EEA management company; or (v) the parent undertaking of an EEA firm of a kind specified by head (3)(b)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above; and (d) as a result of the acquisition or proposed acquisition, the acquirer is or would become a parent undertaking of the UK authorised person; or
- 464 (4) where (a) a person (the 'acquirer') proposes to acquire or has acquired control, an additional kind of control or an increase in a relevant kind of control over a UK authorised person in circumstances falling within s 178(1) or (2) (see PARA 377); (b) that UK authorised person has permission to effect or carry on contracts of insurance (within the meaning of the Financial

C. OFFENCES

384. Improperly acquired shares.

The powers described below<sup>1</sup> are exercisable if a person has acquired, or has continued to hold, any shares<sup>2</sup> in contravention of a notice of objection<sup>3</sup> or a condition imposed on the Financial Services Authority's<sup>4</sup> approval<sup>5</sup>.

The Authority may by notice in writing served on the person concerned (a 'restriction notice') direct that any such shares which are specified in the notice are, until further notice, to be subject to one or more of the following restrictions<sup>6</sup>:

- 961 (1) a transfer of (or agreement to transfer) those shares, or in the case of unissued shares any transfer of (or agreement to transfer) the right to be issued with them, is void<sup>7</sup>;
- 962 (2) no voting rights are to be exercisable in respect of the shares<sup>8</sup>;
- 963 (3) no further shares are to be issued in right of them or in pursuance of any offer made to their holder<sup>9</sup>;

964 (4) except in a liquidation, no payment is to be made of any sums due from the body corporate<sup>10</sup> on the shares, whether in respect of capital or otherwise<sup>11</sup>.

The High Court may, on the application of the Authority, order the sale of any improperly acquired shares<sup>12</sup> and, if they are for the time being subject to any restriction<sup>13</sup>, it may order that they are to cease to be subject to that restriction<sup>14</sup>. If shares are sold in pursuance of an order, the proceeds of sale, less the costs of the sale, must be paid into court for the benefit of the persons beneficially interested in them; and any such person may apply to the court for the whole or part of the proceeds to be paid to him<sup>15</sup>.

A copy of the restriction notice must be served on: (a) the authorised person to whose shares it relates; and (b) if it relates to shares held by an associate of that authorised person, on that associate<sup>16</sup>.

384 Improperly acquired shares

TEXT AND NOTES--2000 Act s 189 replaced: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 191B, 191C (substituted by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(i) Introduction/385. The competent authority.

(6) OFFICIAL LISTING

(i) Introduction

385. The competent authority.

Since 18 June 2001<sup>1</sup>, the functions conferred on the competent authority<sup>2</sup> by the statutory provisions relating to official listing<sup>3</sup> have been exercisable by the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>.

The competent authority's general functions are, in relation to official listing<sup>5</sup>: (1) its function of making rules<sup>6</sup>; (2) its functions in relation to the giving of general guidance<sup>7</sup>; (3) its function of determining the general policy and principles by reference to which it performs particular functions<sup>8</sup>.

In discharging its general functions, the competent authority must have regard to:

- 965 (a) the need to use its resources in the most efficient and economic way<sup>9</sup>;
- 966 (b) the principle that a burden or restriction which is imposed on a person should be proportionate to the benefits, considered in general terms, which are expected to arise from the imposition of that burden or restriction<sup>10</sup>;
- 967 (c) the desirability of facilitating innovation in respect of listed securities<sup>11</sup>, and in respect of financial instruments<sup>12</sup> which have otherwise been admitted to trading on a regulated market<sup>13</sup> or for which a request for admission to trading on such a market has been made<sup>14</sup>;
- 968 (d) the international character of capital markets and the desirability of maintaining the competitive position of the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>;
- 969 (e) the need to minimise the adverse effects on competition of anything done in the discharge of those functions<sup>16</sup>;
- 970 (f) the desirability of facilitating competition in relation to listed securities and in relation to financial instruments which have otherwise been admitted to trading on a regulated market or for which a request for admission to trading on such a market has been made<sup>17</sup>.

The competent authority may make rules ('Part VI rules') for the purposes of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>18</sup>.

In the case of infringement of a provision of prospectus rules or any other provision made in accordance with the Prospectus Directive<sup>19</sup> or of a provision of transparency rules or any other provision made in accordance with the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>20</sup>, in relation to an issuer<sup>21</sup> whose home state<sup>22</sup> is a member state other than the United Kingdom<sup>23</sup>, the competent authority may act in such a case only in respect of the infringement of a provision required by the relevant directive<sup>24</sup>.

If the authority finds that there has been such an infringement, it must give a notice to that effect to the competent authority of the person's home state requesting it (i) to take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the person remedies the situation that has given rise to the notice<sup>25</sup>; and (ii) to inform the authority of the measures it proposes to take or has taken or the reasons for not taking such measures<sup>26</sup>. The authority may not act further unless satisfied (A) that the competent authority of the person's home state has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose mentioned in head (i) above<sup>27</sup>; or (B) that the measures taken by that authority have proved inadequate for that purpose<sup>28</sup>. If the authority is so satisfied, it must, after informing the competent authority of the person's home state, take all appropriate measures to protect investors<sup>29</sup>. In such a case the authority must inform the Commission of the measures at the earliest opportunity<sup>30</sup>.

Neither the competent authority nor any person who is, or is acting as, a member, officer or member of staff of the competent authority is liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge, or purported discharge, of the authority's functions<sup>31</sup>.

1     I.e. the date on which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 72 came into force: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Commencement No 3) Order 2001, SI 2001/1820.

2     In relation to any function conferred on the competent authority by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103), any reference in Pt VI to the competent authority is to be read as a reference to the person by whom that function is for the time being exercisable (see the text and note 4): s 103(2) (s 103 substituted by SI 2005/1433).

Provision is made allowing some or all of the functions conferred on the competent authority to be transferred by the Treasury so as to be exercisable by another person: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 72(3); and PARA 386. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3     I.e. the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI.

4     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 72(1). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 applies in relation to the Financial Services Authority when it is exercising functions under Pt VI as the competent authority subject to the following modifications: s 72(2), Sch 7 para 1. In relation to the Financial Services Authority's general functions (see PARA 6), s 2(4)(a) does not apply to Part VI rules; s 2(4)(c) does not apply to general guidance given in relation to Pt VI; and s 2(4)(d) does not apply to functions under Pt VI: Sch 7 para 2 (amended by SI 2005/381). As to Part VI rules see also PARA 387. In relation to the general duty to consult, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 8 (see PARA 9) does not apply: Sch 7 para 3. In relation to rules, s 149 (see PARA 32) and ss 153, 154, 156 (see PARA 24) do not apply; and s 155 (consultation) (see PARA 24) has effect as if the reference in s 155(2)(c) to the general duties of the Financial Services Authority under s 2 were a reference to its duty under s 73 and as if s 99 (see PARA 436) were included in the provisions referred to in s 155(9): Sch 7 para 4. In relation to statements of policy Sch 1 para 5 (see PARA 15) has effect as if the requirement to act through the Financial Services Authority's governing body applied also to the exercise of its functions of publishing statements under s 93 (see PARA 430); and Sch 1 para 1 has effect as if s 93 were included in the provisions referred to in Sch 1 para 1(2)(d) (see PARA 14): Sch 7 para 5(1), (2). In relation to penalties, Sch 1 para 16 (see PARA 12) does not apply in relation to penalties under Pt VI (for which separate provision is made by s 100: see PARA 431): Sch 7 para 6. In relation to fees, Sch 1 para 17 (see PARA 16) does not apply in relation to fees payable under Pt VI (for which separate provision is made by s 99: see PARA 436): Sch 7 para 7. In relation to exemption from liability in damages, Sch 1 para 19 (see PARA 37) is modified so as not to refer to the liability of the Financial Services Authority or its staff (provision being made in relation to the liability of the competent authority by s 102): Sch 7 para 8.

10    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(b).

11    As to the meaning of 'listed securities' see PARA 11 note 11.

12    'Financial instrument' has the meaning given by European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 16) on insider dealing and market manipulation art 1.3: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102A(4) (s 102A added by SI 2005/1433).

13    'Regulated market' has the meaning given in European Council Directive 93/22 (OJ L141, 11.6.93, p 27) on investment services in the securities field art 1.13: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (s 103 as substituted: see note 2). As from a date to be appointed, the reference is changed to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments art 4.1(14): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (definition prospectively amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 10(1), (3)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

14    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(c) (substituted by SI 2005/381). To the extent that those general functions are functions under or relating to transparency rules, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(c), (f) has effect as if the references to a regulated market were references to a market: s 73(1A) (added by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 2). As to the meaning of 'transparency rules' see PARA 415 note 2. As to transparency rules generally see PARA 415.

15    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(d). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

16    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(e).

17    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73(1)(f) (substituted by SI 2005/381). See note 14.

18    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73A(1) (s 73A added by SI 2005/381), Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (as substituted: see note 2).

Provisions of Part VI rules expressed to relate to the official list are referred to in Pt VI as 'listing rules': s 73A(2) (as so added), s 103(1) (as so substituted). Provisions of Part VI rules expressed to relate to disclosure of information in respect of financial instruments which have been admitted to trading on a regulated market or for which a request for admission to trading on such a market has been made, are referred to in Pt VI as 'disclosure rules': s 73A(3) (as so added), s 103(1) (as so substituted). As to disclosure rules see PARA 390. As to the official list see PARA 387. Provisions of Part VI rules expressed to relate to transferable securities are referred to in Pt VI as 'prospectus rules': s 73A(4) (s 73A(4), (5) added by SI 2005/1433), Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (as so substituted). 'Transferable securities' means anything which is a transferable security for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments), other than money-market instruments for the purposes of that Directive which have a maturity of less than 12 months: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102A(3) (s 102A as added (see note 12); s 102A(3) amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 10(1), (3)). In relation to prospectus rules, the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI include the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 73A(5) (as so added). Transparency rules (see PARA 415 et seq) and corporate governance rules (see PARA 425) are not listing rules, disclosure rules or prospectus rules, but are Part VI rules: s 73A(6) (added by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 3).

19    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(1)(a) (s 100A added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1271). The reference is to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64).

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(1)(b) (as added: see note 19). The reference to the Transparency Obligations Directive is a reference to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market.

21 'Issuer' (1) in relation to an offer of transferable securities to the public or admission of transferable securities to trading on a regulated market for which an approved prospectus is required as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85 (see PARA 397), means a legal person who issues or proposes to issue the transferable securities in question; (2) in relation to transparency rules, means a legal person whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market or whose voting shares are admitted to trading on a UK market other than a regulated market, and in the case of depository receipts representing securities, the issuer is the issuer of the securities represented; (3) in relation to anything else which is or may be admitted to the official list, has such meaning as may be prescribed by the Treasury; and (4) in any other case, means a person who issues financial instruments: s 102A(6) (s 102A as substituted (see note 12); s 102A(6) amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 10(1), (4)). At the date at which this volume states the law there have been no orders under head (3) above. 'Securities' means (except in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 74(2) (see PARA 387) and the expression 'transferable securities' (see note 18)) anything which has been, or may be, admitted to the official list: s 102A(2) (as so substituted). For the purposes of Pt VI there is an 'offer of transferable securities to the public' if there is a communication to any person which presents sufficient information on the transferable securities to be offered and the terms on which they are offered, to enable an investor to decide to buy or subscribe for the securities in question: s 102B(1) (s 102B added by SI 2005/1433). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI, to the extent that an offer of transferable securities is made to a person in the United Kingdom it is an offer of transferable securities to the public in the United Kingdom: s 102B(2) (as so added). The communication may be made in any form, and by any means: s 102B(3) (as so added). Section 102B(1) includes the placing of securities through a financial intermediary: s 102B(4) (as so added). Section 102B(1) does not include a communication in connection with trading on (a) a regulated market; (b) a multilateral trading facility; or (c) a market prescribed by an order under s 130A(2) (see PARA 437): s 102B(5) (as so added). 'Multilateral trading facility' means a multilateral system, operated by an investment firm or a market operator, which brings together multiple third-party buying and selling interests in financial instruments in accordance with non-discretionary rules so as to result in a contract: s 102B(6) (as so added; amended by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5. 'Market operator' means a person who manages or operates the business of a regulated market: s 103(1) (as substituted: see note 2).

22 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI, in relation to an issuer of transferable securities, the 'home state' is the EEA state which is the 'home member state' for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64)) (which is to be determined in accordance with art 2.1(m)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102C (added by SI 2005/1433).

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A (as added: see note 19).

24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(2) (as added: see note 19). Any reference to an applicable provision or applicable transparency obligation must be read accordingly: see s 100A(2) (as so added). See also PARA 422 et seq.

25 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(3)(a) (as added: see note 19).

26 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(3)(b) (as added: see note 19).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(4)(a) (as added: see note 19). See note 28.

28 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(4)(b) (as added: see note 19). This does not affect exercise of the powers under s 87K(2), 87L(2) or (3) or s 89L(2) or (3) (powers to protect market) (see PARAS 422, 424): s 100A(4) (as so added).

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(5) (as added: see note 19).

30 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 100A(6) (as added: see note 19).

31 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102(1). This provision does not apply: (1) if the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith; or (2) so as to prevent an award of damages made in respect of an act or omission on the ground that the act or omission was unlawful as a result of the Human Rights Act 1998 s 6(1) (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102(2).

UPDATE

385 The competent authority

NOTE 12--This definition does not apply for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89F (see PARA 415): s 102A(4) (amended by SI 2008/3053).

NOTE 13--Day appointed is 1 October 2008: SI 2008/1886.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(i) Introduction/386. Transfer of functions in relation to official listing.

386. Transfer of functions in relation to official listing.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for any function conferred on the competent authority<sup>2</sup> which is exercisable for the time being by a particular person to be transferred so as to be exercisable by another person<sup>3</sup>. A transfer order may be made only if: (1) the person from whom the relevant functions are to be transferred has agreed in writing that the order should be made; (2) the Treasury is satisfied that the manner in which, or efficiency with which, the functions are discharged would be significantly improved if they were transferred to the transferee; or (3) the Treasury is satisfied that it is otherwise in the public interest that the order should be made<sup>4</sup>.

A transfer order does not affect anything previously done by any person<sup>5</sup> in the exercise of functions which are transferred by the order to another person<sup>6</sup>.

If the Treasury has made a transfer order it may, by a separate order, make any provision of a kind that could have been included in the transfer order<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 As to the competent authority and its functions see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 72(3), Sch 8 para 1(1). No order is to be made under Sch 8 para 1 unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(1)(b). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made. As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 8 para 1(2).

5 Such a person is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 8 para 2 as the 'previous authority'.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 8 para 2(1). The person to whom functions are transferred is referred to in Sch 8 para 2 as the 'new authority'. An order under Sch 8 may, in particular, include provision:

469 (1) modifying or excluding any provision of Pt VI (ss 72-103), Pt IX (ss 132-137) (see PARA 43 et seq) or Pt XXVI (ss 387-396) (see PARA 769 et seq) in its application to any such functions (Sch 8 para 2(2)(a));

470 (2) for reviews similar to that made, in relation to the Financial Services Authority, by s 12 (see PARA 10) (Sch 8 para 2(2)(b));

471 (3) imposing on the new authority requirements similar to those imposed, in relation to the Financial Services Authority, by ss 152, 155 (see PARA 24) and s 354 (see PARA 489) (Sch 8 para 2(2)(c));

- 472 (4) as to the giving of guidance by the new authority (Sch 8 para 2(2)(d));
- 473 (5) for the delegation by the new authority of the exercise of functions under Pt VI and as to the consequences of delegation (Sch 8 para 2(2)(e));
- 474 (6) for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities relating to any such functions from the previous authority to the new authority (Sch 8 para 2(2)(f));
- 475 (7) for the carrying on and completion by the new authority of anything in the process of being done by the previous authority when the order takes effect (Sch 8 para 2(2)(g));
- 476 (8) for the substitution of the new authority for the previous authority in any instrument, contract or legal proceedings (Sch 8 para 2(2)(h));
- 477 (9) for the transfer of persons employed by the previous authority to the new authority and as to the terms on which they are to transfer (Sch 8 para 2(2)(i));
- 478 (10) making such amendments to any primary or subordinate legislation (including any provision of, or made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) as the Treasury considers appropriate in consequence of the transfer of functions effected by the order (Sch 8 para 2(2)(j)).

Nothing in Sch 8 para 2 is to be taken as restricting the powers conferred by s 428 (regulations and orders: see PARA 67 note 1): Sch 8 para 2(3).

(ii) Listing

387. The official list.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> must maintain the official list<sup>2</sup>. The competent authority may admit to the official list such securities<sup>3</sup> and other things as it considers appropriate<sup>4</sup>. However, nothing may be admitted to the official list except in accordance with Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, and the Treasury<sup>5</sup> may by order provide that anything which falls within a description or category specified in the order may not be admitted to the official list<sup>6</sup>.

Part VI rules<sup>7</sup> may make different provision for different cases<sup>8</sup>. Part VI rules may authorise the competent authority to dispense with or modify the application of the rules in particular cases and by reference to any circumstances<sup>9</sup>. Part VI rules must be made by an instrument in writing<sup>10</sup>. Immediately after an instrument containing Part VI rules is made, it must be printed and made available to the public with or without payment<sup>11</sup>. The production of a printed copy of an instrument purporting to be made by the competent authority on which is indorsed a certificate signed by an officer of the authority authorised by it for that purpose and stating: (1) that the instrument was made by the authority; (2) that the copy is a true copy of the instrument; and (3) that on a specified date the instrument was made available to the public<sup>12</sup>, is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 74(1). 'Official list' means the list maintained by the competent authority as that list has effect for the time being: s 103(1) (s 103 substituted by SI 2005/1433). 'Listing' means being included in the official list in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103): ss 74(5), 103(1) (as so substituted).

3 As to the meaning of 'securities' see PARA 385 note 21.

5 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 74(3). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made. As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

7 As to the meaning of 'Part VI rules' see PARA 385.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(1) (s 101(1)-(5) amended by SI 2005/381).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(2) (as amended: see note 8).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(3) (as amended: see note 8).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(4) (as amended: see note 8). A person is not to be taken to have contravened any Part VI rule if he shows that at the time of the alleged contravention the instrument containing the rule had not been made available as required by s 101(4): s 101(5) (as so amended).

12 Ie as required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(4): see the text and note 11.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 101(6). A certificate purporting to be signed as mentioned in s 101(6) is to be treated as having been properly signed unless the contrary is shown: s 101(7). A person who wishes in any legal proceedings to rely on a rule-making instrument may require the Financial Services Authority to indorse a copy of the instrument with a certificate of the kind mentioned in s 101(6): s 101(8). As to the meaning of 'rule-making instrument' see PARA 24.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/ (ii) Listing/388. Applications for listing.

388. Applications for listing.

Admission to the official list<sup>1</sup> may be granted only on an application made to the competent authority<sup>2</sup> in such manner as may be required by listing rules<sup>3</sup>. No application for listing<sup>4</sup> may be entertained by the competent authority unless it is made by, or with the consent of, the issuer<sup>5</sup> of the securities<sup>6</sup> concerned<sup>7</sup>. Nor may any application for listing be entertained by the competent authority in respect of securities which are to be issued by a body of a prescribed kind<sup>8</sup>. The competent authority may not grant an application for listing unless it is satisfied that: (1) the requirements of listing rules (so far as they apply to the application); and (2) any other requirements imposed by the authority in relation to the application, are complied with<sup>9</sup>.

An application for listing may be refused if, for a reason relating to the issuer, the competent authority considers that granting it would be detrimental to the interests of investors<sup>10</sup>. An application for listing securities which are already officially listed in another EEA state may be refused if the issuer has failed to comply with any obligations to which he is subject as a result of that listing<sup>11</sup>.

The competent authority must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for listing: (a) before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which the application is received<sup>12</sup>; or (b) if within that period the authority has required the applicant to provide further information in connection with the application, before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which that information is provided<sup>13</sup>. If the competent authority fails to comply with this requirement, it is to be taken to have decided to refuse the application<sup>14</sup>.

If the competent authority decides to grant an application for listing, it must give the applicant written notice<sup>15</sup>. If the competent authority proposes to refuse an application for listing, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>16</sup>. If the competent authority decides to refuse an application for listing, it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>17</sup>. If the competent authority decides to refuse an application for listing, the applicant may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>18</sup>.

If securities are admitted to the official list, their admission may not be called in question on the ground that any requirement or condition for their admission has not been complied with<sup>19</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(ii) Listing/389. Discontinuance and suspension of listing.

389. Discontinuance and suspension of listing.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may, in accordance with listing rules<sup>2</sup>, discontinue the listing<sup>3</sup> of any securities<sup>4</sup> if satisfied that there are special circumstances which preclude normal regular dealings in them<sup>5</sup>. The competent authority may, in accordance with listing rules, suspend the listing of any securities<sup>6</sup>. If the competent authority discontinues or suspends the listing of any securities, on its own initiative, the issuer may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>.

A discontinuance<sup>8</sup> or suspension<sup>9</sup> by the competent authority on its own initiative takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice mentioned below<sup>10</sup> states that that is the case; (2) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in that notice<sup>11</sup>. If on its own initiative the competent authority proposes to discontinue or suspend the listing of securities, or discontinues or suspends the listing of securities with immediate effect, it must give the issuer of the securities written notice<sup>12</sup>. The notice must:

- 971 (a) give details of the discontinuance or suspension<sup>13</sup>;
- 972 (b) state the competent authority's reasons for the discontinuance or suspension and for choosing the date on which it took effect or takes effect<sup>14</sup>;
- 973 (c) inform the issuer of the securities that he may make representations to the competent authority within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Tribunal)<sup>15</sup>;
- 974 (d) inform him of the date on which the discontinuance or suspension took effect or will take effect<sup>16</sup>; and
- 975 (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>17</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by the issuer of the securities, the competent authority decides to discontinue or suspend the listing of the securities or, where the discontinuance or suspension has taken effect, it decides not to cancel it, the competent authority must give the issuer of the securities written notice<sup>18</sup>. If the competent authority decides not to discontinue or suspend the listing of the securities, or if it decides, where the discontinuance or suspension has taken effect, to cancel it, the competent authority must give the issuer of the securities written notice<sup>19</sup>. The effect of cancelling a discontinuance is that the securities concerned are to be readmitted, without more, to the official list<sup>20</sup>. If the competent authority has suspended the listing of securities on its own initiative and proposes to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the cancellation of the suspension, it must give him a warning notice<sup>21</sup>. The competent authority must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice: if it decides to refuse the application, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice<sup>22</sup>; and if it grants the application, give him written notice of its decision<sup>23</sup>. If the competent authority decides to refuse an application for the cancellation of the suspension of listed securities, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>24</sup>.

A discontinuance<sup>25</sup> or suspension<sup>26</sup> by the competent authority on the application of the issuer of the securities takes effect: (i) immediately, if the notice mentioned below<sup>27</sup> states that this is the case; (ii) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in that notice<sup>28</sup>. If the competent authority discontinues or suspends the listing of securities on the application of the issuer of the securities it must give him written notice<sup>29</sup>. The notice must:

- 976 (A) give details of the discontinuance or suspension<sup>30</sup>;
- 977 (B) inform the issuer of the securities of the date on which the discontinuance or suspension took effect or will take effect<sup>31</sup>; and
- 978 (C) inform the issuer of his right to apply for the cancellation of the suspension<sup>32</sup>.

If the competent authority proposes to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the discontinuance or suspension of the listing of the securities, it must give him a warning notice<sup>33</sup>. The competent authority must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, if it decides to refuse the application, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice<sup>34</sup>. If the competent authority decides to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the discontinuance or suspension of the listing of the securities, the issuer may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>35</sup>. If the competent authority has suspended the listing of securities on the application of the issuer of the securities and proposes to refuse an application by the issuer for the cancellation of the suspension, it must give him a warning notice<sup>36</sup>. The competent authority must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice: if it decides to refuse the application for the cancellation of the suspension, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice; and if it grants the application, give him written notice of its decision<sup>37</sup>. If the competent authority decides to refuse an application for the cancellation of the suspension of listed securities, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>38</sup>.

390. Disclosure rules.

Disclosure rules<sup>1</sup> must include provision specifying the disclosure of information requirements to be complied with by:

- 979 (1) issuers<sup>2</sup> who have requested or approved admission of their financial instruments<sup>3</sup> to trading on a regulated market<sup>4</sup> in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>;
 980 (2) persons acting on behalf of or for the account of such issuers<sup>6</sup>;
 981 (3) persons discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer<sup>7</sup> (a) who is registered in the United Kingdom and who has requested or approved admission of its shares to trading on a regulated market<sup>8</sup>; or (b) who is not registered in the United Kingdom or any other EEA state but who has requested or approved admission of its shares to trading on a regulated market and who is required in accordance with the Prospectus Directive<sup>9</sup> to file annual information in relation to the shares in the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
 982 (4) persons connected<sup>11</sup> to such persons discharging managerial responsibilities<sup>12</sup>.

The rules must in particular:

- 983 (a) require an issuer to publish specified inside information<sup>13</sup>;
 984 (b) require an issuer to publish any significant change concerning information it has already published in accordance with head (a) above<sup>14</sup>;
 985 (c) allow an issuer to delay the publication of inside information in specified circumstances<sup>15</sup>;
 986 (d) require an issuer (or a person acting on his behalf or for his account) who discloses inside information to a third party to publish that information without delay in specified circumstances<sup>16</sup>;
 987 (e) require an issuer (or person acting on his behalf or for his account) to draw up a list of those persons working for him who have access to inside information relating directly or indirectly to that issuer<sup>17</sup>; and
 988 (f) require persons discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer falling within heads (3)(a) or (b) above, and persons connected to such persons discharging managerial responsibilities, to disclose transactions conducted on their own account in shares of the issuer, or derivatives or any other financial instrument relating to those shares<sup>18</sup>.

Disclosure rules may make also provision with respect to the action that may be taken by the competent authority in respect of non-compliance<sup>19</sup>.

The competent authority may, in accordance with disclosure rules, suspend trading in a financial instrument<sup>20</sup>. If it does so, the issuer of that financial instrument may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>21</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'disclosure rules' see PARA 385 note 18.

2 As to the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 385 note 21.

3 As to the meaning of 'financial instrument' see PARA 385 note 12.

4 As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 385 note 13.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(1)(a) (ss 96A-96C added by SI 2005/381). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. These provisions were inserted to implement the provisions of the Market Abuse Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 16) on insider dealing and market manipulation).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(1)(b) (as added: see note 5).

7 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) relating to disclosure rules, a 'person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer' means (1) a director of an issuer falling within head (3)(a) or (b) in the text; or (2) a senior executive of such an issuer who has regular access to inside information relating, directly or indirectly, to the issuer, and has power to make managerial decisions affecting the future development and business prospects of the issuer: s 96B(1) (as added (see note 5); and amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 7(b)). As to the meaning of 'inside information' see PARA 438; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (s 103 substituted by SI 2005/1433).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(1)(c)(i) (as added: see note 5).

9 le in accordance with the European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading, art 10.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(1)(c)(ii) (as added: see note 5).

11 A person 'connected' with a person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer means: (1) a 'connected person' within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 ss 252-255 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 346) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARAS 481, 482) (reading those provisions as if any reference to a director of a company were a reference to a person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer); (2) a relative of a person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer, who, on the date of the transaction in question, has shared the same household as that person for at least 12 months; (3) a body corporate in which (a) a person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer, or (b) any person connected with him by virtue of head (1) or (2) above, is a director or a senior executive who has the power to make management decisions affecting the future development and business prospects of that body corporate: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96B(2) (as added: see note 5).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(1)(d) (as added: see note 5).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 96A(2)(a) (as added: see note 5).

390 Disclosure rules

NOTE 11--The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11B (added by SI 2009/2461) (connected persons) has effect for the purposes of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI relating to disclosure rules: 96B(2) (substituted by SI 2009/2461).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iii) Listing Particulars/391. Listing particulars and other documents.

(iii) Listing Particulars

391. Listing particulars and other documents.

Listing rules<sup>1</sup> may provide that securities<sup>2</sup> of a kind specified in the rules may not be admitted to the official list<sup>3</sup> unless: (1) listing particulars<sup>4</sup> have been submitted to, and approved by, the competent authority<sup>5</sup> and published; or (2) in such cases as may be specified by listing rules, such document (other than listing particulars or a prospectus of a kind required by listing rules) as may be so specified has been published<sup>6</sup>.

For the purposes of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>7</sup>, the persons responsible for listing particulars are to be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury<sup>8</sup>. The persons responsible for listing particulars (including supplementary listing particulars) are<sup>9</sup>:

- 989 (a) the issuer of the securities to which the particulars relate<sup>10</sup>;
- 990 (b) where the issuer is a body corporate, each person who is a director of that body at the time when the particulars are submitted to the competent authority<sup>11</sup>;
- 991 (c) where the issuer is a body corporate, each person who has authorised himself to be named, and is named, in the particulars as a director or as having agreed to become a director of that body either immediately or at a future time<sup>12</sup>;
- 992 (d) each person who accepts, and is stated in the particulars as accepting, responsibility for the particulars<sup>13</sup>;
- 993 (e) each person not falling within heads (a) to (d) above who has authorised the contents of the particulars<sup>14</sup>.

Special provision is made in relation to securities issued in connection with takeovers and mergers<sup>15</sup>, successor companies under legislation relating to electricity<sup>16</sup>, and specialist securities<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'listing rules' see PARA 385 note 18.

2 As to the meaning of 'securities' see PARA 385 note 21.

3 As to the meaning of 'official list' see PARA 387 note 2.

4 'Listing particulars' means a document in such form and containing such information as may be specified in listing rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 79(2), 103(1) (s 103 substituted by SI 2005/1433). As to the meaning of 'documents' see PARA 10 note 10.

5 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6-37 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 79(1) (amended by SI 2005/1433). Listing rules made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 79(1) may not specify securities of a kind for which an approved prospectus is required as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85 (see PARA 397): s 79(3A) (added by SI 2005/1433). Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 79 affects the competent authority's general power to make listing rules: s 79(4).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 79(3). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the regulations made see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956; and the text and notes 9-17. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1). This is expressed to be subject to regs 7-10 (see the text and notes 15-17). As to supplementary listing particulars see PARA 393. Nothing in reg 6 is to be construed as making a person responsible for any particulars by reason of giving advice as to their contents in a professional capacity: reg 6(4). Where by virtue of reg 6 the issuer of any shares pays or is liable to pay compensation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90 (see PARA 427) for loss suffered in respect of shares for which a person has subscribed, no account is to be taken of that liability or payment in determining any question as to the amount paid on subscription for those shares or as to the amount paid up or deemed to be paid up on them: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(5). As to the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 385 note 21.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1)(b). As to bodies corporate see generally COMPANIES; CORPORATIONS. A person is not to be treated as responsible for any particulars by virtue of reg 6(1)(b) if they are published without his knowledge or consent and on becoming aware of their publication he forthwith gives reasonable public notice that they were published without his knowledge or consent: reg 6(2).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1)(c).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1)(d). When accepting responsibility for particulars under reg 6(1)(d) or authorising their contents under reg 6(1)(e) (see head (e) in the text), a person may state that he does so only in relation to specified parts of the particulars, or only in specified respects; and in such a case he is responsible under reg 6(1)(d) or reg 6(1)(e) only to the extent specified, and only if the material in question is included in (or substantially in) the form and context to which he has agreed: reg 6(3).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1)(e). See note 13.

15 Where: (1) listing particulars relate to securities which are to be issued in connection with (a) an offer by the issuer (or by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the issuer) for securities issued by another person ('A'); (b) an agreement for the acquisition by the issuer (or by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the issuer) of securities issued by another person ('A'); or (c) any arrangement whereby the whole of the undertaking of another person ('A') is to become the undertaking of the issuer (or of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the issuer, or of a body corporate which will become such a subsidiary by virtue of the arrangement); and (2) each of the specified persons is responsible by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6(1)(d) for any part (the 'relevant part') of the particulars relating to A or to the securities or undertaking to which the offer, agreement or arrangement relates, no person is to be treated as responsible for the relevant part of the particulars under reg 6(1)(a), (b) or (c) (see heads (a)-(c) in the text) but without prejudice to his being responsible under reg 6(1)(d) (see head (d) in the text): reg 7(1), (3). In head (2) above, the 'specified persons' are A; and where A is a body corporate, each person who is a director of A at the time when the particulars are submitted to the competent authority, and each other person who has authorised himself to be named, and is named, in the particulars as a director of A: reg 7(2). For these purposes, 'listing particulars' includes supplementary listing particulars; and 'wholly-owned subsidiary' is to be construed in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 s 736 (prospectively repealed) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 25) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 s 1159) (and, in relation to an issuer which is not a body corporate, means a body corporate which would be a wholly-owned subsidiary of the issuer within the meaning of that provision if the issuer were a body corporate): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 7(4).

16 Where: (1) the same document contains listing particulars (including supplementary listing particulars) relating to the securities of two or more successor companies within the meaning of the Electricity Act 1989 Pt II (ss 65-95) (see FUEL AND ENERGY vol 19(2) (2008 Reissue) para 1034), or two or more successor companies within the meaning of the Electricity (Northern Ireland) Order 1992, SI 1992/231 (NI 1), Pt III (arts 68-91); and (2) the responsibility of any person for any information included in the document (the 'relevant information') is stated in the document to be confined to its inclusion as part of the particulars relating to the securities of any one of those companies, that person is not to be treated as responsible, by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 6 (see the text and notes 9-14), for the relevant information in so far as it is stated in the document to form part of the particulars relating to the securities of any other of those companies: reg 8.

17 Where listing particulars (including supplementary listing particulars) relate to securities of a kind specified by listing rules for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 82(1)(c) (see PARA 394), other than securities which are to be issued in the circumstances mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Official Listing of Securities) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2956, reg 7(1)(a) (see note 15 head (1)), no person is to be treated as responsible for the particulars under reg 6(1)(a), (b) or (c) (see heads (a)-(c) in the text) although this is without prejudice to his being responsible under reg 6(1)(d) (see head (d) in the text): reg 9.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iii) Listing Particulars/392. General duty of disclosure in listing particulars.

392. General duty of disclosure in listing particulars.

Listing particulars<sup>1</sup> submitted to the competent authority<sup>2</sup> must contain all such information as investors and their professional advisers would reasonably require, and reasonably expect to find there, for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, and prospects of the issuer<sup>3</sup> of the securities<sup>4</sup>, and of the rights attaching to the securities<sup>5</sup>. This requirement applies only to information: (1) within the knowledge of any person responsible for the listing particulars<sup>6</sup>; or (2) which it would be reasonable for him to obtain by making inquiries<sup>7</sup>.

In determining what information is required to be included in listing particulars, regard must be had (in particular) to: (a) the nature of the securities and their issuer<sup>8</sup>; (b) the nature of the persons likely to consider acquiring them<sup>9</sup>; (c) the fact that certain matters may reasonably be expected to be within the knowledge of professional advisers of a kind which persons likely to acquire the securities may reasonably be expected to consult<sup>10</sup>; and (d) any information available to investors or their professional advisers as a result of requirements imposed on the issuer of the securities by a recognised investment exchange<sup>11</sup>, by listing rules<sup>12</sup>, or by or under any other enactment<sup>13</sup>.

The information specified above is required in addition to any information required by listing rules, or the competent authority, as a condition of the admission of the securities to the official list<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'listing particulars' see PARA 391 note 4.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iii) Listing Particulars/393. Supplementary listing particulars.

393. Supplementary listing particulars.

If at any time after the preparation of listing particulars<sup>1</sup> which have been submitted to the competent authority<sup>2</sup> and before the commencement of dealings in the securities<sup>3</sup> concerned following their admission to the official list<sup>4</sup> there is a significant<sup>5</sup> change affecting any matter contained in the particulars<sup>6</sup>, or a significant new matter arises<sup>7</sup>, the issuer<sup>8</sup> must, in accordance with listing rules, submit supplementary listing particulars of the change or new matter to the competent authority for its approval and, if they are approved, publish them<sup>9</sup>. If the issuer of the securities is not aware of the change or new matter in question, he is not under a duty to comply with this requirement unless he is notified of the change or new matter by a person responsible for the listing particulars<sup>10</sup>. It is the duty of any person responsible for those particulars who is aware of such a change or new matter to give notice of it to the issuer<sup>11</sup>.

394. Exemptions from disclosure.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may authorise the omission from listing particulars<sup>2</sup> of any information, the inclusion of which would otherwise be required<sup>3</sup>, on the ground: (1) that its disclosure would be contrary to the public interest; (2) that its disclosure would be seriously detrimental to the issuer<sup>4</sup>; or (3) in the case of securities<sup>5</sup> of a kind specified in listing rules<sup>6</sup>, that its disclosure is unnecessary for persons of the kind who may be expected normally to buy or deal in securities of that kind<sup>7</sup>. However, no authority may be granted under head (2) above in respect of essential information<sup>8</sup>, and no authority granted under head (2) above extends to any such information<sup>9</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>10</sup> or the Treasury<sup>11</sup> may issue a certificate to the effect that the disclosure of any information (including information that would otherwise have to be included in listing particulars for which they are themselves responsible) would be contrary to the public interest<sup>12</sup>. The competent authority is entitled to act on any such certificate in exercising its powers under head (1) above<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'listing particulars' see PARA 391 note 4. For these purposes, 'listing particulars' includes supplementary listing particulars: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 82(7). As to supplementary listing particulars see PARA 393.

3 As required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 80 (see PARA 392) or s 81 (see PARA 393).

A. TRANSFERABLE SECURITIES: PUBLIC OFFERS AND ADMISSION TO TRADING

395. Transferable securities.

Transferable securities for the purposes of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to public offers and admission to trading<sup>1</sup> are:

- 994 (1) units<sup>2</sup> in an open-ended collective investment scheme<sup>3</sup>;
- 995 (2) non-equity transferable securities<sup>4</sup> issued by (a) the government of an EEA state; (b) a local or regional authority of an EEA state; (c) a public international body of which an EEA state is a member; (d) the European Central Bank; (e) the central bank of an EEA state<sup>5</sup>;
- 996 (3) shares in the share capital of the central bank of an EEA state<sup>6</sup>;
- 997 (4) transferable securities unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by the government, or a local or regional authority, of an EEA state<sup>7</sup>;
- 998 (5) non-equity transferable securities, issued in a continuous or repeated manner by a credit institution, which (a) are not subordinated, convertible or exchangeable; (b) do not give a right to subscribe to or acquire other types of securities and are not linked to a derivative instrument; (c) materialise reception of repayable deposits; and (d) are covered<sup>8</sup> by a deposit guarantee<sup>9</sup>;
- 999 (6) non-fungible shares of capital (a) the main purpose of which is to provide the holder with a right to occupy any immovable property; and (b) which cannot be sold without that right being given up<sup>10</sup>;
- 1000 (7) transferable securities issued by a specified body<sup>11</sup> if, and only if, the proceeds of the offer of the transferable securities to the public will be used solely for the purposes of the issuer's objectives<sup>12</sup>;
- 1001 (8) non-equity transferable securities, issued in a continuous or repeated manner by a credit institution<sup>13</sup>, which satisfy specified conditions<sup>14</sup>;
- 1002 (9) transferable securities included in an offer where the total consideration of the offer is less than 2,500,000 euros (or an equivalent amount)<sup>15</sup>.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 6 (as added: see note 3).

11 The bodies are (1) a charity within the meaning of the Charities Act 1993 s 96(1) (see CHARITIES vol 8 (2010 Reissue) PARA 1) or the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 1964 s 35; (2) a body entered in the Scottish Charity Register; (3) a housing association within the meaning of the Housing Act 1985 s 5(1) (see HOUSING vol 22 (2006 Reissue) PARA 11), the Housing Associations Act 1985 s 1 (see HOUSING vol 22 (2006 Reissue) PARA 11) or the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1992, SI 1992/1725, art 3; (4) an industrial and provident society registered in accordance with the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 s 1(2)(b) (see PARA 2402) or the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 s 1(2)(b); (5) a non-profit making association or body recognised by an EEA state with objectives similar to those of a body falling within any of heads (1)-(4) above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 7(2) (as added (see note 3); amended by SI 2006/242).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 7(1) (as added: see note 3).

13 'Credit institution' in this context means a credit institution as defined in European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2006/48 relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions, art 4(1)(a): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 8(6) (as added (see note 3); amended by SI 2006/3221).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 8(1) (as added: see note 3). The conditions are (1) that the total consideration of the offer is less than 50m euros (or an equivalent amount); and (2) those mentioned in head (5)(a) and (b) in the text: Sch 11A para 8(2) (as so added). In determining whether head (1) is satisfied in relation to an offer ('offer A'), offer A is to be taken together with any other offer of transferable securities of the same class made by the same person which was open at any time within the period of 12 months ending with the date on which offer A is first made; and had previously satisfied head (1): Sch 11A para 8(3) (as so added).

For these purposes, an amount (in relation to an amount denominated in euros) is an 'equivalent amount' if it is an amount of equal value denominated wholly or partly in another currency or unit of account: Sch 11A para 8(4) (as so added). The equivalent is to be calculated at the latest practicable date before (but in any event not more than three working days before) the date on which the offer is first made: Sch 11A para 8(5) (as so added).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A para 9(1) (as added: see note 3). Schedule 11A para 8(3)-(5) (see note 14) applies for these purposes but with the references in Sch 11A para 8(3) to head (1) being read as references to Sch 11A para 9(1): Sch 11A para 9(2) (as so added).

395 Transferable securities

NOTE 8--Directive 94/19 amended: European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/1 (OJ L79, 24.3.2005, p 9); European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2009/14 (OJ L68, 13.3.2009, p 3).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/A. TRANSFERABLE SECURITIES: PUBLIC OFFERS AND ADMISSION TO TRADING/396. Matters which may be dealt with by prospectus rules.

396. Matters which may be dealt with by prospectus rules.

Prospectus rules<sup>1</sup> may make provision as to:

- 1003 (1) the required form and content of a prospectus (including a summary)<sup>2</sup>;
- 1004 (2) the cases in which a summary need not be included in a prospectus<sup>3</sup>;
- 1005 (3) the languages which may be used in a prospectus (including a summary)<sup>4</sup>;

- 1006 (4) the determination of the persons responsible for a prospectus<sup>5</sup>;
- 1007 (5) the manner in which applications to the competent authority<sup>6</sup> for the approval of a prospectus are to be made<sup>7</sup>.

Prospectus rules may also make provision as to:

- 1008 (a) the period of validity of a prospectus<sup>8</sup>;
- 1009 (b) the disclosure of the maximum price or of the criteria or conditions according to which the final offer price is to be determined, if that information is not contained in a prospectus<sup>9</sup>;
- 1010 (c) the disclosure of the amount of the transferable securities<sup>10</sup> which are to be offered to the public or of the criteria or conditions according to which that amount is to be determined, if that information is not contained in a prospectus<sup>11</sup>;
- 1011 (d) the required form and content of other summary documents (including the languages which may be used in such a document)<sup>12</sup>;
- 1012 (e) the ways in which a prospectus that has been approved by the competent authority may be made available to the public<sup>13</sup>;
- 1013 (f) the disclosure, publication or other communication of such information as the competent authority may reasonably stipulate<sup>14</sup>;
- 1014 (g) the principles to be observed in relation to advertisements in connection with an offer of transferable securities to the public or admission of transferable securities to trading on a regulated market<sup>15</sup> and the enforcement of those principles<sup>16</sup>;
- 1015 (h) the suspension of trading in transferable securities where continued trading would be detrimental to the interests of investors<sup>17</sup>;
- 1016 (i) elections to have a prospectus<sup>18</sup>.

Prospectus rules may also make provision as to access to the register of investors<sup>19</sup>, and the supply of information from that register<sup>20</sup>. Prospectus rules may make provision for the purpose of dealing with matters arising out of or related to any provision of the Prospectus Directive<sup>21</sup>.

In relation to cases where the home state<sup>22</sup> in relation to an issuer<sup>23</sup> of transferable securities is an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>24</sup>, prospectus rules may make provision for the recognition of elections<sup>25</sup>. In relation to a document relating to transferable securities issued by an issuer incorporated in a non-EEA state and drawn up in accordance with the law of that state, prospectus rules may make provision as to the approval of that document as a prospectus<sup>26</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions above affects the competent authority's general power to make prospectus rules<sup>27</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/A. TRANSFERABLE SECURITIES: PUBLIC OFFERS AND ADMISSION TO TRADING/397. Prohibition of dealing etc in transferable securities without approved prospectus.

397. Prohibition of dealing etc in transferable securities without approved prospectus.

It is unlawful for transferable securities<sup>1</sup> other than (1) certain listed securities<sup>2</sup>, (2) such other transferable securities as may be specified in prospectus rules<sup>3</sup>, to be offered to the public in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> unless an approved prospectus<sup>5</sup> has been made available to the public before the offer is made<sup>6</sup>;

It is also unlawful to request the admission of transferable securities other than (a) certain listed securities<sup>7</sup>, (b) such other transferable securities as may be specified in prospectus rules<sup>8</sup>, to trading on a regulated market<sup>9</sup> situated or operating in the United Kingdom unless an approved prospectus has been made available to the public before the request is made<sup>10</sup>.

A person who contravenes the provisions above is guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty<sup>11</sup>.

A person does not contravene those provisions if:

- 1017 (i) the offer is made to or directed at qualified investors<sup>12</sup> only<sup>13</sup>;
- 1018 (ii) the offer is made to or directed at fewer than 100 persons, other than qualified investors, per EEA state<sup>14</sup>;
- 1019 (iii) the minimum consideration which may be paid by any person for transferable securities acquired by him pursuant to the offer is at least 50,000 euros (or an equivalent amount)<sup>15</sup>;
- 1020 (iv) the transferable securities being offered are denominated in amounts of at least 50,000 euros (or equivalent amounts)<sup>16</sup>; or
- 1021 (v) the total consideration for the transferable securities being offered cannot exceed 100,000 euros (or an equivalent amount)<sup>17</sup>.

Where a person who is not a qualified investor (the 'client') has engaged a qualified investor<sup>18</sup> to act as his agent, and the terms on which the qualified investor is engaged enable him to make decisions concerning the acceptance of offers of transferable securities on the client's behalf without reference to the client, an offer made to or directed at the qualified investor is not to be regarded<sup>19</sup> as also having been made to or directed at the client<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to transferable securities see PARA 395.

2 I.e. those listed in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A (see PARA 395): see s 85(5)(a) (ss 85, 86 substituted by SI 2005/1433).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(5)(b) (as substituted: see note 2). As to the meaning of 'prospectus rules' see PARA 385 note 18.

4 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 'Approved prospectus' means, in relation to transferable securities to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85 applies, a prospectus approved by the competent authority of the home state in relation to the issuer of the securities: s 85(7) (as substituted: see note 2). As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(1) (as substituted: see note 2).

7 I.e. those listed in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 11A Pt 1 (paras 7-9) (see PARA 395): see s 85(6)(a) (as substituted: see note 2).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(6)(b) (as substituted: see note 2).

9 As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 385 note 13.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(2) (as substituted: see note 2).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(3) (as substituted: see note 2). Such a person is liable on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both: see s 85(3) (as so substituted). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

A contravention is actionable, at the suit of a person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty: s 85(4) (as so substituted).

12 'Qualified investor' means (1) an entity falling within European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading, art 2.1(e)(i), (ii) or (iii); (2) an investor registered on the register maintained by the competent authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87R (see PARA 414); (3) an investor authorised by an EEA state other than the United Kingdom to be considered as a qualified investor for the purposes of European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 85(7) (as substituted: see note 2).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86(1)(a) (as substituted: see note 2).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 2). For these purposes, the making of an offer of transferable securities to (1) trustees of a trust; (2) members of a partnership in their capacity as such; or (3) two or more persons jointly, is to be treated as the making of an offer to a single person: s 86(3) (as so substituted).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86(1)(c) (as substituted: see note 2). For the purposes of s 86, an amount (in relation to an amount denominated in euros) is an 'equivalent amount' if it is an amount of equal value denominated wholly or partly in another currency or unit of account: s 86(5) (as so substituted).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86(1)(d) (as substituted: see note 2).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86(1)(e) (as substituted: see note 2). In determining whether head (v) in the text is satisfied in relation to an offer ('offer A'), offer A is to be taken together with any other offer of transferable securities of the same class made by the same person which was open at any time within the period of 12 months ending with the date on which offer A is first made, and had previously satisfied head (v): s 86(4) (as so substituted).

18 le falling within European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) art 2.1(e)(i).

19 le for the purposes of heads (i)-(iv) in the text.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/A. TRANSFERABLE SECURITIES: PUBLIC OFFERS AND ADMISSION TO TRADING/398. Election to have prospectus.

398. Election to have prospectus.

A person who proposes:

- 1022 (1) to issue certain transferable securities<sup>1</sup>;
- 1023 (2) to offer to the public such transferable securities<sup>2</sup>; or
- 1024 (3) to request the admission to a regulated market<sup>3</sup> of such transferable securities<sup>4</sup>, may elect, in accordance with prospectus rules<sup>5</sup>, to have a prospectus in relation to the securities<sup>6</sup>.

If a person makes such an election, the provisions of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>7</sup> and of prospectus rules apply in relation to those transferable securities as if, in relation to an offer of the securities to the public or the admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market, they were transferable securities for which an approved prospectus would be required<sup>8</sup>.

Listing rules<sup>9</sup> do not apply to securities which are the subject of an election<sup>10</sup>.

- 1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87(1)(a) (s 87 substituted by SI 2005/1433). The reference is to transferable securities falling within Sch 11A para 2, 4, 8 or 9 (see PARA 395) where the United Kingdom is the home state in relation to the issuer of the securities: s 87(4) (s 87 as so substituted). As to the meaning of 'home state' see PARA 385 note 22. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.
- 2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/B. APPROVAL OF PROSPECTUS/399. Criteria for approval of prospectus by competent authority.

B. APPROVAL OF PROSPECTUS

399. Criteria for approval of prospectus by competent authority.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may not approve a prospectus<sup>2</sup> unless it is satisfied that:

- 1025 (1) the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> is the home state<sup>4</sup> in relation to the issuer<sup>5</sup> of the transferable securities<sup>6</sup> to which it relates<sup>7</sup>;
- 1026 (2) the prospectus contains the necessary information<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1027 (3) all of the other requirements imposed by or in accordance with Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup> or the Prospectus Directive<sup>10</sup> have been complied with (so far as those requirements apply to a prospectus for the transferable securities in question)<sup>11</sup>.

The necessary information is the information necessary to enable investors to make an informed assessment of:

- 1028 (a) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, and prospects of the issuer of the transferable securities and of any guarantor<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1029 (b) the rights attaching to the transferable securities<sup>13</sup>.

The necessary information must be presented in a form which is comprehensible and easy to analyse<sup>14</sup> and must be prepared having regard to the particular nature of the transferable securities and their issuer<sup>15</sup>.

The prospectus must include a summary (unless the transferable securities in question are ones in relation to which prospectus rules provide that a summary is not required)<sup>16</sup>. The summary must, briefly and in non-technical language, convey the essential characteristics of, and risks associated with, the issuer, any guarantor and the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates<sup>17</sup>. Where the prospectus for which approval is sought does not include the final offer price or the amount of transferable securities to be offered to the public, the applicant must inform the competent authority in writing of that information as soon as that element is finalised<sup>18</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Prospectus' (except in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87(5) (see the text and note 16)) includes a supplementary prospectus: s 87A(8) (s 87A added by SI 2005/1433). As to supplementary prospectuses see PARA 403.

3 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

4 As to the meaning of 'home state' see PARA 385 note 22.

5 As to the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 385 note 21.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/B. APPROVAL OF PROSPECTUS/400. Exemptions from disclosure.

400. Exemptions from disclosure.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may authorise the omission from a prospectus<sup>2</sup> of any information, the inclusion of which would otherwise be required, on the ground (1) that its disclosure would be contrary to the public interest<sup>3</sup>; (2) that its disclosure would be seriously detrimental to the issuer<sup>4</sup>, provided that the omission would be unlikely to mislead the public with regard to any facts or circumstances which are essential for an informed assessment<sup>5</sup>; or (3) that the information is only of minor importance for a specific offer to the public or admission to trading on a regulated market<sup>6</sup> and unlikely to influence an informed assessment<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> or the Treasury<sup>9</sup> may issue a certificate to the effect that the disclosure of any information would be contrary to the public interest<sup>10</sup>. The competent authority is entitled to act on any such certificate in exercising its powers under head (1) above<sup>11</sup>.

The provisions above do not affect any powers of the competent authority under prospectus rules<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Prospectus' includes a supplementary prospectus: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87B(5) (s 87B added by SI 2005/1433). As to supplementary prospectuses see PARA 403.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/B. APPROVAL OF PROSPECTUS/401. Applications for approval.

401. Applications for approval.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for approval of a prospectus before the end of the period for consideration<sup>2</sup>. It may by notice<sup>3</sup> in writing require a person who has applied for approval of a prospectus to provide specified documents or documents of a specified description<sup>4</sup>; or specified information or information of a specified description<sup>5</sup>.

The competent authority must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for approval of a supplementary prospectus before the end of the period of seven working days beginning with the date on which the application is received<sup>6</sup>.

If the competent authority (1) approves a prospectus<sup>7</sup>; (2) proposes to refuse to approve a prospectus<sup>8</sup>; (3) decides to refuse to approve a prospectus<sup>9</sup>, it must give the applicant written notice<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(1) (ss 87C, 87D added by SI 2005/1433). The competent authority's failure to comply with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(1) or (9) (see note 6) does not constitute approval of the application in question: s 87C(10) (as so added).

The period for consideration (1) begins with the first working day after the date on which the application is received; but (2) if the competent authority gives a notice under s 87C(4), is to be treated as beginning with the first working day after the date on which the notice is complied with: s 87C(2) (as so added). The period for consideration is (a) except in the case of a new issuer, ten working days; or (b) in that case, 20 working days: s 87C(3) (as so substituted). 'New issuer' means an issuer of transferable securities which does not have transferable securities admitted to trading on any regulated market, and has not previously offered transferable securities to the public: s 87C(11) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 385 note 13.

3 No notice may be given after the end of the period, beginning with the first working day after the date on which the application is received, of except in the case of a new issuer, ten working days; or in that case, 20 working days: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(5) (as added: see note 2).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(4)(a) (as added: see note 2). Section 87C(4) applies only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the competent authority of its functions in relation to the application: s 87C(6) (as so added).

The competent authority may require any information provided under s 87C to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require: s 87C(7) (as so added). It may require any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner, or any document produced to be authenticated in such manner, as it may reasonably require: s 87C(8) (as so added).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(4)(b) (as added: see note 2). See note 4.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C(9) (as added: see note 2). See also s 87C(10); and note 2. Section 87C(4), (6)-(8) (see the text and note 4) applies to an application under s 87C(9) as it applies to an application for approval of a prospectus: s 87C(9) (as so added).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87D(1) (as added: see note 2). In s 87D 'prospectus' includes a supplementary prospectus: s 87D(7) (as so added). As to supplementary prospectuses see PARA 403.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87D(2) (as added: see note 2). The notice must state the competent authority's reasons for the proposed refusal: s 87D(3) (as so added).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87D(4) (as added: see note 2). The notice of a decision must give the competent authority's reasons for refusing the application; and inform the applicant of his right to refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: s 87D(5) (as so added). If the competent authority refuses to approve a prospectus, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal: s 87D(6) (as so added). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/B. APPROVAL OF PROSPECTUS/402. Transfer of application for approval.

402. Transfer of application for approval.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may transfer an application for the approval of a prospectus or a supplementary prospectus to the competent authority of another EEA state (the 'transferee authority')<sup>2</sup>. Before doing so, the competent authority must obtain the agreement of the transferee authority<sup>3</sup>. The competent authority must inform the applicant of the transfer within three working days beginning with the first working day after the date of the transfer<sup>4</sup>. On making such a transfer, the competent authority ceases to have functions under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup> in relation to the application transferred<sup>6</sup>.

Where the competent authority agrees to the transfer to it of an application for the approval of a prospectus made to the competent authority of another EEA state, the United Kingdom is to be treated<sup>7</sup> as the home state in relation to the issuer of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/C. SUPPLEMENTARY PROSPECTUS/403. Where supplementary prospectus to be submitted.

C. SUPPLEMENTARY PROSPECTUS

403. Where supplementary prospectus to be submitted.

If, during the relevant period, there arises or is noted a significant<sup>1</sup> new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to the information included in a prospectus approved by the competent authority<sup>2</sup>, the person on whose application the prospectus was approved must, in accordance with prospectus rules<sup>3</sup>, submit a supplementary prospectus containing details of the new factor, mistake or inaccuracy to the competent authority for its approval<sup>4</sup>. The relevant period begins when the prospectus is approved and ends with the closure of the offer of the transferable securities<sup>5</sup> to which the prospectus relates; or when trading in those securities on a regulated market<sup>6</sup> begins<sup>7</sup>.

Any person responsible for the prospectus who is aware of any new factor, mistake or inaccuracy which may require the submission of a supplementary prospectus in accordance with the provision above must give notice of it to the issuer<sup>8</sup> of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates, and to the person on whose application the prospectus was approved<sup>9</sup>. A supplementary prospectus must provide sufficient information to correct any mistake or inaccuracy which gave rise to the need for it<sup>10</sup>.

1 'Significant' means significant for the purposes of making an informed assessment of the kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87A(2) (see PARA 399): s 87G(4) (s 87G added SI 2005/1433). This applies also to information contained in any supplementary prospectus published under s 87G: s 87G(7) (as so added).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/D. PASSPORTING/404. Passporting.

D. PASSPORTING

404. Passporting.

A prospectus<sup>1</sup> approved by the competent authority<sup>2</sup> of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> is not an approved prospectus<sup>4</sup> unless that authority has provided the competent authority with (1) a certificate of approval<sup>5</sup>; (2) a copy of the prospectus as approved<sup>6</sup>; and (3) if requested by the competent authority, a translation of the summary of the prospectus<sup>7</sup>. A document is not a certificate of approval unless it states that the prospectus has been drawn up in accordance with the Prospectus Directive<sup>8</sup>, and has been approved, in accordance with that directive, by the competent authority providing the certificate<sup>9</sup>. A document is not a certificate of approval unless it states whether (and, if so, why) the competent authority providing it authorised, in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, the omission from the prospectus of information which would otherwise have been required to be included<sup>10</sup>.

The competent authority must, if requested to do so, supply the competent authority of a specified EEA state with (a) a certificate of approval<sup>11</sup>; (b) a copy of the specified prospectus (as approved by the competent authority)<sup>12</sup>; and (c) a translation of the summary of the specified prospectus (if the request states that one has been requested by the other competent authority)<sup>13</sup>. Only the following may make a request under these provisions: (i) the issuer of the transferable securities<sup>9</sup> to which the specified prospectus relates<sup>14</sup>; (ii) a person who wishes to offer the transferable securities to which the specified prospectus relates to the public in an EEA state other than (or as well as) the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>; (iii) a person requesting the admission of the transferable securities to which the specified prospectus relates to a regulated market<sup>16</sup> situated or operating in an EEA state other than (or as well as) the United Kingdom<sup>17</sup>.

A certificate of approval must state that the prospectus has been drawn up in accordance with Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>18</sup> and the Prospectus Directive, and has been approved, in accordance with those provisions, by the competent authority<sup>19</sup>. A certificate of approval must state whether (and, if so, why) the competent authority authorised<sup>20</sup> the omission from the prospectus of information which would otherwise have been required to be included<sup>21</sup>. The competent authority must comply with a request<sup>22</sup> if the prospectus has been approved before the request is made, within three working days beginning with the date of the request; or if the request is submitted with an application for the approval of the prospectus, on the first working day after the date on which it approves the prospectus<sup>23</sup>.

406. Suspension or prohibition of offer to the public.

Where a person (the 'offeror') has made an offer of transferable securities<sup>1</sup> to the public<sup>2</sup> in the United Kingdom (the 'offer')<sup>3</sup>,

- 1034 (1) if the competent authority<sup>4</sup> has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable provision<sup>5</sup> has been infringed, it may (a) require the offeror to suspend the offer for a period not exceeding ten working days<sup>6</sup>; (b) require a person not to advertise the offer, or to take such steps as the authority may specify to suspend any existing advertisement of the offer, for a period not exceeding ten working days<sup>7</sup>;
- 1035 (2) if the competent authority has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is likely that an applicable provision will be infringed, it may require the offeror to withdraw the offer<sup>8</sup>;
- 1036 (3) if the competent authority finds that an applicable provision has been infringed, it may require the offeror to withdraw the offer<sup>9</sup>.

If the competent authority proposes to exercise the powers above in relation to a person, or exercises any of those powers in relation to a person with immediate effect, it must give that person written notice<sup>10</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(iv) Prospectuses/F. SUSPENSION AND REMOVAL OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS FROM TRADING/410. Financial Services Authority's power to require suspension or removal of financial instruments from trading.

F. SUSPENSION AND REMOVAL OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS FROM TRADING

410. Financial Services Authority's power to require suspension or removal of financial instruments from trading.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, for the purpose of protecting (1) the interests of investors; or (2) the orderly functioning of the financial markets, require an institution<sup>2</sup> to suspend or remove a financial instrument<sup>3</sup> from trading<sup>4</sup>.

If the Authority exercises the above power<sup>5</sup>, the institution concerned or, if any, the issuer<sup>6</sup> of the financial instrument concerned may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 'Institution' means: (1) a recognised investment exchange, other than an overseas investment exchange (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII (ss 285-313)) (see PARAS 684 note 1, 709 note 12); (2) an investment firm (see PARA 21 note 5); (3) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions), when carrying on investment services and activities (see PARA 355 note 11); or (4) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under that directive if it had its registered office (or if it does not have a registered office, its head office) in an EEA state, but does not include an EEA firm qualifying for authorisation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 (see PARA 315): s 313D (ss 313A, 313D added by SI 2007/126).

3 'Financial instrument' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.17: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313D (as added: see note 2).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313A(1) (as added: see note 2). For these purposes 'trading' includes trading otherwise than on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility: s 313A(3) (as so added). 'Regulated market' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.14: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313D (as so added). 'Multilateral trading facility' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.15: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313D (as so added).

5 Ie the power conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313A(1).

6 'Issuer', in relation to a financial instrument, means the person who issued the instrument: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313D (as added: see note 2).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313A(2) (as added: see note 2). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.
